CREDIT SUISSE GROUP TO STRENGTHEN CAPITAL BASE
BY CHF 1.0 BILLION THROUGH ISSUANCE OF MANDATORY CONVERTIBLE SECURITIES

ZURICH, NOVEMBER 26, 2002 - CREDIT SUISSE GROUP WILL ISSUE CHF 1.0 BILLION OF MANDATORY CONVERTIBLE SECURITIES IN ORDER TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF MARKET CONDITIONS ALLOWING THE STRENGTHENING OF ITS CAPITAL BASE TO SUPPORT FUTURE BUSINESS GROWTH. THIS MEASURE IS ONE OF THE POTENTIAL CAPITAL-ENHANCING ACTIONS THAT WERE OUTLINED AT THE PRESENTATION OF THE GROUP'S THIRD QUARTER RESULTS ON NOVEMBER 14, 2002.

The Mandatory Convertible Securities, in the amount of CHF 1.0 billion, will initially be offered to existing shareholders, where permitted by law, through the granting of advance subscription rights (subscription period: December 2 to December 6, 2002). The Mandatory Convertible Securities not subscribed by shareholders will be offered to potential investors in an open price bookbuilding, with the final terms to be set no later than December 11, 2002. The Mandatory Convertible Securities will be mandatorily redeemed in registered shares of Credit Suisse Group in three years unless previously converted. An amount equal to the issue price will qualify as equity capital in the interpretation of the Swiss Federal Banking Commission (EBK) and, accordingly, will count as tier 1 capital under BIS rules.

Philip K. Ryan, Chief Financial Officer of Credit Suisse Group, explained: "The Mandatory Convertible structure is ideally suited to efficiently strengthening our capital base, in order to support the future growth of our business. Furthermore, the adjustable conversion ratio means Credit Suisse Group will participate in any future appreciation of its share price."

TRANSACTION DETAILS

Credit Suisse Finance (Guernsey) Ltd., a wholly-owned finance company of Credit Suisse Group, will issue Mandatory Convertible Securities in the amount of CHF 1.0 billion, irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteed on a subordinated basis by Credit Suisse Group, Zurich, Switzerland. The issue size is subject to an increase of an additional CHF 250 million, depending on market conditions. The Mandatory Convertible Securities will be offered from December 2, 2002, until December 6, 2002, to existing shareholders of Credit Suisse Group, where permitted by law, in the form of non-tradable advance subscription rights at a fixed subscription price of 100%. Shareholders of record of Credit Suisse Group prior to the commencement of trading on December 2, 2002, will be entitled to subscribe for the Mandatory Convertible Securities at the ratio of 952 Credit Suisse Group registered shares per CHF 1,000 nominal value of the Mandatory Convertible Securities. Those Mandatory Convertible Securities not subscribed during the advance subscription period will be offered to investors in Switzerland and certain other jurisdictions, where permitted by law. The final terms (including the total issue size, the coupon and the conversion prices) of the Mandatory Convertible Securities will be determined in an open price bookbuilding no later than December 11, 2002.

The Minimum Conversion Ratio will be determined by dividing CHF 1,000 by the Maximum Conversion Price, which will be no higher than 122% of the reference share price at the time of pricing; the Maximum Conversion Ratio will be determined by dividing CHF 1,000 by the Minimum Conversion Price, which will be equal to the reference share price at the time of pricing. Unless previously converted, the Mandatory Convertible Securities will be mandatorily redeemed in registered shares of Credit Suisse Group on December 23, 2005. The number of registered shares to be delivered at maturity (Maturity Conversion Ratio) will be a function of the share price at maturity. If the share price at maturity is lower than the Minimum Conversion Price, the Maturity Conversion Ratio will be equal to the Maximum Conversion Ratio; if the share price at maturity is higher than the Maximum Conversion Price, the Maturity Conversion Ratio will be equal to the Minimum Conversion Ratio. For any share price between the Minimum Conversion Price and the Maximum Conversion Price, the Maturity Conversion Ratio will be calculated by dividing CHF 1,000 by the share price at maturity. The Maturity Conversion Ratio will be calculated based on closing prices of the registered shares on virt-x on the fifteen consecutive trading days, ending on the third trading day immediately prior to the maturity date. From February 3, 2003, until the twentieth trading day prior to the maturity date (December 23, 2005), investors may convert each Mandatory Convertible Security into registered shares of Credit Suisse Group at the Minimum Conversion Ratio.

in respect of the number of its shares corresponding to the Maximum Conversion Ratio. All such payments are at the discretion of Credit Suisse Group and will not be payable under certain adverse circumstances. Fixed Coupon payments will, however, be payable in preference to the payment of any distribution on Credit Suisse Group's registered shares.

Payment for the allocated Mandatory Convertible Securities will be due on December 23, 2002. Admission for the listing of the Mandatory Convertible Securities on the main segment of the SWX Swiss Exchange will be sought.
