NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

At March 31, 2014 – Unaudited

(In thousands, except share data, unless otherwise stated)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Mettler-Toledo International Inc. ("Mettler-Toledo" or the "Company") is a leading global supplier of precision instruments and services. The Company manufactures weighing instruments for use in laboratory, industrial, packaging, logistics and food retailing applications. The Company also manufactures several related analytical instruments and provides automated chemistry solutions used in drug and chemical compound discovery and development. In addition, the Company manufactures metal detection and other end-of-line inspection systems used in production and packaging and provides solutions for use in certain process analytics applications. The Company's primary manufacturing facilities are located in China, Germany, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States. The Company's principal executive offices are located in Columbus, Ohio and Greifensee, Switzerland. The accompanying interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and include all entities in which the Company has control, which are its wholly-owned subsidiaries. The interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. The interim consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2014 and for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

The accompanying interim consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair statement of the results of the interim periods presented. Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2014 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year ending December 31, 2014.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, as well as disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results may differ from those estimates. A discussion of the Company's critical accounting policies is included in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior year amounts to conform to the current year presentations.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Trade Accounts Receivable

Trade accounts receivable are recorded at the invoiced amount and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts represents the Company's best estimate of probable credit losses in its existing trade accounts receivable. The Company determines the allowance based upon a review of both specific accounts for collection and the age of the accounts receivable portfolio.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost, which includes direct materials, labor and overhead, is generally determined using the first in, first out (FIFO) method. The estimated net realizable value is based on assumptions for future demand and related pricing. Adjustments to the cost basis of the Company's inventory are made for excess and obsolete items based on usage, orders and technological obsolescence. If actual market conditions are less favorable than those projected by management, reductions in the value of inventory may be required.

Inventories consisted of the following:

	March 31, 2014	December 31, 2013
Raw materials and parts	$102,512	$98,244
Work-in-progress	42,036	38,061
Finished goods	79,872	74,109
	$224,420	$210,414

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Goodwill, representing the excess of purchase price over the net asset value of companies acquired, and indefinite-lived intangible assets are not amortized, but are reviewed for impairment annually in the fourth quarter, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that an asset might be impaired. The annual evaluation for goodwill is generally based on an assessment of qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the Company is unable to conclude that a reporting unit is not impaired after considering the totality of events and circumstances during its qualitative assessment, the Company performs the first step of the two-step impairment test by estimating the fair value of the reporting unit and comparing the fair value to the carrying amount of the reporting unit. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, then the Company performs the second step of the goodwill impairment test to measure the amount of the impairment loss, if any. The annual evaluation for indefinite-lived intangible assets is based on valuation models that estimate fair value based on expected future cash flows and profitability projections. Other intangible assets include indefinite-lived assets and assets subject to amortization. Where applicable, amortization is charged on a straight-line basis over the expected period to be benefited. The straight-line method of amortization reflects an appropriate allocation of the cost of the intangible assets to earnings in proportion to the amount of economic benefits obtained by the Company in each reporting period. The Company assesses the initial acquisition of intangible assets in accordance with the provisions of ASC 805 "Business Combinations" and the continued accounting for previously recognized intangible assets and goodwill in accordance with the provisions of ASC 350 "Intangibles – Goodwill and Other" and ASC 360 "Property, Plant and Equipment."

The Company recognized amortization expense associated with the above intangible assets of $1.6 million and $1.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The annual aggregate amortization expense based on the current balance of other intangible assets is estimated at $6.0 million for 2014, $5.3 million for 2015, $5.1 million for 2016, $4.9 million for 2017, $4.6 million for 2018 and $4.3 million for 2019. Purchased intangible amortization was $1.3 million ($0.9 million after tax) for both the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013.

In addition to the above amortization, the Company recorded amortization expense associated with capitalized software of $5.5 million and $3.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when title to a product has transferred and any significant customer obligations have been fulfilled. Standard shipping terms are generally FOB shipping point in most countries and, accordingly, title and risk of loss transfers upon shipment. In countries where title cannot legally transfer before delivery, the Company defers revenue recognition until delivery has occurred. The Company generally maintains the right to accept or reject a product return in its terms and conditions and also maintains appropriate accruals for outstanding credits. Shipping and handling costs charged to customers are included in total net sales and the associated expense is recorded in cost of sales for all periods presented. Other than a few small software applications, the Company does not sell software products without the related hardware instrument as the software is embedded in the instrument. The Company's products typically require no significant production, modification or customization of the hardware or software that is essential to the functionality of the products. To the extent the Company's solutions have a post-shipment obligation, such as customer acceptance, revenue is deferred until the obligation has been completed. The Company defers product revenue where installation is required, unless such installation is deemed perfunctory. The Company also sometimes enters into certain arrangements that require the separate delivery of multiple goods and/or services. These deliverables are accounted for separately if the deliverables have standalone value and the performance of undelivered items is probable and within the Company's control. The allocation of revenue between the separate deliverables is typically based on the relative selling price at the time of the sale in accordance with a number of factors including service technician billing rates, time to install and geographic location.

Further, certain products are also sold through indirect distribution channels whereby the distributor assumes any further obligations to the customer upon title transfer. Revenue is recognized on these products upon transfer of title and risk of loss to its distributors. Distributor discounts are offset against revenue at the time such revenue is recognized.

Service revenue not under contract is recognized upon the completion of the service performed. Spare parts sold on a stand-alone basis are recognized upon title and risk of loss transfer which is generally at the time of shipment. Revenues from service contracts are recognized ratably over the contract period. These contracts represent an obligation to perform repair and other services including regulatory compliance qualification, calibration, certification and preventative maintenance on a customer's pre-defined equipment over the contract period. Service contracts are separately priced and payment is typically received from the customer at the beginning of the contract period.

Warranty

The Company generally offers one-year warranties on most of its products. Product warranties are recorded at the time revenue is recognized. While the Company engages in extensive product quality programs and processes, its warranty obligation is affected by product failure rates, material usage and service costs incurred in correcting a product failure. The Company's accrual for product warranties is included in accrued and other liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets. Changes to the Company's accrual for product warranties for the three months ended March 31 are as follows:

	March 31, 2014	March 31, 2013
Balance at beginning of period	$16,991	$16,295
Accruals for warranties	4,685	4,515
Foreign currency translation	28	(258)
Payments / utilizations	(4,897)	(5,002)
Balance at end of period	$16,807	$15,550

Employee Termination Benefits

In situations where contractual termination benefits exist, the Company records accruals for employee termination benefits when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the liability is reasonably estimable. All other employee termination arrangements are recognized and measured at their fair value at the communication date unless the employee is required to render additional service beyond the legal notification period, in which case the liability is recognized ratably over the future service period.

Share-Based Compensation

The Company recognizes share-based compensation expense within selling, general and administrative in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income with a corresponding offset to additional paid-in capital in the consolidated balance sheet. The Company recorded $3.2 million and $2.8 million of share-based compensation expense for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Research and Development

Research and development costs primarily consist of salaries, consulting and other costs. The Company expenses these costs as incurred.

3. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

As more fully described below, the Company enters into certain interest rate swap agreements in order to manage its exposure to changes in interest rates. The amount of the Company's fixed obligation interest payments may change based upon the expiration dates of its interest rate swap agreements and the level and composition of its debt. The Company also enters into foreign currency forward contracts to limit the Company's exposure to currency fluctuations on the respective hedged items. The Company does not use derivative financial instruments for trading purposes. For additional disclosures on the fair value of financial instruments, also see Note 4 to the interim consolidated financial statements.

Cash Flow Hedge

The Company has an interest rate swap agreement, designated as a cash flow hedge. The agreement is a forward-starting swap which had the effect of changing the floating rate LIBOR-based interest payments associated with $100 million in forecasted borrowings under the Company's credit facility to a fixed obligation of 3.24% beginning in October 2010. The swap is recorded gross in other non-current liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet at its fair value at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 of $4.7 million and $5.3 million, respectively. The amount recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) during both the three month periods ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 was a loss of $0.1 million. The effective portion of the loss reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) to interest expense was $0.8 million ($0.5 million after tax) for both the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. A derivative loss of $3.1 million based upon interest rates at March 31, 2014, is expected to be reclassified from other comprehensive income (loss) to earnings in the next twelve months. Through March 31, 2014, the hedge ineffectiveness related to this instrument was not material.

In June 2013, the Company entered into a forward starting interest rate swap agreement, designated as a cash flow hedge. The agreement will change the floating rate LIBOR-based interest payments associated with $50 million in forecasted borrowings under the Company's credit agreement to a fixed obligation of 2.52% beginning in October 2015. The swap is recorded in other non-current assets in the consolidated balance sheet at its fair value at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 of $0.6 million and $1.3 million, respectively. The amount recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) during the three month period ended March 31, 2014 was a loss of $0.7 million ($0.4 million after tax).

In July 2012, the Company began entering into foreign currency forward contracts, designated as cash flow hedges, to hedge certain forecasted intercompany sales denominated in euro with its Swiss-based business. The notional amount of foreign currency forward contracts outstanding at both March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 was $78.2 million. The foreign currency forward contracts are recorded at their fair value in the consolidated balance sheet at March 31, 2014 in other current assets of $0.5 million. At December 31, 2013, the foreign currency forward contracts are recorded gross at their fair value in the consolidated balance in other current assets of $0.3 million and in accrued and other liabilities of $0.1 million, respectively. The Company records the effective portion of the cash flow derivative hedging gains and losses in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), net of tax and reclassifies these amounts into earnings in the period in which the transactions affect earnings. The amount recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) during the three months period ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 was a gain of $0.3 million ($0.2 million after tax) and a loss of $0.8 million ($0.6 million after tax), respectively. The effective portion reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) to cost of sales was an immaterial gain for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and a loss of $0.5 million ($0.4 million after tax) for the three months ended March 31, 2013, respectively. A derivative gain of $0.5 million as of March 31, 2014 is expected to be recognized in earnings in the next twelve months. Through March 31, 2014 no hedge ineffectiveness has occurred in relation to this hedge.

Other Derivatives

The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts in order to economically hedge short-term intercompany balances largely denominated in Swiss franc and other major European currencies with its foreign businesses. In accordance with U.S. GAAP, these contracts are considered “derivatives not designated as hedging instruments.” Gains or losses on these instruments are reported in current earnings. The foreign currency forward contracts were reported gross at their fair value in the consolidated balance sheet at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 in other current assets of $0.2 million and $0.7 million, respectively, and other liabilities of $0.8 million and $0.4 million, respectively. The Company recognized in other charges (income), net a loss of $0.2 million and $2.2 million, during the three month periods ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, these contracts had a notional value of $173.9 million and $180.3 million, respectively.

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the Company had derivative assets totaling $1.3 million and $2.3 million, respectively, and derivative liabilities totaling $5.4 million and $5.8 million, respectively. The fair values of the interest rate swap agreement, foreign currency forward contracts designated as cash flow hedges and foreign currency forward contracts that economically hedge short-term intercompany balances are estimated based upon inputs from current valuation information obtained from dealer quotes and priced with observable market assumptions and appropriate valuation adjustments for credit risk. The Company has evaluated the valuation methodologies used to develop the fair values by dealers in order to determine whether such valuations are representative of an exit price in the Company’s principal market. In addition, the Company uses an internally developed model to perform testing on the valuations received from brokers. The Company has also considered both its own credit risk and counterparty credit risk in determining fair value and determined these adjustments were insignificant at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the Company had $10.8 million and $16.9 million of cash equivalents, respectively, the fair value of which is determined through quoted and corroborated prices in active markets. The fair value of cash equivalents approximates cost.

The difference between the fair value and carrying value of the Company's long-term debt is not material and is classified in Level 2 and Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The fair value of the Company's debt is estimated based on either similar issues or other inputs derived from available market information, including interest rates, term of debt and creditworthiness.

Under U.S. GAAP, fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement consists of observable and unobservable inputs that reflect the assumptions that a market participant would use in pricing an asset or liability.

A fair value hierarchy has been established that categorizes these inputs into three levels:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities

Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities

Level 3: Unobservable inputs

7. SHARE REPURCHASE PROGRAM AND TREASURY STOCK

The Company has a $3 billion share repurchase program, of which there were $809.9 million of remaining common shares authorized to be repurchased under the program. We expect that the authorization will be utilized over the next few years. The share repurchases are expected to be funded from cash balances, borrowings and cash generated from operating activities. Repurchases will be made through open market transactions, and the amount and timing of purchases will depend on business and market conditions, the stock price, trading restrictions, the level of acquisition activity and other factors.

The Company has purchased 21.8 million shares since the inception of the program through March 31, 2014. During the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company spent $82.5 million and $72.3 million on the repurchase of 336,188 shares and 341,109 shares at an average price per share of $245.37 and $211.94, respectively. The Company reissued 69,442 shares and 117,014 shares held in treasury for the exercise of stock options and restricted stock units during the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

As previously disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, the Company expects to make employer contributions of approximately $21.8 million to its non-U.S. pension plan and employer contributions of approximately $0.5 million to its U.S. post-retirement medical plan during the year ended December 31, 2014. These estimates may change based upon several factors, including fluctuations in currency exchange rates, actual returns on plan assets and changes in legal requirements.

11. RESTRUCTURING CHARGES

For the three months ending March 31, 2014, we have incurred $1.5 million of restructuring expenses which primarily comprise employee related costs related to cost reduction measures initiated in prior periods. Liabilities related to restructuring activities are included in accrued and other liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet.

A rollforward of the Company's accrual for restructuring activities for the three months ended March 31, 2014 is as follows:

	Employee Related	Other	Total

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the Unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements included herein.

General

Our interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2014 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year ending December 31, 2014.

Local currency changes exclude the effect of currency exchange rate fluctuations. Local currency amounts are determined by translating current and previous year consolidated financial information at an index utilizing historical currency exchange rates. We believe local currency information provides a helpful assessment of business performance and a useful measure of results between periods. We do not, nor do we suggest that investors should, consider such non-GAAP financial measures in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information prepared in accordance with GAAP. We present non-GAAP financial measures in reporting our financial results to provide investors with an additional analytical tool to evaluate our operating results.

Results of Operations – Consolidated

The following tables set forth certain items from our interim consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income for the three month periods ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 (amounts in thousands).

Net sales

Net sales were $550.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014, compared to $524.4 million for the corresponding period in 2013. This represents an increase in U.S. dollars of 5%. Excluding the effect of currency exchange rate fluctuations, or in local currencies, net sales increased 4% for the three months ended March 31, 2014. Market conditions improved during the three months ended March 31, 2014, particularly in Europe. However global market conditions remain uncertain, especially in emerging markets, and we continue to be cautious regarding our sales growth outlook.

Table of Contents

Net sales by geographic destination for the three months ended March 31, 2014, in U.S. dollars increased 2% in the Americas, 12% in Europe and were flat in Asia/Rest of World. In local currencies, our net sales by geographic destination increased 3% in the Americas, 9% in Europe and 1% in Asia/Rest of World. Net sales in local currencies for Asia/Rest of World for the three months ended 2014 were reduced by approximately 1% due to the exit of certain industrial-related businesses in China. A discussion of sales by operating segment is included below.

As described in Note 18 to our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013, our net sales comprise product sales of precision instruments and related services. Service revenues are primarily derived from repair and other services, including regulatory compliance qualification, calibration, certification, preventative maintenance and spare parts.

Net sales of products increased 5% in U.S. dollars and 4% in local currency for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the prior period. Service revenue (including spare parts) increased 5% in both U.S. dollars and local currency during the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013.

Net sales of our laboratory-related products, which represented approximately 47% of our total net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2014, increased 7% in both U.S. dollars and local currencies during the three months ended March 31, 2014 principally driven by strong volume and favorable price realization in most categories, especially analytical instruments and laboratory balances.

Net sales of our industrial-related products, which represented approximately 44% of our total net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2014, increased 2% in U.S. dollars and 1% in local currencies during the three months ended March 31, 2014. We experienced solid sales growth in our core-industrial products in the Americas and Europe related to higher sales volumes and favorable price realization during the three months ended March 31, 2014. These results were offset by a sales volume decline in core-industrial products in Asia/Rest of World, particularly China. Overall Chinese market conditions for our industrial products remain weak. Growth in China can be expected to be volatile and the timing of a recovery can be uncertain.

Net sales in our food retailing markets, which represented approximately 9% of our total net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2014, increased 10% in U.S. dollars and 8% in local currencies during the three months ended March 31, 2014, with particularly strong project activity in Europe.

Gross profit

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales was 53.1% for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 53.2% for the corresponding period in 2013.

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for products was 57.1% for both the three month periods ended March 31, 2014 and 2013.

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for services (including spare parts) was 40.2% for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 40.5% for the corresponding period in 2013.

The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2014 includes unfavorable currency, business mix and other charges, offset in part by increased price realization and reduced material costs.

Research and development and selling, general and administrative expenses

Research and development expenses as a percentage of net sales were 5.4% for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 5.3% for the corresponding period during 2013. Research and development expenses increased 6% in U.S. dollars and 4% in local currencies, during the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013 relating to the timing of research and development project activity.

Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales were 31.3% for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 31.7% in the corresponding period during 2013. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 4% in U.S. dollars and 3% in local currencies, during the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. The increase includes higher cash incentive compensation as compared to prior year, partially offset by lower employee benefit costs.

Amortization, interest expense, other charges (income), net and taxes

Amortization expense was $7.1 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and $5.1 million for the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in amortization expense is primarily related to recent investment in information technology, including the Company's Blue Ocean program.

Interest expense was $5.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and $5.4 million for the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in interest expense for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 is primarily a result of an increase in average borrowings.

Other charges (income), net consists primarily of (gains) losses from foreign currency transactions, interest income and other items.

The provision for taxes is based upon using our projected annual effective tax rate of 24% for the three month periods ended March 31, 2014 and 2013. Our consolidated income tax rate is lower than the U.S. statutory rate primarily because of benefits from lower-taxed non-U.S. operations. The most significant of these lower-taxed operations are in Switzerland and China.

Results of Operations – by Operating Segment

The following is a discussion of the financial results of our operating segments. We currently have five reportable segments: U.S. Operations, Swiss Operations, Western European Operations, Chinese Operations and Other. A more detailed description of these segments is outlined in Note 18 to our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013.

U.S. Operations (amounts in thousands)

	Three months ended March 31,
	2014	2013	%
Total net sales	$184,769	$176,766	5		%
Net sales to external customers	$163,994	$158,389	4		%
Segment profit	$23,695	$24,657	(4))%

Total net sales and net sales to external customers increased 5% and 4%, respectively for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared with the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in total net sales and net sales to external customers for the three months ended March 31, 2014 primarily reflects strong growth in laboratory balances and core-industrial products due to increased sales volume and favorable price realization.

Table of Contents

Segment profit decreased $1.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013 primarily related to investments in our product inspection businesses.

Swiss Operations (amounts in thousands)

	Three months ended March 31,
	2014	2013	% ¹⁾
Total net sales	$140,281	$127,820	10	%
Net sales to external customers	$32,056	$30,697	4	%
Segment profit	$36,166	$34,201	6	%

1)Represents U.S. dollar (decline) growth for net sales and segment profit.

Total net sales increased 10% in U.S. dollars and 5% in local currency for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. Net sales to external customers increased 4% in U.S. dollars and 1% in local currency during the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in local currency net sales to external customers for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 primarily related to sales volume increases in our laboratory-related products, particularly in analytical instruments offset in part by a decline in core-industrial products.

Segment profit increased $2.0 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. Segment profit includes the impact of increased sales, partially offset by unfavorable currency.

Western European Operations (amounts in thousands)

	Three months ended March 31,
	2014	2013	% ¹⁾
Total net sales	$190,955	$174,280	10	%
Net sales to external customers	$161,517	$146,168	11	%
Segment profit	$20,876	$18,298	14	%

1)Represents U.S. dollar (decline) growth for net sales and segment profit.

Total net sales increased 10% in U.S. dollars and 5% in local currency during the three month period ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. Net sales to external customers increased 11% in U.S. dollars and 7% in local currency for the same period versus the prior year comparable period. Total net sales and net sales to external customers for the three months ended March 31, 2014 includes volume increases and favorable price realization across most product categories, particularly in laboratory balances and core-industrial products, as well as strong project activity in food retailing.

Segment profit increased $2.6 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013 primarily due to increased sales and benefits from our cost reduction activities.

Chinese Operations (amounts in thousands)

	Three months ended March 31,
	2014	2013	% ¹⁾
Total net sales	$127,165	$121,129	5	%
Net sales to external customers	$91,621	$90,727	1	%
Segment profit	$25,799	$24,648	5	%

1) Represents U.S. dollar (decline) growth for net sales and segment profit.

Total net sales increased 5% in U.S. dollars and 2% in local currency during the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. Net sales to external customers increased 1% in U.S. dollars and decreased 1% in local currency during the three months ended March 31, 2014 as compared to the corresponding period in 2013. The decrease in net sales to external customers during the three months ended March 31, 2014 reflects a decline in sales volume of our core-industrial products offset in part by strong growth in analytical instruments and laboratory balances. Approximately 1% of the local currency sales decline in 2014 also relates to the exit of certain industrial-related businesses. Overall Chinese market conditions for our industrial products remain weak. Growth in China can be expected to be volatile and the timing of a recovery can be uncertain.

Segment profit increased $1.2 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in segment profit for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 includes increased inter-segment sales and favorable business mix.

Other (amounts in thousands)

	Three months ended March 31,
	2014	2013	% ¹⁾
Total net sales	$102,568	$99,794	3	%
Net sales to external customers	$101,433	$98,374	3	%
Segment profit	$9,159	$9,487	(3))%

1) Represents U.S. dollar (decline) growth for net sales and segment profit.

Total net sales and net sales to external customers increased 3% in US dollars and 9% in local currency during the three month period ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in total net sales and net sales to external customers primarily reflects increased sales volume across most product categories, particularly in Japan, Australia and Eastern Europe.

Segment profit decreased $0.3 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to the corresponding period in 2013. The decrease in segment profit is primarily due to unfavorable currency and higher inter-segment product costs, offset in part by the impacted of increased net sales.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Liquidity is our ability to generate sufficient cash flows from operating activities to meet our obligations and commitments. In addition, liquidity includes the ability to obtain appropriate financing. Currently, our financing requirements are primarily driven by working capital requirements, capital expenditures, share repurchases and acquisitions.

Cash provided by operating activities totaled $42.8 million during the three months ended March 31, 2014, compared to $23.7 million in the corresponding period in 2013. The increase in 2014 is primarily due to the timing of accounts receivable and tax payments compared to the three months ended March 31, 2013, offset in part by increased inventory levels and cash incentive payments.

Capital expenditures are made primarily for investments in information systems and technology, machinery, equipment and the purchase and expansion of facilities. Our capital expenditures totaled $16.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to $19.0 million in the corresponding period in 2013.

We plan to repatriate earnings from China, Switzerland, Germany, the United Kingdom and certain other countries in future years and expect the only additional cost associated with the repatriation of such earnings outside the United States will be withholding taxes. All other undistributed earnings are considered to be permanently reinvested. As of March 31, 2014, we have an immaterial amount of cash and cash equivalents outside the United States where undistributed earnings are considered permanently reinvested. Accordingly, we believe the tax impact associated with repatriating our undistributed foreign earnings will not have a material effect on our liquidity.

Senior Notes and Credit Facility Agreement

Our debt consisted of the following at March 31, 2014:

	March 31, 2014
	U.S. Dollar	Other Principal Trading Currencies	Total
6.30% $100 million Senior Notes due June 25, 2015	$ 100,000	$—	$ 100,000
3.67% $50 million Senior Notes due December 17, 2022	50,000	—	50,000
4.10% $50 million Senior Notes due September 19, 2023	50,000	—	50,000
Credit agreement	231,584	17,998	249,582
Other local arrangements	—	16,255	16,255
Total debt	431,584	34,253	465,837
Less: current portion	—	(16,255)	(16,255)
Total long-term debt	$431,584	$ 17,998	$449,582

As of March 31, 2014, approximately $546.4 million was available under our credit agreement. Changes in exchange rates between the currencies in which we generate cash flows and the currencies in which our borrowings are denominated affect our liquidity. In addition, because we borrow in a variety of currencies, our debt balances fluctuate due to changes in exchange rates.

We currently believe that cash flow from operating activities, together with liquidity available under our credit facility and local working capital facilities, will be sufficient to fund currently anticipated working capital needs and capital spending requirements for at least the foreseeable future.

We continue to explore potential acquisitions. In connection with any acquisition, we may incur additional indebtedness.

Share Repurchase Program

We have a $3 billion share repurchase program, of which there were $809.9 million of remaining common shares authorized to be repurchased under the program. We expect that the authorization will be utilized over the next few years. The share repurchases are expected to be funded from cash balances, borrowings and cash generated from operating activities. Repurchases will be made through open market transactions, and the amount and timing of purchases will depend on business and market conditions, the stock price, trading restrictions, the level of acquisition activity and other factors.

Table of Contents

We have purchased 21.8 million shares since the inception of the program through March 31, 2014. During the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, we spent $82.5 million and $72.3 million on the repurchase of 336,188 shares and 341,109 shares at an average price per share of $245.37 and $211.94, respectively. We reissued 69,442 shares and 117,014 shares held in treasury for the exercise of stock options and restricted stock units during the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Effect of Currency on Results of Operations

Our earnings are affected by changing exchange rates. We are most sensitive to changes in the exchange rates between the Swiss franc, euro, and U.S. dollar. We have more Swiss franc expenses than we do Swiss franc sales because we develop and manufacture products in Switzerland that we sell globally, and have a number of corporate functions located in Switzerland. When the Swiss franc strengthens against our other trading currencies, particularly the U.S. dollar and euro, our earnings go down. We also have significantly more sales in the euro than we do expenses. When the euro weakens against the U.S. dollar and Swiss franc, our earnings also go down.

A few factors help us manage these exchange rate risks. In September 2011, the Swiss National Bank established an exchange rate floor of 1.20 Swiss francs per euro. The floor has effectively stopped the strengthening of the Swiss franc beyond the 1.20 level. We do not know how long the Swiss National Bank will maintain this exchange rate floor. Additionally, in the third quarter of 2012, we entered into foreign currency forward contracts that reduce approximately 75% of our exposure from the Swiss franc strengthening against the euro. The forward contracts expire in April 2015. Absent these forward exchange contracts, we estimate a 1% strengthening of the Swiss franc against the euro would reduce our earnings before tax by approximately $1.2 million annually. The impact on our earnings before tax of the Swiss franc strengthening 1% against the U.S. dollar is approximately $0.4 million annually.

We also conduct business in many geographies throughout the world, including Asia Pacific, the United Kingdom, Eastern Europe, Latin America and Canada. Fluctuations in these currency exchange rates against the U.S. dollar can also affect our operating results. The most significant of these currency exposures is the Chinese Renminbi. The impact on our earnings before tax of the Chinese Renminbi weakening 1% against the U.S. dollar is a loss of approximately $0.7 million annually. In addition to the effects of exchange rate movements on operating profits, our debt levels can fluctuate due to changes in exchange rates, particularly between the U.S. dollar and the Swiss franc. Based on our outstanding debt at December 31, 2013, we estimate that a 10% weakening of the U.S. dollar against the currencies in which our debt is denominated would result in an increase of approximately $3.8 million in the reported U.S. dollar value of the debt.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2014, the Company adopted ASU 2013-11 "Income Taxes." The amendment provided further guidance to the balance sheet presentation of unrecognized tax benefits when a net operating loss or similar tax loss carryforwards, or a tax credit carryforward exists. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact to the Company's consolidated results of operations or financial position.
