(c)

As previously disclosed, on September 8, 2015, Ryan Napierski was appointed as President of Global Sales and Operations for Nu Skin Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company"). Mr. Napierski succeeds Daniel Chard, who resigned effective September 4, 2015.

Mr. Napierski, 41, has served as president of the Company's North Asia region since June 2014 and as president of Nu Skin Japan since June 2010. Prior to his assignment as regional president, Napierski served as vice president of business development for the Company's North Asia region and chief operating officer of Nu Skin Japan. Since joining Nu Skin in 1995 as a communications specialist, Napierski has served in several roles, including vice president of global business development where he was responsible for the Company's global compensation plan, general manager for the United Kingdom and vice president of European business development. Napierski has a bachelor's degree in business, a master's degree in business administration from Duke University and a master's degree in international business from Goethe Universitat in Germany.

In connection with this appointment, it is anticipated that Mr. Napierski will enter into an employment agreement with the Company, the terms of which are not yet determined. There is no family relationship between Mr. Napierski and any of the Company's other officers and directors. Other than as set forth herein, there are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Napierski and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Napierski was selected as President of Global Sales and Operations.

During 2014, the Company paid employment compensation in excess of $120,000 to one relative of Mr. Napierski. Cade Napierski, the brother of Mr. Napierski, received approximately $440,000 in salary, bonuses, expatriate benefits (including an education and housing allowance and other benefits) and other compensation during 2014, as well as 400 restricted stock units. During 2015, Cade Napierski has received 400 restricted stock units and has continued to receive salary, bonuses, expatriate benefits and other compensation. Cade Napierski also participates in the employee benefit plans available generally to our employees.
