agreements with NewStar Financial Inc. as administrative agent and as a lender, with other financial institutions as additional lenders (together with the administrative agent, collectively, the "Lenders"), and with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association as collateral agent and paying agent. Such agreements collectively constitute a revolving residual credit facility.

Under this facility, CPS has sold and intends to sell eligible residuals to the Borrower, which in turn has pledged and intends to pledge the residuals as collateral for floating rate borrowings from the Lenders. The amount that may be borrowed is computed by the administrative agent using an agreed valuation methodology of the residuals, subject to an overall maximum principal amount that may be borrowed of $35 million. The facility's revolving feature is to expire by its terms on December 5, 2008; any borrowings outstanding at that time are to be repaid by the application thereto of substantially all cash released by the pledged residual interests, and in all events over an amortization period of no more than five years. CPS has guaranteed ten percent of any indebtedness incurred or to be incurred under this facility.
