Proxy Statement For Annual Meeting of Stockholders
To Be Held on June 10, 2004

GENERAL INFORMATION

What is this document? This is the Notice of our 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of iParty Corp. (the "Company"), combined with our Proxy Statement which provides important information for your use in voting your shares of our common stock, or our various series of convertible preferred stock, at the annual meeting.

Who can vote? You can vote your shares of common stock or your shares of convertible preferred stock if our records show that you owned the shares on April 12, 2004, which is the record date for the annual meeting. Shares representing a total of 37,034,091 votes are eligible to vote at the meeting. As of April 12, 2004, we had outstanding 21,030,877 shares of common stock; 532,819 shares of Series B convertible preferred stock; 100,000 shares of Series C convertible preferred stock; 250,000 shares of Series D convertible preferred stock; 366,667 shares of Series E convertible preferred stock; and 114,286 shares of Series F convertible preferred stock. No shares of our Series A convertible preferred stock remain outstanding.

Common Stock. You are permitted one vote for each share of common stock you owned on April 12, 2004, including (1) shares held in your name as a stockholder of record, and (2) shares held in "street name" for you as the beneficial owner through a broker, trustee, or other nominee, such as a bank. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of shares you can vote.

Preferred Stock. You are permitted one vote for each whole number of shares of our common stock into which your shares of convertible preferred stock are convertible. Thus, you are permitted twelve (12) votes for each share of Series B convertible preferred stock, thirteen (13) votes for each share of Series C convertible preferred stock, fourteen (14) votes for each share of Series D convertible preferred stock, ten (10) votes for each share of Series E convertible preferred stock, and ten (10) votes for each shares of Series F convertible preferred stock. In each such case, the number of votes is calculated based on the number of shares you owned on April 12, 2004, including (1) shares held in your name as a stockholder of record, and (2) shares held in "street name" for you as the beneficial owner through a broker, trustee, or other nominee, such as a bank. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of shares you can vote.

Special Voting Rights of Series C and Series D Preferred Stock. The Series C convertible preferred stock is entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series C Director, but the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series C convertible preferred stock have indicated to us that they have chosen not to exercise this right at this time. The Series D convertible preferred stock is also entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series D Director. On all other matters, our common stock and our various series of convertible preferred stock vote together as one class on all matters presented at the annual meeting.

How do I vote by proxy? Follow the instructions on the enclosed proxy card to vote on each proposal to be considered at the annual meeting. Sign and date the proxy card and mail it back in the enclosed envelope. The proxy holders named on the proxy card will vote your shares as you instruct. If you sign and return the proxy card but do not vote on a proposal, the proxy holders will vote for you on that proposal. Unless you instruct otherwise, the proxy holders will vote in accordance with the Board of Director's recommendations below.

How does the board of directors recommend that I vote on the proposals? The Board of Directors recommends that you vote:

FOR the election of the nominees to serve as directors; and

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

FOR the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 25, 2004.

What if other matters come up at the meeting? The matters described in this proxy statement are the only matters we know that will be voted on at the meeting. If other matters are properly presented at the meeting, the proxy holders will vote your shares in their discretion.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card? Yes. At any time before the annual meeting, you can change your vote either by sending our Secretary, Mr. Patrick Farrell, a written notice revoking your proxy card or by signing, dating, and returning to us a new proxy card. We will honor the proxy card with the latest date.

Can I vote in person at the meeting rather than by completing the proxy card? Although we encourage you to complete and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the meeting to ensure that your vote is counted, you can always vote your shares in person at the meeting.

Who will count the votes? The votes cast by holders of shares of our common stock and our various series of convertible preferred stock will be counted, tabulated and certified by the transfer agent and registrar of our common stock and Series B convertible preferred stock, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Co. Mr. Patrick Farrell, our Secretary, will serve as the inspector of elections at the annual meeting.

Will my vote be kept confidential? Yes, your vote will be kept confidential and we will not disclose your vote, unless (1) we are required to do so by law (including in connection with the pursuit or defense of a legal or administrative action or proceeding), or (2) there is a contested election for the Board of Directors. The inspector of elections will forward any written comments that you make on the proxy card to our Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer without providing your name, unless you expressly request disclosure on your proxy card.

What do I do if I am a beneficial owner and my shares are held in "street name"? If your shares are held in the name of your broker, a bank, or other nominee, that party will give you instructions for voting your shares, which should be enclosed with this document.

What constitutes a quorum? In order for business to be conducted at the meeting, a quorum must be present. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting (on an as-converted-into-common basis) is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting.

Shares of common stock and convertible preferred stock represented in person or by proxy (including "broker non-votes" and shares that abstain or do not vote with respect to one or more of the matters to be voted upon) will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum exists. "Broker non-votes" are those shares that are held in "street name" by a broker, bank, or other nominee that indicates on its proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter

If a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned until a quorum is obtained.

What is the voting requirement to approve each of the proposals? In the election of directors, the persons receiving the most number of "FOR" votes at the meeting will be elected. Holders of shares of Series D convertible preferred stock alone are entitled to cast votes in respect of the election of the Series D Director. All other proposals require the affirmative "FOR" vote of a majority of those shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on those proposals at the meeting. If you hold shares beneficially in street name and do not provide your broker with voting instructions, your shares may constitute "broker non-votes." Generally, broker non-votes occur on a matter when a broker is not permitted to vote on that matter without instructions from you, as the beneficial owner. In counting the voting result for any particular proposal, broker non-votes are not considered entitled to vote on that proposal. Thus, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of any matter being voted at the meeting, assuming that a quorum is obtained. An abstention will have the same effect as voting against the proposal.

Where can I find the voting results? We will report the voting results in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of fiscal 2004, which we expect to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") in August 2004. The results will be contained in Part II, Item 4 of that Quarterly Report, which will be available via Internet on the SEC's website, www.sec.gov.

Who pays for this proxy solicitation? We do. In addition to sending you these materials, one of our officers, directors or employees may contact you by telephone, by mail, or in person. None of these persons will receive any extra compensation for doing this.

Where can I get directions to the meeting? The meeting will be held in the offices of Posternak Blankstein & Lund LLP on the 33rd floor of the Prudential Tower, 800 Boylston Street, Boston, MA. Directions to the meeting location are available at www.pbl.com.

How and when may I submit a stockholder proposal for consideration at next year's annual meeting of stockholders or to nominate individuals to serve as directors? You may submit proposals, including director nominations, for consideration at future stockholder meetings.

Stockholder Proposals: If you are interested in submitting a proposal for inclusion in our proxy statement for the annual meeting next year, or would like to recommend a nominee for director, we must receive your written proposal at our principal executive offices no later than December 27, 2004, which is the first business day after the 120th calendar day before the one-year anniversary of the proxy statement we are releasing to our stockholders for this year's annual meeting. If the date of next year's annual meeting (or special meeting in lieu of the annual meeting) is moved more than 30 days before or after the anniversary date of this year's meeting, the deadline for inclusion of proposals in our proxy statement is instead a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy materials next year. Such proposals also will need to comply with SEC regulations under Rule 14a-8 regarding the inclusion of shareowner proposals in company-sponsored proxy materials. Any proposals should be addressed to:

iParty Corp.
270 Bridge Street, Suite 301
Dedham, MA 02026
ATTN: Patrick Farrell, Secretary
Fax: (781) 326-7143

Our by-laws also are available on the Investor Relations page on our website at www.iparty.com.

How may I communicate with the board of directors or the non-management directors on the board of directors? You may submit an e-mail to our Board of Directors at bod@iparty.com. All directors have access to this e-mail address. Communications intended for our non-management "independent" directors should be directed to the attention of Mr. Frank Haydu at frankhaydu@yahoo.com.

Does the company have a policy regarding the attendance of directors at the meeting? Our by-laws do not mandate that members of the Board of Directors must attend the annual meeting of stockholders and we have no separate policy regarding such attendance.

How many directors attended last year's annual meeting? One of our four directors attended last year's meeting.

Does the company have a code of conduct applicable to all directors, officers, and employees? Yes. In accordance with Section 406 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, Item 406 of SEC Regulation S-K, and Section 807 of the enhanced corporate governance rules of the American Stock Exchange, we have adopted a code of conduct and ethics that is applicable to all our directors, officers and employees and is available on the Investor Relations page on our website at www.iparty.com. Our written code of conduct and ethics provides for an enforcement mechanism and requires that waiver of its provisions for any of our directors or officers must be approved by our Board of Directors. We are required to disclose any such waivers on a Form 8-K within five business days.

Is the code of conduct publicly available? Yes. It is available on the Investor Relations page of the www.iparty.com website.

How can I obtain an annual report on Form 10-K? A copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 27, 2003 is enclosed with this proxy statement. Stockholders may request another free copy of our 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K by making a written or oral request to:

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The entire Board of Directors, to consist of seven members, will be elected at the annual meeting. The directors elected will serve until re-elected or their successors are elected, which should occur at our next annual meeting in accordance with our by-laws. During the fiscal year ended December 27, 2003, our Board of Directors consisted of Messrs. Perisano, Lessin, Roccia, Farrell, Haydu, Schindler, De Wolf, and Ms. Weaver-Vest. Messrs. Farrell and Lessin will not stand for re-election in order to assist our Board of Directors in meeting the new corporate governance rules of the American Stock Exchange, which, among other things, mandate that a majority of our Board of Directors must be comprised on "independent" non-employee and non-affiliate directors. The Board of Directors intends to invite Mr. Lessin to participate in its meetings as an observer and to invite Mr. Farrell to participate in its meetings by virtue of his position as our President and Chief Financial Officer, but following the annual meeting Mr. Lessin or Mr. Farrell will cease to be directors and as such will not participate in the deliberations of the Board of Directors or its respective committees.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors, including each "independent" non-management director and each member of the Nominating Committee, recommends that the stockholders vote FOR each of the nominees for director named below.

Vote Required

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast. Unless a stockholder withholds authority, a properly signed and dated proxy will be voted FOR the election of the persons named below, unless the proxy contains contrary instructions.

We have no reason to believe that any of the nominees will not be a candidate or will be unable to serve as a director. However, in the event any nominee is not a candidate or is unable or unwilling to serve as a director at the time of the election, unless the stockholder withholds authority from voting, the proxies will be voted for any nominee who shall be designated by the present Board of Directors to fill such vacancy.

The holders of Series C convertible preferred stock are entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series C Director, but the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Series C convertible preferred stock have indicated to us that they have chosen not to exercise this right at this time.

The holders of Series D convertible preferred stock are entitled to vote alone for the election of a Series D Director. Ms. Weaver-Vest is the designee of the holders of the Series D convertible preferred stock.

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

Director Independence

Our Board of Directors has determined that each of the seven director-nominees is an "independent" director as defined under applicable rules of the American Stock Exchange, except for (1) Mr. Perisano, who serves as our Chief Executive Officer, (2) Mr. Roccia, who is the general partner of Roccia Partners, L.P. and Roccia Venture Partners, L.P., which are affiliates of the Company based on their beneficial ownership of Company securities, and (3) Ms. Weaver-Vest, who is an employee of Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst Incorporated, which beneficially owns all of the outstanding shares of our Series D convertible preferred stock, which is entitled to designate the Series D Director. As a result, the Board of Directors has determined that a majority of the director-nominees are "independent" under applicable rules of the American Stock Exchange.

Director Compensation

Under our Amended and Restated 1998 Incentive and Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (the "Stock Option Plan"), as currently in effect, each non-employee director is granted, on the effective date of the commencement of his term as director, options to purchase 25,000 shares of our common stock. In addition, each of our directors who is not an executive officer is granted, on an annual basis on the last trading date in August of each year, options to acquire 25,000 shares of common stock, at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant.

Pursuant to Section 14(b) of the Stock Option Plan, our Board of Directors has approved an amendment to the Stock Option Plan whereby, effective June 10, 2004, non-independent directors shall cease being eligible to receive stock options by virtue of their service on the Board of Directors. Pursuant to this amendment, in lieu of the stock option grants described in the preceding paragraph, each "independent" director (as defined under applicable rules of the American Stock Exchange) shall be granted options for the purchase of 40,000 shares of our common stock on the date of our annual meeting. Pursuant to this amendment, independent directors who serve on a committee of the Board of Directors will receive an additional 20,000 options to purchase our common stock and an additional 10,000 options for service on each additional committee of the Board of Directors. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following report and the performance graph on page 18 do not constitute soliciting materials and are not considered filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing with the SEC, unless we state otherwise.

Report of the Compensation Committee

This report sets forth the duties of the Compensation Committee and the current strategy and components of iParty Corp.'s (the "Company") compensation programs for its executive officers. This report also describes the basis on which the committee made compensation determinations with respect to these executive officers for the year ended December 27, 2003.

Compensation Committee Participation. The Compensation Committee, currently composed of three non-employee directors who qualify as "independent" under applicable American Stock Exchange rules, is responsible for the review and recommendation to the full Board of Directors of the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, review and approval of the compensation of the other executive officers pursuant to employment agreements between the Company and such executive officers and review and approval of other employee benefit plans. We are aware of no interlocking compensation committee relationships between our directors and executive officers and the directors and executive officers of any other public company. The Committee's goals are to:

provide compensation competitive with similar companies;

reward executives consistent with the performance of the Company;

recognize individual performance;

retain and attract qualified executives; and encourage our executives to increase stockholder value by aligning their interests with the interests of our stockholders.

To achieve these goals, the Committee considers three basic elements in determining total compensation for the Company's executive officers: base salary, annual cash bonus, and stock options. The Committee intends to review its compensation policies from time to time in order to take into account factors which are unique to the Company.

Base Salary. The base salaries of our executive officers are set forth in employment agreements entered into by the Company and its executive officers. In considering the appropriate base salaries in connection with such agreements, the Committee considers competitive industry salaries, the nature of the officer's position, the officer's contribution and experience, and the officer's length of service. Base salaries are conservatively pegged to a level we subjectively believe to be competitive with the average levels of base salary in organizations of similar size.

Annual Cash Bonus. The Committee approved cash bonuses to executive officers relating to their 2003 performance, which were paid following the end of fiscal 2003. The bonus was $20,000 in the case of Mr. Perisano, $13,200 in the case of Mr. Farrell, and $9,000 in the case of Ms. Dionne.

Stock Options. The Committee assists the Board in administering the Company's Stock Option Plan, which rewards executives and other employees for delivering long-term value to our stockholders. The goals of our stock option plans are to:

reward executives for long-term strategic management and the enhancement of stockholder value through appropriate equity ownership in the Company;

support a performance-oriented environment that rewards plan participants for improving the Company's financial performance; and attract and retain key executives and employees critical to our long-term success.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer in 2003. In fiscal year 2003, the base salary of our Chief Executive Officer, Sal Perisano, was $250,000. The Compensation Committee did not increase Mr. Perisano's base salary from the prior year. A bonus of $20,000 was paid in 2004 relating to Mr. Perisano's 2003 performance. Mr. Perisano was not granted any stock options during fiscal 2003.

Compensation of Other Executive Officers in 2003. The base salaries of the other executive officers named in the summary compensation table below were $165,000 for Mr. Farrell and $150,000 for Ms. Dionne. There were no increases in the base salaries of either Mr. Farrell or Ms. Dionne during fiscal 2003. Mr. Farrell and Ms. Dionne received bonuses paid in 2004 relating to their 2003 performance of $13,200 and $9,000, respectively. Neither Mr. Farrell nor Ms. Dionne was granted any stock options during fiscal 2003.

Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers

Our certificate of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws provide that the Company shall indemnify all of its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law. Under our certificate of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, any director or officer, who in his or her capacity as such is made or threatened to be made, party to any suit or proceeding, will be indemnified. A director or officer will be indemnified if it is determined that the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the Company's best interests. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be permitted to directors, officers and persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provision, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy and is, therefore, unenforceable.

We maintain a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy covering certain liabilities that may be incurred by directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties. We pay the entire premium for the liability insurance. We have key-person life insurance policies on the lives of each of Mr. Perisano and Ms. Dionne in the amount of $2,000,000 each.

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Pursuant to due action by the Audit Committee and our Board of Directors, we have appointed the accounting firm of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors to examine our financial statements for the year ending December 25, 2004. Ernst & Young LLP has no direct or indirect financial interest in the Company

We expect that representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the annual meeting. They will be afforded an opportunity to make a statement at the annual meeting if they desire to do so and to respond to appropriate questions by stockholders.

On June 27, 2002, our Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, terminated the engagement of Arthur Andersen LLP ("Andersen") as our independent auditors, effective as of such date. Andersen's report on our audited financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended December 30, 2000, and December 29, 2001, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 30, 2000, and December 29, 2001, and the interim period between December 29, 2001, and June 27, 2002, there were no disagreements between us and Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Andersen's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter in connection with its report on our financial statements for those years. Also, during those two fiscal years and interim period, there were no reportable events as listed in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B.

On July 18, 2002, our Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, engaged Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors, effective as of such date. During the fiscal years ended December 30, 2000, and December 29, 2001, and the interim period between December 29, 2001, and July 18, 2002, we did not consult with Ernst & Young LLP regarding application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our consolidated financial statement, or any other matter or reportable event listed in either Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K or Regulation S-B.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following report does not constitute soliciting material and is not considered filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing with the SEC, unless we state otherwise.

The Audit Committee hereby states that it:

Has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 27, 2003 with the Company's management;

Has discussed with the Company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as may be modified or supplemented;

Has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as may be modified or supplemented, and has discussed with the independent auditors the independent auditors' independence; and

Based upon the above mentioned reviews and discussions, has recommended to the Board of Directors of the Company that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 27, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee is solely responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditors for the purpose of preparing and issuing an audit report.

Management has primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including the Company's system of internal controls.

The independent auditors audit the annual financial statements prepared by management, express an opinion as to whether those financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and discuss with us any issues they believe should be raised with us.

Pursuant to applicable American Stock Exchange rules, the Audit Committee certifies that it has adopted a formal written Audit Committee Charter attached hereto as Appendix A and that the Audit Committee has a policy in accordance with said rules of the American Stock Exchange of reviewing and reassessing the adequacy of the Audit Committee Charter on an annual basis.

During 2003, the Company paid no fees to Ernst & Young LLP for consulting work outside of the review and audit of their financial statements and related tax research and compliance tax return preparation.

The members of the Audit Committee believe that they are each "independent" as defined under applicable rules and standards including, without limitation Section 121(A) and 803(e) thereof of the American Stock Exchange's current listing standards, although such standards are subject to future change.

In this regard, the Audit Committee shall also (1) seek the opinion of management and the internal auditors of the independent auditors' performance and (2) consider whether, in order to assure continuing auditor independence, there should be regular rotation of the audit firm.

The Audit Committee may recommend to the Board policies with respect to the potential hiring of current or former employees of the independent auditor.

The Audit Committee may consider the ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments on the financial statements, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor. The Audit Committee may also consider other material written communications between the registered public accounting firm and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences;
- ii. Major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies;

The Audit Committee shall review and discuss with the independent auditor (outside of the presence of management) how the independent auditor plans to handle its responsibilities under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and request assurance from the auditor that Section 10A of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 has not been implicated.

The Audit Committee shall review and discuss with the independent auditor any audit problems or difficulties and management's response thereto. This review shall include (1) any difficulties encountered by the auditor in the course of performing its audit work, including any restrictions on the scope of its activities or its access to information and (2) any significant disagreements with management.

This review may also include:

- ii. Any communications between the audit team and the audit firm's national office regarding auditing or accounting issues presented by the engagement; and
- iii. Any management or internal control letter issued, or proposed to be issues, by the auditors.

The Audit Committee shall discuss with the independent auditors those matters brought to the attention of the Audit Committee by the auditors pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended ("SAS 61").

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee shall also review and discuss with the independent auditors the report required to be delivered by such auditors pursuant to Section 10A(k) of the Exchange Act.

If brought to the attention of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee shall discuss with the CEO and CFO of the Company (1) all significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and (2) any fraud involving management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions (1) with management of the audited financial statements, (2) with the independent auditor of the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61, and (3) with the independent auditor concerning the independent auditor's independence, the Audit Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board as to whether the Company's audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the last fiscal year.

The Audit Committee shall prepare the Audit Committee report required by Item 306 of Regulation S-K of the Exchange Act (or any successor provision) to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

F. Earnings Press Releases

The Audit Committee shall review and discuss the Company's earnings and related financial information expected to be announced in any press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies, including in general, the types of information to be disclosed and the types of presentation to be made (paying particular attention to the use of "pro forma" or "adjusted" non-GAAP information).

G. Risk Assessment and Management

The Audit Committee shall discuss the process by which the Company's exposure to risk is assessed and managed by management.

In connection with the Audit Committee's discussion of the Company's risk assessment and management guidelines, the Audit Committee may discuss or consider the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps that the Company's management has taken to monitor and control such exposures.

H. Procedures for Addressing Complaints and Concerns

The Audit Committee shall establish procedures for (1) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters and (2) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

The Audit Committee may review and reassess the adequacy of these procedures periodically and adopt any changes to such procedures that the Audit Committee deems necessary or appropriate.

B. Legal and Regulatory Compliance

The Audit Committee may discuss with management and the independent auditor, and review with the Board, the legal and regulatory requirements applicable to the Company and its subsidiaries and the Company's compliance with such requirements. After these discussions, the Audit Committee may, if it determines it to be appropriate, make recommendations to the Board with respect to the Company's policies and procedures regarding compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The Audit Committee may discuss with management legal matters (including pending or threatened litigation) that may have a material effect on the Company's financial statements or its compliance policies and procedures.

C. Conflicts of Interest

The Audit Committee shall conduct an appropriate review of all related party transactions for potential conflict of interest situations on an ongoing basis, and the approval of the Audit Committee shall be required for all such transactions.

D. General

The Audit Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more of its members as the Audit Committee deems appropriate to carry out its responsibilities and exercise its powers.

Edgar Filing: IPARTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee may perform such other oversight functions outside of its stated purpose as may be requested by the Board from time to time.

In performing its oversight function, the Audit Committee shall be entitled to rely upon advice and information that it receives in its discussions and communications with management, the independent auditor and such experts, advisors and professionals as may be consulted with by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee is authorized to request that any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's outside legal counsel, the Company's independent auditor or any other professional retained by the Company to render advice to the Company attend a meeting of the Audit Committee or meet with any members of or advisors to the Audit Committee.

Notwithstanding the responsibilities and powers of the Audit Committee set forth in this Charter, the Audit Committee does not have the responsibility of planning or conducting audits of the Company's financial statements or determining whether the Company's financial statements are complete, accurate and in accordance with GAAP. Such responsibilities are the duty of management and, to the extent of the independent auditor's audit responsibilities, the independent auditor. In addition, it is not the duty of the Audit Committee to conduct investigations or to ensure compliance with laws and regulations.

iPARTY CORP.

This Charter is in addition to, and is not intended to change or interpret, any federal or state law or regulation, the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), listing standards of the American Stock Exchange, applicable Delaware state laws, or the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws, each as amended.
