This tender offer statement filed under cover of Schedule TO is being filed by Hewlett-Packard Company, a Delaware corporation, and Hewlett-Packard Erste Vermögensverwaltungs- und Beteiligungsgesellschaft mbH, a newly-purchased indirect subsidiary of Hewlett-Packard Company.

This tender offer statement relates to the offer by HP, through Hewlett-Packard Erste Vermögensverwaltungs- und Beteiligungsgesellschaft mbH, to acquire each issued and outstanding common share, par value NLG 0.04 per share, of Indigo N.V., a corporation organized under the laws of The Netherlands, not already owned by HP or its affiliates. The exchange offer will be made pursuant to an offer agreement, dated as of September 6, 2001, as amended on February 13, 2002, by and between HP and Indigo. At the election of each tendering Indigo shareholder, subject to the allocation mechanism described in the offer agreement, each Indigo common share will be exchanged for either (1) $7.50 in HP common stock, subject to adjustment, or (2) $6.00 in HP common stock, subject to adjustment, and one contingent value right, which is referred to as a CVR. As described in more detail in the offer agreement, each CVR will entitle its holder to a contingent cash payment in 2005 from Hewlett-Packard Erste Vermögensverwaltungs- und Beteiligungsgesellschaft mbH of up to $4.50 in cash if our consolidated net revenues from the sale or lease of LEP Digital Press Products and Consumables (as such terms are defined in the contingent value rights agreement) reach specified revenue milestones over a three-year period, which will begin after completion of the exchange offer. The amount paid under each CVR increases linearly from $0 to $4.50 as the cumulative revenue increases from $1.0 billion to $1.6 billion during the three-year period. No payment will be made under the CVR if the cumulative revenue is less than or equal to $1.0 billion. No payment in excess of $4.50 will be made under the CVR if the cumulative revenue is greater than $1.6 billion. HP will guarantee the contingent payment obligations of its subsidiary under the CVRs.

The amount of HP common stock to be issued in each case will be determined by dividing $7.50 or $6.00, as the case may be, by the average closing sales price of HP common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the trading day on which the third most recent closing of the U.S. markets prior to the expiration of the exchange offer occurs. The total number of Indigo common shares that may be exchanged for each of the above-described elections is limited, as described in the offer agreement. If either election is oversubscribed, Indigo's shareholders who have tendered into the exchange offer will be subject to allocation to comply with the ceiling on the number of common shares associated with each election as described in the offer agreement.

The transactions described above are described in more detail in a registration statement on Form S-4 that HP has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The terms and conditions of the exchange offer are set forth in the prospectus which is a part of the registration statement, and the related election form/letter of transmittal, copies of which are incorporated by reference as Exhibits (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) hereto. HP, Indigo and Ben Zion Landa, Indigo's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, also have filed a transaction statement on Schedule 13E-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

All of the information in the prospectus and the related election form/letter of transmittal, and any prospectus supplement or other supplement thereto related to the exchange offer hereafter filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by HP, is hereby incorporated by reference in answer to Items 1 through 11 of this tender offer statement.
