PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To Be Held June 2, 2005

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy are being mailed to stockholders on or about April 18, 2005 in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of The J. Jill Group, Inc. (the "Company") of proxies to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Thursday, June 2, 2005, and at any and all adjournments thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). When proxies are returned properly executed, the shares represented will be voted in accordance with the stockholders' directions. Stockholders are encouraged to vote on the matters to be considered. However, if no choice has been specified by a stockholder, the shares will be voted as recommended by management. Any stockholder may revoke his proxy at any time before it has been exercised by providing the Company with a later dated proxy, by notifying the Company's Secretary in writing or by orally notifying the Company in person.

The Board has fixed the close of business on April 4, 2005, as the record date for the determination of the stockholders of the Company entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Only stockholders of record on such date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were issued and outstanding 20,146,839 shares of the Company's Common Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), entitled to cast 20,146,839 votes.

The By-Laws of the Company provide that the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy will be treated as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes with respect to particular proposals will not affect the determination of a quorum. Thus, shares voted to abstain as to a particular matter, or as to which a nominee (such as a broker holding shares in street name for a beneficial owner) has no voting authority in respect of a particular matter, shall be deemed present for purposes of determining a quorum. Any stockholder who attends the Annual Meeting may not withhold his shares from the quorum count by declaring such shares absent from the Annual Meeting.

The Class A and Class C Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes properly cast. Abstentions and broker non-votes as to these elections do not count as votes for or against such elections.

Votes will be tabulated by EquiServe Limited Partnership, the record keeping agent for the Company's transfer agent, EquiServe Trust Company, N.A.

PROPOSAL ONE
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board is divided into three classes, labeled Class A, Class B and Class C, each containing, insofar as possible, an equal number of directors. Directors of each class serve for staggered three-year terms, with the term of one of the three classes expiring each year at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders or special meeting in lieu thereof.

The Board currently consists of eight directors: two Class A Directors, three Class B Directors and three Class C Directors.

The Company's current Class A Directors are William E. Engbers and Michael P. Sherman. Mr. Engbers's term as a director will expire at the Company's 2006 annual meeting of stockholders or special meeting in lieu thereof. Mr. Sherman was elected as a director by the Board on December 10, 2004 for an initial interim term that will expire at the Annual Meeting. The Company's current Class B Directors are Brett D. Heffes, Ruth M. Owades and Jonathan P. Ward. Their terms as directors will expire at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders or special meeting in lieu thereof. The Company's current Class C Directors are Gordon R. Cooke, James G. Held and Thomas J. Litle. Their terms as directors will expire at the Annual Meeting.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board has nominated (i) Mr. Sherman for election as a Class A Director to serve until the Company's 2006 annual meeting of stockholders or special meeting in lieu thereof, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and (ii) Messrs. Cooke, Held and Litle for election as Class C Directors, to serve until the Company's 2008 annual meeting of stockholders or special meeting in lieu thereof, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

The nominees have agreed to serve as directors if elected, and the Company has no reason to believe that they will be unable to serve. In the event that any of them is unable or declines to serve as director at the time of the Annual Meeting, proxies may be voted for such other nominee as is then designated by the Board.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the election of Mr. Sherman as a Class A Director and FOR the election of Mr. Cooke, Mr. Held and Mr. Litle as Class C Directors.

Code of Ethics

The Board has also adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics as required by The NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") that applies to all of the Company's employees, officers and directors. The Code of Ethics and the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are available on the Company's website at: www.jjill.com. The Company intends to satisfy its Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") disclosure requirements relating to amendments to and/or waivers of the Code of Ethics by posting such information on the Company's website identified above.

Board, Committee and Stockholder Meetings

During the Company's fiscal year ended December 25, 2004 ("fiscal 2004"), the Board met five times. The Board currently has three standing committees, the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Audit Committee met ten times during fiscal 2004. The Compensation Committee met eight times during fiscal 2004 and acted two times by unanimous written consent. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met five times during fiscal 2004. No incumbent director attended fewer than 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings held by the Board and Committees of the Board on which he or she served.

It is the Company's policy that all members of the Board attend the annual meeting of stockholders in person, although we recognize that directors occasionally may be unable to attend for personal or professional reasons. We generally hold a meeting of the Board on the same date as the annual meeting of stockholders. In fiscal 2004, all directors attended the annual meeting of stockholders in person.

Board and Committee Independence and Member Qualifications

Board of Directors. Periodically the Board reviews the relationships that each director has with the Company and with other parties. Only those directors who do not have any of the categorical relationships that preclude them from being independent within the meaning of applicable NASDAQ rules and who the Board affirmatively determines have no relationships that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director, are considered to be independent directors. The Board has reviewed a number of factors to evaluate the independence of each of its members. These factors include its members' current and historic relationships with the Company and its competitors, suppliers and customers; their relationships with management and other directors; the relationships their current and former employers have with the Company; and the relationships between the Company and other companies of which the Company's board members are directors or executive officers. After evaluating these factors the Board has determined that all members of the Board who are not employees of the Company or any parent or subsidiary of the Company (each a "Non-Employee Director") comprising a majority of the whole Board, are independent.

Audit Committee. Under applicable NASDAQ rules, the Board is required to make certain findings about the independence and qualifications of the members of the Audit Committee of the Board. In addition to assessing the independence of the members under the NASDAQ rules, the Board also considers the requirements of Section 10A(m)(3) and Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. As a result of its review, the Board has determined that Mr. Engbers (Chairman), Mr. Heffes and

Mr. Sherman, in their capacity as members of the Audit Committee of the Board, are independent. In addition, the Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee:

is an "Audit Committee Financial Expert" within the meaning of applicable SEC rules, and has the financial sophistication and other attributes required under the applicable NASDAQ rules.

For more information about this committee and its functions, see "Information Concerning the Audit Committee and Auditors" later in this Proxy Statement.

Compensation Committee. The Board has determined that Ms. Owades (Chairman), Mr. Held and Mr. Ward, in their capacity as the members of the Compensation Committee of the Board, are independent. For more information about this committee and its functions, see "Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation" later in this Proxy Statement.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board has determined that Mr. Ward (Chairman), Mr. Heffes and Mr. Litle, in their capacity as the members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, are independent. For more information about this committee and its functions, see "Information About Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee" later in this Proxy Statement.

Stockholder Communications

Stockholders may communicate directly with the members of the Board or the individual chairman of standing Board committees by writing directly to those individuals care of Secretary, The J. Jill Group, Inc., 4 Batterymarch Park, Quincy, Massachusetts 02169-7468. The Company's general policy is to forward, and not to intentionally screen, any mail received at the Company's corporate office that is sent directly to an individual.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE AUDIT COMMITTEE AND AUDITORS

The Audit Committee is currently composed of Mr. Engbers (Chairman), Mr. Heffes and Mr. Sherman. The Committee reviews the internal accounting procedures of the Company and is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee meets privately with the independent auditors, has the sole authority to retain and dismiss the independent auditors and reviews their performance and independence from management. The independent auditors have unrestricted access and report directly to the Audit Committee. Additionally, the Audit Committee has responsibilities and authority necessary to comply with Rule 10A-3(b)(2), (3), (4), and (5) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These and other aspects of the Audit Committee's responsibilities and authority are more fully described in the written charter for the Committee adopted by the Board. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter was included as Appendix A to the Company's Proxy Statement for its 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Report of the Audit Committee

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit Committee met with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"), the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2004, to discuss the scope of PwC's audit of the Company's financial statements for fiscal 2004, the results of PwC's examinations, and PwC's opinions on management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting and on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management and PwC. The Audit Committee discussed with PwC the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards ("SAS") No. 61, as amended by SAS No. 89 and SAS No. 90, including a discussion of PwC's judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee received from PwC the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and discussed these documents with PwC, as well as other matters related to PwC's independence from management and the Company.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board approved, that the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 25, 2004 be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2004, for filing with the SEC.

SUBMITTED BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

William E. Engbers (Chairman)
Brett D. Heffes
Michael P. Sherman

Relationship with Auditors

PwC, the independent registered accounting firm which has served as the Company's principal independent auditors continuously since the Company's formation, was selected by the Audit Committee to continue in that capacity for 2005. A representative of PwC is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. This representative will have the opportunity to make a statement if such representative desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions presented at the Annual Meeting.

Principal Accounting Fees and Services

The aggregate fees for professional services rendered by PwC for the fiscal years ended December 25, 2004 and December 27, 2003 were as follows:

Description	2004	2003
Audit Fees(1)	$ 1,071,000	$ 284,000
Audit-Related Fees(2)	222,000	161,000
Tax Fees(3)	105,000	22,000
All Other Fees(4)	0	0

(1) Audit Fees are fees for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and financial statement schedule, and the review of quarterly financial statements. In fiscal 2004, audit fees also include fees for the opinions on management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.

(2) Audit-Related Fees are fees for accounting and reporting consultations, employee benefit plan audits and other advisory services.

(3) Tax Fees are fees for tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice.

(4) All Other Fees are fees for any service not included in the first three categories.

The Audit Committee has determined that PwC's provision of services to the Company not related to its audit of the Company's financial statements was at all relevant times compatible with that firm's independence.

Pre-Approval Policies

The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of services and is generally subject to a specific budget. The independent auditor and management are required to periodically report to the Audit Committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent auditor in accordance with this pre-approval, and the fees for the services performed to date. Specific services that were not contemplated by the annual budget may also be pre-approved, on a case-by-case basis, by the Audit Committee acting as a whole, or by a designated single member of the Audit Committee provided such services are then approved, on at least a quarterly basis, by the Audit Committee acting as a whole.

INFORMATION ABOUT NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is currently composed of Mr. Heffes, Mr. Litle and Mr. Ward (Chairman). The Committee identifies individuals qualified to become members of the Board, selects director nominees for each annual meeting of stockholders, recommends individuals to fill vacancies in the Board, develops and recommends corporate governance principles to the Board and is responsible for leading an annual review of the performance of both the Board as a whole and a group of its individual members, as described below. These and other aspects of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's responsibilities and authority are more fully described in the written charter for the Committee adopted by the Board. A copy of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter was included in Appendix B to the Company's Proxy Statement for its 2004 Annual meeting of stockholders.

Nomination Criteria

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews the qualifications and backgrounds of the directors, as well as the overall composition of the Board, and nominates candidates for election at the annual meeting of stockholders. In the case of incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews each such director's overall past service to the Company, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, quality of performance, and whether the director continues to meet applicable independence standards. Currently, the Committee solicits information annually from the entire Board by use of Board Self-Assessment Questionnaires in order to assist in an analysis of the performance of the Board as a whole. Additionally, the Committee evaluates Board members whose terms of office are set to expire the following year by completing Director Assessment Questionnaires, requesting those Board members who are being evaluated to complete a Director Self-Assessment Questionnaire, and by seeking input from the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

In selecting both incumbent and new director nominees, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee seeks candidates who have the highest personal and professional integrity, who have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment and who will be effective, in conjunction with the other nominees to the Board, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the stockholders. Although the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not established minimum requirements for director candidates, it will assess candidates' strengths and weaknesses in at least the following categories: Marketing/Branding, Finance and Capital Markets, Specialty Retail, Technology, Entrepreneurship, Corporate Leadership, Diversity and Governance/Legal. The Committee will also consider such matters as a candidate's ability to read and understand fundamental financial statements, whether a conflict or potential conflict of interest exists and the candidate's independence from management. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may change the criteria it considers in potential director candidates from time to time. Exceptional candidates who do not meet all of these criteria may still be considered.

During 2004 the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee engaged a third-party search firm to help it identify potential candidates for membership on the Board. The Company paid a fee to the search firm in connection with Mr. Held's joining the Board.

Stockholder Recommendations and Stockholder Nominations

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders, and does not alter the manner in which it evaluates candidates based on whether or not the candidate was recommended by a stockholder. Stockholders may recommend director candidates for consideration by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee by writing to The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, care of Secretary, The J. Jill Group, Inc., 4 Battery March Park, Quincy, Massachusetts 02169-7468.

Stockholders may nominate director candidates by following the procedures described under the heading "Stockholder Proposals" later in this Proxy Statement.

REMUNERATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Directors' Compensation

In 2004, the Board approved a recommendation by the Compensation Committee of the Board to adjust the cash compensation arrangements for Non-Employee Directors. Effective June 27, 2004, each Non-Employee Director receives a $50,000 annual retainer. Directors who are employees of the Company are not paid any separate fees for serving as directors. The Chairman of the Audit Committee receives an additional $10,000 annual retainer. The Chairman of the Compensation Committee and the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee each receive an additional $5,000 annual retainer. All retainers are paid on a quarterly basis. Prior to June 27, 2004, each Non-Employee Director received a $15,000 annual retainer and a fee of $1,000 for each meeting of the Board attended in person and the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Chairman of the Compensation Committee each received an additional quarterly fee of $1,250.

In January 2005, the Board approved a recommendation by the Compensation Committee to reduce the stock-based compensation arrangement for Non-Employee Directors and amended the Company's Amended and Restated 2001 Incentive and Non-Statutory Stock Option Plan (the "2001 Option Plan") accordingly. Currently, under the 2001 Option Plan each Non-Employee Director is automatically granted an option to purchase 15,000 shares of Common Stock upon first joining the Board. Such option is immediately vested in full unless otherwise determined by the Compensation Committee prior to grant. In addition, in connection with each annual meeting of stockholders each Non-Employee Director who has served for at least six months before the meeting and continues to serve at the meeting is automatically granted an option to purchase 7,500 shares of Common Stock. Such option is immediately vested in full. All of the options automatically granted to Non-Employee Directors under the 2001 Option Plan have exercise prices equal to the closing price of the Common Stock on the date of grant as reported by NASDAQ and expire on the tenth anniversary of the date of grant. Before the January 2005 amendment of the 2001 Option Plan, each new Non-Employee Director was granted an option to purchase 30,000 shares of Common Stock upon joining the Board, and in connection with each annual meeting of stockholders each Non-Employee Director who had served for at least six months before the meeting and continued to serve at the meeting was automatically granted an option to purchase 11,250 shares of Common Stock.

Executive Compensation

The following table sets forth certain information concerning the compensation for services rendered in all capacities to the Company for fiscal 2004, the fiscal year ended December 27, 2003 ("fiscal 2003") and the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002 ("fiscal 2002") of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the four other most highly paid executive officers of the Company serving at the end of fiscal 2004. During fiscal 2002, the Company effected a three-for-two stock split in the form of a stock dividend paid on June 28, 2002 to stockholders of record on June 14, 2002. All share data has been adjusted for the stock split.

- (1) These options are for the purchase of shares of Common Stock and are exercisable during the holder's lifetime only by the holder, and by the holder only while the holder is an employee of the Company, and for certain limited periods of time thereafter in the event of retirement, death or termination of employment other than for cause.
- (2) Amounts represent hypothetical gains that could be achieved for the respective options if exercised at the end of the option term. These gains are based upon assumed rates of share price appreciation set by the SEC of five percent and ten percent compounded annually from the date the respective options were granted to their expiration date. The gains shown are net of the option exercise price, but do not include deductions for taxes or other expenses associated with the exercise. Actual gains, if any, are dependent on the performance of the Common Stock and the date on which the option is exercised. There can be no assurance that the amounts reflected will be achieved.
- (3) Each option vests as to one-third of the shares which may be purchased thereunder on the first anniversary of the date of grant of such option, and vests as to an additional one-third of such shares on each of the second and third anniversaries of the date of grant of such option, contingent upon the option holder's continued employment with the Company or one of its wholly-owned subsidiaries on such vesting date. In addition, in the event of death of the option holder while an employee of the Company and before expiration of the option, these options vest in full. These options are also subject to accelerated vesting in the event that a "Qualified Sale" occurs and immediately prior to the closing of such Qualified Sale the holder is an employee of the Company. Immediately prior to such closing each such option shall become exercisable as to an additional one third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the shares subject to the option. "Qualified Sale" means the sale of all or substantially all of the assets or issued and outstanding capital stock of the Company or a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which stockholders of the Company immediately before such merger or consolidation do not own immediately after such merger or consolidation capital stock or other equity interests of the surviving corporation or entity representing more than 50% in voting power of the capital stock or other equity interests of such surviving corporation or entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation.
- (4) This option will vest in full in the event of the qualified retirement of the holder. "Qualified retirement" means the holder's retirement from employment with the Company at a time when the holder's successor as Chief Executive Officer of the Company has accepted the Company's offer of employment in such capacity.

- (5) In December 2004, the Company granted stock options for the purchase of 270,000 shares to certain members of management in exchange for entering into agreements regarding the protection of the Company's property. These agreements include provisions relating to the protection of confidential information and intellectual property and covenants not to compete with the Company or solicit the Company's employees. These options were vested in full at the time of grant.
- (6) All options that are not exercised within 30 days following Mr. Hayes's last day of employment with the Company will terminate.

For purposes of calculating the weighted average exercise price, the exercise price of such rights was assumed to be $10.846 per share, the price at which such shares were issued on December 31, 2004 and 85% of the closing price on January 2, 2004.

Certain Employment and Severance Arrangements

Gordon R. Cooke and Dennis J. Adomaitis each have employment agreements with the Company which, among other things, provide that if their employment is terminated by the Company other than for just cause (as defined in the agreements), the Company will make severance payments to them in an aggregate amount equal to their annual base salary at the time of termination, payable at the same time and in the same amounts as such base salary otherwise would have been paid. Stephen L. Pearson has an employment agreement with the Company which, among other things, provides that if his employment is terminated by the Company other than for just cause (as defined in the agreement) or if Mr. Pearson resigns for good reason (as defined in the agreement), in each case prior to June 2, 2005, the Company will make severance payments to him, while he is not employed by a competitor of the Company, for the period from the termination date until June 2, 2005, payable at the same time and in the same amounts as such base salary otherwise would have been paid.

In addition, each of the persons named in the Summary Compensation Table who is currently an executive officer of the Company is a party to a severance agreement with the Company which provides for the following payments to the executive if the executive's employment is terminated within two years following a change in control (as defined in the agreements) by the Company without cause (as defined in the agreements) or by the executive with good reason (as defined in the agreements): (i) a lump sum equal to 2 times the sum of (A) the executive's annual base salary at the time of termination plus (B) the average annual incentive compensation plan bonus payment to the executive over the last two years, such lump sum to supersede any other post-termination compensation and benefits payable to the executive under any other agreements with the executive; (ii) a pro-rated incentive compensation bonus for the year of termination; and (iii) continuation of standard group life, disability, accident and health insurance for a period of two years post-termination. Also, if the executive's employment is terminated within two years following a change in control by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason, then all outstanding stock options held by the executive for the purchase of shares of the Company's Common Stock shall immediately become exercisable in full. In addition, executive's employment shall be deemed to have been terminated following a change in control by the Company without cause or by the executive with good reason if the executive's employment is terminated prior to a change in control without cause at the direction of a person who has entered into an agreement with the Company the consummation of which will constitute a change in control or if the executive terminates his employment with good reason prior to a change in control (determined by treating a potential change in control (as defined in the agreements) as a change in control in applying the definition of good reason), if the circumstance or event which constitutes good reason occurs at the direction of such person.

Each of the persons named in the Summary Compensation Table has signed an Agreement to Protect Corporate Property. The Agreement includes provisions relating to the protection of confidential information and intellectual property and covenants not to compete with the Company or solicit the Company's employees.

In April 2005, John J. Hayes resigned from his position as Executive Vice President/Chief Marketing Officer. Mr. Hayes will remain with the Company through mid-May 2005 to assist with the transition of his duties. The Company is making a lump sum severance payment to Mr. Hayes equal to his total annual salary of $385,000, and will provide him miscellaneous other benefits, including continuation of group medical and dental insurance plan payments on his behalf for a period of up to 18 months after his last day of employment with the Company and payments for outplacement and tax return preparation services. All stock options held by Mr. Hayes that are not exercised within 30 days following his last day of employment with the Company will terminate.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee of the Board is composed of independent, Non-Employee Directors. The Committee currently consists of Ruth M. Owades (Chairman), James G. Held and Jonathan P. Ward.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Compensation Policy

The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board regarding employee compensation and benefit plans and programs generally, determines the compensation of the executive officers of the Company and administers the Company's stock option and employee stock purchase plans.

During fiscal 2004 the Company's compensation package for its executive officers had three principal components: (1) base salary, (2) bonus, and (3) stock options. The Company's executive officers were also eligible to participate in other employee benefit plans on substantially the same terms as other senior management employees and other employees who met applicable eligibility criteria, subject to any legal limitations on the amounts that may be contributed or the benefits that may be payable under these Company plans.

Base salary levels for the Company's executive officers are intended to be fair and competitive in the Company's industry. Base salaries for executive officers are reviewed annually, and any adjustments are based on such factors as individual performance, change in responsibilities and market-based comparisons with similarly situated companies. During fiscal 2004 the Compensation Committee engaged compensation consultants to undertake compensation studies with respect to the compensation paid to the Company's executive officers and directors. The results of these studies were among the factors considered in connection with the changes to the compensation packages for the Company's executive officers made during fiscal 2004.

Under the Company's 2004 Incentive Compensation Plan, employees of the Company at the level of Operating Vice President and above were eligible to receive bonuses for the spring season and the fall season based on a percentage of their base salary for the applicable season and conditioned on the Company's achieving its fully diluted earnings per share target for the applicable season. Employees below the Operating Vice President level were also eligible to participate in the 2004 Incentive Compensation Plan if selected to do so by the President and CEO. Bonus percentages varied depending on seniority, ranging from 30% for Operating Vice Presidents to 100% for the President and CEO. The variation in assigned bonus percentages was intended to reflect the importance of the employee's contribution to the Company's ability to achieve its fully diluted earnings per share target. The Company achieved its fully diluted earnings per share target for the spring but not the fall season of fiscal 2004, and accordingly bonuses under the 2004 Incentive Compensation Plan were paid for the spring season but not the fall season.

During fiscal 2004 the Company's executive officers received supplemental bonuses for the spring season totaling $542,000 in aggregate as a result of the Company's having far exceeded its fully diluted earnings per share target for the season. The amount of the spring season supplemental bonuses varied depending on seniority, ranging from $72,628 for Executive Vice Presidents to $251,488 for the President and CEO. The variation in supplemental bonus amount was intended to reflect the importance of the executive officer's contribution to the Company's spring season earnings. The Company's executive officers were also eligible to receive supplemental bonuses for the fall season ranging from 10% to 20% of their base salary for the fall season for every 20%, up to 100%, by which the Company's fully diluted earnings per share for the fall season exceeded the Company's fully diluted earnings per share target for the fall season. No bonuses were paid under the 2004 Fall Season Special Bonus Plan, as the Company did not achieve its fully diluted earnings per share target for the fall season.

Stock option awards are intended to provide the Company's executive officers with longer term incentives that align their interests with those of the Company's stockholders more generally. The Compensation Committee granted stock options to all of the Company's executive officers during fiscal 2004. A portion of these stock options were granted in consideration of the executive officers' execution of agreements relating to the protection of the Company's confidential information and non-competition with the Company.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits the amount of annual compensation paid by a company to certain of its officers that is deductible for federal income tax purposes to $1 million for each such officer. Qualifying performance-based compensation is not subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. Although the Compensation Committee generally considers whether officer compensation will meet the Section 162(m) requirements for deductibility, such deductibility is but one of many factors weighed by the Compensation Committee in establishing compensation levels. The Compensation Committee has authorized and may continue to authorize compensation payments that do not qualify as performance-based compensation and that are in excess of the limit in circumstances when the Committee believes such payment is appropriate.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Cooke's base salary during fiscal 2004 was at the rate of $650,000 per annum for the first half of fiscal 2004 and $710,000 per annum for the second half of fiscal 2004. The adjustment in Mr. Cooke's base salary took into account the results of the compensation studies referred to above. Mr. Cooke's bonus percentage under the 2004 Incentive Compensation Plan was 100%, and he received a bonus under the plan of $325,000 for the spring season and no bonus under the plan for the fall season. Mr. Cooke received a supplemental bonus of $251,488 for the 2004 spring season as a result of the Company's having far exceeded its fully diluted earnings per share target for the season. Mr. Cooke was eligible to receive a supplemental bonus for the fall season of 20% of his base salary for the fall season for every 20%, up to 100%, by which the Company's fully diluted earnings per share for the fall season exceeded the Company's fully diluted earnings per share target for the fall season. Mr. Cooke did not receive a bonus under the 2004 Fall Season Special Bonus Plan, as the Company did not achieve its fully diluted earnings per share target for the fall season. During fiscal 2004 Mr. Cooke was granted options to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock, 50,000 of which were granted at $15.51 per share and 50,000 of which were granted at $16.99 per share. The second 50,000 share grant was in consideration of Mr. Cooke's execution of an agreement relating to the protection of the Company's confidential information and non-competition with the Company. The Company also paid $47,376 in premiums with respect to term life insurance for the benefit of Mr. Cooke. The Company also provided Mr. Cooke with certain perquisites, including but not limited to a residence at a cost to the Company of $102,784, and paid Mr. Cooke $107,335 to offset the tax burden assumed by Mr. Cooke in connection with his receipt of certain perquisites and other non-cash benefits.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater-than-10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely upon review of Forms 3 and 4 and amendments thereto furnished to the Company during fiscal 2004 and Forms 5 and amendments thereto furnished to the Company with respect to fiscal 2004, or written representations that Form 5 was not required, the Company believes that all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater-than-10% stockholders were fulfilled in a timely manner other than the options grants awarded to Messrs. Adomaitis, Cooke, Hayes, Pearson and Ms. Conley and Trudel on February 25, 2004 which were inadvertently filed late on Forms 4 and an option grant to Mr. Sherman upon joining the Board of Directors which was filed late on a Form 3 because a CIK number had not been previously established for him.
