Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On March 31, 2011, we entered into a loan transaction in the aggregate amount of $215,000 to a small number of persons who were accredited investors as that term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The transaction involved the issuance of 90 day Promissory Notes, secured by certain of our Intellectual Property (as defined in the Security Agreement), convertible at the creditors discretion to purchase shares of our common stock comprised of restricted securities as defined in Rule 144 of the SEC at a price of $0.15 per share, and bearing 10% interest annualized, with two three year warrants for each dollar loaned to acquire common stock at $0.15 per share, also to be comprise restricted securities.

The Company extended the due date on the convertible notes payable dated March 31, 2011 in the aggregate amount of $215,000. These notes were originally due on June 29, 2011 and subsequently extended. In consideration for the first note extension, the Company issued an additional 430,000 in restricted Rule 144 common stock warrants. The restricted Rule 144 common stock warrants allow for the purchase of one share of restricted Rule 144 common stock at $0.15 per restricted Rule 144 common stock warrant. The warrants expire 36 months from the date of the original warrant agreement.

Subsequently the notes were extended from October 27, 2011 to November 28, 2011, then again with repayments to be made quarterly beginning in May 31 2012, in the amount of $40,000 per quarter, with the remaining balance due in August 2013. No additional warrants were issued in connection with subsequent extensions.

On August 1, 2012, the Company issued amendments to the convertible note agreements and extended the due date with the repayments in the amount of $40,000 per quarter to begin April, 2013, and the final payments due in August 2014, with any remaining balance due at that time. In consideration for extending the due date of the promissory notes, the expiration dates on the warrants issued on March 31, 2011 and June 27, 2011, were amended and extended an additional three years, making the new expiration dates August 1, 2017.

Effective June 7, 2013, we executed an amendment to the loan transaction. The amended transaction involved the extension of the Promissory Note from April 30, 2013 to April 30, 2016, with the creditors waiving any default under the previous note. The Company made interest payments to each of the eight note holders for all accrued interest from August 1, 2012 to April 30, 2013 for consideration of the extension. The Company has agreed to make quarterly interest payments to each of the note holders during the term of the extension. All other terms of the previous Promissory Note, Security Agreement and related warrants remain in full force and effect.
