ALLIANCE HOLDINGS GP, L.P. UNITHOLDERS
SIMPLIFICATION OF CAPITAL STRUCTURE PROPOSED YOUR CONSENT IS VERY IMPORTANT

April 26, 2018

Dear Alliance Holdings GP, L.P. Unitholder,

Alliance Holdings GP, L.P. ("AHGP") and Alliance Resource Partners, L.P. ("ARLP") recently entered into a Simplification Agreement, dated as of February 22, 2018 (the "simplification agreement"), as part of a plan to simplify their capital structures. Through a series of transactions (the "simplification transactions"), AHGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and all of the outstanding common units representing limited partner interests in AHGP (the "AHGP common units") will be canceled and converted into the right to receive all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries. Each holder of AHGP common units (each, an "AHGP unitholder") will hold directly after the simplification transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the simplification transactions. While the legal details of the simplification transactions are presented in more detail below, we are proposing a merger that results in the distribution by AHGP of the ARLP common units it holds, directly and indirectly, to AHGP's unitholders.

Merger Overview

As a result of the simplification transactions, AHGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP, and, through consummation of a merger (the "merger"), all of the AHGP common units will be canceled and converted into the right to receive all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries.

General Partner Structure

Alliance Resource Management GP, LLC ("MGP") will remain the general partner of ARLP after the simplification transactions so there will be no change in the management and operation of ARLP's business. In connection with the simplification transactions, MGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Alliance GP, LLC ("AGP"), the general partner of AHGP prior to the completion of the simplification transactions. In addition, New AHGP GP, LLC ("New AHGP GP"), a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and the new general partner of AHGP.

Operating Subsidiaries

In order to further simplify the structure, the simplification agreement also provides for the contribution of two general partner interests in ARLP's operating subsidiaries, Alliance Resource Operating Partners, L.P. ("AROP") and Alliance Coal, LLC ("Alliance Coal"), to ARLP immediately following the merger. More specifically, Alliance Resource GP, LLC ("SGP"), which will momentarily hold 100% of the limited partner interests in AHGP following the merger, will contribute such limited partner interests in AHGP, which indirectly owns a 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and a 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal (such interests, the "SGP Contributed Interests"), to ARLP in exchange for the issuance by ARLP of a number of ARLP common units (the "New ARLP Common Units"), which are calculated to provide SGP with the same cash flow from distributions after the simplification transactions in respect of the New ARLP Common Units as it would have otherwise received in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests. These steps are being completed so that both AROP and Alliance Coal will be wholly owned, directly and indirectly, by ARLP.

Calculation of Exchange Ratio and Number of New ARLP Common Units

Pursuant to the merger, Wildcat GP Merger Sub, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP ("Merger Sub") will merge with and into AHGP, the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease, AHGP will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership and each AHGP common unit that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a portion of the ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries (such ARLP common units, the "AHGP unitholder consideration"). In the merger, each AHGP unitholder (other than SGP) will receive in exchange for each AHGP common unit held by it a number of ARLP common units equal to "A" divided by "B" (the "exchange ratio"), where "A" equals (i) the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the merger, plus (ii) the number of New ARLP Common Units, and "B" equals the number of AHGP common units issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger (including a number of AHGP common units that will be deemed to be outstanding in settlement of certain AHGP deferred phantom units that are held by certain directors of AGP under the Alliance GP, LLC Amended and Restated Directors Annual Retainer and Deferred Compensation Plan, dated as of January 1, 2011). See "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units" for more detail regarding the treatment of the AHGP deferred phantom units in the merger. SGP will receive in the merger a number of ARLP common units equal to the number of ARLP common units it would receive pursuant to the exchange ratio in exchange for the AHGP common units held by it, less the number of New ARLP Common Units it will be issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests. The number of New ARLP Common Units to be issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests will be calculated based on the actual dollar amount distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the per unit amount actually distributed by ARLP with respect to ARLP common units, in each case in connection with ARLP's last quarterly distribution prior to the closing of the simplification transactions, which is designed to result in cash distribution neutrality to both SGP and ARLP as a result of the issuance.

Based on the number of AHGP common units outstanding as of the date hereof (including a number of units deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units), the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, the exchange ratio would be approximately 1.478 ARLP common units for each AHGP common unit.

Resulting Ownership

Based on the estimated number of ARLP common units that will be outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, we estimate that, following consummation of the simplification transactions, ARLP will be owned approximately 33.1% by current ARLP unitholders and approximately 66.9% by former AHGP unitholders. AHGP common units will cease to be publicly traded upon consummation of the simplification transactions. ARLP common units will continue to be traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market ("NASDAQ") under the symbol "ARLP" following the consummation of the simplification transactions.

Requested Action and Support Agreement

We ask for your approval by written consent of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. As a condition to the completion of the simplification transactions, the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, must be approved and adopted by the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of a majority of the AHGP common units outstanding and entitled to vote thereupon. On February 22, 2018, concurrently with the execution of the simplification agreement, certain holders of AHGP common units (collectively, the "AHGP supporting unitholders") entered into a Support Agreement (the "support agreement"), pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions therein, the AHGP supporting unitholders agreed to deliver a written consent (the "Written Consent") covering a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding approving the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The delivery of the Written Consent will be sufficient to adopt and approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, without the receipt of a written consent from any other holder of AHGP common units.

Approval of the simplification transactions by the ARLP unitholders is not required. Therefore, no solicitation of written consents of the ARLP unitholders is being made.

The board of directors of AGP (the "AGP Board"), the current general partner of AHGP, has determined that the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are fair and reasonable to, and in the best interest of, AHGP and AHGP's limited partners, including the limited partners that are not affiliates of AGP (the "unaffiliated AHGP unitholders"). The AGP Board has unanimously approved the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and recommends that the AHGP unitholders deliver written consents approving the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

The AGP Board has set April 25, 2018 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining holders of AHGP common units entitled to execute and deliver written consents with respect to this consent statement/prospectus. If you are a record holder of outstanding AHGP common units as of the Record Date, you may complete, date and sign the enclosed written consent and promptly return it to AHGP. See the section entitled "Information about the Solicitation of Written Consents" beginning on page 29 of this consent statement/prospectus.

This consent statement/prospectus gives you detailed information about the simplification agreement and the proposed simplification transactions. We urge you to read carefully this entire consent statement/prospectus, including all of its annexes. In particular, please read "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25 of this consent statement/prospectus for a discussion of risks relevant to the simplification transactions, ARLP and other matters.

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Craft III
President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board of AGP

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SIMPLIFICATION TRANSACTIONS

In the following questions and answers, selected information from this consent statement/prospectus has been highlighted, but all of the information that may be important to the holders of AHGP common units, which are referred to as the "AHGP unitholders," regarding the merger and the other simplification transactions has not been included. To better understand the merger and the other simplification transactions, and for a complete description of their legal terms, please read carefully this consent statement/prospectus in its entirety, including all of its annexes, as well as the documents incorporated by reference into this consent statement/prospectus. Please read "Important Note About This Consent Statement/Prospectus" on page vi and "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 110.

Q:
Why am I receiving these materials?

A:
ARLP and AHGP have agreed to simplify their capital structures through a series of transactions pursuant to the terms of a simplification agreement that is described in this consent statement/prospectus and attached hereto as Annex A. The simplification transactions cannot be completed without obtaining the appropriate approval of the AHGP unitholders. AHGP is soliciting approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, with this consent statement/prospectus. Approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, by the ARLP unitholders is not required. Therefore, no solicitation of approval of the ARLP unitholders is being made.

Q:
Why are ARLP and AHGP proposing the simplification transactions?

A:
ARLP and AHGP both believe that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement will provide substantial benefits to the ARLP unitholders and the AHGP unitholders by creating a single, publicly traded partnership that is better positioned to compete in the marketplace. MGP is the general partner of ARLP. The board of directors of MGP (the "MGP Board") and the AGP Board believe that the simplification transactions are expected to provide the following benefits, among others, to the ARLP unitholders and the AHGP unitholders:

attracting a broader investor base to a single, larger entity with increased public float and greater liquidity;

increasing investor transparency by simplifying the ownership structure and governance structure of ARLP and AHGP; and eliminating the significant management and operating personnel time and the related duplicative third party service costs required to maintain two public companies.

To review the AGP Board's reasons for the merger and the simplification transactions in greater detail, please read "The Merger and Simplification Transactions Recommendation of the AGP Board and Reasons for the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 37. To review the MGP Board's reasons for the merger and the simplification transactions in greater detail, please read "The Merger and Simplification Transactions Recommendation of the MGP Board and Reasons for the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 38.

Q:
What will AHGP unitholders receive in connection with the simplification transactions?

A:
By virtue of the merger, each AHGP common unit that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a portion of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries (the "Exchange Units"). The AHGP unitholder consideration will be distributed so that each AHGP common unit issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger (other than the AHGP common units held by SGP) will be converted into the right to receive a number of Exchange Units equal to an

Table of Contents

"exchange ratio" calculated pursuant to the simplification agreement. The exchange ratio will be based on the actual number of New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP plus the Exchange Units and the actual number of outstanding AHGP common units at the effective time of the merger. Based on the number of AHGP common units outstanding as of the date hereof (including a number of units deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units, as defined under the heading "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of Deferred Phantom Units"), the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, the exchange ratio would be approximately 1.478 ARLP common units for each AHGP common unit.

The remainder of the Exchange Units will be distributed to SGP on an economically equivalent basis and will be based on the actual dollar amount distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the per unit amount actually distributed by ARLP with respect to the ARLP common units, in each case in connection with ARLP's last quarterly distribution of available cash prior to the closing of the simplification transactions. Based on the amount distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the ARLP distribution of $0.51 per ARLP common unit, in each case, with respect to the fourth quarter of 2017, ARLP would issue approximately 1,320,377 ARLP common units to SGP upon the closing of the simplification transactions.

If the exchange ratio would result in an AHGP unitholder being entitled to receive a fraction of an ARLP common unit, that AHGP unitholder will be entitled to receive, in lieu of such fractional interest, cash (without interest, rounded up to the nearest whole cent) in an amount equal to the product of (i) the volume weighted average trading price of an ARLP common unit as reported by Bloomberg during the 20-trading day period ending on the third trading day immediately preceding the date on which the effective time of the merger occurs and (ii) the fraction of an ARLP common unit that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive. For additional information regarding cash in lieu of fractional ARLP common units, please read "The Simplification Agreement Simplification Transactions Fractional Units."

Q:
How do I exchange my AHGP common units for ARLP common units?

A:
Each holder of record of AHGP common units at the close of business on the effective date of the merger will receive a letter of transmittal and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials that will contain instructions for the surrender of AHGP common units for ARLP common units. For additional information regarding exchange procedures, please read "The Simplification Agreement Simplification Transactions Exchange Procedures."

Q:
Do I have appraisal rights?

A:
No. AHGP unitholders do not have appraisal rights under the simplification agreement, applicable Delaware law or the Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of AHGP, dated as of May 15, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto, dated October 25, 2007 (the "AHGP partnership agreement").

Q:
Will AHGP unitholders be able to trade the ARLP common units that they receive pursuant to the simplification transactions?

A:
ARLP common units received by holders of AHGP common units pursuant to the merger will be registered under the Securities Act and will continue to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market ("NASDAQ") under the symbol "ARLP." All ARLP common units that will be distributed to former AHGP unitholders in the merger will be freely transferable unless such AHGP unitholder is deemed to be an affiliate of ARLP following consummation of the merger for purposes of U.S. federal securities laws.

Table of Contents

In contrast, the ARLP common units to be issued to SGP as part of the simplification transactions immediately following the effective time of the merger are not being registered through the registration statement of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act. For additional information, please read "The Simplification Agreement Simplification Transactions Contributions."

Q: What will ARLP unitholders receive in connection with the simplification transactions?

A: ARLP unitholders will not receive any consideration in the simplification transactions. ARLP unitholders will continue to own their existing ARLP common units.

Q: What happens to distributions by ARLP?

A: Once the simplification transactions are completed and AHGP unitholders receive their ARLP common units, if and when distributions are approved and declared by MGP and paid by ARLP, the former AHGP unitholders and the current ARLP unitholders will receive distributions on their ARLP common units. For additional information, please read "The Simplification Agreement Simplification Transactions Distributions with Respect to Exchange Units."

Q: As an AHGP unitholder, what happens to the payment of distributions for the quarter in which the simplification transactions are effective?

A: If the simplification transactions are completed before the record date for a quarterly distribution, AHGP unitholders will receive no quarterly distribution from AHGP; instead, an AHGP unitholder will receive ARLP distributions on all ARLP common units such unitholder received in the simplification transactions. If the simplification transactions are completed after the record date, AHGP unitholders will receive distributions on AHGP common units held as of the record date. However, AHGP unitholders will not receive distributions from both AHGP and ARLP for the same quarter. As required under the respective partnership agreements, ARLP and AHGP pay distributions within 45 days and 50 days, respectively, after the end of each quarter to holders of record on the applicable record date, with the applicable record date generally set approximately one week prior to the respective distribution date.

Q: What will happen to AHGP after the simplification transactions?

A: Under the terms of the simplification agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into AHGP, the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease and AHGP will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership. As a result of the merger, the outstanding AHGP common units will be canceled and trading of AHGP common units on the NASDAQ will cease. In connection with and immediately following the consummation of the merger, (i) SGP will contribute all of the limited partner interests in AHGP to ARLP in exchange for a number of ARLP common units calculated pursuant to the simplification agreement, and ARLP will be admitted as the sole limited partner of AHGP, making AHGP a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP, and (ii) AGP will contribute all of the limited liability company interests of New AHGP GP, a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, which will become the new general partner of AHGP, to ARLP, and ARLP will be admitted as the sole member of New AHGP GP.

Q: When do you expect the simplification transactions to be completed?

A: AHGP and ARLP are working to complete the merger and the other simplification transactions as soon as possible. A number of conditions must be satisfied before the merger and the other simplification transactions can be consummated, including the approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, by AHGP unitholders and the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part. AHGP and ARLP expect to complete the simplification transactions in the second or third quarter of 2018.

Q: After the simplification transactions, who will direct the activities of ARLP?

A: Pursuant to the Fourth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of ARLP, dated July 28, 2017 (as amended from time to time, the "ARLP partnership agreement"), which will continue to be in effect after the simplification transactions, the MGP Board will continue to direct the activities of ARLP.

Q: After completion of the simplification transactions, will I be able to vote to elect directors of the MGP Board?

A: No. As is commonly the case with publicly traded limited partnerships and as is the case prior to the simplification transactions, ARLP is managed and operated by its general partner, MGP. As part of the simplification transactions, AGP will become the sole member of MGP and will continue to have the power to appoint members of the MGP Board. AGP currently has the power to appoint members of the MGP Board through its ownership of the general partner interest in AHGP, which indirectly owns MGP.

Q: What percentage of ARLP common units will current unaffiliated holders of AHGP common units own after the successful consummation of the simplification transactions?

A: If the merger and the other simplification transactions are successfully completed, public unaffiliated holders of AHGP common units prior to the merger will collectively receive ARLP common units representing approximately 19.96% of the outstanding ARLP common units (taking into account the effectiveness of the simplification transactions).

Q: What are the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences to a AHGP unitholder as a result of the transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement?

A: Under current law, although AHGP anticipates that the simplification transactions generally are non-taxable to ARLP, AHGP and the AHGP unitholders, AHGP unitholders may recognize small amounts of income and gain. Specifically, AHGP expects that AHGP unitholders (i) will be allocated a de minimis amount of dividend income as a result of the distributions from ARM GP Holdings, Inc. ("ARMH") to AHGP, (ii) may have a small amount of income and gain or loss resulting from the sale by AHGP of the aggregate amount of ARLP common units necessary to be sold to provide the unitholders with cash in lieu of fractional units and the distribution of such cash to the unitholders, (iii) could recognize gain (which AHGP would expect to be immaterial) as a result of a decrease, if any, in such AHGP unitholder's share of partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code") and (iv) could recognize a small amount of gain on the distribution of ARLP common units to the extent that any AHGP unitholder is treated for tax purposes as receiving more than their pro rata share of AHGP's ARLP common units and interests in ARLP's business that we treated as marketable securities and the value of such excess share exceeds the unitholders' tax basis in their AHGP common units.

Please read "Risk Factors Tax Risks Related to the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 26 and "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions to AHGP Common Unitholders" beginning on page 53.

Q: What are the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences for an AHGP unitholder of the ownership of ARLP common units after the simplification transactions are completed?

A: Each AHGP unitholder who becomes an ARLP unitholder as a result of the simplification transactions will, as is the case for existing ARLP unitholders, be required to report on its U.S. federal income tax return such unitholder's distributive share of ARLP's income, gains, losses, deductions and credits. In addition to U.S. federal income taxes, such a holder will be subject to other taxes, including state and local income taxes, unincorporated business taxes, and other taxes that may be imposed by the various jurisdictions in which ARLP conducts business or owns property or in which the unitholder is resident.

Please read "Material U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Ownership of ARLP Common Units" beginning on page 56.

Q: What AHGP unitholder and ARLP unitholder approvals are required?

A: The approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, requires the affirmative consent of the holders of a majority of the common units of AHGP outstanding and entitled to vote.

Certain unitholders of AHGP that beneficially own a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding have agreed to deliver a written consent approving the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, pursuant to a support agreement dated February 22, 2018, among AHGP and such unitholders (a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this consent statement/prospectus). These unitholders beneficially own a sufficient number of AHGP common units to approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. Please read "Support Agreement" beginning on page 50.

The approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, does not require a vote of ARLP unitholders.

Q: How can holders of AHGP common units return their written consents with respect to the merger?

A: If you hold AHGP common units as of the close of business on the record date and you wish to submit your consent with respect to the merger, you must fill out the enclosed written consent, date and sign it, and promptly return it to AHGP. Once you have completed, dated and signed your written consent, deliver it to AHGP by one of the means described in the section entitled "Information about the Solicitation of Written Consents Submission of Consents." AHGP does not intend to hold a meeting of holders of AHGP common units to consider the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Q: Can holders of AHGP common units change or revoke their written consents?

A: Yes. If you are a record holder of AHGP common units on the record date, you may revoke your consent or, if you have previously revoked your consent, submit a new written consent at any time before the later of 20 business days after the date this consent statement/prospectus is sent to AHGP unitholders and the date on which the consents of a sufficient number of AHGP common units to approve the simplification agreement have been delivered to the secretary of AHGP. If you wish to change or revoke your consent before that time, you may do so by sending in a new written consent with a later date by one of the means described in the section entitled "Information about the Solicitation of Written Consents Submission of Consents," or delivering a notice of revocation to the secretary of AHGP.

Q: If my AHGP common units are held in "street name" by my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee automatically consent for me?

A: No. If you hold your AHGP common units in "street name" with a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should follow the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee.

Q: Should holders of AHGP common units tender their AHGP common units now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, holders of AHGP common units who hold their AHGP common units in certificated or book entry form will receive written instructions for exchanging their AHGP common units. If you own AHGP common units in "street name," the AHGP unitholder consideration should be credited to your account in accordance with the policies and procedures of your broker or nominee within a few days following the closing date of the merger. For additional information regarding exchange procedures, please read "The Simplification Agreement Simplification Transactions Exchange Procedures."

Q: What happens if I sell or transfer my AHGP common units before the consent process concludes?

A: If you transfer your AHGP common units after the record date but before the consent process concludes, you will, unless special arrangements are made, retain your right to consent with respect to the merger. However, if you transfer your AHGP common units before the consent process concludes, you will not receive the Exchange Units for the AHGP common units you have transferred.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this consent statement/prospectus, please respond by completing, dating and signing your written consent and returning it to AHGP by faxing it to Alliance Holdings GP, L.P., Attention: R. Eberley Davis, General Counsel and Secretary, at (859) 223-3057, by emailing a .pdf copy of your written consent to eb.davis@arlp.com or by mailing your written consent to Alliance Holdings GP, L.P. at 1717 South Boulder Avenue, Suite 400, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74119, Attention: R. Eberley Davis, General Counsel and Secretary.

Q: What will happen if I do not return my written consent?

A: If you are an AHGP unitholder and fail to return your written consent, it will have the effect of a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Q: Who can I contact with questions about the merger and related matters?

A: If you have any questions about the merger and the other matters contemplated by this consent statement/prospectus or how to submit your written consent, or if you need additional copies of this consent statement/prospectus, you should contact:

The Parties to the Simplification Agreement

Alliance Resource Partners, L.P.

ARLP is a diversified producer and marketer of coal primarily to major United States utilities and industrial users. ARLP, the nation's first publicly traded master limited partnership involved in the production and marketing of coal, is currently the second largest coal producer in the eastern United States with mining operations in the Illinois Basin and Appalachian coal producing regions.

ARLP currently operates eight mining complexes in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia as well as a coal-loading terminal on the Ohio River at Mount Vernon, Indiana. ARLP also generates income from other sources, including investments in oil and gas royalty interests and gas compression services.

The executive offices of ARLP are located at 1717 South Boulder Avenue, Suite 400, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74119. The telephone number is (918) 295-7600.

Alliance Holdings GP, L.P.

AHGP is a publicly traded Delaware limited partnership. AHGP completed its initial public offering in May 2006. AHGP owns, directly and indirectly, 100% of the members' interest in MGP, the sole general partner of ARLP. Currently, AHGP's only cash-generating assets are its ownership interests in ARLP, which consist of the following:

a 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP, which AHGP holds through its 100% indirect ownership interest in MGP;

87,188,338 common units of ARLP, representing approximately 66.6% of the 130,903,256 common units of ARLP outstanding as of April 17, 2018; and a 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal, which AHGP holds through its 100% indirect ownership interest in MGP.

The executive offices of AHGP are located at 1717 South Boulder Avenue, Suite 400, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74119. The telephone number is (918) 295-1415.

Wildcat GP Merger Sub, LLC

Merger Sub is a direct wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, the general partner of AHGP. Merger Sub was formed solely for the purpose of consummating the merger. Merger Sub has not carried on any activities to date, except for activities incidental to its formation and activities undertaken in connection with the transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement.

Relationship of the Parties

AHGP owns, directly and indirectly, 100% of the members' interest in MGP, the sole general partner of ARLP, and 87,188,338 common units of ARLP, representing approximately 66.6% of the 130,903,256 common units of ARLP outstanding as of April 17, 2018.

Table of Contents

AHGP is owned 100% by its limited partners, and AHGP's general partner, AGP, has a non-economic interest in AHGP and is indirectly owned by Joseph W. Craft III, the President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP as well as the President and Chief Executive Officer and a Director of MGP.

Messrs. Joseph W. Craft III and Wilson M. Torrence serve as members of both the MGP and AGP Boards. Several of the executive officers of MGP are also executive officers of AGP.

The Proposed Merger and Simplification Transactions

Pursuant to the simplification agreement, through a series of transactions, AHGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and all of the AHGP common units will be canceled and converted into the right to receive all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries. Each AHGP unitholder will hold directly after the simplification transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the simplification transactions.

General Partner Structure

The simplification transactions also contemplate that New AHGP GP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and the new general partner of AHGP after the simplification transactions. MGP, the general partner of ARLP, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, the current general partner of AHGP prior to the simplification transactions, and continue to be the general partner of ARLP. As a result, there will be no change of control over the operation of ARLP's business.

Operating Subsidiaries

In order to further simplify the structure, the simplification agreement also provides for the contribution of the general partner and managing member interests in ARLP's operating subsidiaries, AROP and Alliance Coal, to ARLP immediately following the merger. More specifically, SGP, which will hold 100% of the limited partner interests in AHGP following the merger, will contribute such limited partner interests in AHGP, which indirectly owns the SGP Contributed Interests, to ARLP in exchange for the New ARLP Common Units, which are calculated to provide SGP with the same cash flow from distributions after the simplification transactions in respect of the New ARLP Common Units as it would have otherwise received in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests. These steps are being completed so that both AROP and Alliance Coal will be wholly owned, directly and indirectly, by ARLP.

Calculation of Exchange Ratio and Number of New ARLP Common Units

Pursuant to the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into AHGP, the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease, AHGP will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership and each AHGP common unit that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a portion of the AHGP unitholder consideration. In the merger, each AHGP unitholder (other than SGP) will receive in exchange for each AHGP common unit held by it a number of ARLP common units equal to "A" divided by "B," where "A" equals (i) the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the merger, plus (ii) the number of New ARLP Common Units, and "B" equals the number of AHGP common units issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger (including a number of AHGP common units that will be deemed to be outstanding in settlement of certain AHGP deferred phantom units that are held by certain directors of AGP under the Alliance GP, LLC Amended and Restated Directors Annual Retainer and Deferred Compensation Plan, dated as of January 1, 2011 (the "AHGP deferred phantom units")). See "The Simplification

Table of Contents

Agreement "Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units" for more detail regarding the treatment of the AHGP deferred phantom units in the merger. SGP will receive in the merger a number of ARLP common units equal to the number of ARLP common units it would receive pursuant to the exchange ratio in exchange for the AHGP common units held by it, less the number of New ARLP Common Units it will be issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests. The number of New ARLP Common Units to be issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests will be calculated based on the actual dollar amount distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the per unit amount actually distributed by ARLP with respect to the ARLP common units, in each case in connection with ARLP's last quarterly distribution prior to the closing of the simplification transactions, which is designed to result in cash distribution neutrality to both SGP and ARLP as a result of the issuance.

Based on the number of AHGP common units outstanding as of the date hereof (including a number of units deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units), the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, the exchange ratio would be approximately 1.478 ARLP common units for each AHGP common unit.

Resulting Ownership

Based on the estimated number of ARLP common units that will be outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, we estimate that, following consummation of the simplification transactions, ARLP will be owned approximately 33.1% by current ARLP unitholders and approximately 66.9% by former AHGP unitholders. AHGP common units will cease to be publicly traded upon consummation of the simplification transactions. ARLP common units will continue to be traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol "ARLP" following the consummation of the simplification transactions.

The simplification agreement is attached as Annex A to this consent statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this consent statement/prospectus by reference.

Please read the simplification agreement carefully and fully as it is the legal document that governs the simplification transactions. For a summary of the simplification agreement, please read "The Simplification Agreement" beginning on page 41.

Support Agreement

Certain unitholders of AHGP, including, among others, SGP and Joseph W. Craft III, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP and President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of MGP, have entered into a support agreement with AHGP. Pursuant to the support agreement, the AHGP supporting unitholders have agreed to deliver a written consent (the "Written Consent") covering a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding. The support agreement obligates the AHGP supporting unitholders to deliver the Written Consent to AHGP within two business days after the Registration Statement, of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part, becomes effective under the Securities Act. The delivery of the Written Consent of the AHGP supporting unitholders with respect to the AHGP common units they own will be sufficient to adopt the simplification agreement and thereby approve the simplification transactions, including the merger, without the receipt of a written consent from any other holder of AHGP common units.

The foregoing description of the support agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the support agreement, which is attached as Annex B to this consent statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this consent statement/prospectus by reference.

Directors and Executive Officers of MGP Following the Simplification Transactions

MGP will continue to direct the activities of ARLP after the merger. MGP's management team will continue in their current roles and will manage MGP following consummation of the simplification transactions. AGP will continue to have the power to appoint members of the MGP Board and will become the sole member of MGP upon consummation of the simplification transactions. As of the date of this consent statement/prospectus, the six current members of the MGP Board are expected to continue as directors of the MGP Board following the consummation of the simplification transactions.

Recommendation of the AGP Board and Reasons for the Simplification Transactions

The AGP Board has determined that the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are fair and reasonable to, and in the best interests of, AHGP and AHGP's limited partners, including the limited partners that are not affiliates of AGP. The AGP Board unanimously approved the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and recommended that the AHGP unitholders approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

To review the background of and the AGP Board's reasons for the merger and the simplification transactions in greater detail, please read "The Merger and Simplification Transactions Background of the Merger and Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 33 and "The Merger and Simplification Transactions Recommendation of the AGP Board and Reasons for the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 37. To review certain risks related to the merger, please read "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25.

Conditions to the Consummation of the Merger and the Simplification Transactions

Before AHGP and ARLP can complete the simplification transactions, a number of conditions must be satisfied, or where permissible waived, by AHGP or ARLP, as appropriate. These conditions include, among others, that (i) the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, have been approved and adopted by the affirmative consent of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding AHGP common units; (ii) there is no legal restraint or prohibition enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or imposing any material restrictions on the consummation of the simplification transactions; (iii) the registration statement of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part has become effective under the Securities Act; and (iv) the New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP pursuant to the simplification transactions have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ. For the complete list of conditions to the consummation of the simplification transactions, please read "The Simplification Agreement Conditions to the Consummation of the Merger and the Other Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 47.

Required Approval of the Merger by AHGP Unitholders

The approval of the merger requires the affirmative consent of the holders of at least a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding on the record date.

Risk Factors

You should consider carefully all of the risk factors together with all of the other information included in this consent statement/prospectus before deciding whether to consent to the merger. Certain risks related to the simplification transactions are described under the caption "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25 of this consent statement/prospectus. Some of these risks include, but are not limited to, those described below:

Table of Contents

no ruling has been obtained with respect to the tax consequences of the simplification transactions;

completion of the simplification transactions is subject to conditions, and thus the cost savings and other benefits of the simplification transactions may not be realized; and the directors and executive officers of AGP and MGP may have interests that differ from your interests.

Termination of the Simplification Agreement

The simplification agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger in the following ways:

by mutual written consent of AHGP, AGP, Merger Sub, ARMH, MGP II, LLC ("MGP II"), SGP and MGP, acting in its individual capacity (the "AHGP parties"), in a written instrument.

by either AHGP or ARLP upon written notice to the other:

if the merger has not been consummated on or before September 30, 2018 (the "termination date"), unless the failure of the closing to occur by this date is primarily due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the simplification agreement to fulfill any material obligation under the simplification agreement or a material breach of the simplification agreement by such party which has been the primary cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the merger to have been consummated on or before such date;

if any regulatory authority has issued a statute, rule, order, decree or regulation or taken any other action, in each case permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated in the simplification agreement or making the merger and the transactions contemplated in the simplification agreement illegal and such statute, rule, order, decree, regulation or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of its obligation to use reasonable best efforts to complete the merger promptly;

if there has been a material breach of or any material inaccuracy in any of the representations or warranties set forth in the simplification agreement on the part of any of the other parties, which breach is not cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the terminating party, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the termination date; provided that in such case the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement. In order for termination to take place, the breaches must be of such nature that they would entitle the party receiving such representation not to carry out the simplification agreement because certain closing conditions are not met; or if there has been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in the simplification agreement on the part of any of the other parties, which breach has not been cured within 30 days after receiving written notice from the terminating party, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the termination date; provided that in such case, the terminating party itself is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement. In order for termination to take place, the breaches must be of such nature that they would entitle the party receiving the benefits of such covenants or agreements not to consummate the transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement because certain closing conditions are not met.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Simplification Transactions

Interests of the AGP Executive Officers and Directors in the Simplification Transactions. In considering the recommendation of the AGP Board to approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, AHGP unitholders should be aware that some of the executive officers and directors of AGP have interests in the simplification transactions that may differ from, or may be in addition to, the interests of AHGP unitholders generally. These interests may present such executive officers and directors with actual or potential conflicts of interest. These interests include the following:

AHGP and ARLP common units. Some of the executive officers and directors of AGP currently own AHGP common units and will be receiving ARLP common units as a result of the simplification transactions. AHGP common units held by the directors and executive officers will be exchanged for ARLP common units at a ratio that will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement. This ratio will be the same ratio as that applicable to the unaffiliated AHGP unitholders. In addition, certain directors and officers of AGP currently own ARLP common units.

AHGP Equity Based Awards. Certain directors of AGP also hold AHGP deferred phantom units (as defined under the heading "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units"). Immediately prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions, all AHGP deferred phantom units that are then outstanding will be paid in full and deemed to have been converted into AHGP common units. By virtue of the simplification transactions and without any action on the part of the holder of the AHGP deferred phantom units, the AHGP deferred phantom units will be treated as AHGP common units and will be exchanged for ARLP common units at a ratio that will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement and that will be the same ratio as that applicable to all unaffiliated AHGP unitholders.

Indemnification. For a period of at least six years following the consummation of the simplification transactions, the ARLP partnership agreement will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in the AHGP partnership agreement. Such provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the consummation of the simplification transactions in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to such time, were indemnitees, unless such modification is required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law. All rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions now existing in favor of existing indemnified parties, as provided in the AHGP partnership agreement, will be assumed by ARLP and MGP in the simplification transactions, without further action, at the consummation of the simplification transactions and will survive the simplification transactions and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

Director and Executive Officer Interlock. Two of the current directors of MGP are also directors of AGP; three executive officers of MGP are also executive officers of AGP; and three other executive officers of MGP are deemed to be executive officers of AGP.

Table of Contents

Support Agreement. In addition, the AHGP supporting unitholders include Joseph W. Craft III, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP. The AHGP supporting unitholders beneficially own approximately 52% of the total AHGP common units and have entered into a support agreement to vote in favor of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. For more information on the support agreement, please read "Interests of Certain Persons in the Simplification Transactions Support Agreement."

The directors and executive officers of AGP beneficially owned an aggregate of 41,363,372 AHGP common units as of April 17, 2018, representing approximately 69.1% of the total voting power of AHGP's voting securities.

For more information on the interests of certain persons, including, among other things, the ownership interests of directors and executive officers, in the merger, please read "Interests of Certain Persons in the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 75.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions

Under current law, although AHGP anticipates that the simplification transactions generally are non-taxable to ARLP, AHGP and the AHGP unitholders, AHGP unitholders may recognize small amounts of income and gain. Specifically, AHGP expects that AHGP unitholders (i) will be allocated a de minimis amount of dividend income as a result of the distributions from ARMH to AHGP, (ii) may have a small amount of income and gain or loss resulting from the sale by AHGP of the aggregate amount of ARLP common units necessary to be sold to provide the unitholders with cash in lieu of fractional units and the distribution of such cash to the unitholders, (iii) could recognize gain (which AHGP would expect to be immaterial) as a result of a decrease, if any, in such AHGP unitholder's share of partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code and (iv) could recognize a small amount of gain on the distribution of ARLP common units to the extent that any AHGP unitholder is treated for tax purposes as receiving more than their pro rata share of ARLP common units held by AHGP and interests in ARLP's business that AHGP treated as marketable securities and the value of such excess share exceeds the unitholders' tax basis in their AHGP common units.

Please read "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 52 and "Risk Factors Tax Risks Related to the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 26.

Material U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Ownership of ARLP Common Units

Each AHGP unitholder who becomes an ARLP unitholder as a result of the simplification transactions will, as is the case for existing ARLP unitholders, be required to report on its U.S. federal income tax return such unitholder's distributive share of ARLP's income, gains, losses, deductions and credits. In addition to U.S. federal income taxes, such a holder will be subject to other taxes, including state and local income taxes, unincorporated business taxes, and other taxes that may be imposed by the various jurisdictions in which ARLP conducts business or owns property or in which the unitholder is resident.

Please read "Material U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Ownership of ARLP Common Units" beginning on page 56.

Table of Contents

Expenses

Whether or not the merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring such costs or expenses, except in the following circumstances:

AHGP will be obligated to pay to ARLP the expenses of ARLP and MGP, acting in its capacity as the general partner of ARLP (the "ARLP parties"), if the simplification agreement is terminated by:

ARLP because of a material breach of the AHGP parties' representations and warranties or the AHGP parties' agreements or covenants; or

the AHGP parties by mutual written consent.

ARLP will be obligated to pay to AHGP the expenses of the AHGP parties if the simplification agreement is terminated by AHGP because of a material breach of the ARLP parties' representations and warranties or the ARLP parties' agreements or covenants.

Comparison of the AHGP Unitholder Rights and the ARLP Unitholder Rights

As a result of the merger, the holders of AHGP common units and AHGP deferred phantom units will become holders of ARLP common units and their rights will be governed by the ARLP partnership agreement instead of the AHGP partnership agreement. Accordingly, following the merger, former AHGP unitholders will have different rights as ARLP unitholders than they did as AHGP unitholders. While these rights are substantially similar, see the section entitled "Comparison of AHGP Unitholder Rights and ARLP Unitholder Rights" beginning on page 81 for a summary of the material differences between the rights of AHGP unitholders and ARLP unitholders.

Delisting and Deregistration of AHGP Common Units

It is a condition to the merger that ARLP common units to be issued in the simplification transactions be approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance. If the merger is completed, AHGP common units will be canceled, will cease to be listed on the NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The simplification transactions for ARLP will be accounted for prospectively as an exchange of equity interests between entities under common control when it issues the estimated 1,320,377 ARLP common units to SGP in exchange for the contribution of the limited partner interests in AHGP, which owns indirectly the general partner interest in AROP and managing member interest in Alliance Coal. Since ARLP and AHGP are under common control both before and after the simplification transactions, no fair value adjustment will be made to the assets or liabilities of AHGP and no gain or loss will be recognized in ARLP's net income. The accounting treatment of the simplification transactions from the standpoint of AHGP is not relevant as the intent of management is to de-list AHGP.

Regulatory Matters

In connection with the merger and the other simplification transactions, ARLP and AHGP intend to make all required filings under the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), as well as any required filings or applications with NASDAQ. ARLP and AHGP are unaware of any other requirement for the filing of information with, or the obtaining of the approval of, governmental authorities in any jurisdiction that is applicable to the merger and the other simplification transactions.

The merger and the other simplification transactions are not reportable under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and therefore no filings with respect to the merger and the other simplification transactions are required with the Federal Trade Commission or the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

No Appraisal Rights

AHGP unitholders do not have appraisal rights under the AHGP partnership agreement, the simplification agreement or applicable Delaware law.

Ownership Structure

The following diagrams depict ARLP's and AHGP's ownership structure before and after giving effect to the merger and the other simplification transactions. The ownership structure of ARLP and AHGP prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions is based on ARLP's and AHGP's ownership as of the date of this consent statement/prospectus.

Ownership Structure Prior to the Simplification Transactions

Table of Contents

Ownership Structure After the Simplification Transactions

(1)

The actual percentage ownership of ARLP following the consummation of the simplification transactions will be dependent upon the number of New ARLP Common Units that will be issued to SGP, which number will be based on the actual dollar amount distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the per unit amount actually distributed by ARLP with respect to the ARLP common units, in each case in connection with ARLP's last quarterly distribution of available cash prior to the closing of the simplification transactions. Based on the amount actually distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the ARLP distribution of $0.51 per ARLP common unit, in each case, with respect to the fourth quarter of 2017, ARLP would issue approximately 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units to SGP upon the closing of the simplification transactions.

- (1) Diluted earnings per unit ("EPU") gives effect to all dilutive potential common units outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method. Diluted EPU excludes all dilutive units calculated under the treasury stock method if their effect is anti-dilutive. For the years ended December 31, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014 and 2013, long-term incentive plan, Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and Directors' compensation units of 1,466,404, 922,386, 734,171, 798,701 and 682,746, respectively, were considered anti-dilutive.
- (2) As a result of the 2017 transaction in which ARLP simplified its partnership structure by exchanging ARLP common units for the outstanding incentive distribution rights and certain general partner interests, beginning with the second quarter of 2017, net income was not allocated to incentive distribution rights and the related general partner interests exchanged; however, additional net income in a corresponding amount was allocated to limited partner interests.
- (3) Working capital is impacted by current maturities of long-term debt.
- (4) Long-term obligations include long-term portions of debt and capital lease obligations.
- (5) Coal sales per ton sold are based on total coal sales divided by tons sold.
- (6) Cost per ton sold is based on the total of operating expenses and outside coal purchases divided by tons sold.
- (7) EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are financial measures not calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). EBITDA is defined as net income (prior to the allocation of noncontrolling interest) before net interest expense, income taxes and depreciation, depletion and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA is EBITDA modified for certain items that may not reflect the trend of future results, such as asset impairments, gains and losses from acquisition-valuation related accounting and debt extinguishment losses.

- (8) ARLP's maintenance capital expenditures, as defined under the terms of the ARLP partnership agreement, are those capital expenditures required to maintain, over the long term, the operating capacity of ARLP's capital assets.

EBITDA is used as a supplemental financial measure by management and by external users of ARLP's financial statements such as investors, commercial banks, research analysts and others. ARLP's management believes that the presentation of EBITDA provides useful information to investors regarding ARLP's performance and results of operations because EBITDA, when used in conjunction with related GAAP financial measures, (i) provides additional information about ARLP's core operating performance and ability to generate and distribute cash flow, (ii) provides investors with the financial analytical framework upon which ARLP bases financial, operational, compensation and planning decisions and (iii) presents a measurement that investors, rating agencies and debt holders have indicated is useful in assessing ARLP and its results of operations.

ARLP's management believe Adjusted EBITDA is a useful measure for investors because it further demonstrates the performance of ARLP's assets without regard to items that may not reflect the trend of future results.

EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as alternatives to net income attributable to ARLP, net income, income from operations, cash flows from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP. EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not intended to represent cash flow and do not represent the measure of cash available for distribution. ARLP's method of computing EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA may not be the same method used to compute similar measures reported by other companies, or EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA may be computed differently by ARLP in different contexts (e.g., public reporting versus computation under financing agreements).

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER UNIT INFORMATION

The following table sets forth certain historical per unit information of ARLP and AHGP and the unaudited pro forma combined per unit information after giving pro forma effect to the simplification transactions, including ARLP's issuance of ARLP common units pursuant to the simplification agreement.

You should read this information in conjunction with the selected historical financial information of ARLP and the selected historical financial information of AHGP included elsewhere in this consent statement/prospectus and the historical consolidated financial statements of ARLP and AHGP and related notes that are incorporated by reference in this consent statement/prospectus and in conjunction with the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and related notes included elsewhere in this consent statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma combined per unit information does not purport to represent what the actual results of operations would have been had the partnerships been combined or to project the results of operations that may be achieved after the merger is completed. Please read "Market Prices and Distribution Information" beginning on page 21, which is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

- (a) ARLP's pro forma net income per basic and diluted unit is calculated using the historic weighted-average number of ARLP's basic and diluted units outstanding adjusted to reflect (i) the estimated 1,320,377 ARLP common units issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests in connection with the simplification transactions as well as (ii) the 56,107,181 ARLP common units issued in July 2017 in exchange for the cancellation of the incentive distribution rights and treated as being outstanding as of January 1, 2017.
- (b) For ARLP and AHGP, book value is computed by dividing partners' capital for each entity by their respective limited partner units outstanding as of December 31, 2017. The ARLP pro forma amount is computed by dividing the pro forma partners' capital as of December 31, 2017 by the number of limited partner units outstanding at December 31, 2017, adjusted to reflect (i) the estimated 1,320,377 ARLP common units issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests in connection with the simplification transactions as well as (ii) the 56,107,181 ARLP common units issued in July 2017 in exchange for the cancellation of the incentive distribution rights and treated as being outstanding as of January 1, 2017.

Comparison of ARLP and AHGP Market Prices and Implied Value of AHGP Common Units

The following table sets forth the closing sale price per unit of ARLP common units and AHGP common units as reported on the NASDAQ on February 22, 2018, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed simplification transactions, and on April 17, 2018, the last practicable trading day before the filing of this consent statement/prospectus with the SEC. The table also shows the estimated implied value of each AHGP common unit as of the same two dates. This implied value was calculated by multiplying the closing price of an ARLP common unit on the relevant date by the estimated exchange ratio. The exchange ratio will be based on the actual number of ARLP common units to be issued to SGP plus the Exchange Units and the actual number of outstanding AHGP common units at the effective time of the merger. Based on the number of AHGP common units outstanding as of the date hereof (including a number of units deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units, as defined under the heading "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units"), the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, the exchange ratio would be approximately 1.478 ARLP common units for each AHGP common unit.

	ARLP Common Units	AHGP Common Units	Implied Value of AHGP Common Units
February 22, 2018	$ 17.85	$ 25.98	$ 26.38
April 17, 2018	$ 16.55	$ 23.36	$ 24.46

The market prices of ARLP common units and AHGP common units have fluctuated since the date of the announcement of the proposed simplification transactions and will continue to fluctuate prior to, and in the case of ARLP common units, after, completion of the merger. No assurance can be given concerning the market prices of ARLP common units or AHGP common units before completion of the simplification transactions, including the merger, or of ARLP common units after completion of the simplification transactions, including the merger. AHGP unitholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for ARLP common units and AHGP common units and to review carefully the other information contained in this consent statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference herein. For more information, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 110.

Forward-looking statements in this consent statement/prospectus are based on certain key expectations and assumptions made by AHGP and ARLP. Although the management of each of AHGP and ARLP believes that the expectations and assumptions on which such forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on the forward-looking statements because AHGP and ARLP can give no assurance that they will prove correct. Additionally, all forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements, many of which are generally outside the control of AHGP and ARLP and difficult to predict. These risks and uncertainties also include those set forth under the section entitled "Risk Factors" as well as, among others, risks and uncertainties relating to:

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger, the simplification agreement or other matters addressed in this consent statement/prospectus and attributable to ARLP or AHGP or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this consent statement/prospectus, including, without limitation, the risk factors and other information contained in ARLP's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and the risk factors and other information contained in AHGP's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote to approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. This consent statement/prospectus also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Please read "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" on page 22.

Risks Related to the Simplification Transactions and Related Matters

The completion of the simplification transactions is subject to certain closing conditions.

The simplification agreement contains closing conditions, some of which are beyond the parties' control, that, if not satisfied or waived, may delay the closing of the simplification transactions or result in the simplification transactions not occurring. Neither ARLP nor AHGP can predict with certainty when and whether any of the conditions to the consummation of the simplification transactions will be satisfied. Any delay in completing the simplification transactions could increase ARLP's costs or cause ARLP and AHGP not to realize, or delay realization of, some or all of the benefits that were expected to be achieved from the simplification transactions. If the simplification transactions are not completed, ARLP and AHGP will have incurred substantial expenses for which no ultimate benefit will have been received by either company. In addition, if the simplification transactions are terminated under specified circumstances, either ARLP or AHGP will be required to pay certain expenses of the other party.

The directors and executive officers of AGP may have interests that differ from your interests.

In considering the recommendation of the AGP Board to approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, AHGP unitholders should be aware that some of the executive officers and directors of AGP have interests in the merger that may differ from, or may be in addition to, the interests of AHGP unitholders generally. These interests may present such executive officers and directors with actual or potential conflicts of interest. These interests include the following:

AHGP and ARLP common units. Some of the executive officers and directors of AGP currently own AHGP common units and will be receiving ARLP common units as a result of the simplification transactions. AHGP common units held by the directors and executive officers will be exchanged for ARLP common units at a ratio to be calculated in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement. This ratio will be the same ratio as that applicable to the unaffiliated AHGP unitholders. In addition, certain directors and officers of AGP currently own ARLP common units.

AHGP Deferred Phantom Units. Certain directors of AGP also hold AHGP deferred phantom units (as defined under the heading "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units"). Immediately prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions, all AHGP deferred phantom units that are then outstanding will be paid in full and deemed to have been converted into AHGP common units. By virtue of the simplification transactions and without any action on the part of the holders of the AHGP deferred phantom units, the AHGP deferred phantom units will be treated as AHGP common units and will be exchanged for ARLP common units on the same economically equivalent basis as the other AHGP unitholders.

Indemnification. For a period of at least six years following the consummation of the simplification transactions, the ARLP partnership agreement will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in the AHGP partnership agreement. Such provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the consummation of the simplification transactions in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to such time, were indemnitees, unless such modification is required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law. All rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions now existing in favor of existing indemnified parties, as provided in the AHGP partnership agreement, will be assumed by ARLP and MGP in the simplification transactions, without further action, at the consummation of the simplification transactions and will survive the simplification transactions and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

Director and Executive Officer Interlock. Two of the current directors of MGP, namely, Joseph W. Craft III and Wilson M. Torrence, are also directors of AGP; three executive officers of MGP are also executive officers of AGP; and three other executive officers of MGP are deemed to be executive officers of AGP. Following the consummation of the simplification transactions, Mr. Torrence is expected to resign from the AGP Board, but otherwise, the size and composition of the both the AGP Board and the MGP Board are expected to remain the same.

Support Agreement. In addition, the AHGP supporting unitholders include Joseph W. Craft III, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP. The AHGP supporting unitholders beneficially own a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding and have entered into the support agreement to vote in favor of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. For more information on the support agreement, please read "Interests of Certain Persons in the Simplification Transactions Support Agreement."

The directors and executive officers of AGP beneficially owned an aggregate of 41,363,372 million AHGP common units as of April 17, 2018, representing approximately 69.1% of the total voting power of AHGP's voting securities. Additionally, the directors and executive officers of AGP beneficially owned an aggregate of 87,970,905 million ARLP common units as of April 17, 2018, representing approximately 67.2% of the total voting power of ARLP's voting securities.

Existing ARLP unitholders will be diluted by the merger.

The simplification transactions will dilute the ownership position of the existing ARLP unitholders. Pursuant to the simplification agreement, it is estimated that 1,320,377 ARLP common units will be issued to SGP in exchange for the 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and the 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal. Immediately following consummation of the simplification transactions, ARLP will be owned approximately 33.1% by its current unitholders and approximately 66.9% by former AHGP unitholders.

Tax Risks Related to the Simplification Transactions

In addition to reading the following tax risk factors, you should read "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 52 and "Material U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Ownership of ARLP Common Units" beginning on page 56 for a more complete discussion of the expected material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the simplification transactions and the simplification agreement and of owning and disposing of ARLP common units received in the simplification transactions.

No ruling has been obtained with respect to the tax consequences of the simplification transactions.

No ruling has been or will be requested from the IRS with respect to the tax consequences of the simplification transactions. Instead, AHGP is relying on the opinion of counsel as to the tax consequences of the simplification transactions, and counsel's conclusions may not be sustained if challenged by the IRS. Please read "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions."

The intended tax consequences of the simplification transactions are dependent upon each of ARLP and AHGP being treated as a partnership for tax purposes.

The treatment of the simplification transactions as described in this consent statement/prospectus to AHGP unitholders is dependent upon each of ARLP and AHGP being treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If either ARLP or AHGP were treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the consequences of the simplification transactions would be materially different, and the simplification transactions would likely be fully taxable transactions to a AHGP unitholder.

The tax treatment of the simplification transactions is subject to potential legislative change and differing judicial or administrative interpretations.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the simplification transactions depend in some instances on determinations of fact and interpretations of complex provisions of U.S. federal income tax law. The U.S. federal income tax rules are constantly under review by persons involved in the legislative process, the IRS and the U.S. Treasury Department, frequently resulting in revised interpretations of established concepts, statutory changes, revisions to Treasury regulations and other modifications and interpretations. Any modification to the U.S. federal income tax laws or interpretations thereof could be applied retroactively and result in a change to the tax treatment of the simplification transactions to AHGP unitholders and ARLP unitholders. We are unable to predict whether any future legislation will be enacted, and if so, whether such legislation would be applied retroactively.

An AHGP unitholder may recognize taxable income or gain as a result of the simplification transactions.

Under current law, although AHGP anticipates that the simplification transactions generally are non-taxable to ARLP, AHGP and the AHGP unitholders, AHGP unitholders may recognize small amounts of income and gain. Specifically, AHGP expects that AHGP unitholders (i) will be allocated a de minimis amount of dividend income as a result of the distributions from ARMH to AHGP, (ii) may have a small amount of income and gain or loss resulting from the sale by AHGP of the aggregate amount of ARLP common units necessary to be sold to provide the unitholders with cash in lieu of fractional units and the distribution of such cash to the unitholders, (iii) could recognize gain (which AHGP would expect to be immaterial) as a result of a decrease, if any, in such AHGP unitholder's share of partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code and (iv) could recognize a small amount of gain on the distribution of ARLP common units to the extent that any AHGP unitholder is treated for tax purposes as receiving more than their pro rata share of the ARLP common units held by AHGP and interests in ARLP's business that AHGP treated as marketable securities and the value of such excess share exceeds the unitholders' tax basis in their AHGP common units. Although AHGP currently estimates that any such gain recognized would be immaterial, actual amounts could be more than anticipated.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN CONSENTS

AHGP is providing this consent statement/prospectus to the AHGP unitholders in connection with the solicitation of written consents. This consent statement/prospectus is first being mailed to the AHGP unitholders on or about April 27, 2018.

Record Date

The record date for determining the holders of AHGP common units entitled to execute and return written consents with respect to the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, is April 25, 2018.

AHGP Common Units Entitled to Consent and Consent Required

Only holders of AHGP common units of record at the close of business on the record date will be notified of and be entitled to execute and deliver a written consent with respect to the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

As of the close of business on the record date, there were 59,863,000 common units of AHGP outstanding and entitled to execute and return written consents. Each AHGP unitholder is entitled to one vote for each AHGP common unit owned as of the close of business on the record date.

your written consent, it will have the same effect as a vote against the approval and adoption of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Upon the later of 20 business days after this consent statement/prospectus is sent to AHGP unitholders and the date on which a sufficient number of consents to approve and adopt the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, have been received, the consent process will conclude. The delivery of the Written Consent of the AHGP supporting unitholders with respect to the AHGP common units beneficially owned by the AHGP supporting unitholders will be sufficient to adopt the simplification agreement and thereby approve the simplification transactions, including the merger, without the receipt of a written consent from any other holder of AHGP common units.

Written Consent Not Returned

If you are an AHGP unitholder as of the close of business on the record date and you do not execute and return a written consent, it will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the simplification agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Revocation of Consents

Your consent may be revoked at any time before the later of 20 business days after this consent statement/prospectus is sent to AHGP unitholders and the date on which the consents of a sufficient number of AHGP unitholders to approve and adopt the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, have been delivered to the secretary of AHGP. If you wish to revoke a previously given consent before that time, you may do so by faxing such revocation to Alliance Holdings GP, L.P., Attention: R. Eberley Davis, General Counsel and Secretary, at (859) 223-3057, by emailing a .pdf copy of your written consent to eb.davis@arlp.com or by mailing your written consent to Alliance Holdings GP, L.P. at 1717 South Boulder Avenue, Suite 400, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74119, Attention: R. THE MERGER AND SIMPLIFICATION TRANSACTIONS

The following description of the material information about the merger, including the summary of the material terms and provisions of the simplification agreement and the support agreement, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the more detailed annexes to this consent statement/prospectus. We urge you to read all of the annexes to this consent statement/prospectus in their entirety.

General

AHGP entered into a simplification agreement, dated as of February 22, 2018, by and among AHGP, AGP, certain subsidiaries of AHGP and AGP, ARLP, MGP and SGP, pursuant to which, among other things, through a series of transactions, AHGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and all of the AHGP common units will be canceled and converted into the right to receive all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries. Each AHGP unitholder will hold directly after the simplification transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the simplification transactions.

General Partner Structure

MGP will remain the general partner of ARLP after the simplification transactions so there will be no change in the management and operation of ARLP's business. In connection with the simplification transactions, MGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, the general partner of AHGP prior to the completion of the simplification transactions. In addition, New AHGP GP, a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and the new general partner of AHGP.

Operating Subsidiaries

In order to further simplify the structure, the simplification agreement also provides for the contribution of two general partner interests in ARLP's operating subsidiaries, AROP and Alliance Coal, to ARLP immediately following the merger. More specifically, SGP, which will hold 100% of the limited partner interests in AHGP following the merger, will contribute such limited partner interests in AHGP, which indirectly owns the SGP Contributed Interests, to ARLP in exchange for the New ARLP Common Units, which are calculated to provide SGP with the same cash flow from distributions after the transaction in respect of the New ARLP Common Units as it would have otherwise received in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests. These steps are being completed so that both AROP and Alliance Coal will be wholly owned, directly and indirectly, by ARLP.

Calculation of Exchange Ratio and Number of New ARLP Common Units

Pursuant to the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into AHGP, the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease, AHGP will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership and each AHGP common unit that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a portion of the AHGP unitholder consideration. In the merger, each AHGP unitholder (other than SGP) will receive in exchange for each AHGP common unit held by it a number of ARLP common units equal to "A" divided by "B," where "A" equals (i) the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the merger, plus (ii) the number of New ARLP Common Units, and "B" equals the number of AHGP common units issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger (including a number of AHGP common units that will be deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units). See "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units" for more detail regarding the treatment of the AHGP deferred phantom units in the merger. SGP will receive in the merger a number of ARLP common units equal to the number of ARLP

common units it would receive pursuant to the exchange ratio in exchange for the AHGP common units held by it, less the number of New ARLP Common Units it will be issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests. The number of New ARLP Common Units to be issued in exchange for the SGP Contributed Interests will be calculated based on the actual dollar amount distributed in respect of the SGP Contributed Interests and the per unit amount actually distributed by ARLP with respect to the ARLP common units, in each case in connection with ARLP's last quarterly distribution prior to the closing of the simplification transactions, which is designed to result in cash distribution neutrality to both SGP and ARLP as a result of the issuance.

Based on the number of AHGP common units outstanding as of the date hereof (including a number of units deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units), the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, the exchange ratio would be approximately 1.478 ARLP common units for each AHGP common unit.

Resulting Ownership

Based on the estimated number of ARLP common units that will be outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, we estimate that, following consummation of the simplification transactions, ARLP will be owned approximately 33.1% by current ARLP unitholders and approximately 66.9% by former AHGP unitholders. AHGP common units will cease to be publicly traded upon consummation of the simplification transactions. ARLP common units will continue to be traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol "ARLP" following the consummation of the simplification transactions.

The simplification agreement is attached as Annex A to this consent statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this consent statement/prospectus by reference. Please read the simplification agreement carefully and fully as it is the legal document that governs the simplification transactions. For a summary of the simplification agreement, please read "The Simplification Agreement" beginning on page 41.

The Merger and Simplification Transactions

Amendments

The simplification agreement contemplates the amendment of the partnership agreement or limited liability company agreement of (i) AROP, (ii) Alliance Coal, (iii) MGP, (iv) AHGP and (v) New AHGP GP as necessary to reflect the changes in the organizational structure of ARLP and AHGP upon consummation of the simplification transactions. The amendments will become effective in connection with the consummation of the simplification transactions.

Support Agreement

In connection with the execution of the simplification agreement, AHGP entered into the support agreement with the AHGP supporting unitholders, including but not limited to, SGP and Joseph W. Craft III, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP and President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of MGP. Pursuant to the support agreement, the AHGP supporting unitholders have agreed to deliver the Written Consent, which covers a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding and will be a sufficient number of consents to approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The support agreement obligates the AHGP supporting unitholders to deliver the Written Consent to AHGP within two business days after the Registration Statement, of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part, becomes effective under the Securities Act.

Table of Contents

The support agreement also generally prohibits the AHGP supporting unitholders from transferring the AHGP common units that are covered by the support agreement. The support agreement terminates upon the earliest to occur of the effective time of the merger, the termination of the simplification agreement and the written agreement of the parties to the support agreement to terminate the support agreement.

The foregoing description of the support agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the support agreement, which is attached as Annex B to this consent statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this consent statement/prospectus by reference.

Background of the Merger and Simplification Transactions

On July 28, 2017, ARLP and AHGP entered into an agreement pursuant to which MGP's incentive distribution rights in ARLP were eliminated and its approximate one percent general partner interest in ARLP was converted into a non-economic general partner interest in exchange for the issuance to MGP II of 56.1 million ARLP common units (collectively, the "Exchange Transaction"). Following the consummation of the Exchange Transaction, management and members of the boards of directors of the general partners of ARLP and AHGP discussed, on a number of occasions, pursuing a series of transactions whereby AHGP would become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and ARLP would become the sole reporting and trading entity. During such discussions, representatives of ARLP and AHGP discussed the potential benefits of such transactions, including (i) attracting a broader investor base to a single, larger entity with increased public float and liquidity, (ii) a resulting capital and governance structure that would be more easily understood by the investing public and (iii) the elimination of the significant management operating personnel time and related third party service costs of maintaining two public companies.

On December 7, 2017, the AGP Board and the MGP Board held a joint meeting during which they discussed the potential simplification transactions. During such meeting, management reported on the status of its analysis of the overall Alliance corporate structure, specifically as it relates to whether and when ARLP and AHGP should pursue the potential simplification transactions. Members of management and the AGP and MGP Boards discussed their preliminary thoughts as to the pros and cons of simplifying the Alliance structure as compared with maintaining a structure with two public entities and the potential impact of ARLP's and AHGP's long-term strategic plans on the decision. Management and the AGP and MGP Boards also discussed the potential impact on ARLP and AHGP of the tax reform legislation that had been proposed by both the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States Congress and that the final form of any approval for legislation might impact the decision to proceed with the potential simplification transactions. One of the principles discussed during the meeting was that any such transaction should, if pursued, result in economic equivalence for AHGP unitholders such that each AHGP unitholder would hold directly after the transaction the same economic interest in ARLP that such unitholder held before such transaction. Following such discussion, the AGP Board and MGP Board instructed ARLP and AHGP management to begin preliminary work on the proposed simplification transactions whereby AHGP would become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and ARLP would become the sole reporting and trading entity.

In early January of 2018, senior management of AHGP and ARLP, after considering the knowledge and experience of Vinson & Elkins L.L.P. ("Vinson & Elkins" or "outside legal counsel") with public company mergers and acquisitions, the energy industry generally, and its particular experience in advising master limited partnerships with respect to transactions similar to the proposed transaction, as well as its tax and legal knowledge with respect to ARLP and AHGP, as securities and tax counsel to both, determined to engage Vinson & Elkins as legal counsel and to serve as a legal resource for developing the documentation and related legal items necessary to implement the potential simplification transactions.

Following initial discussions with outside legal counsel, ARLP and AHGP management instructed counsel to develop a structure for the proposed simplification transactions whereby, among other things, (i) AHGP would become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP, (ii) all of the issued and outstanding AHGP common units would be canceled and converted into the right to receive all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and (iii) all of the outstanding equity interests in AROP and Alliance Coal would be held directly or indirectly by ARLP.

On January 23, 2018, representatives of AHGP and ARLP held a conference call with outside legal counsel to discuss the structure of the proposed simplification transactions and the various steps that would be required to consummate such transactions.

On January 24, 2018, the AGP Board and the MGP Board held a joint meeting during which they discussed the proposed simplification transactions, the various steps that would be required to consummate such transactions, the benefits of retaining two reporting entities and the benefits of the proposed simplified structure. During the meeting, management also reviewed with the AGP and MGP Boards details regarding management's analysis of whether to simplify the corporate structure of the Alliance entities or maintain the existing structure of two public reporting entities and took into account the impact on publicly traded partnerships of the passage of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. Management also described the analysis and advice of its outside financial advisor, including its conclusion that the streamlining of the corporate structure of the Alliance entities into a single master limited partnership would likely provide the most significant near and long-term benefits to the Alliance entities. Following such discussion, management reviewed with the AGP and MGP Boards a tentative timeline and plan of action for pursuing the proposed simplification transactions.

Over the course of the following two weeks, outside legal counsel worked with the senior management of ARLP and AHGP to finalize the transaction structure. In addition, management of ARLP and AHGP developed a model with respect to the proposed simplification transaction to determine the steps necessary to achieve economic equivalence. At the request of ARLP and AHGP, outside legal counsel began drafting the transaction documents for the proposed simplification transaction.

On February 8, 2018, members of ARLP and AHGP management held a conference call with outside legal counsel to discuss certain steps of the proposed simplification transactions, including the distribution of ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries to AHGP unitholders in a merger and the issuance of ARLP common units to SGP in exchange for a 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal. During the call, outside legal counsel and ARLP and AHGP management discussed the calculations set forth in management's model for achieving economic equivalence, which ARLP and AHGP management had developed for determining the number of ARLP common units that would be exchanged for each AHGP common unit and the number of ARLP common units that would be issued to SGP in exchange for a 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and a 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal. The calculations and proposed simplification transactions were structured to obtain economic equivalence for the AHGP unitholders so that each AHGP unitholder would hold directly after the transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the transactions.

On February 13, 2018, outside legal counsel distributed an initial draft of a simplification agreement and support agreement to ARLP and AHGP management.

On February 16, 2018, the Board of Directors of AGP and MGP held a joint special meeting to discuss the potential simplification transactions. Present at the meeting were members of the senior management teams of AHGP and ARLP and outside legal counsel. During the meeting, outside legal counsel outlined the terms of the potential simplification transactions between ARLP and AHGP, which terms included the following:

through a merger, all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries would be distributed to the AHGP unitholders in exchange for their AHGP common units;

the ARLP common units to be distributed in the merger would be distributed on a pro rata basis, except that SGP would receive a smaller number of ARLP common units per AHGP common unit it exchanged relative to all other AHGP unitholders to account for the fact that SGP would temporarily retain an indirect 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and an indirect 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal (collectively, the "Retained Interests") in connection with the merger;

SGP would contribute the Retained Interests to ARLP in a subsequent step of the transactions in exchange for the issuance of a number of ARLP common units, which when aggregated with the ARLP common units to be distributed in the merger, would result in each AHGP unitholder holding directly after the transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the transactions; and the number of ARLP common units to be issued to SGP in exchange for the Retained Interests would be calculated to provide SGP with the same cash flow from distributions attributable to the newly issued ARLP common units after the exchange as would have been generated by the Retained Interests had such exchange not occurred.

Outside legal counsel also explained that, following the consummation of the simplification transactions, (i) New AHGP GP, a wholly owned subsidiary of AHGP, would become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and the new general partner of AHGP, (ii) MGP would become a direct wholly owned subsidiary of AGP and continue to be the general partner of ARLP and (iii) as a result of the transfer of the Retained Interests, all of the equity interests in AROP and Alliance Coal would be held directly or indirectly by ARLP. During the respective board meetings, members of the AGP and MGP Board asked various questions about the legal structure of the proposed transaction, which questions were answered by outside legal counsel to the satisfaction of the AGP and MGP Boards. During the meeting, management of ARLP and AHGP also presented to the AGP and MGP Boards their updated model for achieving economic equivalence for AHGP unitholders, which model included calculations for determining the exchange ratio and the number of ARLP common units to be issued to SGP in connection with the simplification transactions. Members of the AGP and MGP Board asked questions regarding the model, the calculation of the exchange ratio and the number of ARLP common units to be distributed to SGP to achieve economic equivalence, which questions were answered to the satisfaction of the AGP and MGP Boards.

Following a discussion with members of the AGP Board and the MGP Board regarding the transaction structure, outside legal counsel noted that the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding AHGP common units would be required to approve the merger, and that they had been advised that certain holders of AHGP common units were expected to enter into a support agreement with AHGP pursuant to which they would agree to deliver a written consent, covering a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding, approving the merger. Outside legal counsel also explained that following the execution of the simplification agreement, ARLP would file a registration statement on Form S-4 to register the distribution of ARLP common units to former AHGP unitholders in connection with the merger. Members of the AGP and MGP Boards asked additional questions about the timing of the simplification transactions, the board and unitholder approvals required to consummate such transactions and the various documents that would be required to be entered into with respect to such transactions.

Table of Contents

Following such discussion, outside legal counsel provided an overview of the fiduciary duties of the AGP and MGP board members and the related party nature of the proposed simplification transactions. Outside legal counsel then explained the conflict resolution procedures set forth in the limited partnership agreements of ARLP and AHGP and the methods by which conflict of interests may be deemed resolved and approved by the limited partners under the respective limited partnership agreements of ARLP and AHGP.

From February 13, 2018 to February 20, 2018, outside legal counsel continued to revise the simplification agreement and support agreement to reflect comments received from ARLP and AHGP management.

On February 20, 2018, outside legal counsel distributed a revised draft of the simplification agreement and support agreement to management of ARLP and AHGP, which drafts were also distributed by the management of ARLP and AHGP to members of the AGP and MGP Boards for their review and approval.

On February 22, 2018, the Board of Directors of AGP and MGP held a joint special meeting to discuss the proposed simplification transactions and to consider the approval and recommendation of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. Prior to the meeting, the AGP and MGP Boards were provided drafts of the simplification agreement and support agreement, a model demonstrating the calculation of the exchange ratio to achieve economic equivalence, as well as other materials to assist them in evaluating the proposed simplification transactions.

Representatives of outside legal counsel then outlined the terms of the proposed simplification transactions, including the terms set forth in the simplification agreement and the support agreement, and responded to various questions from members of the AGP and MGP Boards relating to the transaction documents and the terms of the proposed simplification transactions. Members of the AGP and MGP Boards also asked outside legal counsel questions relating to the transaction steps and the SEC review process in connection with the filing of a registration statement on Form S-4, which questions were answered by outside legal counsel to the satisfaction of the AGP and MGP Boards. The AGP and MGP Board also discussed the reasons why the proposed simplification transactions would be beneficial to ARLP and AHGP and asked management questions regarding the calculation of the exchange ratio. After having further consultation with, and receiving advice from, its outside legal counsel, both the AGP and MGP Boards determined that outside legal counsel is an expert with respect to the matters upon which such counsel provided its advice.

After further deliberation and questions, and after considering the benefits of the proposed simplification transactions, as well as the consideration of other relevant factors, the AGP Board, acting in its capacity as general partner of AHGP, (i) determined that the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are fair and reasonable to, and in the best interests of, AHGP and its limited partners, including the limited partners of AHGP that are not affiliates of AGP, taking into account the totality of the relationships between the parties involved (including other transactions that may be particularly favorable or advantageous to AHGP); (ii) approved and declared the advisability of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger; and (iii) recommended that the holders of AHGP common units approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The AGP Board also approved the support agreement.

Similarly, after further deliberation and questions, and after considering the benefits of the proposed simplification transactions, as well as the consideration of other relevant factors, the MGP Board, acting in its capacity as general partner of ARLP, (i) determined that the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including (a) the issuance of ARLP common units to SGP in exchange for the Retained Interests and (b) the receipt of all of the limited liability company interests of New AHGP GP, which would become the new general partner of AHGP (collectively, the "ARLP Transactions"), are fair to, and in the best interests of, ARLP and its limited partners, including the limited partners of ARLP other than AHGP and its affiliates, taking into account the totality of the relationships between the parties involved (including other transactions that may be particularly favorable or advantageous to ARLP), and (ii) approved and declared the advisability of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the ARLP Transactions.

Later in the day on February 22, 2018, ARLP and AHGP and the other related parties to the simplification agreement executed the simplification agreement, and AHGP and the AHGP supporting unitholders executed the support agreement.

Prior to the opening of trading on February 23, 2018, ARLP and AHGP issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the simplification agreement and the simplification transactions.

Recommendation of the AGP Board and Reasons for the Simplification Transactions

In reaching its decision on the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, the AGP Board consulted with management and its legal advisors and considered a number of factors that supported the approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the following:

the fact that the simplification transactions are structured such that each AHGP unitholder will hold directly after the transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the transactions;

the fact that the simplification transactions will likely result in a capital structure and governance structure that are more easily understood by the investing public;

the fact that the simplification transactions will result in AHGP no longer being a reporting company and eliminate the significant management and operating personnel time and the related duplicative third party service costs required to maintain two public companies;

the fact the simplification transactions are expected to attract a broader investor base to a single, larger entity with increased public float and liquidity;

the fact that AHGP unitholders will maintain their public equity stake and directly participate in the expected benefits of the operations of ARLP, including any future unit price appreciation and/or distribution increases;

the probability that AHGP and ARLP will be able to complete the simplification transactions, including the fact that holders of a majority of the AHGP common units have agreed to execute a written consent approving the simplification agreement;

the fact that having a common equity currency for the combined ARLP and AHGP partnership could facilitate future acquisitions and mergers;

the fact that the simplification transactions will eliminate potential conflicts of interest that may arise as a result of a person being an officer of the general partner of AHGP and of the general partner of ARLP and as a result of a person being a member of the AGP Board and a member of the MGP Board;

AHGP and AHGP unitholders are not expected to recognize a material amount of income or gain, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, solely as a result of the simplification transactions;

the terms of the simplification agreement, including the right of AGP and AHGP and their respective subsidiaries to terminate the simplification agreement for any reason.

Table of Contents

The AGP Board also considered the following factors that weighed against the approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby:

the risk that the simplification transactions might not be completed in a timely manner or at all as a result of a failure to satisfy the conditions contained in the simplification agreement;

the risk that cost savings and other benefits sought in the simplification transactions might not be fully realized;

the fact that AHGP may be required in certain circumstances to reimburse ARLP for its expenses upon termination of the simplification agreement;

certain directors of AHGP's general partner, AGP, may have interests that are different from those of the holders of AHGP common units; and other matters described under the caption "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25.

In the view of the AGP Board, these factors did not outweigh the advantages of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the AGP Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but it does set forth the principal factors considered by the AGP Board.

The AGP Board reached its conclusion to approve and declare advisable the simplification agreement and the support agreement in light of various factors described above and other factors that the AGP Board believed were appropriate.

In view of the wide variety and complexity of factors considered by the AGP Board in connection with its evaluations of these matters, the AGP Board did not consider it practical, and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decisions and did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determinations. Rather, the AGP Board made its determinations based on the totality of the information presented to it and the investigations conducted by it.

It should be noted that portions of this explanation of the reasoning of the AGP Board and certain information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read along with the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Recommendation of the MGP Board and Reasons for the Simplification Transactions

In reaching its decision on the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, the MGP Board consulted with management and its legal advisors and considered a number of factors that supported the approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the following:

the fact that the simplification transactions will likely result in a capital structure and governance structure that are more easily understood by the investing public;

the fact that the simplification transactions will eliminate the duplication required to maintain two public companies, which will allow the management of ARLP to focus solely on managing ARLP;

the fact that the simplification transactions are expected to attract a broader investor base to a single, larger entity with increased public float and liquidity;

the probability that AHGP and ARLP will be able to complete the simplification transactions, including the fact that holders of a majority of the AHGP common units have agreed to execute a written consent approving the simplification agreement;

the fact that having a common equity currency for the combined ARLP and AHGP partnerships could facilitate future acquisitions and mergers;

the fact that the simplification transactions will eliminate potential conflicts of interest that may arise as a result of a person being an officer of the general partner of AHGP and of the general partner of ARLP and as a result of a person being a member of the AGP Board and a member of the MGP Board; and the terms of the simplification agreement, including the right of ARLP and MGP to terminate the simplification agreement under certain circumstances.

The MGP Board also considered the following factors that weighed against the approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby:

the risk that the simplification transactions might not be completed in a timely manner or at all as a result of a failure to satisfy the conditions contained in the simplification agreement;

the risk that the benefits sought in the simplification transactions might not be fully realized;

the fact that ARLP may be required in certain circumstances to reimburse AHGP for its expenses upon termination of the simplification agreement;

the fact that AGP and AHGP and their respective subsidiaries may terminate the simplification agreement for any reason; and other matters described under the caption "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25.

In the view of the MGP Board, these factors did not outweigh the advantages of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the MGP Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but it does set forth the principal factors considered by the MGP Board.

The MGP Board reached its conclusion to approve and declare advisable the simplification agreement in light of various factors described above and other factors that the MGP Board believed were appropriate.

Restrictions on Sales of ARLP Common Units Received in the Merger

Edgar Filing: ALLIANCE RESOURCE PARTNERS LP - Form 424B3

ARLP common units to be received by the AHGP unitholders in the merger will be registered under the Securities Act and may be traded freely and without restriction by those AHGP unitholders not deemed to be affiliates (as that term is defined under the Securities Act). ARLP common units held by any such affiliates may be sold only pursuant to a registration statement or an exemption under the Securities Act. In the event that an affiliate is not included in a registration statement or such registration statement cannot be used, the affiliates may sell subject to the limitations under Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Upon the expiration of the limitations under Rule 145, the affiliates will be able to freely sell ARLP common units they receive in connection with the simplification transactions.

An "affiliate" of ARLP is a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with ARLP. These restrictions are expected to apply to the directors and executive officers of MGP and the holders of 10% or more of ARLP common units. The same restrictions apply to the spouses and certain relatives of those persons and any trusts, estates, corporations or other entities in which those persons have a 10% or greater beneficial or equity interest. ARLP will give stop transfer instructions to the transfer agent with respect to ARLP common units to be received by persons subject to these restrictions.

Listing of the ARLP Common Units and Delisting and Deregistration of AHGP Common Units

It is a condition to the simplification transactions that ARLP common units to be issued in the simplification transactions be approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance. If the simplification transactions are completed, all of the outstanding AHGP common units will be canceled, will cease to be listed on the NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Required Approval of the Merger by AHGP Unitholders

The approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, requires the affirmative consent of the holders of at least a majority of AHGP's common units outstanding on the record date.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The simplification transactions for ARLP will be accounted for prospectively as an exchange of equity interests between entities under common control when it issues the estimated 1,320,377 ARLP common units to SGP in exchange for the contribution of the limited partner interests in AHGP, which owns indirectly the general partner interest in AROP and managing member interest in Alliance Coal. Since ARLP and AHGP are under common control both before and after the simplification transactions, no fair value adjustment will be made to the assets or liabilities of AHGP and no gain or loss will be recognized in ARLP's net income. The accounting treatment of the simplification transactions from the standpoint of AHGP is not relevant as the intent of management is to de-list AHGP.

Regulatory Matters

In connection with the merger and the other simplification transactions, ARLP and AHGP intend to make all required filings under the Exchange Act, as well as any required filings or applications with NASDAQ. ARLP and AHGP are unaware of any other requirement for the filing of information with, or the obtaining of the approval of, governmental authorities in any jurisdiction that is applicable to the merger and the other simplification transactions.

The merger and the other simplification transactions are not reportable under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and therefore no filings with respect to the merger and the other simplification transactions are required with the Federal Trade Commission or the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

No Appraisal Rights

Neither ARLP unitholders nor AHGP unitholders are entitled to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the simplification transactions.

THE SIMPLIFICATION AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the simplification agreement. The description of the simplification agreement in this section and elsewhere in this consent statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the simplification agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A hereto and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all information that may be important to you. You should read the entire consent statement/prospectus and all of its annexes, including the simplification agreement, carefully before you decide how to vote.

Closing Matters and Effective Time

Closing

Unless the parties agree otherwise, the closing of the merger and the other simplification transactions will take place on the third business day after the closing conditions in the simplification agreement have been satisfied or waived. Please read " Conditions to the Consummation of the Merger and the Other Simplification Transactions" beginning on page 47 for a more complete description of the conditions that must be satisfied or waived prior to closing. The date on which the closing occurs is referred to as the "closing date."

Effective Time

Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger and the other simplification transactions, a certificate of merger will be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the relevant provisions of Delaware law. The merger will become effective when the certificate of merger is filed or at such later date and time as may be set forth in the certificate of merger. As further described below in " Simplification Transactions," certain transactions referred to as the "distributions" will occur immediately prior to or simultaneously with the closing of the merger, and certain other transactions referred to as the "contributions" will occur immediately following the merger. These distributions and contributions are part of the transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement.

Simplification Transactions

Distributions

Immediately prior to or simultaneously with the effective time of the merger, among other things:

- (i) MGP will distribute the 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP to MGP II, and MGP II will be admitted to AROP as its general partner;
- (ii) MGP will distribute the 0.001% managing membership interest in Alliance Coal to MGP II, and MGP II will be admitted to Alliance Coal as its managing member;
- (iii) immediately following the foregoing distributions, MGP II will distribute (a) 99.999% of the 56,100,000 ARLP common units (which constitute all the Exchange Units not held by AHGP directly) currently owned by MGP II (the "distribution units") to AHGP and (b) 0.001% of the distribution units to ARMH, and immediately after such distribution, ARMH will distribute the portion of the distribution units it received from MGP II to AHGP;
- (iv) simultaneously with the foregoing distribution, MGP II will distribute (a) 99.999% of the limited liability company interest of MGP (the "MGP interest") to AHGP and 0.001% of the MGP interest to ARMH, (b) immediately after such distribution, ARMH will distribute such portion of the MGP interest it received from MGP II to AHGP, and AHGP will be admitted to MGP as its sole member; and

(v) Simultaneously with the consummation of the merger, (a) AHGP will distribute the MGP interest to AGP and (b) AGP will be admitted to MGP as its sole member (the foregoing clauses (i) through (v), the "distributions"). AHGP will maintain its 100% direct ownership in ARMH and 100% direct and indirect ownership of MGP II, and MGP II will maintain its general partner interest in AROP and managing member interest in Alliance Coal (the "AHGP Sub Ownership").

Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into AHGP, the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease and AHGP will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership. Each AHGP common unit that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a portion of the Exchange Units. All of the limited liability company interests in Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into and become limited partner interests in AHGP and will be held by SGP pending the consummation of the contributions. As a result, SGP will momentarily beneficially own, through its 100% limited partner interest in AHGP, an indirect 100% interest in ARMH and MGP II, which owns the AHGP Sub Ownership.

In connection with the merger, each AHGP common unit issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger (other than the AHGP common units held by SGP) will be converted into the right to receive a number of Exchange Units determined by an "exchange ratio" calculated pursuant to the simplification agreement. The AHGP common units held by SGP immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive a number of Exchange Units equal to (i) the product of (A) the aggregate number of AHGP common units held by SGP and (B) the exchange ratio, minus (ii) the aggregate number of New ARLP Common Units. The exchange ratio will be equal to (i) the number of Exchange Units and the New ARLP Common Units divided by (ii) the number of AHGP common units issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (including the AHGP deferred phantom units (as defined below)). Based on the number of AHGP common units outstanding as of the date of this consent statement/prospectus (including a number of units deemed to be outstanding in settlement of the AHGP deferred phantom units), the number of ARLP common units held by AHGP and its subsidiaries and the assumption that there will be 1,320,377 New ARLP Common Units, the exchange ratio would be approximately 1.478 ARLP common units for each AHGP common unit.

Contributions

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, among other things:

(i) AGP will contribute the general partner interest in AHGP to New AHGP GP, and New AHGP GP will be admitted as the general partner of AHGP;

(ii) SGP will contribute 100% of the limited partner interests in AHGP (which will include the AHGP Sub Ownership) to ARLP in exchange for the New ARLP Common Units calculated pursuant to the simplification agreement, and ARLP will be admitted as the sole limited partner of AHGP; and

(iii) AGP will contribute 100% of the limited liability company interests of New AHGP GP to ARLP, and ARLP will be admitted as the sole member of New AHGP GP (the foregoing clauses (i) through (iii), the "contributions").

The number of New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP pursuant to the contributions will be equal to the actual dollar amount distributed to MGP in respect of its 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and 0.001% managing membership interest in Alliance Coal divided by the per unit amount actually distributed by ARLP with respect to the ARLP common units, in each case in connection with ARLP's last quarterly distribution of available cash prior to the closing of the simplification transactions, rounded down to the nearest whole unit. Based on the amount distributed to MGP in respect of its 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal and the ARLP distribution of $0.51 per ARLP common unit, in each case, with respect to the fourth quarter of 2017, ARLP would issue approximately 1,320,377 ARLP common units to SGP upon the closing of the simplification transactions. Because the aggregate quarterly distributions with respect to the New ARLP Common Units are intended to equal the distributions previously paid with respect to the SGP Contributed Interests, the New ARLP Common Units are not expected to be dilutive to cash available for distribution on all outstanding ARLP common units.

Exchange Procedures

At the effective time of the merger, holders of AHGP common units will cease to have any rights as unitholders of AHGP, other than the right to receive (a) Exchange Units, representing in the aggregate, the whole number of Exchange Units that such holder has a right to receive pursuant to the simplification agreement and (b) a check in the amount equal to the aggregate amount of cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the simplification agreement in lieu of any fractional Exchange Units and any distributions with respect to the AHGP common units with a record date occurring prior to the effective time of the merger that may have been declared or made by AHGP on the AHGP common units in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement and which remains unpaid at the effective time of the merger. The Exchange Units and any cash paid in lieu of any fractional exchange unit are collectively referred to herein as the "AHGP unitholder consideration." After the effective time, there will be no transfers on AHGP's unit transfer books with respect to AHGP common units.

Promptly after the effective time of the merger, AHGP will deposit or cause to be deposited with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the exchange agent in connection with the merger, the Exchange Units and sufficient cash to pay cash in lieu of fractional Exchange Units (see "Simplification Transactions Fractional Units" beginning on page 44), any distributions with respect to AHGP common units with a record date prior to the effective time of the merger and which remain unpaid at the effective time of the merger, and any distributions with respect to the Exchange Units with a record date after the effective time of the merger (see "Simplification Transactions Distributions with Respect to Exchange Units" beginning on page 44) for the benefit of holders of AHGP common units.

Promptly after the effective time of merger, the exchange agent will send to each person who was a holder of AHGP common units at the effective time of the merger (i) a letter of transmittal and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of certificates representing AHGP common units or non-certificated AHGP common units represented by book-entry. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, upon surrender of such certificates, if any, together with such letters of transmittal, properly completed and duly executed and such other documents (including in respect of the AHGP common units represented by book-entry) to the exchange agent, the holders of AHGP common units will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (A) the number of Exchange Units that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the simplification agreement and (B) a check in an amount equal to the aggregate of the cash payable in lieu of fractional Exchange Units, any distributions with respect to the AHGP common units with a record date occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, and any distributions with respect to the Exchange Units with a record date after the effective time of the merger. No interest will be paid or accrued on any Exchange Units or cash payable to a holder of AHGP common units.

Distributions with Respect to Exchange Units

After the effective time of the merger, former holders of AHGP common units will be entitled to receive ARLP distributions payable with a record date after the effective time of the merger with respect to the number of Exchange Units to which they are entitled upon exchange of their AHGP common units, without interest. However, distributions on the Exchange Units will not be paid until certificates or non-certificated units represented by book-entry formerly representing their AHGP common units are surrendered to the exchange agent in accordance with the exchange agent's instructions.

Fractional Units

Fractional Exchange Units will not be delivered pursuant to the merger. Instead, each holder of AHGP common units who would otherwise be entitled to receive fractional Exchange Units pursuant to the simplification agreement will be entitled to receive, in lieu thereof, a cash payment (without interest, rounded up to the nearest whole cent) in an amount equal to the product of (a) the volume weighted average trading price of an ARLP common unit as reported by Bloomberg during the 20-trading day period ending on the third trading day immediately preceding the date on which the effective time of the merger occurs and (b) the fraction of an ARLP common unit that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Termination of Exchange Fund

Any portion of the exchange fund consisting of Exchange Units or cash that remains undistributed to the former holders of AHGP common units after 180 days following the effective time of the merger will be delivered to AHGP upon demand by AHGP. Thereafter, a former holder of AHGP common units must look only to AHGP for payment of the AHGP unitholder consideration, including any cash in lieu of fractional Exchange Units and any distributions with respect to AHGP common units to which the holder is entitled under the terms of the simplification agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of AHGP common units immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise revert to or become the property of any governmental authority will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of AHGP free and clear of any liens, claims and interests.

Lost Unit Certificates

If a certificate formerly representing AHGP common units has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the simplification agreement upon receipt of an affidavit as to that loss, theft or destruction, and, if required by AHGP, the posting of a bond in a reasonable amount as indemnity.

Withholding

AHGP and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the AHGP unitholder consideration payable to holders of AHGP common units the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under the Internal Revenue Code or any state, local or foreign tax law. Withheld amounts will be treated for all purposes of the simplification agreement as having been paid to the respective holders of AHGP common units.

Anti-Dilution Provisions

The AHGP unitholder consideration will be correspondingly adjusted if, at any time between the date of the simplification agreement and the effective time of the merger, there is any change in the outstanding AHGP common units or outstanding ARLP common units by reason of any subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination, or distribution in the form of equity interests with respect to such units.

Treatment of AHGP Deferred Phantom Units

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each phantom (notional) AHGP common unit granted to AGP's independent directors pursuant to the AGP Amended and Restated Directors Annual Retainer and Deferred Compensation Plan, dated as of January 1, 2011 (the "AHGP deferred phantom units") that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be paid in full and deemed to have been converted into AHGP common units. As of April 17, 2018, there were 14,710 AHGP deferred phantom units outstanding. By virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holders of the AHGP deferred phantom units, the AHGP deferred phantom units will be treated as AHGP common units for all purposes of the simplification agreement and will be granted the right to receive a portion of the AHGP unitholder consideration, calculated by applying the exchange ratio.

Representations and Warranties

Each of the parties to the simplification agreement has made representations and warranties in the simplification agreement with respect to the following subject matters:

organization, good standing and authority to execute and deliver the simplification agreement;

capitalization;

approvals necessary to authorize the execution and delivery of the simplification agreement;

absence of any conflict with or violation of law, organizational documents or material agreements as a result of entering into and carrying out the obligations of the simplification agreement;

fees payable to brokers;

regulatory approvals required to complete the merger and the other simplification transactions; and in the case of SGP, compliance with securities law, including "Accredited Investor" (as defined in Rule 501(a) under the Securities Act) status.

The representations and warranties contained in the simplification agreement will not survive beyond the effective time of the merger.

Covenants

Reasonable Best Efforts

Each of the parties to the simplification agreement has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper, desirable or advisable under applicable laws to consummate the merger and the other simplification transactions, including preparing all documentation, effecting all filings and obtaining all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement.

Registration Statement

AHGP and ARLP have agreed to cooperate in the preparation of the registration statement of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part. AHGP and ARLP both agree to use reasonable best efforts to cause the registration statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after filing thereof, to maintain such effectiveness for as long as necessary to consummate the merger and the other simplification transactions. AHGP has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to mail this consent statement/prospectus as soon as practicable after the effective date of the registration statement to holders of AHGP common units in connection with the solicitation of unitholder consent to the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Press Releases

Prior to the termination of the simplification agreement, without the prior approval of each of AHGP, AGP, Merger Sub, ARMH, MGP II, SGP and MGP (the "AHGP parties"), on the one hand, and ARLP and MGP, acting in its capacity as the general partner of ARLP (the "ARLP parties"), on the other hand, will not issue any press release or written statement for general circulation relating to the simplification transactions, except as otherwise required by applicable law or regulation or the applicable stock exchange rules, in which case it will consult with the other party before issuing any press release or written statement.

NASDAQ

ARLP will use its reasonable best efforts to list the New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP on NASDAQ prior to the closing of the simplification transactions.

Section 16 Matters

AHGP and ARLP have agreed to take all reasonable steps to cause the simplification transactions and any other dispositions of the equity of AHGP (including derivative securities) or acquisitions of ARLP common units in connection with the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, by each individual who (i) is a director or executive officer of AGP or (ii) on the closing date of the merger, is or will become a director or executive officer of MGP to be exempt from the short-swing profit rules under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Notification of Certain Matters

The parties have agreed to give prompt notice to each other of: (i) any fact, event or circumstance known to it that would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the simplification agreement, and (ii) any fact, event or circumstance that materially impairs or could reasonably be expected to materially impair its ability to perform its obligations under the simplification agreement or otherwise materially threaten or materially impede the consummation of the merger and the other simplification transactions, including the distributions and the contributions.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

ARLP agrees that all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the consummation of the contributions existing as of the date of the simplification agreement in favor of the AHGP indemnitees (as defined below), as provided in the AHGP partnership agreement and indemnification agreements of AHGP, AGP or any of their subsidiaries, will be assumed by ARLP and MGP at the consummation of the contributions, without further action, and will survive the simplification transactions and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. The AHGP indemnitees include (i) the general partner or any departing general partner of AHGP, (ii) any person who is or was an affiliate of the general partner of

AHGP, (iii) any person who is or was a member, partner, officer, director, fiduciary, or trustee of AHGP and its subsidiaries, its general partner or departing general partner or their respective affiliate, and (iv) any person who is or was serving at the request of the general partner or any departing general partner of AHGP or any affiliate of its general partner or departing general partner as an officer, director, member, partner, fiduciary or trustee of another person.

For a period of six years from the effective time of the merger, the ARLP partnership agreement will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in the AHGP partnership agreement, which provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the consummation of the contributions in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the consummation of the contributions, were AHGP indemnitees, unless such modification is required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law.

Certificate for New ARLP Common Units

In connection with the issuance of the New ARLP Common Units to SGP, ARLP has agreed to issue to SGP a certificate representing such New ARLP Common Units. The certificate will bear a legend as specified in the simplification agreement, indicating, among other things, that such units have not been registered under the Securities Act and resales of these units must be made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration permitted by the Securities Act.

Conditions to the Consummation of the Merger and the Other Simplification Transactions

The completion of the merger and the other simplification transactions is subject to various conditions. While it is anticipated that all of these conditions will be satisfied, there can be no assurance as to whether or when all of the conditions will be satisfied or, where permissible, waived.

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. Each party's obligation to complete the merger and the other simplification transactions is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the AHGP unitholders' approval of the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the merger;

all filings required to be made prior to the effective time of the merger with, and all other consents, approvals, permits and authorizations required to be obtained prior to the effective time of the merger from, any regulatory authority in connection with the execution and delivery of the simplification agreement and the consummation of the simplification transactions have been made or obtained, except where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, permits and authorizations would not be reasonably likely to result in a material adverse effect on the AHGP parties and their subsidiaries, as a whole, or the ARLP parties and their subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as applicable;

absence of any order, decree or injunction of any court or agency and law, statute or regulation that enjoins, prohibits or makes illegal any of the simplification transactions, and the absence of any action, proceeding or investigation by any regulatory authority regarding the merger or any other simplification transaction;

the registration statement of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part has become effective and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement has been issued and no proceedings for that purpose have been initiated or threatened by the SEC; and approval by the NASDAQ of the listing of the New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP in the simplification transactions, subject to official notice of issuance.

Additional Conditions to the ARLP Parties' Obligations. The obligation of the ARLP parties to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the accuracy of the AHGP parties' representations and warranties contained in the simplification agreement both as of the date of the simplification agreement and as of the closing date, in all material respects;

the performance in all material respects by the AHGP parties of their respective obligations contained in the simplification agreement; and the receipt by ARLP of a certificate signed by an executive officer of AGP to the effect that the conditions set forth in the two bullet points above have been satisfied.

Additional Conditions to the AHGP Parties' Obligations. The obligations of the AHGP parties to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the accuracy of the AHGP parties' representations and warranties contained in the simplification agreement both as of the date of the simplification agreement and as of the closing date, in all material respects;

the performance in all material respects by the ARLP parties of their respective obligations contained in the simplification agreement; and the receipt by AHGP of a certificate signed by an executive officer of MGP to the effect that the conditions set forth in the two bullet points above have been satisfied.

Termination of Merger Agreement

The simplification agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger in any of the following ways:

by mutual written consent of the AHGP parties in a written instrument.

by either AHGP or ARLP upon written notice to the other:

if the merger has not been consummated on or before September 30, 2018 (the "termination date") unless the failure of the closing to occur by this date is primarily due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the simplification agreement to fulfill any material obligation under the simplification agreement or a material breach of the simplification agreement by such party which has been the primary cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the merger to have been consummated on or before such date;

if any regulatory authority has issued a statute, rule, order, decree or regulation or taken any other action, in each case permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated in the simplification agreement or making the merger and the transactions contemplated in the simplification agreement illegal and such statute, rule, order, decree, regulation or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of its obligation to use reasonable best efforts to complete the merger promptly;

if there has been a material breach of or any material inaccuracy in any of the representations or warranties set forth in the simplification agreement on the part of any of the other parties, which breach is not cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the terminating party, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the termination date; provided that in such case the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement. In order for termination to take place, the breaches must be

of such nature that they would entitle the party receiving such representation not to carry out the simplification agreement because certain closing conditions are not met; or if there has been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in the simplification agreement on the part of any of the other parties, which breach has not been cured within 30 days after receiving written notice from the terminating party, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the termination date; provided that in such case, the terminating party itself is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement. In order for termination to take place, the breaches must be of such nature that they would entitle the party receiving the benefits of such covenants or agreements not to consummate the transactions contemplated by the simplification agreement because certain closing conditions are not met.

Expenses

Whether or not the merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring such costs or expenses, except in the following circumstances:

AHGP will be obligated to pay to ARLP the expenses of the ARLP parties if the simplification agreement is terminated by:

ARLP because of a material breach of the AHGP parties' representations and warranties or the AHGP parties' agreements or covenants; or

the AHGP parties by mutual written consent.

ARLP will be obligated to pay to AHGP the expenses of the AHGP parties if the simplification agreement is terminated by AHGP because of a material breach of the ARLP parties' representations and warranties or the ARLP parties' agreements or covenants.

Waiver and Amendment of the Simplification Agreement

Prior to the closing, any provision of the simplification agreement may be waived in writing by the party benefited by the provision and approved by the MGP Board in the case of ARLP and by the AGP Board in the case of AHGP. Any provision of the simplification agreement may be amended or modified prior to the closing by a written agreement between the parties approved by the MGP Board in the case of ARLP and by the AGP Board in the case of AHGP. Nonetheless, after the AHGP unitholders have approved the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, no amendment may be made that requires further AHGP unitholder approval without such approval.

Governing Law

The simplification agreement is governed by and interpreted under Delaware law.

Table of Contents

SUPPORT AGREEMENT

Contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of the simplification agreement, the AHGP supporting unitholders, including but not limited to, SGP and Joseph W. Craft III, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP and President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of MGP, entered into a support agreement with AHGP (a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this consent statement/prospectus). Under the support agreement, the AHGP supporting unitholders have agreed to deliver the Written Consent covering a majority of the AHGP common units issued and outstanding approving the simplification agreement. The support agreement obligates the AHGP supporting unitholders to deliver the Written Consent to AHGP within two business days after the Registration Statement, of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part, becomes effective under the Securities Act.

The support agreement also generally prohibits the AHGP supporting unitholders from transferring the AHGP common units that are covered by the support agreement. The support agreement terminates upon the earliest to occur of the effective time of the merger, the termination of the simplification agreement and the written agreement of the parties to the support agreement to terminate the support agreement.

The foregoing description of the support agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the support agreement, which is attached as Annex B to this consent statement/prospectus and is incorporated into this consent statement/prospectus by reference.

COSTS RELATED TO THE MERGER AND SIMPLIFICATION TRANSACTIONS

ARLP will pay all applicable expenses related to filing this consent statement/prospectus and related registration statement and all related SEC and other regulatory filing fees. All other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, will be paid by the party incurring such costs or expenses, provided that in the event the simplification agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, ARLP and AHGP may be required to pay the expenses of the other party. Please read "The Simplification Agreement Expenses" beginning on page 49.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE SIMPLIFICATION TRANSACTIONS

The following is a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the simplification transactions that may be relevant to current AHGP unitholders. This discussion is based upon the current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, existing and final Treasury regulations promulgated under the Internal Revenue Code (the "Treasury Regulations"), administrative rulings and judicial decisions now in effect, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Changes in these authorities may cause the tax consequences to vary substantially from the consequences described below. AHGP has not sought a ruling from the IRS with respect to any of the tax matters discussed below, and the IRS would not be precluded from taking positions contrary to those described herein. As a result, no assurance can be given that the IRS will agree with all of the tax characterizations and the tax consequences of the simplification transactions described below.

This discussion does not purport to be a complete description of all U.S. federal income tax consequences of the simplification transactions to the AHGP unitholders. This section also does not address local taxes, state taxes, non-U.S. taxes, or other taxes that may be applicable. Furthermore, this section focuses on AHGP unitholders who are individual citizens or residents of the United States (for federal income tax purposes), who have the U.S. dollar as their functional currency, who use the calendar year as their taxable year, who do not materially participate in the conduct of our business activities and who hold such common units as capital assets (typically, property that is held for investment). This section has limited applicability to corporations (including other entities treated as corporations for federal income tax purposes), partnerships (including other entities treated as partnerships for federal income tax purposes), estates, trusts, non-resident aliens or other unitholders subject to specialized tax treatment, such as tax-exempt entities, non-U.S. persons, individual retirement accounts ("IRAs"), employee benefit plans, real estate investment trusts or mutual funds.

AHGP unitholders should consult with, and must rely on, their own tax advisors in analyzing the federal, state, local and foreign consequences particular to them of the simplification transactions in light of their own particular circumstances, including the possible effects of changes in federal or other tax laws.

Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions General

Under the terms of the simplification agreement, immediately prior to or simultaneously with the effective time of the merger, among other things: (i) MGP will distribute the 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP to MGP II, and MGP II will be admitted to AROP as its managing general partner; (ii) MGP will distribute the 0.001% managing membership interest in Alliance Coal to MGP II, and MGP II will be admitted to Alliance Coal as its managing member; (iii) immediately following the foregoing distributions, MGP II will distribute (a) 99.999% of the 56,100,000 ARLP common units (which constitute all the Exchange Units not held by AHGP directly) currently owned by MGP II (the "distribution units") to AHGP and (b) 0.001% of the distribution units to ARMH, and immediately after such distribution, ARMH will distribute the portion of the distribution units it received from MGP II to AHGP (the "ARMH Unit Distribution"); (iv) simultaneously with the foregoing distribution, MGP II will distribute (a) 99.999% of the limited liability company interest of MGP (the "MGP Interest") to AHGP and 0.001% of the MGP interest to ARMH, (b) immediately after such distribution, ARMH will distribute such portion of the MGP interest it received from MGP II to AHGP (the "ARMH MGP Interest Distribution" together with the ARMH Unit Distribution, the "ARMH Distribution"), and AHGP will be admitted to MGP as its sole member; and (v) simultaneously with the consummation of the merger, (a) AHGP will distribute the MGP interest to AGP, and (b) AGP will be admitted to MGP as its sole member.

Table of Contents

Merger Sub will merge with and into AHGP, the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease and AHGP will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership (the "merger"). In connection with and immediately following consummation of the merger, (i) SGP will contribute all of the limited partner interests in AHGP to ARLP in exchange for a number of ARLP common units calculated pursuant to the simplification agreement, and ARLP will be admitted as the sole limited partner of AHGP and (ii) AGP will contribute all of the limited liability company interests of New AHGP GP, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of AHGP ("New AHGP GP"), which will become the new general partner of AHGP, to ARLP, and ARLP will be admitted as the sole member of New AHGP GP. ARLP and AHGP intend to take the position that none of the distributions or contributions will result in a material amount of income, gain or loss to either ARLP or AHGP.

Tax Consequences of the Simplification Transactions to AHGP Common Unitholders

Under current law, although AHGP anticipates that the simplification transactions generally are non-taxable to ARLP, AHGP and the AHGP unitholders, AHGP unitholders may recognize small amounts of income and gain. Specifically, AHGP expects that AHGP unitholders (i) will be allocated a de minimis amount of dividend income as a result of the ARMH Distribution, (ii) may have a small amount of income and gain or loss resulting from the sale by AHGP of the aggregate amount of ARLP common units necessary to be sold to provide the unitholders with cash in lieu of fractional units and the distribution of such cash to the unitholders, (iii) could recognize gain (which AHGP would expect to be immaterial) as a result of a decrease, if any, in such AHGP unitholder's share of partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code and (iv) could recognize a small amount of gain on the distribution of ARLP common units to the extent that any AHGP unitholder is treated for tax purposes as receiving more than their pro rata share of ARLP common units held by AHGP and interests in ARLP's business that AHGP are treated as marketable securities the value of such excess share exceeds the unitholders' tax basis in their AHGP common units.

Dividend Income

As part of the simplification transactions, ARMH will distribute to AHGP 0.001% of MGP and 0.001% the ARLP common units that were owned by MGP II prior to the simplification transaction. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, this distribution is expected to be treated as a dividend to AHGP. The amount of the dividend is equal to the fair market value of the ARMH Distribution. Each AHGP unitholder will be allocated its allocable share of such dividend income as a result of the ARMH Distribution. AHGP expects the amount of such dividend per unit to be de minimis.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Units

While the U.S. federal income tax consequences with respect to the payment of cash in lieu of fractional partnership interests are unclear, AHGP intends to treat the payment of cash in lieu of fractional units as if AHGP sold such fractional ARLP common units in a taxable exchange and distributed the cash received to the applicable registered AHGP unitholders. Any such cash distribution would not be taxable to the AHGP unitholder for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except to the extent the amount of cash exceeds the unitholder's tax basis in the unitholder's AHGP common units immediately before the distribution.

Despite AHGP's intention to treat the cash in lieu of fractional units as described above, the Internal Revenue Service may determine that the proper treatment of the distribution of cash in lieu of fractional units is to treat such distribution as if AHGP sold the aggregated fractional units on behalf of the AHGP unitholders that would otherwise have received fractional units and then AHGP provided the cash proceeds to such AHGP unitholders in lieu of fractional units. As a result, an AHGP unitholder that receives cash in lieu of fractional units may recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of such cash received and such AHGP unitholder's tax basis allocable to the fractional units treated as being sold on behalf of such unitholder.

Reduction in Liabilities

As part of the simplification transactions, AHGP will distribute all of its ARLP common units to its unitholders (the "distribution of units"). Although AHGP does not liquidate for state law purposes, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the distribution of units is treated as taking place in liquidation of AHGP. No material amount of gain or loss is expected to be recognized by AHGP or the AHGP unitholders upon the distribution of units to AHGP unitholders. As a partner in AHGP, an AHGP common unitholder must include the nonrecourse liabilities of AHGP allocable to his or her AHGP common units in the tax basis of such common units. The amount of nonrecourse liabilities allocable to each unitholder is determined under complex regulations under Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code. As a result of the distribution of units, the allocable share of nonrecourse liabilities allocated to existing AHGP common unitholders will be recalculated to take into account the AHGP unitholder's direct share of ARLP liabilities. Therefore, while not currently anticipated, the distribution of units may cause a net reduction in the allocable share of nonrecourse liabilities of an existing AHGP common unitholder, which is referred to as a "reducing debt shift." If an existing AHGP common unitholder experiences a net reduction in such unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities as a result of the merger, such unitholder will be deemed to have received a cash distribution equal to the amount of the reduction and a corresponding basis reduction in such unitholder's units.

A reducing debt shift and the resulting deemed cash distribution may, under certain circumstances, result in the recognition of taxable gain by an AHGP common unitholder to the extent the amount of the resulting deemed cash distribution exceeds such unitholder's tax basis in his or her AHGP common units. However, an AHGP common unitholder would not recognize taxable gain if such unitholder's tax basis in his or her AHGP common units is positive without regard to any amount of basis associated with the unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities.

Distribution of Marketable Securities

In addition, although not expected, an AHGP common unitholder could recognize a small per unit gain upon the distribution of units to the extent that such AHGP unitholder is treated for tax purposes as receiving more than its pro rata share of AHGP's ARLP common units and 1.0001% general partner interest in AROP and 0.001% managing member interest in Alliance Coal that are treated as marketable securities. AHGP expects that substantially all of AHGP's assets would be treated as marketable securities. Distributions of marketable securities by partnerships are generally treated for tax purposes as a cash distribution. A cash or deemed cash distribution is not taxable except to the extent the distribution exceeds the AHGP unitholder's basis immediately prior to the distribution. Moreover, an AHGP unitholder is only required to recognize gain as a result of receiving the ARLP common units to the extent that (i) the amount of gain such AHGP unitholder would recognize as a result of receiving the distribution of ARLP common units, if such distribution was fully taxable, exceeds (ii) the amount of gain that such AHGP unitholder would be allocated in the event that AHGP sold all of (x) its ARLP common units, (y) its indirect interest in Alliance Resource Operating Partners, L.P. (the "AROP Interest") and (z) its indirect interest in Alliance Coal, LLC (the "Alliance Coal Interest") immediately prior to the distribution of units. Each AHGP unitholder is expected to receive a distribution of a number of ARLP common units with a value equal to such unitholder's current economic share of all of AHGP's marketable securities. If the AROP Interest and Alliance Coal Interest are not treated as marketable securities, or in other limited situations, it may be possible that, depending on the unitholder's tax basis in his or her AHGP common units, the AHGP unitholders could recognize a small amount of gain on a per unit basis as a result of being treated as receiving more than their pro rata share of all of AHGP's marketable securities.

Table of Contents

If an existing AHGP unitholder has suspended passive losses with respect to his or her units, such unitholder may be able to offset all or a portion of any gain resulting from the ARMH Distribution, any gain from cash in lieu of fractional units, any gain from a reducing debt shit, or potential gain from a distribution of marketable securities with such losses. Please read "Material U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Ownership of ARLP Common Units Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Limitation on Deductibility of Losses."

AHGP Unitholder Status After the Simplification Transactions

The ARLP common units are distributed to AHGP common unitholders in exchange for their AHGP common units. Following the distribution of units, an AHGP unitholder that receives ARLP common units will be treated as a limited partner in ARLP. For a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of ARLP common units received in the distribution of units, you should read "Material U.S. Federal Income Taxation of Ownership of ARLP Common Units" beginning on page 56.

Holding Period and Basis of the ARLP Common Units

Because the simplification transactions are treated as a liquidation of AHGP pursuant to which ARLP common units are distributed to AHGP common unitholders, an AHGP common unitholder's holding period for ARLP common units received in the distribution of units will not be determined by reference to the holding period of the unitholder's AHGP common units. Instead, an AHGP common unitholder's holding period for ARLP common units received in the distribution of units that are attributable to AHGP's capital assets or assets used in its business as defined in Section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code will include AHGP's holding period in those assets. The holding period for ARLP common units received by an AHGP common unitholder attributable to other assets of AHGP, such as inventory and receivables, will begin on the day following the simplification transactions.

The adjusted tax basis in ARLP common units that an AHGP unitholder receives in the distribution of units will be equal to the sum of such unitholder's adjusted tax basis in his AHGP common units plus any gain recognized as a result of the simplification transactions and such unitholder's increased share of nonrecourse liabilities of ARLP, if any, as determined in accordance with Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Final AHGP Unitholder Reporting

AHGP uses the year ending December 31 as its taxable year and the accrual method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. As a result of the simplification transactions, AHGP's taxable year will end and AHGP will be required to file a final federal income tax return for the taxable year ending upon the date the simplification transactions are effected. Each AHGP unitholder will be required to include in income his share of income, gain, loss and deduction for this period. In addition, an AHGP unitholder who has a taxable year ending on a date other than December 31 and after the date the simplification transactions are effected must include its share of income, gain, loss and deduction in income for his taxable year, with the result that such unitholder will be required to include in income for his taxable year its share of more than one year of income, gain, loss and deduction from AHGP.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION OF OWNERSHIP OF ARLP COMMON UNITS

This section is a summary of the material U.S. federal, state and local tax consequences that may be relevant to owning ARLP common units received in the simplification transactions and, unless otherwise noted in the following discussion, is the opinion of Vinson & Elkins insofar as it describes legal conclusions with respect to matters of U.S. federal income tax law. Such statements are based on the accuracy of the representations made by ARLP to Vinson & Elkins, and statements of fact do not represent opinions of Vinson & Elkins. This section discusses the material U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to prospective common unitholders and is based upon current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, existing and proposed Treasury Regulations, and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. Changes in these authorities may cause the federal income tax consequences to a prospective common unitholder to vary substantially from those described below, possibly on a retroactive basis. Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this section to "we" or "us" are references to Alliance Resource Partners, L.P. and its subsidiaries.

Legal conclusions contained in this section, unless otherwise noted, are the opinion of Vinson & Elkins and are based on the accuracy of representations made by us to them for this purpose. However, this section does not address all federal income tax matters that may affect us or our unitholders, such as the application of the alternative minimum tax. This section also does not address local taxes, state taxes, non-U.S. taxes, or other taxes that may be applicable, except to the limited extent that such tax considerations are addressed below under "State, Local and Other Tax Considerations." Furthermore, this section focuses on unitholders who are individual citizens or residents of the United States (for federal income tax purposes), who have the U.S. dollar as their functional currency, who use the calendar year as their taxable year, who do not materially participate in the conduct of our business activities and who hold such units as capital assets (typically, property that is held for investment). This section has limited applicability to corporations (including other entities treated as corporations for federal income tax purposes), partnerships (including other entities treated as partnerships for federal income tax purposes), estates, trusts, non-resident aliens or other unitholders subject to specialized tax treatment, such as tax-exempt entities, non-U.S. persons, individual retirement accounts ("IRAs"), employee benefit plans, real estate investment trusts or mutual funds.

Accordingly, we encourage each prospective unitholder to consult the unitholder's own tax advisor in analyzing the federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax consequences that are particular to that unitholder resulting from ownership or disposition of our units and potential changes in applicable tax laws.

We will rely on the opinions and advice of Vinson & Elkins with respect to the matters described herein. An opinion of counsel represents only that counsel's best legal judgment and does not bind the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") or a court. Accordingly, the opinions and statements made herein may not be sustained by a court if contested by the IRS. Any such contest of the matters described herein may materially and adversely impact the market for our common units and the prices at which our common units trade. In addition, our costs of any contest with the IRS will be borne indirectly by our unitholders because the costs will reduce our cash available for distribution. Furthermore, the tax consequences of an investment in us may be significantly modified by future legislative or administrative changes or court decisions, which may be retroactively applied.

For the reasons described below, Vinson & Elkins has not rendered an opinion with respect to the following federal income tax issues: (1) the treatment of a unitholder whose common units are the subject of a securities loan (e.g., a loan to a short seller to cover a short sale of units) (please read "Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Treatment of Securities Loans"); (2) whether our monthly convention for allocating taxable income and losses is permitted by existing Treasury Regulations

(please read " Disposition of Common Units Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees"); and (3) whether our method for taking into account Section 743 adjustments is sustainable in certain cases (please read " Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Section 754 Election" and " Uniformity of Common Units").

Taxation of the Partnership

Partnership Status

We expect to be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and, therefore, subject to the discussion below under " Administrative Matters Information Returns and Audit Procedures," generally will not be liable for entity-level federal income taxes. Instead, as described below, each of our common unitholders will take into account its respective share of our items of income, gain, loss and deduction in computing its federal income tax liability as if the common unitholder had earned such income directly, even if no cash distributions are made to the common unitholder. Distributions by us to a common unitholder generally will not give rise to income or gain taxable to such unitholder, unless the amount of cash distributed to a common unitholder exceeds the unitholder's adjusted tax basis in its common units. Please read " Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Treatment of Distributions" and " Disposition of Common Units").

Section 7704 of the Internal Revenue Code generally provides that a publicly-traded partnership will be treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes. However, if 90% or more of a partnership's gross income for every taxable year it is publicly-traded consists of "qualifying income," the partnership may continue to be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes (the "Qualifying Income Exception"). Qualifying income includes, (i) interest, (ii) dividends, (iii) real property rents within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 7704(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, (iv) gains from the sale or other disposition of real property, (v) income and gains derived from the exploration, development, mining or production, processing, refining, transportation (including pipelines transporting gas, oil, or products thereof) or the marketing of any "mineral or natural resource", and (vi) gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets (or property described in Section 1231(b) of the Internal Revenue Code) held for the production of income that otherwise constitutes qualifying income. We estimate that less than 5% of our current gross income is not qualifying income; however, this estimate could change from time to time.

No ruling has been or will be sought from the IRS with respect to our classification as a partnership for federal income tax purposes or as to the classification of our partnership and limited liability company operating subsidiaries. Instead we have relied on the opinion of Vinson & Elkins that, based upon the Internal Revenue Code, existing Treasury Regulations, published revenue rulings and court decisions and representations described below, Alliance Resource Partners, L.P. and our partnership and limited liability company operating subsidiaries will be classified as a partnerships or disregarded as an entities separate from us for federal income tax purposes.

Vinson & Elkins is of the opinion that we will be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and each of our partnership and limited liability company operating subsidiaries will be treated as a partnership or will be disregarded as an entity separate from us. In rendering its opinion, Vinson & Elkins has relied on factual representations made by us and our general partner, including, without limitation:

(a) Neither we nor any of our partnership or limited liability company operating subsidiaries has elected to be treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes; and

Table of Contents

(b) For each taxable year, more than 90% of our gross income has been and will be income of a character that Vinson & Elkins has opined is "qualifying income" within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We believe that these representations are true and will be true in the future.

If we fail to meet the Qualifying Income Exception, other than a failure that is determined by the IRS to be inadvertent and that is cured within a reasonable time after discovery (in which case the IRS may also require us to make adjustments with respect to our unitholders or pay other amounts), we will be treated as transferring all of our assets, subject to all of our liabilities, to a newly formed corporation on the first day of the year in which we fail to meet the Qualifying Income Exception, in return for stock in that corporation and then as distributing that stock to our unitholders in liquidation of their interests in us. This deemed contribution and liquidation should not result in the recognition of taxable income by our unitholders or us so long as the aggregate amount of our liabilities does not exceed the adjusted tax basis of our assets. Thereafter, we would be treated as an association taxable as a corporation for federal income tax purposes.

The present U.S. federal income tax treatment of publicly traded partnerships, including us, or an investment in our common units may be modified by administrative or legislative action or judicial interpretation at any time. From time to time, members of the U.S. Congress have proposed and considered substantive changes to the existing federal income tax laws that would affect publicly-traded partnerships. One such legislative proposal would have eliminated the Qualifying Income Exception upon which we rely for our treatment as a partnership for federal income tax purposes.

In addition, on January 24, 2017, final regulations regarding which activities give rise to qualifying income (the "Final Regulations") within the meaning of Section 7704 of the Internal Revenue Code were published in the Federal Register. The Final Regulations are effective as of January 19, 2017, and apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 19, 2017. We do not believe the Final Regulations affect our ability to qualify as a publicly traded partnership.

It is possible that a change in law could affect us and may be applied retroactively. Any such changes could negatively impact the value of an investment in our common units. If for any reason we are taxable as a corporation in any taxable year, our items of income, gain, loss and deduction would be taken into account by us in determining the amount of our liability for federal income tax, rather than being passed through to our common unitholders.

At the state level, several states have been evaluating ways to subject partnerships to entity-level taxation through the imposition of state income, franchise, or other forms of taxation. Imposition of a similar tax on us in the jurisdictions in which we operate or in other jurisdictions to which we may expand could substantially reduce our cash available for distribution to our unitholders.

Our taxation as a corporation would materially reduce the cash available for distribution to unitholders and thus would likely substantially reduce the value of our units. Any distribution made to a common unitholder at a time we are treated as a corporation would be (i) a taxable dividend to the extent of our current or accumulated earnings and profits, then (ii) a nontaxable return of capital to the extent of the unitholder's tax basis in its units, and thereafter (iii) taxable capital gain.

The remainder of this discussion is based on the opinion of Vinson & Elkins that we will be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes.

Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership

Limited Partner Status

Common unitholders who are admitted as limited partners of the partnership, as well as common unitholders whose units are held in street name or by a nominee and who have the right to direct the nominee in the exercise of all substantive rights attendant to the ownership of their common units, will be treated as partners of the partnership for federal income tax purposes. For a discussion related to the risks of losing partner status as a result of short sales, please read " Treatment of Securities Loans." Common unitholders who are not treated as partners in us as described above are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences applicable to them under their particular circumstances.

Flow-Through of Taxable Income

Subject to the discussion below under " Entity-Level Collections of Unitholder Taxes" and " Administrative Matters Information Returns and Audit Procedures," with respect to payments we may be required to make on behalf of our common unitholders, we will not pay any federal income tax. Rather, each common unitholder will be required to report on its federal income tax return each year its share of our income, gains, losses and deductions for our taxable year or years ending with or within its taxable year without regard to whether we make cash distributions to such unitholder. Consequently, we may allocate income to a common unitholder even if that unitholder has not received a cash distribution.

Basis of Common Units

The adjusted tax basis in ARLP common units that an AHGP unitholder receives in the distribution of units will be equal to the sum of such unitholder's adjusted tax basis in his AHGP common units plus such unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities of ARLP as determined in accordance with Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder. That basis generally will be (i) increased by the common unitholder's share of our income and any increases in such unitholder's share of our liabilities and (ii) decreased, but not below zero, by the amount of all distributions to the unitholder, the unitholder's share of our losses, any decreases in its share of our liabilities, and the amount of any excess business interest allocated to the unitholder. The IRS has ruled that a partner who acquires interests in a partnership in separate transactions must combine those interests and maintain a single adjusted tax basis for all of those interests.

Treatment of Distributions

Distributions made by us to a common unitholder generally will not be taxable to the common unitholder, unless such distributions are of cash or marketable securities that are treated as cash and exceed the common unitholder's tax basis in its units, in which case the common unitholder generally will recognize gain taxable in the manner described below under " Disposition of Common Units."

Any reduction in a common unitholder's share of our "nonrecourse liabilities" (liabilities for which no partner bears the economic risk of loss) will be treated as a distribution by us of cash to that common unitholder. A decrease in a common unitholder's percentage interest in us because of our issuance of additional units may decrease the common unitholder's share of our nonrecourse liabilities. For purposes of the foregoing, a common unitholder's share of our nonrecourse liabilities (generally will be based upon that common unitholder's share of the unrealized appreciation (or depreciation) in our assets, to the extent thereof, with any excess nonrecourse liabilities allocated based on the common unitholder's share of our profits. Please read " Disposition of Common Units."

A non-pro rata distribution of money or property (including a deemed distribution as a result of the reallocation of our nonrecourse liabilities described above) may cause a common unitholder to recognize ordinary income, if the distribution reduces the common unitholder's share of our "unrealized receivables," including depreciation recapture and substantially appreciated "inventory items," both as defined in Section 751 of the Internal Revenue Code ("Section 751 Assets"). To the extent of such reduction, the common unitholder would be deemed to receive its proportionate share of the Section 751 Assets and exchange such assets with us in return for an allocable portion of the non-pro rata distribution. This deemed exchange will generally result in the common unitholder's recognition of ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess of (1) the non-pro rata portion of that distribution over (2) the common unitholder's tax basis (typically zero) in the Section 751 Assets deemed to be relinquished in the exchange.

Limitations on Deductibility of Losses

A common unitholder may not be entitled to deduct the full amount of loss we allocate to it because its share of our losses will be limited to the lesser of (i) the common unitholder's adjusted tax basis in its units and (ii) in the case of a common unitholder that is an individual, estate, trust or certain types of closely-held corporations, the amount for which the unitholder is considered to be "at risk" with respect to our activities. A common unitholder will be at risk to the extent of its adjusted tax basis in its units, reduced by (1) any portion of that basis attributable to the unitholder's share of our nonrecourse liabilities, (2) any portion of that basis representing amounts otherwise protected against loss because of a guarantee, stop loss agreement or similar arrangement and (3) any amount of money the unitholder borrows to acquire or hold its units, if the lender of those borrowed funds owns an interest in us, is related to another unitholder or can look only to the units for repayment. A common unitholder subject to the at risk limitation must recapture losses deducted in previous years to the extent that distributions (including distributions deemed to result from a reduction in a unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities) cause the unitholder's at risk amount to be less than zero at the end of any taxable year.

Losses disallowed to a common unitholder or recaptured as a result of the basis or at risk limitations will carry forward and will be allowable as a deduction in a later year to the extent that the unitholder's adjusted tax basis or at risk amount, whichever is the limiting factor, is subsequently increased. Upon a taxable disposition of common units, any gain recognized by a unitholder can be offset by losses that were previously suspended by the at risk limitation but not losses suspended by the basis limitation. Any loss previously suspended by the at risk limitation in excess of that gain can no longer be used and will not be available to offset a unitholder's salary or active business income.

In addition to the basis and at risk limitations, a passive activity loss limitation limits the deductibility of losses incurred by individuals, estates, trusts, some closely held corporations and personal service corporations from "passive activities" (such as, trade or business activities in which the taxpayer does not materially participate). The passive loss limitations are applied separately with respect to each publicly-traded partnership. Consequently, any passive losses we generate will only be available to offset our passive income by us. Passive losses that exceed a common unitholder's share of the passive income we generate may be deducted in full when the unitholder disposes of all of its units in a fully taxable transaction with an unrelated party. The passive activity loss rules are applied after other applicable limitations on deductions, including the at risk and basis limitations.

Notwithstanding the forgoing, the IRS could take the position that for purposes of applying the passive loss limitation rules to tiered publicly traded partnerships, such as AHGP and us, the related entities are treated as one publicly traded partnership. In that case, any passive losses we generate would be available to offset income from your investments in AHGP. However, passive losses that are not deductible because they exceed a unitholder's share of income we generate would not be deductible in full until a unitholder disposes of his entire investment in both us and AHGP in a fully taxable transaction with an unrelated party.

For taxpayers other than corporations in taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2026, an "excess business loss" limitation further limits the deductibility of losses by such taxpayers. An excess business loss is the excess (if any) of a taxpayer's aggregate deductions for the taxable year that are attributable to the trades or businesses of such taxpayer (determined without regard to the excess business loss limitation) over the aggregate gross income or gain of such taxpayer for the taxable year that is attributable to such trades or businesses plus a threshold amount. The threshold amount is equal to $250,000 or $500,000 for taxpayers filing a joint return. Disallowed excess business losses are treated as a net operating loss carryover to the following tax year. Any losses we generate that are allocated to a unitholder and not otherwise limited by the basis, at risk, or passive loss limitations will be included in the determination of such unitholder's aggregate trade or business deductions. Consequently, any losses we generate that are not otherwise limited will only be available to offset a unitholder's other trade or business income plus an amount of non-trade or business income equal to the applicable threshold amount. Thus, except to the extent of the threshold amount, our losses that are not otherwise limited may not offset a unitholder's non-trade or business income (such as salaries, fees, interest, dividends and capital gains). This excess business loss limitation will be applied after the passive activity loss limitation.

Limitations on Interest Deductions

In general, we are entitled to a deduction for interest paid or accrued on indebtedness properly allocable to our trade or business during our taxable year. However, our deduction for this "business interest" is limited to the sum of our business interest income and 30% of our "adjusted taxable income." For the purposes of this limitation, our adjusted taxable income is computed without regard to any business interest or business interest income, and in the case of taxable years beginning before January 1, 2022, any deduction allowable for depreciation, amortization, or depletion. This limitation is first applied at the partnership level and any deduction for business interest is taken into account in determining our non-separately stated taxable income or loss. Then, in applying this business interest limitation at the partner level, the adjusted taxable income of each of our unitholders is determined without regard to such unitholder's distributive share of any of our items of income, gain, deduction, or loss and is increased by such unitholder's distributive share of our excess taxable income, which is generally equal to the excess of 30% of our adjusted taxable income over the amount of our deduction for business interest for a taxable year.

To the extent our deduction for business interest is not limited, we will allocate the full amount of our deduction for business interest among our unitholders in accordance with their percentage interests in us. To the extent our deduction for business interest is limited, the amount of any disallowed deduction for business interest will also be allocated to each unitholder in accordance with their percentage interest in us, but such amount of "excess business interest" will not be currently deductible. Subject to certain limitations and adjustments to a unitholder's basis in its common units, this excess business interest may be carried forward and deducted by a unitholder in a future taxable year.

In addition to this limitation on the deductibility of a partnership's business interest, the deductibility of a non-corporate taxpayer's "investment interest expense" is generally limited to the amount of that taxpayer's "net investment income." Investment interest expense includes:

interest on indebtedness properly allocable to property held for investment;

interest expense attributed to portfolio income; and the portion of interest expense incurred to purchase or carry an interest in a passive activity to the extent allocable against to portfolio income.

The computation of a common unitholder's investment interest expense will take into account interest on any margin account borrowing or other loan incurred to purchase or carry a unit. Net investment income includes gross income from property held for investment and amounts treated as portfolio income under the passive loss rules, less deductible expenses, other than interest, directly connected with the production of investment income. Net investment income does not include qualified dividend income (if applicable) or gains attributable to the disposition of property held for investment.

Table of Contents

A common unitholder's share of a publicly traded partnership's portfolio income and, according to the IRS, net passive income will be treated as investment income for purposes of the investment interest expense limitation.

Entity-Level Collections of Unitholder Taxes

If we are required or elect under applicable law to pay any federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax on behalf of any current or former common unitholder, our partnership authorizes us to treat the payment as a distribution of cash to the relevant common unitholder. Where the tax is payable on behalf of all common unitholders or we cannot determine the specific unitholder on whose behalf the tax is payable, our partnership agreement authorizes us to treat the payment as a distribution to all current common unitholders. We are authorized to amend our partnership agreement in the manner necessary to maintain uniformity of intrinsic tax characteristics of common units and to adjust later distributions, so that after giving effect to these distributions, the priority and characterization of distributions otherwise applicable under our partnership agreement is maintained as nearly as is practicable. Payments by us as described above could give rise to an overpayment of tax on behalf of a unitholder, in which event the common unitholder may be entitled to claim a refund of the overpayment amount. Please read " Administrative Matters Information Returns and Audit Procedures." Common unitholders are urged to consult their tax advisors to determine the consequences to them of any tax payment we make on their behalf.

Allocation of Income, Gain, Loss and Deduction

In general, if we have a net profit, our items of income, gain, loss and deduction will be allocated among our general partners and our unitholders in accordance with their percentage interests in us.

Specified items of our income, gain, loss and deduction will be allocated under Section 704(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the principles of Section 704(c) of the Internal Revenue Code) to account for any difference between the adjusted tax basis and fair market value of our assets at the time such assets are contributed to us and at the time of any subsequent offering of our common units (a "Book-Tax Disparity"). As a result, the federal income tax burden associated with any Book-Tax Disparity immediately prior to an offering will be borne by our partners holding interests in us prior to such offering. In addition, items of recapture income will be specially allocated to the extent possible (subject to the limitations described above) to the unitholder who was allocated the deduction giving rise to that recapture income in order to minimize the recognition of ordinary income by other unitholders.

An allocation of items of our income, gain, loss or deduction, other than an allocation required by the Internal Revenue Code to eliminate a Book-Tax Disparity, will be given effect for federal income tax purposes in determining a unitholder's share of an item of income, gain, loss or deduction only if the allocation has "substantial economic effect." In any other case, a unitholder's share of an item will be determined on the basis of the unitholder's interest in us, which will be determined by taking into account all the facts and circumstances, including (i) the unitholder's relative contributions to us, (ii) the interests of all the partners in profits and losses, (iii) the interest of all the partners in cash flow and (iv) the rights of all the partners to distributions of capital upon liquidation. Vinson & Elkins is of the opinion that, with the exception of the issues described in " Section 754 Election" and " Disposition of Common Units Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees," allocations of income, gain, loss or deduction under our partnership agreement will be given effect for federal income tax purposes.

Treatment of Securities Loans

A common unitholder whose units are the subject of a securities loan (for example, a loan to "short seller" to cover a short sale of units) may be treated as having disposed of those units. If so, such common unitholder would no longer be treated for tax purposes as a partner with respect to those units during the period of the loan and may recognize gain or loss as a result of such deemed disposition. As a result, during this period, (i) any of our income, gain, loss or deduction allocated to those units would not be reportable by the lending unitholder and (ii) any cash distributions received by the lending unitholder as to those units may be treated as ordinary taxable income.

Due to a lack of controlling authority, Vinson & Elkins has not rendered an opinion regarding the tax treatment of a common unitholder that enters into a securities loan with respect to its units. Common unitholders desiring to assure their status as partners and avoid the risk of income recognition from a loan of their units are urged to modify any applicable brokerage account agreements to prohibit their brokers from borrowing and lending their units. The IRS has announced that it is studying issues relating to the tax treatment of short sales of partnership interests. Please read "Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss."

Tax Rates

Under current law, the highest marginal federal income tax rates for individuals applicable to ordinary income and long-term capital gains (generally, gains from the sale or exchange of certain investment assets held for more than one year) are 37% and 20%, respectively. These rates are subject to change by new legislation at any time.

In addition, a 3.8% net investment income tax applies to certain net investment income earned by individuals, estates and trusts. For these purposes, net investment income generally includes a common unitholder's allocable share of our income and gain realized by a common unitholder from a sale of units. In the case of an individual, the tax will be imposed on the lesser of (i) the common unitholder's net investment income from all investments or (ii) the amount by which the common unitholder's modified adjusted gross income exceeds $250,000 (if the unitholder is married and filing jointly or a surviving spouse), $125,000 (if the unitholder is married and filing separately) or $200,000 (if the unitholder is unmarried or in any other case). In the case of an estate or trust, the tax will be imposed on the lesser of (i) undistributed net investment income and (ii) the excess adjusted gross income over the dollar amount at which the highest income tax bracket applicable to an estate or trust begins.

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017 and ending on or before December 31, 2025, an individual unitholder is entitled to a deduction equal to 20% of his or her allocable share of our "qualified business income." For purposes of this deduction, our "qualified business income" is equal to the sum of:

the net amount of our U.S. items of income, gain, deduction, and loss to the extent such items are included or allowed in the determination of taxable income for the year, excluding, however, certain specified types of passive investment income (such as capital gains and dividends) and certain payments made to the unitholder for services rendered to the Partnership; and any gain recognized upon a disposition of our common units to the extent such gain is attributable to Section 751 Assets, such as depreciation recapture and our "inventory items," and is thus treated as ordinary income under Section 751 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 754 Election

We have made the election permitted by Section 754 of the Internal Revenue Code that permits us to adjust the tax basis in each of our assets as to specific purchases of our common units under Section 743(b) of the Internal Revenue Code to reflect the unit purchase price upon subsequent purchases of common units. That election is irrevocable without the consent of the IRS. The Section 743(b) adjustment separately applies to a unitholder who purchases common units from another unitholder based upon the values and bases of our assets at the time of the relevant purchase. The Section 743(b) adjustment does not apply to a person who purchases units directly from us. For purposes of this discussion, a common unitholder's basis in our assets will be considered to have two components: (1) its share of the tax basis in our assets as to all common unitholders and (2) its Section 743(b) adjustment to that tax basis (which may be positive or negative).

Under our partnership agreement, we are authorized to take a position to preserve the uniformity of units even if that position is not consistent with applicable Treasury Regulations. A literal application of Treasury Regulations governing a Section 743(b) adjustment attributable to properties depreciable under Section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code may give rise to differences in the taxation of unitholders purchasing common units from us and unitholders purchasing from other unitholders. If we have any such properties, we intend to adopt methods employed by other publicly traded partnerships to preserve the uniformity of common units, even if inconsistent with existing Treasury Regulations, and Vinson & Elkins has not opined on the validity of this approach. Please read " Uniformity of Common Units."

The IRS may challenge the positions we adopt with respect to depreciating or amortizing the Section 743(b) adjustment to preserve the uniformity of units due to the lack of controlling authority. Because a common unitholder's adjusted tax basis for its units is reduced by its share of our items of deduction or loss, any position we take that understates deductions will overstate a common unitholder's tax basis in its units, and may cause the common unitholder to understate gain or overstate loss on any sale of such units. Please read " Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss." If a challenge to such treatment were sustained, the gain from the sale of units may be increased without the benefit of additional deductions.

The calculations involved in the Section 754 election are complex and are made on the basis of assumptions as to the value of our assets and other matters. The IRS could seek to reallocate some or all of any Section 743(b) adjustment we allocated to our assets subject to depreciation to goodwill or nondepreciable assets. Goodwill, as an intangible asset, is generally amortizable over a longer period of time or under a less accelerated method than our tangible assets. We cannot assure any common unitholder that the determinations we make will not be successfully challenged by the IRS or that the resulting deductions will not be reduced or disallowed altogether. Should the IRS require a different tax basis adjustment to be made, and should, in our opinion, the expense of compliance exceed the benefit of the election, we may seek permission from the IRS to revoke our Section 754 election. If permission is granted, a subsequent purchaser of common units may be allocated more income than it would have been allocated had the election not been revoked.

Tax Treatment of Operations

Accounting Method and Taxable Year

We use the year ending December 31 as our taxable year and the accrual method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. Each common unitholder will be required to include in its tax return its share of our income, gain, loss and deduction for each taxable year ending within or with its taxable year. In addition, a common unitholder who has a taxable year ending on a date other than December 31 and who disposes of all of its units following the close of our taxable year but before the close of its taxable year must include its share of our income, gain, loss and deduction in income for its taxable year, with the result that it will be required to include in income for its taxable year its share of more than twelve months of our income, gain, loss and deduction. Please read " Disposition of Common Units Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees."

Table of Contents

Tax Basis, Depreciation and Amortization

The tax basis of each of our assets will be used for purposes of computing depreciation and cost recovery deductions and, ultimately, gain or loss on the disposition of these assets. If we dispose of depreciable property by sale, foreclosure or otherwise, all or a portion of any gain, determined by reference to the amount of depreciation deductions previously taken, may be subject to the recapture rules and taxed as ordinary income rather than capital gain. Similarly, a common unitholder who has taken cost recovery or depreciation deductions with respect to property we own will likely be required to recapture some or all of those deductions as ordinary income upon a sale of its interest in us. Please read " Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Allocation of Income, Gain, Loss and Deduction" and " Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss."

The costs we incur in offering and selling our units (called "syndication expenses") must be capitalized and cannot be deducted currently, ratably or upon our termination. While there are uncertainties regarding the classification of costs as organization expenses, which may be amortized by us, and as syndication expenses, which may not be amortized by us, the underwriting discounts and commissions we incur will be treated as syndication expenses. Please read "Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss."

We are allowed a first-year bonus depreciation deduction equal to 100% of the adjusted basis of certain depreciable property acquired and placed in service after September 27, 2017 and before January 1, 2023. For property placed in service during subsequent years, the deduction is phased down by 20% per year until December 31, 2026. This depreciation deduction applies to both new and used property. However, use of the deduction with respect to used property is subject to certain anti-abuse restrictions, including the requirement that the property be acquired from an unrelated party. We can elect to forgo the depreciation bonus and use the alternative depreciation system for any class of property for a taxable year. Under a transition rule, we can also elect to apply a 50% bonus depreciation deduction instead of the 100% deduction for our first taxable year ending after September 27, 2017.

Valuation and Tax Basis of Our Properties

The federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of common units will depend in part on our estimates of the relative fair market values and the tax basis of each of our assets. Although we may from time to time consult with professional appraisers regarding valuation matters, we have made and will make many of the relative fair market value estimates ourselves. These estimates and determinations of tax basis are subject to challenge and will not be binding on the IRS or the courts. If the estimates of fair market value or basis are later found to be incorrect, the character and amount of items of income, gain, loss or deduction previously reported by common unitholders could change, and common unitholders could be required to adjust their tax liability for prior years and incur interest and penalties with respect to those adjustments.

Coal Depletion

In general, we are entitled to depletion deductions with respect to coal mined from the underlying mineral property. Subject to the limitations on the deductibility of losses discussed above, we generally are entitled to the greater of cost depletion limited to the basis of the property or percentage depletion. The percentage depletion rate for coal is 10%.

Depletion deductions we claim generally will reduce the tax basis of the underlying mineral property. Depletion deductions can, however, exceed the total tax basis of the mineral property. The excess of our percentage depletion deductions over the adjusted tax basis of the property at the end of the taxable year is subject to tax preference treatment in computing the alternative minimum tax the consequences of which are not addressed herein. In addition, a corporate unitholder's allocable share of the amount allowable as a percentage depletion deduction for any property will be reduced by 20% of the excess, if any, of that partner's allocable share of the amount of the percentage depletion deductions for the taxable year over the adjusted tax basis of the mineral property as of the close of the taxable year.

Mining Exploration and Development Expenditures

We will elect to currently deduct mining exploration expenditures that we pay or incur to determine the existence, location, extent or quality of coal deposits prior to the time the existence of coal in commercially marketable quantities has been disclosed.

Amounts we deduct for mine exploration expenditures must be recaptured and included in our taxable income at the time a mine reaches the production stage, unless we elect to reduce future depletion deductions by the amount of the recapture. A mine reaches the producing stage when the major part of the coal production is obtained from working mines other than those opened for the purpose of development or the principal activity of the mine is the production of developed coal rather than the development of additional coal for mining. This recapture is accomplished through the disallowance of both cost and percentage depletion deductions on the particular mine reaching the production stage. This disallowance of depletion deductions continues until the amount of adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to the mine have been fully recaptured. This recapture is not applied to the full amount of the previously deducted exploration expenditures. Instead, these expenditures are reduced by the amount of percentage depletion, if any, that was lost as a result of deducting these exploration expenditures.

We generally elect to defer mine development expenses, consisting of expenditures incurred in making coal available for extraction, after the exploration process has disclosed the existence of coal in commercially marketable quantities, and deduct them on a ratable basis as the coal benefited by the expense is sold.

Sales of Coal Reserves

If any coal reserves are sold or otherwise disposed of in a taxable transaction, we will recognize (and allocate to our unitholders) gain or loss measured by the difference between the amount realized (including the amount of any indebtedness assumed by purchaser upon such disposition or to which such property is subject) and the adjusted tax basis of the property sold. Generally, the character of any gain or loss recognized upon that disposition will depend upon whether our coal reserves or the mined coal sold are held by us:

for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business (i.e. we are a "dealer" with respect to that property);

for use in a trade or business within the meaning of Section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code; or as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In determining dealer status with respect to coal reserves and other types of real estate, the courts have identified a number of factors for distinguishing between a particular property held for sale in the ordinary course of business and one held for investment. Any determination must be based on all the facts and circumstances surrounding the particular property and sale in question.

We intend to hold our coal reserves for use in a trade or business and achieving long-term capital appreciation. Although our general partner may consider strategic sales of coal reserves consistent with achieving long-term capital appreciation, our general partner does not anticipate frequent sales of coal reserves nor significant marketing, improvement or subdivision activity in connection with any strategic sales. Thus, we do not believe that we will be viewed as a dealer. In light of the factual nature of this question, however, there is no assurance that our purposes for holding our properties will not change and that our future activities will not cause us to be a "dealer" in coal reserves.

If we are not a dealer with respect to our coal reserves and we have held the disposed property for more than a one-year period primarily for use in our trade or business, the character of any gain or loss realized from a disposition of the property will be determined under Section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code. If we have not held the property for more than one year at the time of the sale, gain or loss from the sale will be taxable as ordinary income.

A unitholder's distributive share of any Section 1231 gain or loss generated by us will be aggregated with any other gains and losses realized by that unitholder from the disposition of property used in the trade or business, as defined in Section 1231(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and from the involuntary conversion of such properties and of capital assets held in connection with a trade or business or a transaction entered into for profit for the requisite holding period. If a net gain results, all such gains and losses will be long-term capital gains and losses; if a net loss results, all such gains and losses will be ordinary income and losses. Net Section 1231 gains will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of prior net Section 1231 losses of the taxpayer or predecessor taxpayer for the five most recent prior taxable years to the extent such losses have not previously been offset against Section 1231 gains. Losses are deemed recaptured in the chronological order in which they arose.

If we are not a dealer with respect to our coal reserves and that property is not used in a trade or business, the property will be a "capital asset" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. Gain or loss recognized from the disposition of that property will be taxable as capital gain or loss, and the character of such capital gain or loss as long-term or short-term will be based upon our holding period of such property at the time of its sale. The requisite holding period for long-term capital gain is more than one year.

Upon a disposition of coal reserves, a portion of the gain, if any, equal to the lesser of (1) the depletion deductions that reduced the tax basis of the disposed mineral property plus deductible development and mining exploration expenses or (2) the amount of gain recognized on the disposition, will be treated as ordinary income to us.

Disposition of Common Units

Recognition of Gain or Loss

A common unitholder will be required to recognize gain or loss on a sale or exchange of a unit equal to the difference, if any, between the common unitholder's amount realized and the adjusted tax basis in the unit sold. A common unitholder's amount realized generally will equal the sum of the cash and the fair market value of other property it receives plus its share of our nonrecourse liabilities with respect to the unit sold or exchanged. Because the amount realized includes a common unitholder's share of our nonrecourse liabilities, the gain recognized on the sale or exchange of a unit could result in a tax liability in excess of any cash received from such sale or exchange.

Except as noted below, gain or loss recognized by a common unitholder on the sale or exchange of a unit held for more than one year generally will be taxable as long-term capital gain or loss. However, gain or loss recognized on the disposition of common units will be separately computed and taxed as ordinary income or loss under Section 751 of the Internal Revenue Code to the extent attributable to Section 751 Assets, primarily depletion and depreciation recapture and our "inventory items," regardless of whether such inventory item has substantially appreciated in value. Ordinary income attributable to Section 751 Assets may exceed net taxable gain realized on the sale or exchange of a unit and may be recognized even if there is a net taxable loss realized on the sale of a unit. Thus, a common unitholder may recognize both ordinary income and a capital gain or loss upon a sale or exchange of a unit. Net capital loss may offset capital gains and, in the case of individuals, up to $3,000 of ordinary income per year.

For purposes of calculating gain or loss on the sale or exchange of a unit, the unitholder's adjusted tax basis will be adjusted by its allocable share of our income or loss in respect of its unit for the year of the sale. Furthermore, as described above the IRS has ruled that a partner who acquires interests in a partnership in separate transactions must combine those interests and maintain a single adjusted tax basis for all those interests. Upon a sale or other disposition of less than all of those interests, a portion of that tax basis must be allocated to the interests sold using an "equitable apportionment" method, which generally means that the tax basis allocated to the interest sold equals an amount that bears the same relation to the partner's tax basis in its entire interest in the partnership as the value of the interest sold bears to the value of the partner's entire interest in the partnership.

Treasury Regulations under Section 1223 of the Internal Revenue Code allow a selling common unitholder who can identify units transferred with an ascertainable holding period to elect to use the actual holding period of the units transferred. Thus, according to the ruling discussed in the paragraph above, a common unitholder will be unable to select high or low basis units to sell as would be the case with corporate stock, but, according to the Treasury Regulations, such unitholder may designate specific units sold for purposes of determining the holding period of units transferred. A common unitholder electing to use the actual holding period of any unit transferred must consistently use that identification method for all subsequent sales or exchanges of our units. A common unitholder considering the purchase of additional units or a sale or exchange of common units purchased in separate transactions is urged to consult its tax advisor as to the possible consequences of this ruling and application of the Treasury Regulations.

Specific provisions of the Internal Revenue Code affect the taxation of some financial products and securities, including partnership interests, by treating a taxpayer as having sold an "appreciated" financial position, including a partnership interest, with respect to which gain would be recognized if it were sold, assigned or terminated at its fair market value, in the event the taxpayer or a related person enters into:

a short sale;

an offsetting notional principal contract; or a futures or forward contract with respect to the partnership interest or substantially identical property.

Moreover, if a taxpayer has previously entered into a short sale, an offsetting notional principal contract or a futures or forward contract with respect to the partnership interest, the taxpayer will be treated as having sold that position if the taxpayer or a related person then acquires the partnership interest or substantially identical property. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to issue Treasury Regulations that treat a taxpayer that enters into transactions or positions that have substantially the same effect as the preceding transactions as having constructively sold the financial position. Please read " Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Treatment of Securities Loans."

Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees

In general, our taxable income or loss will be determined annually, will be prorated on a monthly basis and will be subsequently apportioned among the common unitholders in proportion to the number of units owned by each of them as of the opening of the applicable exchange on the first business day of the month (the "Allocation Date"). Nevertheless, we allocate certain deductions for depletion and depreciation of capital additions based upon the date the underlying property is placed in service, and gain or loss realized on a sale or other disposition of our assets or, in the discretion of the general partner, any other extraordinary item of income, gain, loss or deduction will be allocated among the common unitholders on the Allocation Date in the month in which such income, gain, loss or deduction is recognized. As a result, a common unitholder transferring units may be allocated income, gain, loss and deduction realized after the date of transfer.

Although simplifying conventions are contemplated by the Internal Revenue Code and most publicly traded partnerships use similar simplifying conventions, existing Treasury Regulations do not specifically authorize the use of the proration method we have adopted. Accordingly, Vinson & Elkins is unable to opine on the validity of this method of allocating income and deductions between transferee and transferor unitholders. If the IRS determines that this method is not allowed under the Treasury Regulations our taxable income or losses could be reallocated among our unitholders. Under our partnership agreement, we are authorized to revise our method of allocation between transferee and transferor unitholders, as well as among unitholders whose interests vary during a taxable year, to conform to a method permitted under the Treasury Regulations.

A common unitholder who disposes of units prior to the record date set for a cash distribution for that quarter will be allocated items of our income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to the month of disposition but will not be entitled to receive a cash distribution for that period.

Notification Requirements

A common unitholder who sells or exchanges any units is generally required to notify us in writing of that transaction within 30 days after the transaction (or, if earlier, January 15 of the year following the transaction in the case of a seller). Upon receiving such notifications, we are required to notify the IRS of the transaction and to furnish specified information to the transferor and transferee. Failure to notify us of a transfer of units may, in some cases, lead to the imposition of penalties. However, these reporting requirements do not apply to a sale or exchange by an individual who is a citizen of the United States and who effects the sale or exchange through a broker who will satisfy such requirements.

Uniformity of Common Units

Because we cannot match transferors and transferees of units and for other reasons, we must maintain uniformity of the economic and tax characteristics of the units to a purchaser of these units. As a result of the need to preserve uniformity, we may be unable to completely comply with a number of federal income tax requirements. Any non-uniformity could have a negative impact on the value of our common units. Please read " Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Section 754 Election."

Our partnership agreement permits our general partner to take positions in filing our tax returns that preserve the uniformity of our common units. These positions may include reducing the depreciation, amortization or loss deductions to which a unitholder would otherwise be entitled or reporting a slower amortization of Section 743(b) adjustments for some unitholders than that to which they would otherwise be entitled. Vinson & Elkins is unable to opine as to the validity of such filing positions.

A common unitholder's adjusted tax basis in units is reduced by its share of our deductions (whether or not such deductions were claimed on an individual income tax return) so that any position that we take that understates deductions will overstate the common unitholder's basis in its units, and may cause the common unitholder to understate gain or overstate loss on any sale of such units. Please read " Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss" above and " Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Section 754 Election" above. The IRS may challenge one or more of any positions we take to preserve the uniformity of our common units. If such a challenge were sustained, the uniformity of units might be affected, and, under some circumstances, the gain from the sale of units might be increased without the benefit of additional deductions.

Tax-Exempt Organizations, Non-U.S. Unitholders and Other Investors

Ownership of our common units by employee benefit plans and other tax-exempt organizations, as well as by non-resident alien individuals, non-U.S. corporations and other non-U.S. persons (collectively, "Non-U.S. Unitholders") raises issues unique to those investors and, as described below, may have substantial adverse tax consequences to them. Each prospective unitholder that is a tax-exempt entity or Non-U.S. Unitholder should consult its tax advisors before investing in our common units.

Employee benefit plans and most other tax-exempt organizations, including IRAs and other retirement plans, are subject to federal income tax on unrelated business taxable income. Virtually all of our income will be unrelated business taxable income and will be taxable to a tax-exempt unitholder. Tax-exempt unitholders with more than one unrelated trade or business (including by attribution from the Partnership to the extent it is engaged in one or more unrelated trade or business) are required to separately compute their unrelated business taxable income with respect to each unrelated trade or business (including for purposes of determining any net operating loss deduction). As a result, it may not be possible for tax-exempt unitholders to utilize losses from an investment in the Partnership to offset unrelated business taxable income from another unrelated trade or business and vice versa.

Non-U.S. Unitholders are taxed by the United States on income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business ("effectively connected income") and on certain types of U.S.-source non-effectively connected income (such as dividends), unless exempted or further limited by an income tax treaty. Each Non-U.S. Unitholder will be considered to be engaged in business in the United States because of its ownership of our units. Furthermore, Non-U.S. Unitholders will be deemed to conduct such activities through a permanent establishment in the United States within the meaning of an applicable tax treaty. Consequently, each Non-U.S. Unitholder will be required to file federal tax returns to report its share of our income, gain, loss or deduction and pay federal income tax on its share of our net income or gain. Moreover, under rules applicable to publicly traded partnerships, distributions to Non-U.S. Unitholders are subject to withholding at the highest applicable effective tax rate. Each Non-U.S. Unitholder must obtain a taxpayer identification number from the IRS and submit that number to our transfer agent on a Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or other applicable substitute or successor form) in order to obtain credit for these withholding taxes.

In addition, if a Non-U.S. Unitholder is classified as a non-U.S. corporation, it will be treated as engaged in a United States trade or business and may be subject to the U.S. branch profits tax at a rate of 30%, in addition to regular U.S. federal income tax, on its share of our income and gain as adjusted for changes in the foreign corporation's "U.S. net equity" to the extent reflected in the corporation's earnings and profits. That tax may be reduced or eliminated by an income tax treaty between the United States and the country in which the foreign corporate unitholder is a "qualified resident." In addition, this type of unitholder is subject to special information reporting requirements under Section 6038C of the Internal Revenue Code.

A Non-U.S. Unitholder who sells or otherwise disposes of a unit will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on gain realized from the sale or disposition of that unit to the extent the gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the Non-U.S. Unitholder. Gain realized by a Non-U.S. Unitholder from the sale of its interest in a partnership that is engaged in a trade or business in the United States will be considered to be "effectively connected" with a U.S. trade or business to the extent that gain that would be recognized upon a sale by the partnership of all of its assets would be "effectively connected" with a U.S. trade or business. Thus, all of a Non-U.S. Unitholder's gain from the sale or other disposition of our common units would be treated as effectively connected with a unitholder's indirect U.S. trade or business constituted by its investment in us and would be subject to U.S. federal income tax. As a result of the effectively connected income rules described above, the exclusion from U.S. taxation under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act for gain from the sale of partnership common units regularly traded on an established securities market will not prevent a Non-U.S. Unitholder from being subject to U.S. federal income tax on gain from the sale or disposition of its common units to the extent such gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. We expect substantially all of the gain from the sale or disposition of our common units to be treated as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business.

Moreover, the transferee of an interest in a partnership that is engaged in a U.S. trade or business is generally required to withhold 10% of the amount realized by the transferor unless the transferor certifies that it is not a foreign person, and we are required to deduct and withhold from the transferee amounts that should have been withheld by the transferees but were not withheld. Because the "amount realized" includes a partner's share of the partnership's liabilities, 10% of the amount realized could exceed the total cash purchase price for the common units. For this and other reasons, the IRS has suspended the application of this withholding rule to open market transfers of interest in publicly traded partnerships, pending promulgation of regulations that address the amount to be withheld, the reporting necessary to determine such amount and the appropriate party to withhold such amounts, but it is not clear if or when such regulations will be issued.

Administrative Matters

Information Returns and Audit Procedures

We intend to furnish to each common unitholder, within 90 days after the close of each taxable year, specific tax information, including a Schedule K-1, which describes its share of our income, gain, loss and deduction for our preceding taxable year. In preparing this information, which will not be reviewed by counsel, we will take various accounting and reporting positions, some of which have been mentioned earlier, to determine each common unitholder's share of income, gain, loss and deduction. We cannot assure our common unitholders that those positions will yield a result that conforms to all of the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, Treasury Regulations or administrative interpretations of the IRS.

The IRS may audit our federal income tax information returns. Neither we, nor Vinson & Elkins can assure prospective common unitholders that the IRS will not successfully challenge the positions we adopt, and such a challenge could adversely affect the value of the units. Adjustments resulting from an IRS audit may require each common unitholder to adjust a prior year's tax liability, and possibly may result in an audit of its own return. Any audit of a common unitholder's return could result in adjustments not related to our returns as well as those related to its returns.

Publicly traded partnerships are treated as entities separate from their owners for purposes of federal income tax audits, judicial review of administrative adjustments by the IRS and tax settlement proceedings. The tax treatment of partnership items of income, gain, loss and deduction are determined in a partnership proceeding rather than in separate proceedings for each of the partners. Pursuant to the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, if the IRS makes audit adjustments to our income tax returns, it may assess and collect any taxes (including any applicable penalties and interest) resulting from such audit adjustment directly from us, unless we elect to have our general partner, unitholders and former unitholders take any audit adjustment into account in accordance with their interests in us during the taxable year under audit. Similarly, for such taxable years, if the IRS makes audit adjustments to income tax returns filed by an entity in which we are a member or partner, it may assess and collect any taxes (including penalties and interest) resulting from such audit adjustment directly from such entity.

Generally, we expect to elect to have our general partner, unitholders and former unitholders take any such audit adjustment into account in accordance with their interests in us during the taxable year under audit, but there can be no assurance that such election will be effective in all circumstances. If we are unable or if it is not economical to have our general partner, unitholders and former unitholders take such audit adjustment into account in accordance with their interests in us during the taxable year under audit, our then current unitholders may bear some or all of the tax liability resulting from such audit adjustment, even if such unitholders did not own our common units during the taxable year under audit. If, as a result of any such audit adjustment, we are required to make payments of taxes, penalties or interest, our cash available for distribution to our unitholders might be substantially reduced and our current and former unitholders may be required to indemnify us for any taxes (including any applicable penalties and interest) resulting from such audit adjustments that were paid on such unitholders' behalf. These rules are not applicable for taxable years beginning on or prior to December 31, 2017. Congress has proposed changes to the Bipartisan Budget Act, and we anticipate that amendments may be made. Accordingly, the manner in which these rules may apply to us in the future is uncertain.

Additionally, pursuant to the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015, the Internal Revenue Code will no longer require that we designate a Tax Matters Partner. Instead, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, we will be required to designate a partner, or other person, with a substantial presence in the United States as the partnership representative ("Partnership Representative"). The Partnership Representative will have the sole authority to act on our behalf for purposes of, among other things, federal income tax audits and judicial review of administrative adjustments by the IRS. If we do not make such a designation, the IRS can select any person as the Partnership Representative. We have designated our general partner as the Partnership Representative. Further, any actions taken by us or by the Partnership Representative on our behalf with respect to, among other things, federal income tax audits and judicial review of administrative adjustments by the IRS, will be binding on us and all of our unitholders.

Additional Withholding Requirements

Withholding taxes may apply to certain types of payments made to "foreign financial institutions" (as specially defined in the Internal Revenue Code) and certain other non-U.S. entities. Specifically, a 30% withholding tax may be imposed on interest, dividends and other fixed or determinable annual or periodic gains, profits and income from sources within the United States ("FDAP Income"), or gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of any property of a type which can produce interest or dividends from sources within the United States ("Gross Proceeds") paid to a foreign financial institution or to a "non-financial foreign entity" (as specially defined in the Internal Revenue Code), unless (i) the foreign financial institution undertakes certain diligence and reporting, (ii) the non-financial foreign entity either certifies it does not have any substantial U.S. owners or furnishes identifying information regarding each substantial U.S. owner or (iii) the foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity otherwise qualifies for an exemption from these rules. If the payee is a foreign financial institution and is subject to the diligence and reporting requirements in clause (i) above, it must enter into an agreement with the U.S. Department of the Treasury requiring, among other things, that it undertake to identify accounts held by certain U.S. persons or U.S.-owned foreign entities, annually report certain information about such accounts, and withhold 30% on payments to noncompliant foreign financial institutions and certain other account holders. Foreign financial institutions located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the United States governing these requirements may be subject to different rules.

Generally these rules apply to current payments of FDAP Income and will apply to payments of relevant Gross Proceeds made on or after January 1, 2019. Thus, to the extent we have FDAP Income or we have Gross Proceeds on or after January 1, 2019 that are not treated as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business (please read " Tax-Exempt Organizations and Other Investors"), a unitholder that is a foreign financial institution or certain other non-U.S. entity, or a person that holds its common units through such foreign entities, may be subject to withholding on distributions they receive from us, or its distributive share of our income, pursuant to the rules described above.

Each prospective unitholder should consult its own tax advisors regarding the potential application of these withholding provisions to its investment in our common units.

Nominee Reporting

Persons who hold an interest in us as a nominee for another person are required to furnish to us:

- (1) the name, address and taxpayer identification number of the beneficial owner and the nominee;
- (2) a statement regarding whether the beneficial owner is:
 - (a) a non-U.S. person;
 - (b) a non-U.S. government, an international organization or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality of either of the foregoing; or
 - (c) a tax-exempt entity;
- (3) the amount and description of units held, acquired or transferred for the beneficial owner; and
- (4) specific information including the dates of acquisitions and transfers, means of acquisitions and transfers, and acquisition cost for purchases, as well as the amount of net proceeds from sales.

Each broker and financial institution is required to furnish additional information, including whether such broker or financial institution is a U.S. person and specific information on any common units such broker or financial institution acquires, holds or transfers for its own account. A penalty per failure, up to a significant maximum amount per calendar year, is imposed by the Internal Revenue Code for failure to report that information to us. The nominee is required to supply the beneficial owner of our common units with the information furnished to us.

Accuracy-Related Penalties

Certain penalties may be imposed as a result of an underpayment of tax that is attributable to one or more specified causes, including negligence or disregard of rules or regulations, substantial understatements of income tax and substantial valuation misstatements. No penalty will be imposed, however, for any portion of an underpayment if it is shown that there was a reasonable cause for the underpayment of that portion and that the taxpayer acted in good faith regarding the underpayment of that portion. We do not anticipate that any accuracy-related penalties will be assessed against us.

State, Local and Other Tax Considerations

In addition to federal income taxes, unitholders may be subject to other taxes, including state and local income taxes, unincorporated business taxes and estate, inheritance or intangibles taxes that may be imposed by the various jurisdictions in which we conduct business or own property now or in the future or in which the unitholder is a resident. We conduct business or own property in many states in the United States. Some of these states may impose an income tax on individuals, corporations and other entities. As we make acquisitions or expand our business, we may own property or conduct business in additional states that impose a personal income tax. Although an analysis of those various taxes is not presented here, each prospective unitholder should consider the potential impact of such taxes on its investment in us.

A common unitholder may be required to file income tax returns and pay income taxes in some or all of the jurisdictions in which we do business or own property, though such unitholder may not be required to file a return and pay taxes in certain jurisdictions because its income from such jurisdictions falls below the jurisdiction's filing and payment requirement. Further, a common unitholder may be subject to penalties for a failure to comply with any filing or payment requirement applicable to such unitholder. Some of the jurisdictions may require us, or we may elect, to withhold a percentage of income from amounts to be distributed to a common unitholder who is not a resident of the jurisdiction. Withholding, the amount of which may be greater or less than a particular common unitholder's income tax liability to the jurisdiction, generally does not relieve a nonresident common unitholder from the obligation to file an income tax return.

IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF EACH UNITHOLDER TO INVESTIGATE THE LEGAL AND TAX CONSEQUENCES, UNDER THE LAWS OF PERTINENT JURISDICTIONS, OF HIS INVESTMENT IN US. WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND THAT EACH PROSPECTIVE UNITHOLDER CONSULT, AND DEPEND UPON, ITS OWN TAX COUNSEL OR OTHER ADVISOR WITH REGARD TO THOSE MATTERS. FURTHER, IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF EACH UNITHOLDER TO FILE ALL STATE, LOCAL AND NON U.S., AS WELL AS U.S. FEDERAL TAX RETURNS THAT MAY BE REQUIRED OF IT. VINSON & ELKINS HAS NOT RENDERED AN OPINION ON THE STATE, LOCAL, ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX OR NON U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES OF AN INVESTMENT IN US.

Interests of the AGP Executive Officers and Directors in the Simplification Transactions

In considering the recommendation of the AGP Board to approve the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, AHGP unitholders should be aware that some of the executive officers and directors of AGP have interests in the simplification transactions that may differ from, or may be in addition to, the interests of AHGP unitholders generally. These interests may present such executive officers and directors with actual or potential conflicts of interest. These interests include the following:

AHGP and ARLP common units. Some of the executive officers and directors of AGP currently own AHGP common units and will be receiving ARLP common units as a result of the simplification transactions. AHGP common units held by the directors and executive officers will be exchanged for ARLP common units at a ratio that will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement. This ratio will be the same ratio as that applicable to the unaffiliated AHGP unitholders. In addition, certain directors and officers of AGP currently own ARLP common units.

AHGP Equity Based Awards. The independent directors of AGP also hold AHGP deferred phantom units (as defined under the heading "The Simplification Agreement Treatment of AHGP Phantom Units"). Immediately prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions, all AHGP deferred phantom units that are then outstanding will be paid in full and deemed to have been converted into AHGP common units. By virtue of the simplification transactions and without any action on the part of the holder of the AHGP deferred phantom units, the AHGP deferred phantom units will be treated as AHGP common units and will be exchanged for ARLP common units at a ratio that will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement and that will be the same ratio as that applicable to all unaffiliated AHGP unitholders.

Indemnification. For a period of at least six years following the consummation of the simplification transactions, the ARLP partnership agreement will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in the AHGP partnership agreement. Such provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the consummation of the simplification transactions in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to such time, were indemnitees, unless such modification is required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law. All rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions now existing in favor of existing indemnified parties, as provided in the AHGP partnership agreement, will be assumed by ARLP and MGP in the simplification transactions, without further action, at the consummation of the simplification transactions and will survive the simplification transactions and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

Director and Executive Officer Interlock. Two of the current directors of MGP are also directors of AGP; three executive officers of MGP are also executive officers of AGP; and three other executive officers of MGP are deemed to be executive officers of AGP.

Support Agreement. In addition, the AHGP supporting unitholders include Joseph W. Craft III, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of AGP. The AHGP supporting unitholders beneficially own approximately 52% of the total AHGP common units and have entered into a support agreement to vote in favor of the simplification agreement and the transactions

contemplated thereby, including the merger. For more information on the support agreement, please read "Interests of Certain Persons in the Simplification Transactions Support Agreement."

The directors and executive officers of AGP beneficially owned an aggregate of 41,363,372 AHGP common units as of April 17, 2018, representing approximately 69.1% of the total voting power of AHGP's voting securities.

Merger-Related Compensation

There are no agreements or understandings, whether written or unwritten, with AGP's officers concerning the information specified in Item 402(t)(2) or (3) of Regulation S-K (i.e., any type of compensation, whether present, deferred or contingent, that is based on or otherwise relates to the simplification transactions).

Treatment of AHGP Phantom Units

Immediately prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions, all outstanding AHGP deferred phantom units issued to AGP's independent directors will be paid in full and will be deemed to have been converted into AHGP common units. Upon the effective time of the simplification transactions, and without any action on the part of the holder of the AHGP deferred phantom units, all AHGP deferred phantom units will be treated as AHGP common units and will be exchanged for ARLP common units at a ratio that will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the simplification agreement and that will be the same ratio as that applicable to all unaffiliated AHGP unitholders.

The table below sets forth, for each AGP director, the number of outstanding AHGP deferred phantom units that was held by such director as of April 17, 2018, the latest practicable date to determine such amounts before the filing of this consent statement/prospectus. None of AGP's executive officers held AHGP deferred phantom units as of April 17, 2018. These numbers do not include additional AHGP deferred phantom units that may be issued following the date of this consent statement/prospectus. The value of the AHGP deferred phantom units included below is calculated based on an assumed exchange of one AHGP deferred phantom unit for 1.478 ARLP common units and an assumed market price per ARLP common unit equal to $17.80 (which equals the average closing market price of an ARLP common unit on the NASDAQ over the first five business days following February 23, 2018, the date of the first public announcement of the simplification transactions).

The AHGP common units attributed to Mr. Craft consist of (i) 2,463,449 AHGP common units held by the JWC III Rev Trust, of which Mr. Craft is trustee, (ii) 20,641,168 AHGP common units held by SGP (indirectly owned by Mr. Craft and Kathleen S. Craft), (iii) 315,941 AHGP common units held by Alliance Management Holdings III, LLC ("AMH III"), of which Mr. Craft may be deemed to be beneficial owner by virtue of his status as President and sole director of AMH III, (iv) 114,061 AHGP common units attributable to Mr. Craft's spouse and (v) 17,606,536 AHGP common units held by the management group (some of whom are current or former members of management of ARLP) other than Mr. Craft with whom he may be deemed to comprise a group under Rule 13d-5(b) of the Exchange Act. The filing of this consent statement/prospectus shall not be deemed an admission that Mr. Craft beneficially owns the AHGP common units referenced in clauses (iii) and (v) of this footnote.

Members of the management group are parties to a Transfer Restrictions Agreement that contains certain provisions (e.g., drag-along rights granted to Mr. Craft) that, pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13d-5(b), may cause the management group to be deemed to comprise a group under Exchange Act Rule 13d-5(b). The Transfer Restrictions Agreement shall terminate upon the earlier of (a) the approved transfer of all restricted units by a majority of the disinterested members of the AGP Board pursuant to certain procedures set forth in the agreement or (b) the consent of unitholders holding at least 80% of restricted units under the agreement. Accordingly, without affirming the existence of an Exchange Act Rule 13d-5(b) group, the management group made a Schedule 13D filing pursuant to Exchange Act requirements.

- (2) The AHGP common units attributed to Ms. Craft consist of (i) 1,998,250 AHGP common units held directly by the Kathleen S. Craft Revocable Trust, of which Ms. Craft is trustee and (ii) 20,641,168 AHGP common units held by SGP (indirectly owned by Mr. Craft and Kathleen S. Craft). 1,966,856 of the AHGP common units referenced in clause (i) of this footnote are attributable to Mr. Craft as referenced in clause (v) of footnote (1) above.
- (3) The ARLP common units attributed to Mr. Craft consist of (i) 357,452 ARLP common units held directly by him, (ii) 2,000 ARLP common units held by his son, (iii) 31,088,338 ARLP common units held directly by AHGP, (iv) 56,100,000 common units held by MGP II, and (v) 7,181 common units held by SGP (indirectly owned by Mr. Craft and Kathleen S. Craft). Mr. Craft is Chairman of the AGP Board and, through his ownership of C-Holdings, the indirect sole owner of AGP, and he holds, directly or indirectly, or may be deemed to be the beneficial owner of, a majority of the outstanding common units of AHGP (as described in footnote (1) above). As of April 17, 2018, AHGP, including its 100% indirectly owned subsidiary, MGP II, beneficially owned 66.6% of ARLP's units. Mr. Craft disclaims beneficial ownership of the ARLP common units beneficially held by AHGP except to the extent of his pecuniary interest therein.
- (4) Mr. Wynne is part of the management group with whom Mr. Craft may be deemed to comprise a group under Rule 13d-5(b) of the Exchange Act, as more fully described in clause (v) of footnote (1) above. Of the 684,525 AHGP common units collectively held, directly and through family trusts, by Mr. Wynne, 624,525 AHGP common units represent a portion of the 17,606,536 AHGP common units attributed to Mr. Craft as referenced in clause (v) of footnote (1) above. Accordingly, in order to avoid double counting, those 624,525 AHGP common units were not included in the line item of the above table entitled "All directors and executive officers as a group (9 persons)" for the calculation of the aggregate number of AHGP common units beneficially owned by the listed officers and directors.
- (5) Charles R. Wesley III holds 2,912,500 AHGP common units through trusts and other entities controlled by him and his spouse. The reference in clause (v) of footnote (1) above to 17,606,536 AHGP common units beneficially held by Mr. Craft, includes 2,822,529 AHGP common units held by Mr. Wesley and his spouse. Accordingly, in order to avoid double counting, those 2,822,529 AHGP common units were not included in the line item of the above table entitled "All directors and executive officers as a group (9 persons)" for the calculation of the aggregate number of AHGP common units beneficially owned by the listed officers and directors.

Indemnification; Director's and Officer's Insurance

Pursuant to the simplification agreement, ARLP has agreed that all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions existing as of the date of the simplification agreement in favor of any AHGP indemnitee will be assumed by ARLP and MGP in connection with the simplification transactions, without further action, at the consummation of the simplification transactions and will survive the simplification transactions and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

For a period of six years from the consummation of the simplification transactions, the ARLP partnership agreement will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in AHGP's existing partnership agreement, which provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the consummation of the simplification transactions in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the consummation of the simplification transactions, were AHGP indemnitees, unless such modification is required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law.

Director and Executive Officer Interlock

Two of the current directors of MGP, namely, Joseph W. Craft III and Wilson M. Torrence, are also directors of AGP; three of the current executive officers of MGP, namely, Joseph W. Craft III, Brian L. Cantrell and R. Eberley Davis, are also executive officers of AGP; and three other executive officers of MGP, namely, Robert G. Sachse, Charles R. Wesley and Thomas M. Wynne, are deemed to be executive officers of AGP.

DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS FOLLOWING THE MERGER

As of the date of this consent statement/prospectus, the current directors and executive officers of MGP and AGP are expected to continue in their respective roles as the directors and executive officers of MGP and AGP following consummation of the merger, except that Wilson M. Torrence, who currently is a member of both the MGP Board and the AGP Board, will resign from the AGP Board after consummation of the merger. After the simplification transactions, AGP, as the sole member of MGP, will continue to have the power to appoint members of the MGP Board. Executive officers of MGP and AGP are appointed by the directors of MGP and AGP, respectively.

COMPARISON OF AHGP UNITHOLDER RIGHTS AND ARLP UNITHOLDER RIGHTS

The rights of AHGP unitholders are currently governed by AHGP's existing partnership agreement and the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act ("DRULPA"). The rights of ARLP unitholders are currently governed by ARLP's existing partnership agreement and the DRULPA. After the simplification transactions, the rights of ARLP unitholders and the former AHGP unitholders will be governed by ARLP's existing partnership agreement and the DRULPA.

Set forth below is a discussion of the material differences between the rights of a holder of AHGP common units under AHGP's existing partnership agreement and the DRULPA, on the one hand, and the rights of a holder of ARLP common units under ARLP's existing partnership agreement and the DRULPA, on the other hand. Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this section to (i) "MLP Group" means ARLP and its subsidiaries, (ii) "AHGP Partnership Group" means AHGP and its subsidiaries treated as a single consolidated entity, but excluding the MLP Group, (iii) "AHGP Group Member" means a member of the AHGP Partnership Group, (iv) "ARLP Partnership Group" means ARLP, AROP, Alliance Coal and any subsidiary of any such entity, treated as a single consolidated entity and (v) "ARLP Group Member" means a member of the ARLP Partnership Group.

This summary does not purport to be a complete discussion of, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the DRULPA and the constituent documents of AHGP and ARLP. We urge you to read AHGP's existing partnership agreement, ARLP's existing partnership agreement and the DRULPA carefully and in their entirety.

provide for the proper conduct of the business of the ARLP Partnership Group (including reserves for future capital expenditures and for anticipated future credit needs of the ARLP Partnership Group subsequent to that quarter);

comply with applicable law or any partnership debt instrument or other agreement of the ARLP Partnership Group; or provide funds for distributions to unitholders in respect of any one or more of the next four quarters.

General Partner Interest

In the case of ARLP, as of the date of the simplification agreement, MGP owned a non-economic (0.0%) general partner interest in ARLP, and MGP will continue to own such non-economic (0.0%) general partner interest in ARLP after consummation of the simplification transactions.

Effect of Issuance of Additional Units

ARLP can issue additional common units or other equity securities for consideration and under terms and conditions approved by MGP in its sole discretion, and without the approval of any of its unitholders. ARLP may fund acquisitions through the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities.

Holders of any additional ARLP common units that ARLP issues will be entitled to share equally with ARLP's then-existing unitholders in distributions of available cash. In addition, the issuance of additional ARLP common units may dilute the value of the interests of the then-existing ARLP unitholders.

Quarterly Distributions of Available Cash

ARLP will make quarterly pro rata distributions to its limited partners prior to its liquidation in an amount equal to 100% of its available cash for that quarter. ARLP expects to make distributions of all available cash within approximately 45 days after the end of each quarter to holders of record on the applicable record date.

Distribution of Cash Upon Liquidation

If ARLP dissolves in accordance with its partnership agreement, it will sell its assets or otherwise dispose of its assets, discharge its liabilities and otherwise wind up its affairs in a process called a liquidation and as the liquidator determines to be in the best interest of the ARLP partners. ARLP will adjust the partners' capital account balances to show any resulting gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of assets in liquidation. ARLP will first apply the proceeds of liquidation to the payment of its creditors in the order of priority provided by law and, thereafter, distribute to the partners in accordance with, and to the extent of, the positive balances in their respective capital accounts.

Table of Contents

DESCRIPTION OF ARLP COMMON UNITS

General

ARLP common units represent limited partner interests in ARLP. The holders of ARLP common units are entitled to participate in partnership distributions and exercise the rights or privileges available to limited partners under the ARLP partnership agreement.

Timing of Distributions

ARLP distributes 100% of its available cash within 45 days after the end of each quarter to ARLP unitholders of record and to ARLP's general partner. Available cash generally means, for any quarter prior to liquidation, all cash on hand at the end of that quarter, less the amount of cash reserves that are necessary or appropriate in the reasonable discretion of ARLP's general partner to: (i) provide for the proper conduct of the business of ARLP; (ii) comply with applicable law or any partnership debt instrument or other agreement of ARLP; or (iii) provide funds for distributions to unitholders and ARLP's general partner in respect of any one or more of the next four quarters. For additional information, please read "ARLP's Cash Distribution Policy."

Issuance of Additional Units

In general, ARLP may issue additional partnership securities for any partnership purpose at any time and from time to time to such persons for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as shall be established by its general partner in its sole discretion, all without the approval of any limited partners.

Voting Rights

Unlike the holders of common stock in a corporation, ARLP's limited partners have only limited voting rights on matters affecting its business. ARLP's limited partners have no right to elect its general partner or its directors on an annual or other continuing basis. MGP may not be removed as general partner except by the vote of the holders of at least $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the outstanding ARLP common units, including ARLP common units owned by its general partner and its affiliates. Each ARLP unitholder is entitled to one vote for each ARLP common unit on all matters submitted to a vote of the unitholders.

Limited Call Right

If at any time not more than 20% of the outstanding ARLP common units are held by persons other than ARLP's general partner and its affiliates, ARLP's general partner has the right, but not the obligation, to purchase all, but not less than all, of the remaining ARLP common units at a price not less than the then current market price of the ARLP common units.

Exchange Listing

The ARLP common units are listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol "ARLP."

Transfer Agent and Registrar Duties

American Stock Transfer & Trust Company serves as registrar and transfer agent for ARLP common units. ARLP pays all fees charged by the transfer agent for transfers of ARLP common units, except the following that must be paid by unitholders:

surety bond premiums to replace lost or stolen certificates, taxes and other governmental charges;

special charges for services requested by a holder of an ARLP common unit; and other similar fees or charges.

There is no charge to unitholders for disbursements of ARLP's cash distributions. ARLP will indemnify the transfer agent, its agents and each of their stockholders, directors, officers and employees against all claims and losses that may arise out of acts performed or omitted for its activities as transfer agent, except for any liability due to any gross negligence or intentional misconduct of the indemnified person or entity.

Transfer of ARLP Common Units

Any transfers of an ARLP common unit will not be recorded by the transfer agent or recognized by ARLP unless the transferee executes and delivers a transfer application. By executing and delivering a transfer application, the transferee of ARLP common units:

becomes the record holder of the ARLP common units and is an assignee until admitted into ARLP as a substituted limited partner;

automatically requests admission as a substituted limited partner in ARLP; agrees to comply with and be bound by and to have executed the ARLP partnership agreement;

represents and warrants that such transferee has the right, power and authority and, if an individual, the capacity to enter into the ARLP partnership agreement;

grants the powers of attorney set forth in the ARLP partnership agreement; and gives the consents and approvals and makes the waivers contained in the ARLP partnership agreement.

An assignee will become a substituted limited partner of ARLP for the transferred ARLP common units upon the consent of ARLP's general partner and the recording of the name of the assignee on ARLP's books and records. ARLP's general partner may withhold its consent in its discretion.

A transferee's broker, agent or nominee may complete, execute and deliver a transfer application. ARLP is entitled to treat the nominee holder of an ARLP common unit as the absolute owner. In that case, the beneficial holder's rights are limited solely to those that it has against the nominee holder as a result of any agreement between the beneficial owner and the nominee holder.

ARLP common units are securities and are transferable according to the laws governing transfer of securities. In addition to other rights acquired upon admission as a substituted limited partner in ARLP for the transferred ARLP common units, a purchaser or transferee of ARLP common units who does not execute and deliver a transfer application obtains only:

the right to assign the ARLP common unit to a purchaser or other transferee; and the right to transfer the right to seek admission as a substituted limited partner in ARLP for the transferred ARLP common units.

Thus, a purchaser or transferee of ARLP common units who does not execute and deliver a transfer application:

will not receive cash distributions or federal income tax allocations, unless the ARLP common units are held in a nominee or "street name" account and the nominee or broker has executed and delivered a transfer application; and may not receive some federal income tax information or reports furnished to record holders of ARLP common units.

Table of Contents

The transferor of ARLP common units has a duty to provide the transferee with all information that may be necessary to transfer the ARLP common units. The transferor does not have a duty to insure the execution of the transfer application by the transferee and has no liability or responsibility if the transferee neglects or chooses not to execute and forward the transfer application to the transfer agent.

Until an ARLP common unit has been transferred on ARLP's books, ARLP and the transfer agent may treat the record holder of the ARLP common unit as the absolute owner for all purposes, except as otherwise required by law or stock exchange regulations.

AHGP UNITHOLDER PROPOSALS

Under applicable Delaware law and the AHGP partnership agreement, AHGP is not required to hold an annual meeting of its unitholders. Under the AHGP partnership agreement, special meetings of the limited partners may be called by the general partner or by limited partners owning 20% or more of the outstanding limited partner interests of the class or classes for which a meeting is proposed. Such limited partners may call a special meeting by delivering to AGP (or any successor or permitted assign admitted to AHGP as general partner) one or more requests in writing stating that the signing limited partners wish to call a special meeting and indicating the general or specific purposes for which the special meeting is to be called. However, limited partners are not allowed to vote on matters that would cause the limited partners to be deemed to be taking part in the management and control of the business and affairs of AHGP so as to jeopardize the limited partners' limited liability under Delaware law or the law of any other state in which AHGP is qualified to do business.

As part of a plan to simplify their capital structures, Alliance Holdings GP, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("AHGP"), and Alliance Resource Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("ARLP"), entered into a Simplification Agreement, dated as of February 22, 2018 (the "simplification agreement"), by and among AHGP, Alliance GP, LLC ("AGP"), a Delaware limited liability company and the current general partner of AHGP, certain subsidiaries of AHGP and AGP, ARLP, Alliance Resource Management GP, LLC ("MGP"), a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of ARLP, and Alliance Resource GP, LLC ("SGP"), a Delaware limited liability company, pursuant to which, among other things, through a series of transactions (the "simplification transactions"), (i) AHGP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and (ii) all of the outstanding common units representing limited partner interests in AHGP (the "AHGP common units") will be canceled and converted into the right to receive all of the ARLP common units currently held by AHGP and its subsidiaries. The simplification transactions are structured such that each AHGP unitholder will hold directly after the simplification transactions the same economic share of ARLP and its subsidiaries that it held indirectly through AHGP before the simplification transactions.

The simplification transactions also contemplate that New AHGP GP, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ARLP and the new general partner of AHGP after the simplification transactions. MGP, the general partner of ARLP, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of AGP, the general partner of AHGP prior to the simplification transactions, and continue to be the general partner of ARLP. As a result, there will be no change of control over the operation of ARLP's business.

Pursuant to the simplification agreement, ARLP will issue to SGP an estimated 1,320,377 ARLP common units calculated pursuant to the simplification agreement on an economically equivalent basis in exchange for a 1.0001% general partner interest in Alliance Resource Operating Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("AROP"), and a 0.001% managing membership interest in Alliance Coal, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Alliance Coal").

Before AHGP and ARLP can complete the simplification transactions, a number of conditions must be satisfied, or where permissible waived, by AHGP or ARLP, as appropriate. These conditions include, among others, that (i) the simplification agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, have been approved and adopted by the affirmative consent of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding AHGP common units; (ii) there is no legal restraint or prohibition enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or imposing any material restrictions on the consummation of the simplification transactions; (iii) the registration statement of which this consent statement/prospectus forms a part has become effective under the Securities Act; and (iv) the New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP pursuant to the simplification transactions have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet and the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of income as of and for the twelve months ended December 31, 2017, gives effect to the simplification transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2017. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted to give effect to pro forma events that are directly attributable to the simplification transactions and are factually supportable.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the historical audited financial information and accompanying notes of ARLP and AHGP, which have been incorporated by reference into this consent statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements are based on assumptions that ARLP and AHGP believe are reasonable under the circumstances and are intended for informational purposes only. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the simplification transactions had been completed at the date indicated.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Basis of Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements and underlying pro forma adjustments are based upon currently available information and certain estimates and assumptions made by the management of ARLP and AHGP; therefore, actual results could differ materially from the pro forma information. However, management believes the assumptions provide a reasonable basis for presenting the significant effect of the simplification transactions. ARLP and AHGP believe the pro forma adjustments give appropriate effect to those assumptions and are properly applied in the pro forma information.

The simplification transactions for ARLP will be accounted for prospectively as an exchange of equity interests between entities under common control when it issues the estimated 1,320,377 ARLP common units to SGP in exchange for the contribution of the limited partner interests in AHGP, which owns indirectly the general partner interest in AROP and managing member interest in Alliance Coal. Since ARLP and AHGP are under common control both before and after the simplification transactions, no fair value adjustment will be made to the assets or liabilities of AHGP and no gain or loss will be recognized in ARLP's net income. The accounting treatment of the simplification transactions from the standpoint of AHGP is not relevant as the intent of management is to de-list AHGP.

Note 2. Pro Forma Adjustments

- (a) This column represents adjustments to our condensed consolidated financial statements to include historical accounts and operations of AHGP for 2017 with no simplification savings included.
- (b) The adjustments reflected in this column represent the impact of the estimated reduction in general and administrative expenses if the simplification transactions had occurred on January 1, 2017.
- (c) Adjustments represent the inclusion of historical assets and liabilities held at AHGP, including cash, prepaid expenses, accounts payable, accrued taxes and accrued directors' compensation.
- (d) Adjustment represents the elimination of a due from affiliate receivable from AHGP.
- (e) Adjustments represent allocations from general partners' interest to limited partners' interest as a result of ARLP acquiring through the simplification transactions, the outstanding general partner interest in AROP and the outstanding managing member interest in Alliance Coal.
- (f) Reflects an adjustment for the estimated reduction in general and administrative expenses as a result of the simplification transactions including reduced directors' compensation, audit, tax, Schedule K-1 processing, annual report costs, NASDAQ fees, SEC filing fees, legal and other professional service fees.
- (g) Adjustment represents the elimination of administrative service revenues from AHGP.
- (h) Adjustment represents the inclusion of historical general and administrative expenses incurred at AHGP, certain of which represent amounts of shared expenses allocated to AHGP that are expected to continue to be incurred by ARLP after the simplification transactions.
- (i) Adjustments represent additional historical interest income earned and income tax expense incurred at AHGP.

MERGER CONSIDERATION; EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

Section 4.1 AHGP Unitholder Consideration. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of AGP, AHGP, Merger Sub or any holder of AHGP Common Units:

(a) All of the limited liability company interests in Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become limited partner interests in AHGP, which limited partner interests shall be duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid (to the extent required under the AHGP Partnership Agreement and the AHGP Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement) and non-assessable (except to the extent such non-assessability may be affected by Sections 17-303, 17-607 and 17-804 of the DRULPA), and shall be held by SGP.

(b) The general partner interest in AHGP issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain outstanding and unchanged subject to such changes as are set forth in the AHGP Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement, and AGP shall continue to be the sole general partner of AHGP.

(c) Each Outstanding AHGP Common Unit (other than AHGP Common Units held by SGP) shall be converted into the right to receive a number of Exchange Units equal to the Exchange Ratio, and the Outstanding AHGP Common Units held by SGP immediately prior to the Merger shall be converted into the right to receive a number of Exchange Units equal to (i) the product of (A) the aggregate number of Outstanding AHGP Common Units held by SGP and (B) the Exchange Ratio, minus (ii) the aggregate number of New ARLP Common Units. The Exchange Units and any cash paid in lieu of any fractional Exchange Unit are collectively referred to herein as the "AHGP Unitholder Consideration."

(d) All AHGP Common Units, when converted as a result of and pursuant to the Merger, shall cease to be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and cease to exist. At the Effective Time, each holder of a certificate representing AHGP Common Units (a "Certificate") and each holder of non-certificated AHGP Common Units represented by book-entry ("Book-Entry Units") shall cease to be a unitholder of AHGP and (except as set forth in Section 4.2) cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive (i) such holder's portion of the AHGP Unitholder Consideration, including any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Exchange Unit in accordance with Section 4.3(e), and the right to be admitted as a limited partner of ARLP in connection therewith, and (ii) any distributions in accordance with Section 4.3(c), and in each case, to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in accordance with Section 4.2.

Section 4.2 Rights As Unitholders; Unit Transfers. At the Effective Time, holders of AHGP Common Units shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, unitholders of AHGP, other than to receive (a) any distribution with respect to such AHGP Common Units with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time that may have been declared or made by AHGP on such AHGP Common Units in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and which remains unpaid at the Effective Time and (b) the consideration provided under this Article IV. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the unit transfer books of AHGP with respect to the AHGP Common Units.

Section 4.3 Exchange Procedures.

(a) Exchange Agent. Promptly after the Effective Time, AHGP shall deposit or shall cause to be deposited with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of AHGP Common Units, for exchange in accordance with this Article IV, through the Exchange Agent, the AHGP Unitholder Consideration required by this Article IV. AHGP agrees to make available to the Exchange Agent, from time to time as needed, cash sufficient to pay any distributions pursuant to Section 4.2(a) and Section 4.3(c) and to make payments in lieu of any fractional Exchange Units pursuant to Section 4.3(e). Any cash and Exchange Units deposited with the Exchange Agent (including as payment for any fractional Exchange Units in accordance with Section 4.3(e) and any distributions in accordance with Section 4.3(c)) shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Exchange Fund." The Exchange Agent shall, pursuant to irrevocable instructions, deliver the AHGP Unitholder Consideration contemplated to be paid for AHGP Common Units pursuant to this Agreement out of the Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by Sections 4.3(c) and 4.3(e), the Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, AHGP shall instruct the Exchange Agent to mail to each record holder of AHGP Common Units as of the Effective Time (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that in respect of certificated units, delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent, and shall be in customary form and agreed to by AGP and AHGP prior to the Effective Time) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Units in exchange for the AHGP Unitholder Consideration payable in respect of the AHGP Common Units represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Units. Promptly after the Effective Time, upon surrender of Certificates, if any, for cancellation to the Exchange Agent together with such letters of transmittal, properly completed and duly executed, and such other documents (including in respect of Book-Entry Units) as may be required pursuant to such instructions, the holders of AHGP Common Units shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (A) Exchange Units representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of Exchange Units that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Article IV (after taking into account all AHGP Common Units then held by such holder) and (B) a check in the amount equal to the aggregate amount of cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Article IV, including cash payable in lieu of any fractional Exchange Units pursuant to Section 4.3(e) and distributions pursuant to Section 4.3(c). No interest shall be paid or accrued on any AHGP Unitholder Consideration (including any cash amount payable in lieu of any fractional Exchange Units pursuant to Section 4.3(e)) or on any unpaid distributions payable to holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Units. In the event of a transfer of ownership of AHGP Common Units that is not registered in the transfer records of AHGP, the AHGP Unitholder Consideration payable in respect of such AHGP Common Units may be paid to a transferee, if the Certificate representing such AHGP Common Units or evidence of ownership of the Book-Entry Units are presented to the Exchange Agent, and in the case of both certificated and book-entry Common Units, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any amounts required to be withheld, any transfer taxes or other similar taxes required by reason of the delivery of the AHGP Unitholder Consideration in any name other than that of the record holder of such AHGP Common Units, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that any amounts required to be withheld, any transfer taxes or other similar taxes have been paid or are not payable. Until the required documentation has been delivered and Certificates, if any, have been surrendered, as contemplated by this Section 4.3, each Certificate or Book-Entry Unit shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the AHGP Unitholder Consideration payable in respect of the AHGP Common Units and any cash in lieu of fractional units pursuant to Section 4.3(e) and any distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 4.2.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged AHGP Common Units. No distributions declared or made with respect to Exchange Units with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any AHGP Common Units with respect to the Exchange Units that such holder would be entitled to receive in accordance herewith and no cash payment in lieu of fractional Exchange Units shall be paid to any such holder until such holder shall deliver the required documentation and surrender any Certificate as contemplated by this Section 4.3. Subject to applicable Law, following compliance with the requirements of Section 4.3(b), there shall be paid to such holder of the Exchange Units issuable in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) promptly after the time of such compliance, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of fractional Exchange Units to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 4.3(e) and the amount of distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to the Exchange Units and payable with respect to such Exchange Units and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date subsequent to such compliance payable with respect to such Exchange Units.

(d) Further Rights in AHGP Units. The AHGP Unitholder Consideration distributed upon conversion of an AHGP Common Unit in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 4.2, Section 4.3(c) or Section 4.3(e)) shall be deemed to have been distributed in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such AHGP Common Unit.

(e) Fractional Exchange Units. No certificates or scrip of the Exchange Units representing fractional Exchange Units or book-entry credit of the same shall be issued upon the exchange of AHGP Common Units in accordance with Section 4.3(b), and such fractional interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to have any rights as a holder of any Exchange Units. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of AHGP Common Units exchanged in connection with the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of an Exchange Unit (after taking into account all AHGP Common Units exchanged by such holder), shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest, rounded up to the nearest whole cent) in an amount equal to the product of (i) the volume weighted average trading price of the Exchange Units as reported by Bloomberg during the 20 trading day period ending on the third trading day immediately preceding the date on which the Effective Time shall occur and (ii) the fraction of an Exchange Unit that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to this Article IV. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify AHGP, and AHGP shall deposit such amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional interests subject to and in accordance with the terms hereof.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund constituting Exchange Units or cash that remains undistributed to the holders of AHGP Common Units after 180 days following the Effective Time shall be delivered to AHGP upon demand by AHGP and, from and after such delivery, any former holders of AHGP Common Units who have not theretofore complied with this Article IV shall thereafter look only to AHGP for the AHGP Unitholder Consideration payable in respect of such AHGP Common Units, any cash in lieu of fractional Exchange Units to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 4.3(e) and any distributions with respect to the AHGP Common Units to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 4.3(c), in each case, without any interest thereon. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of AHGP Common Units immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any governmental entity shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of AHGP, free and clear of any Liens, claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(g) No Liability. To the fullest extent permitted by Law, neither AGP nor the Surviving Entity shall be liable to any holder of AHGP Common Units for any Exchange Units (or distributions with respect thereto) or cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by AHGP, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as AHGP may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the AHGP Unitholder Consideration payable in respect of the AHGP Common Units represented by such Certificate and any distributions to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 4.2.

(i) Withholding. The Surviving Entity and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of AHGP Common Units such amounts as the Surviving Entity or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax Law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by the Surviving Entity or the Exchange Agent, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of AHGP Common Units in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Entity or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be.

(j) Book Entry and Admission of Holders of Exchange Units as Additional Limited Partners of ARLP. All Exchange Units to be distributed in connection with the Merger shall be distributed in book entry form, without physical certificates. Upon the distribution of Exchange Units to the holders of AHGP Common Units in accordance with this Section 4.3 and the compliance by such holders with the requirements of Section 10.3 of the ARLP Partnership Agreement, MGP shall consent to the admission of such holders as limited partners of ARLP and reflect such admission on the books and records of ARLP.

Section 4.4 Anti-Dilution Provisions. In the event of any subdivisions, reclassifications, recapitalizations, splits, combinations or distributions in the form of equity interests with respect to the AHGP Common Units or the Exchange Units, the number of Exchange Units to be distributed in connection with the Merger and the volume weighted average trading price of the Exchange Units determined in accordance with Section 4.3(e) will be correspondingly adjusted to provide the holders of Exchange Units the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event.

Law or the rules of the NASDAQ, in which case it will consult with the other party before issuing any such press release or written statement.

Section 7.4 New ARLP Common Units Listed. ARLP shall use its reasonable best efforts to list, prior to the Closing, on the NASDAQ, upon official notice of issuance, the New ARLP Common Units to be issued to SGP pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 7.5 Section 16 Matters. Prior to the Effective Time, AHGP and ARLP shall take all reasonable steps to cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and any other dispositions of equity securities of AHGP (including derivative securities) or acquisitions of ARLP Common Units in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, by each individual who (a) is a director or officer of AHGP subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, or (b) on the Closing Date is or will become a director or officer of ARLP subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Section 7.6 Notification of Certain Matters. Each party hereto shall give prompt notice to the other of (a) any fact, event or circumstance known to it that would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein, and (b) any fact, event or circumstance that materially impairs or could reasonably be expected to materially impair its ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or otherwise materially threaten or materially impede the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Distributions and the Contributions.

(a) ARLP agrees that all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Contribution Time existing as of the date of this Agreement in favor of the Indemnitees (as defined in the AHGP Partnership Agreement) as provided in the AHGP Partnership Agreement (or, as applicable, the charter, bylaws, partnership agreement, limited liability company agreement, or other organizational documents of any of AHGP' Subsidiaries) and indemnification agreements of AHGP, AGP or any of their Subsidiaries (the "Indemnitees") shall be assumed by ARLP and MGP in the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, without further action, at the Contribution Time and shall survive the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) For a period of six (6) years from the Contribution Time, the ARLP Partnership Agreement shall contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitations on liability of directors and officers than are set forth in the AHGP Partnership Agreement, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years from the Contribution Time in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the Contribution Time, were Indemnitees, unless such modification shall be required by Law and then only to the minimum extent required by Law.

(c) If any of the ARLP Parties or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges with or into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation, partnership or other entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of ARLP and MGP assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.7.

(d) This Section 7.7 shall survive the consummation of the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Contributions, and is intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, the Indemnitees and their respective heirs and personal representatives, and shall be binding on the ARLP Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 7.8 Certificate for New ARLP Common Units. In connection with the issuance of the New ARLP Common Units to SGP, ARLP shall issue to SGP a certificate representing the number of New ARLP Common Units to be issued to such party pursuant to Section 5.3(a). The certificate evidencing the New ARLP Common Units shall bear a legend substantially in the form set forth below and containing such other information as ARLP may deem necessary or appropriate:

THE UNITS (THE "UNITS") EVIDENCED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND, ACCORDINGLY, MAY NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE. BY ITS ACQUISITION HEREOF, THE HOLDER AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT DISTRIBUTE, OFFER, RESELL, PLEDGE OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER (INDIVIDUALLY AND COLLECTIVELY, A "TRANSFER") THE UNITS EVIDENCED HEREBY, EXCEPT (A) PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR (B) PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT SUCH AS THE EXEMPTION SET FORTH IN RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (IF AVAILABLE). IF THE PROPOSED TRANSFER IS TO BE MADE OTHER THAN PURSUANT TO CLAUSE A ABOVE, THE HOLDER MUST, PRIOR TO SUCH TRANSFER, FURNISH TO THE ISSUER AND THE TRANSFER AGENT SUCH CERTIFICATIONS, LEGAL OPINIONS OR OTHER INFORMATION AS THEY MAY REASONABLY REQUIRE TO CONFIRM THAT SUCH TRANSFER IS BEING MADE PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM, OR IN A TRANSACTION NOT SUBJECT TO, THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT OR ANY STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAW.

No fractional New ARLP Common Units or scrip shall be issued as a result of the transactions contemplated by Section 5.3(a) of this Agreement.

Section 8.2 Governmental Approvals. All filings required to be made prior to the Effective Time with, and all other consents, approvals, permits and authorizations required to be obtained prior to the Effective Time from, any Regulatory Authority in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by the parties hereto or their Affiliates shall have been made or obtained, except where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, permits and authorizations would not be reasonably likely to result in a material and adverse effect on the AHGP Parties and their Subsidiaries, taken as whole, or the ARLP Parties and their Subsidiaries, taken as whole, as applicable.

Section 8.3 No Injunction. No order, decree or injunction of any court or agency of competent jurisdiction shall be in effect, and no Law shall have been enacted or adopted, that enjoins, prohibits or makes illegal consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby, and no action, proceeding or investigation by any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby, including the Distributions and the Contributions, shall be pending that seeks to restrain, enjoin, prohibit or delay consummation of the Merger or such other transaction or to impose any material restrictions or requirements thereon or on ARLP or AHGP with respect thereto; provided, however, that prior to invoking this condition, such party shall have complied fully with its obligations under Section 7.1.

Section 8.4 Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the ARLP Parties. In the case of the AHGP Parties' obligation to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby:

(b) each and all of the agreements and covenants of the ARLP Parties to be performed and complied with pursuant to this Agreement on or prior to the Closing Date shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects; and

(c) AHGP shall have received a certificate signed by an executive officer of the MGP, dated the Closing Date, to the effect set forth in Section 8.4(a) and Section 8.4(b) .

TERMINATION

Section 9.1 Termination. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time whether before or after unitholder approval of this Agreement:

(a) By the mutual consent of the AHGP Parties in a written instrument.

(b) By either AHGP or ARLP upon written notice to the other, if:

(i) the Merger has not been consummated on or before September 30, 2018 (the "Termination Date"); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b) shall not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any material obligation under this Agreement or other material breach of this Agreement has been the primary cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby to have been consummated on or before such date;

(ii) any Regulatory Authority has issued a statute, rule, order, decree or regulation or taken any other action, in each case permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby or making the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby illegal and such statute, rule, order, decree, regulation or other action shall have become final and nonappealable (provided that the terminating party is not then in breach of Section 7.1);

(iii) there has been a material breach of or any material inaccuracy in any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of any of the other parties (treating the ARLP Parties as one party for the purposes of this Section 9.1 and treating the AHGP Parties as one party for the purposes of this Section 9.1), which breach is not cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the terminating party, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Termination Date (provided in any such case that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein); provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(iii) unless the breach of a representation or warranty, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the party receiving such representation not to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under Section 8.4 (in the case of a breach of representation or warranty by the ARLP Parties) or Section 8.5 (in the case of a breach of representation or warranty by the AHGP Parties); or

(iv) there has been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of any of the other parties, which breach has not been cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the terminating party, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Termination Date (provided in any such case that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein); provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(b)(iv) unless the breach of covenants or agreements, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the party receiving the benefit of such covenants or agreements not to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under Section 8.4 (in the case of a breach of covenants or agreements by the ARLP Parties) or Section 8.5 (in the case of a breach of covenants or agreements by the AHGP Parties).

Section 9.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 9.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given by the terminating party to the other parties specifying the provision of this Agreement pursuant to which such termination is made, and except as provided in this Section 9.2, this Agreement (other than Article VIII) shall forthwith become null and void after the expiration of any applicable period following such notice. In the event of such termination, there shall be no liability on the part of any party hereto, except as set forth in Section 10.1 of this Agreement; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve any party from any liability or obligation with respect to any fraud or intentional breach of this Agreement.

(a) Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such costs or expenses, except as otherwise provided in this Section 10.1.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated (i) by ARLP pursuant to Section 9.1(b)(iii) or Section 9.1(b)(iv) or (ii) by the AHGP Parties pursuant to Section 9.1(a), then AHGP shall pay to ARLP the Expenses of the ARLP Parties.

Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any person, other than the parties hereto or their respective successors, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 10.7 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions hereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provision of this Agreement invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction.

Section 10.8 Titles and Headings. The article, section and paragraph headings contained in this Agreement are solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or of any term or provision hereof.

action or proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Process in any such suit, action or proceeding may be served on any party anywhere in the world, whether within or without the jurisdiction of any such court. Without limiting the foregoing, each party agrees that service of process on such party as provided in Section 10.5 shall be deemed effective service of process on such party.

Section 10.10 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 10.11 Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur if any provision of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and, accordingly, that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent any breach of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions hereof in any federal court located in the State of Delaware or in the Delaware Court of Chancery, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Section 10.12 Interpretation; Definitions. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, such reference shall be to a Section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The phrase "beneficial ownership" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act. The phrase "the date of this Agreement," "date hereof" and terms of similar import, unless the context otherwise requires, shall be deemed to refer to February 22, 2018. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all references in this Agreement to "$" are intended to refer to U.S. dollars. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant thereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Any statute defined or referred to herein means such statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a Person are also to its permitted successors and assigns. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement must be construed as if it is drafted by all of the parties hereto, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party hereto by virtue of authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Except as otherwise explicitly provided in this Agreement, all references to MGP shall refer to MGP acting in its capacity as the general partner of ARLP.

Section 10.13 Survival. All representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement shall not survive the Closing or the termination of this Agreement if this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing; provided, however, that if the Closing occurs, the agreements of the parties in Section 4.2, Section 7.7 and Article X shall survive the Closing, and if this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing, the agreements of the parties in Section 9.2, and Article X shall survive such termination.

WHEREAS, as a condition and inducement to AHGP's willingness to enter into the Simplification Agreement and to proceed with the transactions contemplated thereby, AHGP and the Unitholders are entering into this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Unitholders acknowledge that AHGP is entering into the Simplification Agreement in reliance on the representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements of the Unitholders set forth in this Agreement and would not enter into the Simplification Agreement if the Unitholders did not enter into this Agreement.

5. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate upon the earliest of (a) the Effective Time, (b) the termination of the Simplification Agreement in accordance with its terms and (c) the mutual written agreement of the parties to terminate this Agreement (such earliest date being referred to herein as the "Termination Date"); provided that the provisions set forth in Sections 12 to 20 shall survive the termination of this Agreement; provided further that any liability incurred by any party as a result of a breach of a term or condition of this Agreement prior to such termination shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

6. Certain Covenants of the Unitholders. Each Unitholder hereby covenants and agrees as follows, in each case except as otherwise approved in writing by AHGP:

(a) Prior to the Termination Date, and except as contemplated hereby, no Unitholder shall (i) Transfer, or enter into any contract, option, agreement or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the Transfer of any of the Covered Units or Beneficial Ownership or voting power thereof or therein (including by operation of law), (ii) grant any proxies or powers of attorney, deposit any Covered Units into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement with respect to any Covered Units or (iii) knowingly take any action that would make any representation or warranty of any Unitholder contained herein untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing or disabling any Unitholder from performing its obligations under this Agreement; provided that the foregoing shall not include or prohibit pledges or security interests (or the foreclosure thereof) relating to existing or future bona fide loans that do not prevent or disable any Unitholder from performing its obligations under this Agreement. Any Transfer in violation of this provision shall be void.

(b) Prior to the Termination Date, in the event that a Unitholder becomes the Record Holder or acquires Beneficial Ownership of, or the power to vote or direct the voting of, any additional AHGP Common Units or other voting interests with respect to AHGP, such Unitholder will promptly notify AHGP of such AHGP Common Units or voting interests, such AHGP Common Units or voting interests shall, without further action of the parties, be deemed Covered Units and subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and the number of AHGP Common Units held by the Unitholder set forth on Schedule A hereto will be deemed amended accordingly and such AHGP Common Units or voting interests shall automatically become subject to the terms of this Agreement.

7. Transfer Agent. Each Unitholder hereby authorizes AHGP or its counsel to notify AHGP's transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all Covered Units (and that this Agreement places limits on the voting and Transfer of such Covered Units); provided, however, that AHGP or its counsel will further notify AHGP's transfer agent to lift and vacate the stop transfer order with respect to the Covered Units on the earlier of (a) the date on which the written consent of the Unitholder is delivered in accordance with Section 2 and (b) the Termination Date.

8. Unitholder Capacity. This Agreement is being entered into by the Unitholders solely in their capacity as Record Holders or Beneficial Owners of AHGP Common Units, and nothing in this Agreement shall restrict or limit the ability of the Unitholders or any Affiliate or any employee thereof who is a director or officer of AHGP or AGP to take any action in his or her capacity as a director or officer of AHGP or AGP to the extent specifically permitted by the Simplification Agreement.

9. Disclosure. The Unitholders hereby authorize AHGP to publish and disclose in any announcement or disclosure required by the SEC and in the Consent Statement the Unitholder's identity and ownership of the Covered Units and the nature of the Unitholders' obligations under this Agreement.

10. No Ownership Interest. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in AHGP any direct or indirect ownership or incidence of ownership of or with respect to any Covered Units. All rights, ownership and economic benefit relating to the Covered Units shall remain vested in and belong to the Unitholders, and AHGP shall have no authority to direct the Unitholders in the voting or disposition of any of the Covered Units, except as otherwise provided herein.

11. Non Survival of Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the Unitholders contained herein shall not survive the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Simplification Agreement.

12. Amendment and Modification. Subject to the provisions of the applicable Laws, at any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may modify or amend this Agreement, by written agreement of the parties.

13. Waiver. The failure of any party to assert any of its rights hereunder or under applicable Law shall not constitute a waiver of such rights and, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, no single or partial exercise by any party of any of its rights hereunder precludes any other or further exercise of such rights or any other rights hereunder or under applicable Law.

14. Notices. Any notice, request, instruction or other document to be given hereunder by any party to the others shall be in writing and delivered personally or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, by facsimile, email or overnight courier:

16. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any Person other than the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature under or by reason of this Agreement.

17. GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE MADE IN AND IN ALL RESPECTS SHALL BE INTERPRETED, CONSTRUED AND GOVERNED BY AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAW PRINCIPLES THEREOF TO THE EXTENT THAT SUCH PRINCIPLES WOULD DIRECT A MATTER TO ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

18. Assignment; Successors. This Agreement shall not be assignable by operation of law or otherwise; provided, however, that AHGP may assign all or any of its rights and obligations hereunder to any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of AHGP; provided further that no assignment shall limit the assignor's obligations hereunder. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and assigns.
