SADDLE BROOK, N.J., Thursday, June 26, 2003 Sealed Air Corporation (NYSE:SEE) announced today that it intends, subject to market and other customary conditions, to make private offerings of up to $1.25 billion of senior notes, including $300 million of convertible senior notes. In addition, the Company expects to grant to the initial purchasers of the convertible senior notes an option to purchase in such private offerings an additional $45 million of the convertible senior notes exercisable for a period of 30 days.

The Company said that, subject to the prior completion of at least one of these offerings, it intends to use all of the net proceeds of the offerings to call for redemption all or a portion of its outstanding shares of Series A convertible preferred stock. The current redemption value of such shares, which are redeemable at a price of $51.00 per share, amounts to approximately $1.3 billion.

The notes will be offered in the United States to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Certain of these securities may also be offered to a limited number of institutional accredited investors in the United States in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and to non-U.S. persons outside of the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act.
