PROSPECTUS

83,720 SHARES

WEBSTER FINANCIAL CORPORATION

COMMON STOCK

The selling stockholders named in this prospectus may offer and sell up to 83,720 shares of Webster common stock. Webster issued the shares of common stock to the selling stockholders in connection with its acquisition of Fleming, Perry & Cox, Inc., and Webster is registering the offered shares as required by the terms of the acquisition agreement with the selling stockholders.

The selling stockholders may offer and sell their shares from time to time on the New York Stock Exchange or in private transactions at prevailing market prices or at privately negotiated prices. The registration of the offered shares does not necessarily mean that the shares will be offered or sold by the selling stockholders. Although Webster will incur expenses of approximately $11,248 in connection with registering the shares, Webster will not receive any of the proceeds from a sale of the shares by the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders, however, are responsible for their own brokerage commissions and similar expenses.

Webster common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WBS." On October 29, 2002, the closing price of Webster common stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $31.97 per share.

INVESTING IN WEBSTER FINANCIAL CORPORATION COMMON STOCK INVOLVES RISKS. PLEASE READ "RISK FACTORS" BEGINNING ON PAGE 3 BEFORE PURCHASING THE COMMON STOCK.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE. THESE SECURITIES ARE NOT DEPOSITS OR ACCOUNTS AND ARE NOT INSURED OR GUARANTEED BY THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY.

The selling stockholders may from time to time offer and sell all or a portion of the offered shares in transactions on the New York Stock Exchange or any other national securities exchange or quotation service on which the offered shares are listed or quoted at the time of the sale, in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions or otherwise, at prices then prevailing or related to the then-current market price or at negotiated prices. The offered shares may be sold directly or through agents or broker-dealers acting as principal or agent, or in block trades or pursuant to a distribution by one or more underwriters on a firm commitment or best-efforts basis. To the extent required, the names of any agents or broker-dealers and applicable commissions or discounts and any other required information with respect to any particular offer will be set forth in this prospectus under the caption "Plan of Distribution" or in any accompanying prospectus supplement. The selling stockholders reserve the right to accept or reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of the offered shares to be made directly or through agents. The selling stockholders and any agents or broker-dealers participating in the distribution of the offered shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, and any profit on the sale of offered shares by the selling stockholders and any commissions received by any agents or broker-dealers may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

The date of this prospectus is October 30, 2002.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves certain risks. To understand these risks and to evaluate an investment in our common stock, you should read this entire prospectus, including the following risk factors.

Edgar Filing: WEBSTER FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-3

OUR BUSINESS STRATEGY OF GROWTH THROUGH ACQUISITIONS COULD HAVE AN IMPACT ON OUR EARNINGS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS THAT MAY NEGATIVELY IMPACT THE VALUE OF YOUR STOCK

Although our business strategy emphasizes internal expansion combined with acquisitions, there can be no assurance that, in the future, we will successfully identify suitable acquisition candidates, complete acquisitions successfully integrate acquired operations into our existing operations or expand into new markets. Further, there can be no assurance that acquisitions will not have an adverse effect upon our operating results while the operations of the acquired businesses are being integrated into our operations. In addition, once integrated, acquired operations may not achieve levels of profitability comparable to those achieved by our existing operations, or otherwise perform as expected. Further, transaction-related expenses may adversely affect our earnings. These adverse effects on our earnings and results of operations may have a negative impact on the value of your stock.

CHANGES IN INTEREST RATES COULD IMPACT OUR EARNINGS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS WHICH COULD NEGATIVELY IMPACT THE VALUE OF YOUR STOCK

Our consolidated results of operations depend to a large extent on the level of our net interest income, which is the difference between interest income from interest-earning assets, such as loans and investments, and interest expense on interest-bearing liabilities, such as deposits and borrowings. If interest-rate fluctuations cause the cost of interest-bearing liabilities to increase faster than the yield on interest-earning assets, Webster's net interest income will decrease. If the cost of interest-bearing liabilities declines faster than the yield on interest earning assets, Webster's net interest income will increase.

Webster measures its interest-rate risk using simulation analyses with particular emphasis on measuring changes in the market value of portfolio equity and changes in net interest income in different interest-rate environments. The simulation analyses incorporate assumptions about balance sheet changes, such as asset and liability growth, loan and deposit pricing and changes due to the mix and maturity of such assets and liabilities. Other key assumptions relate to the behavior of interest rates and spreads, prepayments of loans and the run-off of deposits. These assumptions are inherently uncertain and, as a result, the simulation analyses cannot precisely estimate the impact that higher or lower rate environments will have on net interest income. Actual results will differ from simulated results due to timing, magnitude and frequency of interest rate changes, changes in cash flow patterns and market conditions, as well as changes in management's strategies.

While Webster uses various monitors of interest-rate risk, Webster is unable to predict future fluctuations in interest rates or the specific impact thereof. The market values of most of our financial assets are sensitive to fluctuations in market interest rates. Fixed-rate investments, mortgage-backed securities and mortgage loans typically decline in value as interest rates rise. Prepayments on mortgage-backed securities may adversely affect the value of such securities and the interest income generated by them.

Changes in interest rates can also affect the amount of loans that we originate, as well as the value of our loans and other interest-earning assets and our ability to realize gains on the sale of such assets and liabilities. Prevailing interest rates also affect the extent to which our borrowers prepay their loans. When interest rates increase, borrowers are less likely to prepay their loans, and when interest rates decrease, borrowers are more likely to prepay loans. Funds generated by prepayments might be invested at a less favorable interest rate. Prepayments may adversely affect the value of mortgage loans, the levels of such assets that we retain in our portfolio, net interest income and loan servicing income.

Increases in interest rates might cause depositors to shift funds from accounts that have a comparatively lower cost, such as regular savings accounts, to accounts with a higher cost, such as certificates of deposit. If the cost of interest-bearing deposits increases at a rate greater than the yields on interest-earning assets increase, the net interest income will be negatively affected. Changes in the asset and liability mix may also affect the net interest income.

WE MAY NOT PAY YOU DIVIDENDS IF WE ARE NOT ABLE TO RECEIVE DIVIDENDS FROM OUR SUBSIDIARY WEBSTER BANK

Cash dividends from Webster Bank and our liquid assets are our principal sources of funds for paying cash dividends on our common stock. Unless we receive dividends from Webster Bank or choose to use our liquid assets, we may not be able to pay dividends. Webster Bank's ability to pay us dividends is subject to its ability to earn net income and to meet certain regulatory requirements.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS IN THIS PROSPECTUS

We have made forward-looking statements in this document, and in documents that we incorporate by reference. These kinds of statements are subject to risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements include the information concerning possible or assumed future results of our operations. Words such as believes, expects, anticipates or similar expressions, indicate forward-looking statements.

You should note that many factors, some of which are discussed elsewhere in this document and in the documents that we incorporate by reference, could affect our future financial results and could cause those results to differ materially from those expressed in our forward-looking statements. These factors include the following:

- o the effect of economic conditions;
- o inability to realize expected cost savings in connection with business combinations and other acquisitions;
- o higher than expected costs related to integration of combined or merged businesses;
- o deposit attrition;
- o adverse changes in interest rates;
- o change in any applicable law, rule, regulation or practice with respect to tax or accounting issues or otherwise; and
- o adverse changes or conditions in capital or financial markets.

The forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this prospectus, and we assume no obligation to update the forward-looking statements or to update the reasons why actual results could differ from those projected in the forward-looking statements.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

We have filed with the Commission a registration statement on Form S-3, of which this prospectus is a part, under the Securities Act with respect to the offered shares. This prospectus does not contain all of the information set forth in the registration statement, portions of which we have omitted as permitted by the rules and regulations of the Commission. Statements contained in this prospectus as to the contents of any contract or other document are not necessarily complete. You should refer to the copy of each contract or document filed as an exhibit to the registration statement for a complete description.

ABOUT WEBSTER FINANCIAL CORPORATION

Webster Financial Corporation, through its subsidiaries, Webster Bank, Webster Insurance, Inc. and Webster D&P Holdings, Inc., delivers financial services to individuals, families and businesses primarily in Connecticut and equipment financing and financial advisory services to public and private companies throughout the United States. Webster Bank provides business and consumer banking, mortgage lending, trust and investment services and insurance services through 108 banking offices, over 214 ATM's and an Internet website (www.websteronline.com).

At June 30, 2002, we had total consolidated assets of approximately $12.5 billion, total deposits of approximately $7.3 billion and stockholders' equity of approximately $1.1 billion.

Our principal executive office is located at 145 Bank Street, Waterbury, Connecticut 06702, and our telephone number is (203) 753-2921.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Webster will not receive any of the proceeds from sales of shares by the selling stockholders. The costs and expenses incurred in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the offered shares will be paid by Webster. The selling stockholders will pay any brokerage fees and commissions, fees and disbursements of legal counsel for the selling shareholder and share transfer and other taxes attributable to the sale of the offered shares.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

On October 10, 2002, Webster acquired Fleming, Perry & Cox, Inc. ("FPC"). As part of this acquisition, Webster issued 83,720 shares of its common stock to former stockholders of FPC in exchange for their shares of common stock of FPC in a private placement transaction exempt from registration under the Securities Act. Webster is registering all of the 83,720 shares under the Securities Act pursuant to the terms of the acquisition agreement.

Since the selling stockholders may sell all, some or none of their shares, Webster cannot estimate the number of shares that will be sold by the selling stockholders or that will be owned by the selling stockholders upon completion of the offering. The offered shares represent less than 1% of the total number of shares of Webster's common stock outstanding as of October 29, 2002.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders may offer all or part of their shares of common stock from time to time in transactions on the New York Stock Exchange, in privately negotiated transactions, through the writing of options on the common stock or a combination of such methods of sale. The shares of common stock may be offered at fixed prices, which may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The methods by which the shares may be sold or distributed may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- o a cross or block trade in which the broker-dealer engaged by the selling shareholder will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- o purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by such broker or dealer for its account pursuant to this prospectus;
- o an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the NASD;
- o ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- o privately negotiated transactions;
- o short sales or borrowings, returns and reborrowings of the shares pursuant to stock loan agreements to settle short sales;

-5-

- o delivery in connection with the issuance of securities by issuers, other than us, that are exchangeable for, whether on an optional or mandatory basis, or payable in, such shares, whether such securities are listed on a national securities exchange or otherwise, or pursuant to which such shares may be distributed; and
- o underwritten transactions.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in such sales. Brokers or dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders or from the purchasers in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale. The selling stockholders may also sell such shares in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act. If the shares are sold in an underwritten offering, then the shares may be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be further resold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The names of the underwriters with respect to any such offering and the terms of the transactions, including any underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions and other items constituting compensation of the underwriters and broker-dealers, if any, will be set forth in a prospectus supplement relating to such offering. Any public offering price and any discounts, concessions or commissions allowed or reallocated or paid to broker-dealers may be changed from time to time. Unless otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase the shares will be subject to certain conditions precedent and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the shares specified in such prospectus supplement if any such shares are purchased. This prospectus also may be used by donees of the selling stockholders or by other persons acquiring shares of the common stock, including brokers who borrow the shares to settle short sales of shares of the common stock and who wish to offer and sell such shares under circumstances requiring or making use of the prospectus desirable.

From time to time the selling stockholders may engage in short sales, short sales against the box, puts, calls and other transactions in securities of Webster or derivatives thereof, and may sell and deliver shares of common stock in connection therewith. From time to time the selling stockholders may also pledge their shares of common stock pursuant to the margin provisions of their respective customer agreements with their respective brokers or otherwise. Upon a default by a selling stockholder, the broker or pledgees may offer and sell the pledged shares of common stock from time to time.

The selling stockholders and any broker-dealers who act in connection with the sale of the shares of common stock offered pursuant to this prospectus may be deemed to be "underwriters" as that term is defined in the Securities Act, and any commissions received by them and profit on any resale of the common stock as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Webster has agreed to pay all expenses in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the offered shares, including:

- o all registration and filing fees,
- o printing expenses, and
- o fees and disbursements of counsel and accountants for Webster.

The selling stockholders, however, are responsible for their own brokerage commissions and similar expenses.

The selling stockholders will pay any brokerage fees and commissions, fees and disbursements of legal counsel for the selling stockholders and stock transfer and other taxes attributable to the sale of the offered shares. Webster also has agreed to indemnify each of the selling stockholders and their respective officers, directors and trustees and each person who controls, within the meaning of the Securities Act, against losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses arising under the securities laws in connection with this offering. The selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify Webster, its officers and each person who controls, within the meaning of the Securities Act up to an amount equal to the net proceeds to each selling stockholder from Webster common stock sold pursuant to the registration statement, against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses arising under the securities laws in connection with this offering with respect to written information furnished to Webster by the selling stockholders.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Reference is made to the provisions of Article 6 of Webster's certificate of incorporation, and the provisions of Article IX of the Webster's bylaws, as amended.

Webster is a Delaware corporation subject to the applicable indemnification provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "Delaware Corporation Law"). Section 145 of the Delaware

Edgar Filing: WEBSTER FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-3

Corporation Law provides for the indemnification, under certain circumstances, of persons who are or were directors, officers, employees or agents of Webster, or are or were serving at the request of Webster in such a capacity with another business organization or entity, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, brought or threatened against or involving such persons because of such person's service in any such capacity. In the case of actions brought by or in the right of Webster, Section 145 provides for indemnification only of expenses, and only upon a determination by the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

Webster's bylaws provide for indemnification of directors, officers, trustees, employees and agents of Webster, and for those serving in such roles with other business organizations or entities, in the event that such person was or is made a party to (or is threatened to be made a party to) any civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration or investigative action, suit, or proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of Webster) by reason of the fact that such person is or was serving in such a capacity for or on behalf of Webster. Webster will indemnify any such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Webster, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Similarly, Webster shall indemnify such persons for expenses reasonably incurred and settlements reasonably paid in actions, suits, or proceedings brought by or in the right of Webster, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Webster; provided, however, that no indemnification shall be made against expenses in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable to Webster or against amounts paid in settlement unless and only to the extent that there is a determination made by the appropriate party set forth in the bylaws that the person to be indemnified is, in view of all the circumstances of the case, fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses or amounts paid in settlement. In addition, Webster may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, trustee, employee, or agent of Webster or is acting in such capacity for another business organization or entity at Webster's request, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred in such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not Webster would have the power or obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of Article IX of Webster's bylaws.

Article 6 of Webster's restated certificate of incorporation provides that no director will be personally liable to Webster or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director other than liability for any breach of such director's duty of loyalty to Webster or its stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for any payment of a dividend or approval of a stock repurchase that is illegal under Section 174 of the Delaware Corporation Law, or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The foregoing indemnity and insurance provisions have the effect of reducing directors' and officers' exposure to personal liability for actions taken in connection with their respective positions.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Webster pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Webster has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Webster of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Webster in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Webster will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) Webster hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of the securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of the Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) Webster hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of Webster's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (c) Webster hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), Webster undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.
- (d) Webster undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (c) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (e) Webster hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (g) Webster hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.
