The accompanying condensed notes are an integral part of these consolidated financial statements.

Edgar Filing: ALTRIS SOFTWARE INC - Form 10-Q

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Altris Software, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. In the first quarter of fiscal 2001, the Company acquired certain assets and liabilities of Spescom Ltd. U.K. (formerly Altris Software Limited). Spescom Ltd. UK is a wholly owned subsidiary of Spescom Ltd. ("Spescom"), which became the majority shareholder in the Company in April 2000 (See Note 2).

The accompanying consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2002 and for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 are unaudited. The consolidated financial statements and related notes have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to interim periods. In the opinion of management, the consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial position, operating results and cash flows for the periods presented.

The information contained in the following Condensed Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements is condensed from that which would appear in the annual consolidated financial statements; accordingly, the consolidated financial statements included herein should be reviewed in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2002. It should be understood that the accounting measurements at an interim date inherently involve greater reliance on estimates than at year-end. The results of operations for the interim periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the entire year.

Revenue Recognition

The Company enters into contractual arrangements with end-users that may include licensing of the Company's software products, product support and maintenance services, consulting services or various combinations thereof, including the sale of such products or services separately. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Statement of Position ("SOP") 97-2 "Software Revenue Recognition" and SOP 98-9, "Modification of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, with Respect to Certain Transactions" and Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 101.

Software license and third party product revenues are recognized upon shipment of the product if no significant vendor obligations remain and collection is probable. In cases where a significant vendor obligation exists, revenue recognition is delayed until such obligation has been satisfied. For new software products where a historical record has not yet been demonstrated that acceptance is perfunctory, the Company defers recognition of revenue until acceptance has occurred. Annual maintenance revenues, which consist of ongoing support and product updates, are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract. Payments received in advance of performance of the related service for maintenance contracts are recorded as deferred revenue. Revenues from training and consulting services are recognized when the services are performed and adequate evidence of providing such services is available. Contract revenues for contracts or programs requiring specialized systems are recognized using the percentage-of-completion method of accounting, primarily based on contract labor hours incurred to date compared with total estimated labor hours at completion. Provisions for anticipated contract losses are recognized in the period they become known.

Contracts are billed based on the terms of the contract. There are no retentions in billed contract receivables. Unbilled contract receivables relate to revenues earned but not billed at the end of the period. Billings in excess of costs incurred and related earnings are included in deferred revenue.

Foreign Currency Translation

The financial statements of the foreign subsidiary are prepared in its local currency and translated into U.S. dollars based on the current exchange rate at the end of the period for the balance sheet and a weighted-average rate for the period on the statement of operations. The effect of exchange rates resulted in currency translation loss and gain of ($48,000) and $13,000 for the periods ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. Foreign currency transaction gains and losses are included in net loss.

Note 2 Spescom Transaction and Related Parties

Under a royalty arrangement, Spescom resells certain of the Company's software. For the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company recognized royalty revenue of $5,000 and $9,000, respectively. Spescom through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Spescom Ltd. U.K., provides certain administrative and accounting functions for the Company's United Kingdom operations. The Company is billed a monthly fee by Spescom for reimbursement of certain costs in the United Kingdom, including the office facilities; all accounting and human resources services; and certain corporate marketing activities. For the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the administrative fees totaled $151,000 and $211,000, respectively. At December 31, 2002 the Company had a payable to Spescom of $508,000 as compared to $495,000, at September 30, 2002. In the United States, the Company billed Spescom for certain marketing services totaling $14,000 and $13,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

In 1999, as part of an agreement with Spescom, the lease for the United Kingdom office facility was to be assigned to Spescom; however, the landlord did not grant its consent to the assignment. Since 1999 Spescom has paid the lease for the entire office directly to the landlord. The lease expires in March 2006 and has an annual rent of $530,000. A portion of the office has been subleased to a third party tenant for an annual rent of $179,000. The sublease also expires March 2006; however, the tenant has an option to break the lease in February 2004. For the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 the Company paid Spescom rent of $67,000 and $67,000, respectively, as part of the monthly administration fee.

Related party liabilities consist of the following:

| | December 31, 2002 | September 30, 2002 |
|---|----------------------|-----------------------|
| Related-Party Long-term liabilities: | | |
| Notes payable on demand Spescom Ltd., U.K. | $ 1,712,000 | $ 1,669,000 |
| Note payable Spescom Ltd., U.K. | 2,029,000 | 1,980,000 |
| Note payable Spescom | 1,251,000 | 1,232,000 |
| | $ 4,992,000 | $ 4,881,000 |

At December 31, 2002, the Company had three demand notes payable to Spescom Ltd, U.K. for $400,000, $500,000 and $700,000, respectively, each bearing an annual interest rate of 10%. As of December 31, 2002 the balance owed on the notes was $1,712,000 including accrued interest. Interest expense on the notes for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 was $42,000 and $0 respectively. Spescom has agreed that the demand notes will not be called prior to April 1, 2004.

At December 31, 2002, the Company owed Spescom Ltd. U.K. $2,029,000, including accumulated interest. The note bears interest at an interest rate of 10.0% per annum, with principal and interest payable at maturity, on October 15, 2003. Spescom has agreed to extend the maturity date on this note to April 1, 2004. Interest expense on this note totaled $50,000 and $46,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

As of December 31, 2002, the Company had a note payable to Spescom for $1,251,000 including accrued interest. Interest on the outstanding note accrues at the rate of 10.0% per annum. Principal and all unpaid accrued interest is payable at maturity on October 15, 2003. Spescom has agreed to extend the maturity date on this note to April 1, 2004. Interest expense on this note totaled $28,000 and $10,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

These notes payable are collateralized by a security interest in favor of both Spescom and Spescom Ltd. U.K. in respect of all of the Company's assets.

Note 3 Receivables

Receivables consist of the following:

| | December 31, 2002 | September 30, 2002 |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------|-----------------------|
| | (Unaudited) | |
| Billed receivables | $ 721,000 | $ 1,615,000 |
| Less: allowance for doubtful accounts | (141,000) | (156,000) |
| | | |

Edgar Filing: ALTRIS SOFTWARE INC - Form 10-Q

| | December 31, 2002 | September 30, 2002 |
|--|----------------------|-----------------------|
| | $ 580,000 | $ 1,459,000 |

Note 4 Reconciliation of Net Loss and Shares Used in Per Share Computations:

Basic net income(loss) per common share is computed as net income(loss) divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the periods. Diluted net income(loss) per common share is computed as net income(loss) divided by the weighted average number of common shares and potential common shares, using the treasury stock method, outstanding during the periods and assumes conversion into common stock at the beginning of each period of all outstanding shares of stock options and other common stock equivalents. Computations of basic and diluted loss per share do not give effect to individual potential common stock instruments for any period in which their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

| | For the three months ended December 31, | |
|---|--|----------------|
| | 2002 | 2001 |
| Net income (loss) used in computing basic and diluted net income (loss) per share | $ (62,000) | $ (1,887,000) |

Shares Used:

|--|------------|------------|
| Weighted average common shares outstanding used in computing basic and diluted net loss per common share | 30,842,000 | 30,842,000 |
|--|------------|------------|

Employee stock options to acquire 54,000 and 8,000 shares of common stock were outstanding at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively, and were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because their effect was antidilutive.

Note 5 Segment and Geographic Information

The Company has one business segment which consists of the development and sale of a suite of integrated document, configuration and records management software products.

Revenues for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 by customer location are as follows:

| | 2002 | 2001 |
|----------------------------------|--------------|--------------|
| United States | $ 1,315,000 | $ 834,000 |
| Europe, primarily United Kingdom | 951,000 | 844,000 |
| Other International | 23,000 | 40,000 |
| | $ 2,289,000 | $ 1,718,000 |

Note 6 Recent Accounting Pronouncements

During August 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations" ("SFAS No. 143"). SFAS No. 143 addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. It applies to all entities and legal obligations associated with the retirement of long-lived assets that result from the acquisition, construction, development and/or normal operation of a long-lived assets, except for certain obligations of lessees. SFAS No. 143 amends FASB Statement No. 19, "Financial Accounting and Reporting by Oil and Gas Producing Companies," and is effective for fiscal years beginning after April 1, 2003.

During August 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" ("SFAS No. 144"). SFAS No. 144 addresses financial accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. SFAS No. 144 supersedes SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of," and the accounting and reporting provision of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual, and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions," for the disposal of a segment of a business (as previously defined in that Opinion). SFAS No. 144 is effective for fiscal years beginning after April 1, 2002.

In June 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities" ("SFAS No.146"), which provides financial accounting and reporting guidance for costs associated with exit or disposal activities, including one-time termination benefits, contract termination costs other than for a capital lease, and costs to consolidate facilities or relocate employees. SFAS 146 nullifies EITF Issue 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)". Under SFAS 146, a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity should be recognized and measured initially at its fair value in the period in which the liability is incurred. SFAS 146 is effective for exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002.

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure: An amendment of FASB Statement 123". This Statement amends SFAS 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based compensation", to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this Statement amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. The disclosure provisions of SFAS 148 are applicable for fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2002.

Management believes the adoption of statements 143, 144, 146 and 148 will not have a material effect on the financial statements.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical results or anticipated results, including those set forth under "Certain Factors That May Affect Future Results" below and elsewhere in, or incorporated by reference into, this report.

Edgar Filing: ALTRIS SOFTWARE INC - Form 10-Q

When used in the following discussion, the words "believes," "anticipates" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements, which may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and the related notes thereto that appear elsewhere in this document.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. As such, management is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The significant accounting policies which are most critical to aid in fully understanding and evaluating reported financial results include the following:

Revenue Recognition

The Company enters into contractual arrangements with end-users that may include licensing of the Company's software products, product support and maintenance services, consulting services or various combinations thereof, including the sale of such products or services separately. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Statement of Position ("SOP") 97-2 "Software Revenue Recognition" and SOP 98-9, "Modification of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, with Respect to Certain Transactions" and Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 101.

Software license and third party product revenues are recognized upon shipment of the product if no significant vendor obligations remain and collection is probable. In cases where a significant vendor obligation exists, revenue recognition is delayed until such obligation has been satisfied. For new software products where a historical record has not yet been demonstrated that acceptance is perfunctory, the Company defers recognition of revenue until acceptance has occurred. Annual maintenance revenues, which consist of ongoing support and product updates, are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract. Payments received in advance of performance of the related service for maintenance contracts are recorded as deferred revenue. Revenues from training and consulting services are recognized when the services are performed and adequate evidence of providing such services is available. Contract revenues for long-term contracts or programs requiring specialized systems are recognized using the percentage-of-completion method of accounting, primarily based on contract labor hours incurred to date compared with total estimated labor hours at completion. Provisions for anticipated contract losses are recognized at the time they become known.

Contracts are billed based on the terms of the contract. There are no retentions in billed contract receivables. Unbilled contract receivables relate to revenues earned but not billed at the end of the period. Billings in excess of costs incurred and related earnings are included in deferred revenue.

The Company considers many factors when applying accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America related to revenue recognition. These factors include, but are not limited to:

The actual contractual terms, such as payment terms, delivery dates, and pricing of the various product and service elements of a contract

Availability of products to be delivered

Time period over which services are to be performed

Creditworthiness of the customer

The complexity of customizations to the Company's software required by service contracts

Edgar Filing: ALTRIS SOFTWARE INC - Form 10-Q

The sales channel through which the sale is made (direct, VAR, distributor, etc.)

Discounts given for each element of a contract

Any commitments made as to installation or implementation "go live" dates

Each of the relevant factors is analyzed to determine its impact, individually and collectively with other factors, on the revenue to be recognized for any particular contract with a customer. Management is required to make judgments regarding the significance of each factor in applying the revenue recognition standards, as well as whether or not each factor complies with such standards. Any misjudgment or error by management in its evaluation of the factors and the application of the standards, especially with respect to complex or new types of transactions, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's future operating results.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The Company sells its products directly to end-users, generally requiring a significant up-front payment and remaining terms appropriate for the creditworthiness of the customer. The Company also sells its products to VARs and other software distributors generally under terms appropriate for the creditworthiness of the VAR or distributor. Management believes that no significant concentrations of credit risk existed at December 31, 2002 and September 30, 2002. Receivables from customers are generally unsecured. The Company continuously monitors its customer account balances and actively pursues collections on past due balances. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts which is comprised of a general reserve based on historical collections performance plus a specific reserve for certain known customers with collections issues. If actual bad debts are greater than the reserves calculated based on historical trends and known customer issues, the Company records additional bad debt expense which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition for the periods in which such additional expense occurs.

Capitalized Software Development Costs

Software development costs incurred subsequent to the determination of technological feasibility and marketability of a software product are capitalized. Amortization of capitalized software development costs commences when the products are available for general release. Amortization is determined on a product by product basis using the greater of a ratio of current product revenues to projected current and future product revenues or an amount calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated economic life of the product, generally three to five years. In addition to in-house software development costs, the Company purchases certain software from third-party software providers and capitalizes such costs in software development costs. The Company continually evaluates the recoverability based on the present value of future cash flows of its capitalized software development costs and considers any events or changes in circumstances that would indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Any material changes in circumstances, such as a large decrease in revenues or the discontinuation of a particular product line could require future write-downs in the Company's capitalized software development costs and could have a material adverse impact on our operating results for the periods in which such write-downs occur.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

THREE MONTHS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002 COMPARED WITH THREE MONTHS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2001.

Revenues

Revenues for the three months ended December 31, 2002 were $2,289,000 as compared to $1,718,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2001.

For the three months ended December 31, 2002 revenues consisted of $921,000 (40%) in software licenses and $1,368,000 (60%) related to services and other revenue. This compares to software license revenues of $318,000 (19%) and services and other revenue of $1,400,000 (81%) for the three months ended December 31, 2001.

Software license revenues increased $603,000 for the three-month period ended December 31, 2002 over the three months ended December 31, 2001. The increase is due to higher sales of the eB product as a result of customers expanding their existing software systems and software orders from new customers. Prior years sales were lower as a result of the economic slowdown in the United States of America caused by the September 11th terrorists attacks.

Edgar Filing: ALTRIS SOFTWARE INC - Form 10-Q

Revenues generated from services decreased $32,000 for the three-month period ended December 31, 2002 over the three-month period ended December 31, 2001. Although software license revenue increased significantly, the Company experienced a decrease in services revenue because the software for expansion of existing customers requires substantially less services than the software for a new customer, which typically includes a design study, integration with other business systems and training.

A small number of customers have typically accounted for a large percentage of the Company's revenues. One customer accounted for 27% of total revenues and another accounted for 12% of total revenues for the three months ended December 31, 2002 as compared to one customer that accounted for 15% of total revenue for the three months ended December 31, 2001. One consequence of this dependence has been that revenue can fluctuate significantly on a quarterly basis. The Company's reliance on relatively few customers could have a material adverse effect on the results of its operations on a quarterly basis.

Cost of Revenues

Gross profit as a percentage of revenue was 63% and 28% for the three month periods ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. Gross profit consists of gross profit from licenses and gross profit from services and other. The increase in gross profit for the three months ended December 31, 2002 from the three months ended December 31, 2001 was due to the increase in software license revenue, which has a higher gross profit margin.

Cost of license revenues consists of costs associated with reselling third-party software products and amortization of internal software development costs. The total overall costs of license revenues decreased $43,000 due to an increase in third party software costs of $91,000 which was offset by a decrease in amortization of $134,000 as a result of the write-down in 2002 of capitalized costs associated with certain older software products. The gross profit percentage of license revenues improved to 76% for the three months ended December 31, 2002 from 18% for the three months ended December 31, 2001. The improvement is primarily due to an increase in sales of eB software combined with the decrease in amortization.

Cost of services and other revenues consists primarily of personnel-related costs in providing consulting services, training to customers and support. It also includes costs associated with reselling third-party hardware and maintenance. Gross profit from services and other revenue as a percentage of services and other revenue was 54% and 30% for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The improvement in the gross profit percentage from services and other revenue was due to the reduction in March 2002 of personnel and personnel-related costs of $197,000 and other costs of $220,000 relating primarily to third party maintenance, consultants and travel.

The Company's software and services are sold at a significantly higher margin than third party products, which are resold at a lower gross profit percentage in order for the Company to remain competitive in the marketplace for such third party products. Gross profit percentages can fluctuate quarterly based on the revenue mix of Company software, services and third party software or hardware.

Operating Expenses

Research and development expense for the three months ended December 31, 2002 was $351,000 as compared to $624,000 for the three-month period ended December 31, 2001. The decrease in research and development for the three months ended December 31, 2002 was primarily due to decreases in personnel and associated costs of $267,000 as a result of a reduction in personnel in March 2002. The reductions were implemented with a view to retaining the Company's core technological competencies and maintaining its abilities to continue to enhance its eB product suite.

Marketing and sales expense for the three months ended December 31, 2002 was $626,000 as compared to $1,251,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2001. The decrease was primarily due to the reduction in marketing and sales personnel and associated costs of $421,000 that took place in March 2002. The remaining decrease was due to lower consultant and other sales related costs. Management believes that the reduced sales and marketing expenditures are more in line with current revenues.

General and administrative expense was $408,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 as compared to $435,000 for the three-month period ended December 31, 2001. The decrease was due to the reduction in general and administrative personnel and their associated costs that took place in March 2002.

Interest and other expense was $125,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 as compared to $55,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2001. The increase was due to additional interest expense on the Company's higher debt balances during 2002 as compared to 2001.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At December 31, 2002, the Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled $392,000 as compared to $87,000 at September 30, 2002, and its current ratio (current assets divided by current liabilities) was .26 to 1 at December 31, 2002.

For the quarter ended December 31, 2002, cash provided by operating activities totaled $340,000, as compared with $1,036,000 of cash used by operating activities for the same period in 2001. The reversal was due in part to increased sales and collections combined with the cost reductions implemented in March 2002.

The Company has received loans from Spescom and affiliates in the past to meet its obligations. Accrued interest for the three months ended December 31, 2002 increased the outstanding balance of these loans from Spescom from $4,881,000 on September 30, 2002 to $4,992,000 at December 31, 2002. Such loans are secured by all of the assets of the Company. See "Related Party Transactions" below.

Although the Company in the past has received funding from Spescom for working capital purposes, Spescom is not obligated to provide additional loans. Spescom has stated that it intends to continue to support the Company's operations and depending on the merits of any situation that may arise in the future, Spescom will make its best efforts to provide further funding if necessary. However, if Spescom is otherwise able to provide additional loans on terms acceptable to the Company, the funding of such loans may be delayed or prevented by currency exchange regulations of the Republic of South Africa, under which Spescom is required to apply for and obtain the approval of the South African Reserve Bank before providing any funds to the Company. Moreover, the terms on which any additional funding may be provided are not specified and may include interest rates, security arrangements or additional equity dilution that are not acceptable to the Company or that could be materially adverse to the Company.

In March 2002, the Company implemented a plan to focus on core activities and substantially reduced costs in an effort to achieve a break-even level of cash flow in fiscal 2003. In the fourth quarter 2002, the Company was able to break-even on earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) as compared to a loss of $(1,130,000) for the same period at 2001. In the first quarter 2003 the Company generated $186,000 of EBITDA in the first quarter 2003 as compared to a loss of $(1,584,000) for the same period in fiscal 2002 (see table below). Management believes that the cost reductions implemented in March 2002 have proven effective and will continue to enable the Company to achieve a cash flow break-even from on-going operations based on the projected level of revenues.

| Calculation of EBITDA | For the three months ended December 31, | |
|--|--|-----------------------|
| | 2002 | 2001 |
| Net loss | $ (62,000) | $ (1,887,000) |
| Add back the following: | | |
| Interest and other, net | 125,000 | 52,000 |
| Depreciation and amortization | 123,000 | 251,000 |
| EBITDA | $ 186,000 | $ (1,584,000) |
| EBITDA per common share | $ 0.01 | $ (0.05) |
| Shares used in computing EBITDA | 30,842,000 | 30,842,000 |

Although the reductions in March 2002 reduced the Company's research and development, marketing and sales capabilities, management believes that the reduced levels of research and development, marketing and sales costs are consistent with the level of revenues currently being achieved. Moreover, the Company believes such reductions were implemented with a view to maximizing the Company's ability to continue to maintain and support its eB product suite, while at the same time pursuing opportunities for sales of new eB core systems to new customers. The Company's future liquidity will depend on its ability to generate new system sales of its eB product suite in the near term, which cannot be assured. Failure to generate sufficient system sales to meet the Company's cash flow needs can be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations, and financial condition. The Company's financial position can be a factor in attracting new customers. In an effort to strengthen the Company's financial condition and provide capital for expanding marketing and sales capabilities, the Company has begun to seek additional equity or debt financing from third parties. There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available or that the terms of such financing will be acceptable to the Company. Based on the momentum created from the increase in customer orders in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002 and orders to date in fiscal 2003, management believes that the Company's current cash and receivables, as well as additional cash that may be generated from operations, will be sufficient to meet its short-term needs for working capital. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain sufficient orders to enable the Company to continue on a cash flow break-even level, which would be necessary to continue operations in the absence of further financing.

Net Operating Loss Tax Carryforwards

The Company has recorded a valuation allowance amounting to the entire net deferred tax asset balance due to its lack of a history of earnings, possible limitations on the use of carryforwards, and the expiration of certain of the net operating loss carryforwards which gives rise to uncertainty as to whether the net deferred tax asset is realizable.

The Company has net operating loss carryforwards of $32,961,000 and $7,271,000 for federal and state tax purposes, respectively, which expire over the years 2003 through 2021. Effective September 11, 2002, pursuant to California revenue and tax code section 24416.3, no net operating loss deduction would be allowed for any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2004. For any suspended losses, the carryover period would be extended by one year for losses incurred in tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003; and by two years for losses incurred in taxable years beginning before January 1, 2002. The Company has investment and research activity credit carryforwards aggregating $640,000, which will substantially expire in the years 2002 through 2006.

As a result of the Spescom acquisition, an additional ownership change occurred in April 2000. The Company's ability to utilize the consolidated NOL in future years will be limited pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 382. The annual limitation is approximately $1,159,000.

CERTAIN FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

Foreign Currency

The Company's geographic markets are primarily in the United States and Europe, with sales in other parts of the world. In the three months ended December 31, 2002, revenue from the United States, Europe and other locations in the world were 57%, 42% and 1%, respectively. This compares to 48%, 47% and 5%, respectively for the same period in 2001. The European currencies have been relatively stable against the U.S. dollar for the past several years. As a result, foreign currency fluctuations have not had a significant impact on the Company's revenues or results of operations. Changes in foreign currency rates, the condition of local economies, and the general volatility of software markets may result in higher or lower proportion of foreign revenues in the future. Although the Company's operating and pricing strategies take into account changes in exchange rates over time, there can be no assurance that future fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, operating results and financial condition.

Inflation

The Company believes that inflation has not had a material effect on its operations to date. Although the Company enters into fixed-price contracts, management does not believe that inflation will have a material impact on its operations for the foreseeable future, as the Company takes into account expected inflation in its contract proposals and is generally able to project its costs based on forecasted contract requirements.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Under a royalty arrangement, Spescom resells certain of the Company's software. For the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company recognized royalty revenue of $5,000 and $9,000, respectively. Spescom through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Spescom Ltd. U.K., provides certain administrative and accounting functions for the Company's United Kingdom operations. The Company is billed a monthly fee by Spescom for reimbursement of certain costs in the United Kingdom, including the office facilities; all accounting and human resources services; and certain corporate marketing activities. For the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the administrative fees totaled $151,000 and $211,000, respectively. At December 31, 2002 the Company had a payable to Spescom of $508,000 as compared to $495,000, at September 30, 2002. In the United States, the Company billed Spescom for certain marketing services totaling $14,000 and $13,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

In 1999, as part of an agreement with Spescom, the lease for the United Kingdom office facility was to be assigned to Spescom; however, the landlord did not grant its consent to the assignment. Since 1999 Spescom has paid the lease for the entire office directly to the landlord. The lease expires in March 2006 and has an annual rent of $530,000. A portion of the office has been subleased to a third party tenant for an annual rent of $179,000. The sublease also expires March 2006; however, the tenant has an option to break the lease in February 2004. For the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 the Company paid Spescom rent of $67,000 and $67,000, respectively, as part of the monthly administration fee.

Related party liabilities consist of the following:

| | December 31, 2002 | September 30, 2002 |
|---|----------------------|-----------------------|
| Related-Party Long-term liabilities: | | |
| Notes payable on demand Spescom Ltd., U.K. | $ 1,712,000 | $ 1,669,000 |
| Note payable Spescom Ltd., U.K. | 2,029,000 | 1,980,000 |
| Note payable Spescom | 1,251,000 | 1,232,000 |
| | $ 4,992,000 | $ 4,881,000 |

At December 31, 2002, the Company had three demand notes payable to Spescom Ltd, U.K. for $400,000, $500,000 and $700,000, respectively, each bearing an annual interest rate of 10%. As of December 31, 2002 the balance owed on the notes was $1,712,000 including accrued interest. Interest expense on the notes for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 was $42,000 and $0 respectively. Spescom has agreed that the demand notes will not be called prior to April 1, 2004.

At December 31, 2002, the Company owed Spescom Ltd. U.K. $2,029,000, including accumulated interest. The note bears interest at an interest rate of 10.0% per annum, with principal and interest payable at maturity, on October 15, 2003. Spescom has agreed to extend the maturity date on this note to April 1, 2004. Interest expense on this note totaled $50,000 and $46,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

As of December 31, 2002, the Company had a note payable to Spescom for $1,251,000 including accrued interest. Interest on the outstanding note accrues at the rate of 10.0% per annum. Principal and all unpaid accrued interest is payable at maturity on October 15, 2003. Spescom has agreed to extend the maturity date on this note to April 1, 2004. Interest expense on this note totaled $28,000 and $10,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

These notes payable are collateralized by a security interest in favor of both Spescom and Spescom Ltd. U.K. in respect of all of the Company's assets.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Market Rate Risk

The Company's exposure to market rate risk for changes in interest rates relates primarily to the Company's investment portfolio. The Company does not use derivative financial instruments in its investment portfolio. The Company places its investment with high quality issuers and follows internally developed guidelines to limit the amount of credit exposure to any one issuer. Additionally, in an attempt to limit interest rate risk, the Company follows guidelines to limit the average and longest single maturity dates. The Company is adverse to principal loss and ensures the safety and preservation of its invested funds by limiting default, market and reinvestment risk. The Company's investments include money market accounts, as of December 31, 2002.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Within the 90 days prior to the date of this report, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13a-14. Based upon that evaluation, we have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in recording, processing, summarizing and reporting within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms material information relating to the Company (including its consolidated subsidiaries) required to be included in the Company's periodic SEC filings. There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the Company's internal controls subsequent to the evaluation date.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1 Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved from time to time in litigation arising in the normal course of business. Management believes that any liability with respect to such routine litigation, individually or in the aggregate, is not likely to be material to the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.
