ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS AND REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

EARNINGS OUTLOOK: On December 21, 2001, Wisconsin Energy Corporation issued a press release announcing that it was lowering its 2001 earnings forecast to a range of $1.90 to $2.00 per diluted share based on the unfavorable impact of mild weather during the fall and early winter of 2001 on the heating revenues of its regulated natural gas and electric businesses. The text of this press release, which is filed as an exhibit to this report, is incorporated herein by reference. Previously in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2001, Wisconsin Energy had projected 2001 earnings in the range of $2.05 to $2.10 per diluted share. The 2001 earnings forecast excludes the impacts of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, non-recurring gains on asset sales and potential fourth quarter charges for the redemption of high coupon bonds and for the write-down of non-utility assets.

In the December 21, 2001 press release noted above, Wisconsin Energy reaffirmed its 2002 earnings projection of $2.20 to $2.40 per diluted share assuming normal weather, appropriate recovery of fuel costs and other risk factors.

CAUTIONARY FACTORS: Some matters discussed in this document, including estimates of future earnings, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are subject to various risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Actual results may vary materially. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to: general economic conditions; business, competitive and regulatory conditions in the deregulating and consolidating energy industry, in general, and in the Company's utility service territories; regulatory decisions; availability of the Company's generating facilities; changes in the cost or supply availability of purchased power, coal or natural gas; the ability to recover fuel and purchased power costs; unusual weather; risks associated with non-utility diversification; obtaining necessary regulatory approvals and investment capital to implement the Company's growth strategy; the timing and extent to which anticipated synergy benefits from the WICOR merger are realized; disposition of legal proceedings; foreign governmental, economic, political and currency risks; continuation of the common stock repurchase plan and the other cautionary factors described in Wisconsin Energy Corporation's latest Form 10-K and subsequent reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
