Advanced Healthcare Technologies, Inc.
 Notes to Unaudited Financial Statements

Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions incorporated in Regulation SB of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments and accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included.

The results of operations for the periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. The accompanying financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2003.

Basic loss per share was computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding.

The Company received $5,400 of cash advances from shareholders during the six months ended September 30, 2003 and had an outstanding advance balance due to shareholders of $224,830 at September 30, 2003. During the six months ended September 30, 2003, $624,983 of shareholder debt was converted to stockholders' equity by the issuance of 13,886,506 restricted common shares to the shareholders. The debt exchange was completed at $.045 per share at a time when the fair value of the stock was $.09 per share. The Company has recorded compensation expense of $624,983 in connection with the exchange. Additionally during the period, the shareholders provided consulting and other services to the Company amounting to $191,652 which amount has been added to the shareholder advance account.

During the six months ended September 30, 2003 the Company issued 11,605,625 shares of its common stock for services provided. The shares were valued at an aggregate of $1,029,906, which represents the aggregate fair value of the stock and is based on quoted market prices for the stock on the date the issuances were approved. Two million of the shares issued were to two individuals who are no longer affiliated with the Company and who did not, in the opinion of the Company, provide the services agreed to with the Company. The Company is attempting to recover the shares.

Additionally during the period, an aggregate of 1,800,000 shares of common stock were issued to two individuals for conversion of notes payable amounting to $37,500. The exchanges were completed at a discounted price from the fair value of the stock and the Company has recorded $63,000 of compensation expense in connection with the exchanges.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Trends and Uncertainties. Demand for Advanced Healthcare products and services will be dependent on, among other things, market acceptance of the Advanced Healthcare's concept, the quality of its services, and general economic conditions, which are cyclical in nature. Inasmuch as a major portion of Advanced Healthcare's activities will be the receipt of revenues from our services, Advanced Healthcare's business operations may be adversely affected by Advanced Healthcare's competitors and prolonged recessionary periods.

Capital and Source of Liquidity. All of the initial working capital has been obtained from the sale of common shares to the current officers, directors and principal shareholder ($250,000) and loans from a related party of ($62,745). We do not have the liquidity to fund our operations and will require additional capital. We currently have little working capital and will rely on further loans to continue operations until completion of the current public offering. Advanced Healthcare's requires these additional loans to expand our current and strategic business plans. We do not have any funding arrangements with any third party or any affiliates.

For the six months ended September 30, 2003, we received $15,000 for common stock sold or subscribed and received proceeds from note payable of $25,000. Additionally, we repaid $28,000 of advances to affiliated company and received $5,400 in loans from a related party. As a result, we had net cash provided by financing activities of $73,400 for the six months ended September 30, 2003.

For the six months ended September 30, 2002, we made advances to a related party of $20,000 and received loans from a related party of $450 resulting in net cash used in financing activities.

For the six months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, we did not pursue any investing activities.

On a long-term basis, liquidity is dependent on continuation and expansion of operation and receipt of revenues, additional infusions of capital, and debt financing. Advanced Healthcare believes that additional capital and debt financing in the short term will allow Advanced Healthcare to increase its marketing and sales efforts and thereafter result in increased revenue and greater liquidity in the long term. However, there can be no assurance that Advanced Healthcare will be able to obtain additional equity or debt financing in the future, if at all.

Results of Operations. Since inception, Advanced Healthcare has not received any significant revenues from operations.

For the six months ended September 30, 2003 we did not receive any revenue. We had operating expenses of $1,674,072 that consisted of professional fees of $18,064, consulting services of $1,651,457, rent and office services of $1,600 and other expenses of $2,951.

Advanced Healthcare received $5,400 of cash advances from shareholders during the six months ended September 30, 2003 and had an outstanding advance balance due to shareholders of $224,830 at September 30, 2003. During the six months ended September 30, 2003, $624,983 of shareholder debt was converted to stockholders' equity by the issuance of 13,886,506 restricted common shares to the shareholders. The debt exchange was completed at $.045 per share at a time when the fair value of the stock was $.09 per share. Advanced Healthcare has recorded compensation expense of $624,983 in connection with the exchange. Additionally during the period, the shareholders provided consulting and other services to Advanced Healthcare amounting to $191,652 which amount has been added to the shareholder advance account.

During the six months ended September 30, 2003 Advanced Healthcare issued 11,605,625 shares of its common stock for services provided. The shares were valued at an aggregate of $1,029,906, which represents the aggregate fair value of the stock and is based on quoted market prices for the stock on the date the issuances were approved. Two million of the shares issued were to two individuals who are no longer affiliated with Advanced Healthcare and who did not, in the opinion of Advanced Healthcare, provide the services agreed to with Advanced Healthcare. Advanced Healthcare is attempting to recover the shares.

Plan of Operation. Advanced Healthcare is in the development stage and has not conducted any significant operations to date or received significant operating revenues. We will not need to conduct any research and development regarding our business plan.

We do not expect to purchase any plant or significant equipment.

Advanced Healthcare may experience problems; delays, expenses, and difficulties sometimes encountered by an enterprise in Advanced Healthcare's stage of development, many of which are beyond Advanced Healthcare's control. These include, but are not limited to, unanticipated problems relating to the development of the system, manufacturing costs, production and marketing problems, additional costs and expenses that may exceed current estimates, and competition.

Controls and Procedures. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company have made an evaluation of the disclosure controls and procedures relating to the quarterly report on Form 10QSB for the period ended September 30, 2003 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and have judged such controls and procedures to be effective as of September 30, 2003 (the evaluation date).

There have not been any significant changes in the internal controls of the Company or other factors that could significantly affect internal controls relating to the Company since the evaluation date.
