Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who is, or is threatened to be made, a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer or director of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent or another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorney's fees), judgements, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suite or proceeding, provided that he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, has no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify officers and directors in an action by or in the right of the corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation. Here an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above; the corporation must indemnify him against the expenses, which he actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. The indemnification provided is not deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which an officer or director may be entitled under a corporation's by-laws, an agreement, vote or otherwise.

Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended, permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts of omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Article EIGHT of the Registrant's Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, sets forth the extent to which directors and officers of the Registrant may be indemnified against liabilities which they incur in their capacities as directors or officers of the Registrant. Article EIGHT also provides that director or the Registrant shall not be liable to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent such limitation is permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Article V of the Company's By-laws provides as follows:

The corporation shall indemnify any and all of its Directors or Officers or former Directors or Officers or any person who may have served at its request as a Director or Officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which they, or any of them, are made party, or they, by reason of being or having been Directors or Officers or a Director or Officer of the corporation, or of such other corporation, except, in relation to matters as to which any such Director or Officer or former Director or Officer or person shall be adjudged in such action, suits or proceedings to be liable for negligence or misconduct, in the performance of duty. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive by any others' rights to which those indemnified may be entitled, under By-law, agreement, vote of stockholder or otherwise.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

Not applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings

1. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to file during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.
2. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
3. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

4. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement related to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at such time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
5. Insofar as indemnification of liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
