Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements contained in this communication that refer to New Medtronic's, Medtronic's and/or Covidien's estimated or anticipated synergies, or other non-historical facts are forward-looking statements that reflect Medtronic's and/or Covidien's current trends and information as of the date of this communication. Forward-looking statements generally will be accompanied by words such as "believe," "plan," "could," "should," "estimate," "expect," "forecast," "outlook," "guidance," "intend," "may," "might," "project," or other similar words, phrases or expressions. It is important to note that these goals and expectations are not predictions.

Actual results may differ materially from current expectations depending upon a number of factors affecting New Medtronic's Covidien's business and risks associated with the proposed transactions. These factors include, among others, the inherent uncertainty in financial projections; restructuring in connection with, and successful close of, the Covidien acquisition; subsequent integration of the Covidien business; the ability to recognize the anticipated synergies and benefits of the Covidien acquisition; the risk that the required regulatory approvals for the transactions are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to conditions that are not anticipated; the anticipated size of the market for Medtronic's and Covidien's products; the impact of competitive products and pricing; access to available financing (including the ability to refinance Medtronic or Covidien debt) on a timely basis and on reasonable terms; the risks of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; uncertainties normally incident to the medical device industry, including competition in the medical device industry; product liability claims; predicting the timing or outcome of pending or future litigation or government investigations; variability of trade buying patterns; product launches; the difficulty of predicting the timing or outcome of product development efforts and regulatory agency approvals; the potential for adverse pricing movement; costs and efforts to defend or enforce intellectual property rights; difficulties or delays in manufacturing; interruption in supply; product quality problems; the availability and pricing of third-party sourced products and materials; risks associated with product and commercial insurance; successful compliance with governmental regulations applicable to New Medtronic's, Medtronic's, and/or businesses; changes in the laws and regulations, affecting among other things, pricing and reimbursement of pharmaceuticals; policy changes; risks associated with international operations; changes in tax laws or interpretations that could increase New Medtronic's and Covidien's consolidated tax liabilities, including, if the transaction is consummated, changes in tax laws that would result in New Medtronic's becoming a domestic corporation for United States federal tax purposes; the loss of key senior management or scientific staff; and such other factors as are detailed in Medtronic's periodic public filings with the SEC, including but not limited to Medtronic's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 25, 2014, in Covidien's periodic public filings with the SEC, including but not limited to Covidien's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 27, 2013, and from time to time in Medtronic's and Covidien's other investor communications. Except as expressly stated otherwise, Medtronic and Covidien disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements.
