(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed ? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof ?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the three months ended April 30, 2008, our net loss increased approximately 507% or $618,000 to $740,000 from $122,000 for the three months ended April 30, 2007, primarily as the result of increases in interest expense, amortization of deferred financing costs, acquired in-process research and development, and selling, general and administrative expenses, offset by decreases in amortization of technology licenses and capitalized software development fees, research and development expenses, and an increase in the gain on the change in fair value of derivative liabilities.

This Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements, including forward-looking statements relating to the Registrant's financial results for the period ended April 30, 2008. These statements are based on management's current expectations and involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including risk and uncertainties relating to our ability to prepare and complete our financial statements for the period ended April 30, 2008 and other risks described in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Registrant's actual results may differ materially from the Registrant's anticipated or expected results and the results in the forward-looking statements.
