SFSC Collateral Fees

To close on the BOA refinancing in March 2000, SFSC provided side collateral in the form of CPS debt and common stock to support the borrowings. Under this arrangement, SFSC was to receive a 5% collateral fee for as long as the collateral was in place. Such collateral remained in place until the Congress refinancing in December 2003. However, in January 2003, Mr. Bradley agreed to absorb this collateral fee expense to SFSC on a going forward basis with no further obligation to the Company. In each of 2002 and 2001, the Company recorded interest expense of $283,000 related to this arrangement. No payments have been made under this arrangement during 2003 or 2002. During 2001, the Company made a $100,000 payment related to this arrangement. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, $690,041 is included in due to related party in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8. These collateral fees are included in the SFSC bankruptcy settlement described in ITEM 8, Note 14 under the heading "SFSC Litigation."

In March 2000, SFSC pledged a $5.0 million note from CPS to secure the obligations of NPSAC to the former owners of the business. NPSAC agreed to pay SFSC a 2% credit support fee for this pledge. The Company assumed this credit support obligation in the acquisition of NPSAC. No payments have been made under this arrangement during 2003 or 2002. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, accrued and unpaid fees totaling $293,943 and $226,990, respectively, were due to SFSC under this credit support obligation and included in due to related parties in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8.

Cash Surrender Value of Life Insurance Policies

The Company pays the premiums on life insurance policies covering Mr. Bradley, Mr. Joseph C. Lawyer (Mr. Lawyer), the Company's vice chairman and a director, and Mr. Poole. Pursuant to these arrangements, the Company will be reimbursed for the premiums it pays for such policies from either the death benefit of the policy or their cash surrender value. The covered individuals have agreed with the Company that if the policy proceeds are insufficient to reimburse the Company for the full amount of the premiums paid, they will cover the shortfall. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, premiums paid by the Company in excess of the cash surrender values of the policies totaled $940,000 and $1,031,000, respectively, and are included in due from related parties in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8.

Mr. Bradley Notes Payable

At the time of the merger, the Company assumed a note payable to Mr. Bradley related to pre-merger Reunion's plastics business. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, the balance of $1,017,000 is included in notes payable - related parties in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8. No interest was paid in 2003 or 2002. The note payable and any accrued and unpaid interest have been assigned to SFSC. During 2001, $55,000 was paid to SFSC related to this note payable. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, accrued and unpaid interest due related to this note payable of $280,166 and $168,283, respectively, is included in due to related parties in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8. This note payable is included in the SFSC bankruptcy settlement described in ITEM 8, Note 14 under the heading "SFSC Litigation."

In January 2003, Mr. Bradley made a $500,000 payment on behalf of the Company to the Shaw Group, former owner of Naptech Pressure Systems and holder of a $3,644,000 15% note payable assumed by Reunion in the NPSAC acquisition in January 2001. In exchange for the payment, the Company issued a $500,000 10% note payable to Mr. Bradley. The note payable and any accrued but unpaid interest is due on October 31, 2004. At December 31, 2003, accrued and unpaid interest related to this note totaled $50,000 and is included in due to related parties in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8. Mr. Bradley's rights under this note are subordinate to the Company's indebtedness to Congress.

Mr. Bradley Guarantees

To facilitate the closing of the refinancing of the Company's bank debt with Congress in December 2003, Mr. Bradley provided a personal guarantee of $1.5 million of the revolving credit portion of the new facilities. In exchange for his guarantee, the Board of Directors approved a 2% guarantee fee to be paid to Mr. Bradley during the time period such guarantee is in place. Amounts payable under this arrangement are being offset against an employee advance previously received by Mr. Bradley and owed to the Company. Such advance totaled $58,000 at the time of the refinancing and, through December 31, 2003, $2,384 of guarantee fees had been offset against such advance. See "Employee Advances" below.

At the time of the NPSAC acquisition by the Company, NPSAC was indebted to Mr. Bradley in connection with an agreement whereby Mr. Bradley guaranteed certain obligations of NPSAC to its former owners. At December 31, 2001, the Company owed Mr. Bradley a total of $90,000 related to this agreement. During 2002, Mr. Bradley assigned his right to this guarantee fee plus interest at approximately 11%, totaling $100,000, to two employees of the Company in repayment of loans totaling $100,000 made to Mr. Bradley by these employees. These employees also had received a total of $100,000 in advances from the Company during 2001. See "Employee Advances" below.

In exchange for his guarantees, the Board of Directors approved 2% guarantee fees to be paid to Kimball Bradley during the time period such guarantees are in place. Such advance totaled $55,000 at the time of the refinancing. In addition, Kimball Bradley owed the Company $19,000 for the December 2002 exercise of 95,000 options which had been repriced to $0.20. Through December 31, 2003, guarantee fees totaling $74,963 had been incurred by the Company, of which $74,000 was offset against amounts due from Kimball Bradley. The remaining $963 is included in due to related parties at December 31, 2003 in the consolidated balance sheet in ITEM 8. See "Employee Advances" below.

Employee Advances

At December 31, 2002, the Company had non-interest bearing advances due from two employees totaling $113,000. The highest balance during 2003 was $113,000. The highest balance during 2002 was $213,000. During 2002, two employees with advances totaling $100,000 repaid their advances by waiving their rights to the guarantee fee plus interest they received from Mr. Bradley.
