Item 1. Date, Time and Place Information

Edgar Filing: COATES C ROBERT - Form PRRN14A

(a) Date, Time and Place of Meeting

On or about August 31, 2002, or on such other date, and at such place and time as is fixed by Northfield Laboratories Inc. (the "Company").

Principal Executive Office of the Registrant

Northfield Laboratories Inc.
1560 Sherman Avenue, Suite 1000
Evanston, Illinois 60201-4800

Telephone: (847) 864-3500

(b) Approximate date on which the Proxy Statement and form of Proxy is to be given to security holders:

On or about June 24, 2002.

(c) (1) Deadline for submitting shareholder proposals and form of Proxy for the Registrant's Next Annual Meeting, for inclusion in the Company's Proxy Statement:

The deadline for submitting shareholder proposals and form of Proxy for the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders in 2003 cannot be determined at this time because the Company has not as yet fixed the date for its 2002 Annual Shareholders' Meeting. Under SEC rules and regulations, shareholder proposals for a regularly scheduled annual meeting must be received by the Company's principal executive officers not less than 120 calendar days before the date the company's proxy statement is released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting. If the date of the annual meeting is changed by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's annual meeting, then the deadline is a reasonable time before the company begins to print and mail its proxy materials.

(2) Date after which notice of a shareholder's proposal submitted outside the above process and not included in the Company's Proxy Statement is considered untimely:

The Company's Bylaws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to certain matters, including stockholder proposals not included in its proxy statement, to be brought before any annual meeting of stockholders. In general, notice must be received by the Company's corporate secretary not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, except if less than 70 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to its stockholders, in which event notice by the stockholders to be timely must be received no later than the close of business on the tenth day following the date on which notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or public disclosure was made. The deadline for submitting a shareholder's proposal not included in the Company's Proxy Statement cannot be determined at this time because the Company has not as yet fixed the date for its 2002 Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

Item 2. Revocability of Proxy

Any Proxy executed and returned by a stockholder to Mr. Coates may be revoked at any time thereafter if written notice of revocation is given to Mr. Coates, prior to the vote taken at the meeting, or by execution of a subsequent proxy which is presented to the meeting, or if the stockholder attends the meeting and votes by ballot, except as to matters upon which a vote shall have been cast pursuant to the authority conferred by such Proxy prior to such revocation.

Item 3. Dissenters Right of Appraisal

Not Applicable.

Item 4. Persons Making the Solicitation

This solicitation is made by C. Robert Coates and by Bert R. Williams III. Mr. Coates and Mr. Williams have retained D. F. King & Company Inc. for solicitation and advisory services in connection with this solicitation. Solicitations will be made by use of the mail, formal or informal meetings, and/or by telephone contact with one or more stockholders. The cost of this solicitation will be borne by Mr. Coates. Mr. Coates has spent an estimated $10,000 to date, and estimates that total expenditures will equal approximately $200,000. Bert R. Williams III will not bear any of the expenses of solicitation.

Management Insights, Inc., a Texas Corporation, whose shares are owned by C. Robert Coates and his wife Suzanne Coates, owns 282,000 of the Company's Common Stock. The C. Robert Coates non-profit foundation, of which C. Robert Coates and his wife, Suzanne Coates are the sole Directors, owns 5,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. These entities may also be deemed to be participants making the solicitation, since they are controlled by Mr. Coates, and certain regularly employed employees of Management Insights, Inc., may also assist Mr. Coates in soliciting votes or in administrative or clerical duties.

If Mr. Coates is successful in this solicitation, he will not seek reimbursement from the Company for the costs of solicitation, but will pay for these costs out of his own funds.

Item 5. Interest of Certain Persons in Matters to be Acted Upon

As of May 31, 2002, C. Robert Coates, and his affiliates Management Insights, Inc., and the C. Robert Coates non-profit foundation (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Affiliates"), own beneficially in the aggregate 644,200 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Bert R. Williams III owns 500 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock.

Mr. Coates is seeking to have himself and Mr. Williams elected to fill seats up for election to the Board of Directors at the next Annual or Special Meeting of Shareholders. If successful, Mr. Coates and Mr. Williams will each become a member of the Company's Board of Directors, and each has consented to serve as Director if elected.

Mr. Coates and Mr. Williams are advised that the Company's Directors are compensated $1,000 per meeting, and are reimbursed for their expenses. In addition, non-employee directors receive grants of stock options under the Northfield Laboratories Nonqualified Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors.

Except for the above and other than the aforesaid security holdings in the Company, neither Mr. Coates (nor his Affiliates) nor Mr. Williams has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in the matter(s) to be acted upon for which proxies are solicited. Mr. Coates' and Mr. Williams' present principal occupations and the principal business address of the companies with which each is employed are set out below, as is similar information for Management Insights, Inc.

including, but not limited to joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees against loss or guarantees of profit, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies.

Neither C. Robert Coates, nor his Affiliates, nor Bert R. Williams III has had any transactions of any nature with the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Neither C. Robert Coates nor Bert R. Williams III has had any arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any future employment by the Company or its affiliates or with respect to any future transactions to which the Company or any of its affiliates will or may be a party.

Item 6. Voting Securities and Principal Holders Thereof

The Company reported in its 2001 Proxy Statement dated August 3, 2001, that it had approximately 14,265,875 shares of Common Stock outstanding, each of which was entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the stockholders.

The record date for the Company's year 2002 Annual Shareholders' Meeting and the matters management intends to submit at the Annual Meeting are not known at this time by Mr. Coates, and will not be known until the Company files a Schedule 14A Information Proxy Statement.

Mr. Coates does not have current information as to the security ownership of management or of beneficial ownership of the Company's stock who own more than 5% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

Item 7. Directors & Executive Officers

C. Robert Coates is nominating both himself and Bert R. Williams III as candidates to be elected to fill seats on the Company's Board of Directors which comes up for election at the Company's next Annual (or Special) Stockholders' Meeting.

Mr. Coates met Mr. Williams socially in the spring of 2000, and found that they shared common interests and similar business philosophies. Mr. Coates asked Mr. Williams if he would be interested in joining Mr. Coates in a proxy contest in an effort to be elected to the Northfield Laboratories Inc. Board of Directors. Mr. Williams indicated he would join Mr. Coates in such an effort. They filed a Schedule 14A Proxy Statement in September of 2000 to initiate a proxy solicitation to be elected to the Company's Board of Directors. This proxy solicitation effort was later suspended before any proxies were solicited. This spring the two men met and agreed to again seek seats on the Company's Board of Directors. Aside from their mutual interest to be elected to the Company's Board of Directors, and the social friendship they share, they have no other relationship with one another.

Neither Mr. Coates nor his Affiliates are currently a party to any material proceeding adverse to the Company, or any subsidiary or affiliation, nor do they have any interest, material or otherwise, adverse to the Company.

On June 19, 2000, C. Robert Coates sent a letter to Northfield shareholders which was critical of the Company's management.

On June 22, 2000, C. Robert Coates announced that he had retained Beacon Hill Partners, Inc. as strategic advisor regarding opportunities to improve the shareholder value of Northfield Laboratories.

On August 31, 2000, Mr. Coates announced his intention to file a slate of four candidates to stand for election to the Board of Directors of Northfield Laboratories Inc.

On September 26, 2000, Mr. Coates initiated a proxy contest seeking a seat on the Company's Board of Directors by filing a Schedule 14A Definitive Proxy Statement with the SEC. On that same day, Mr. Coates and Northfield's senior management, Richard E. DeWoskin and Steven A. Gould, M.D. met to discuss ways to enhance the flow of information available to Northfield's shareholders and others in the scientific, business and investment communities. Northfield indicated that it planned to increase significantly the resources devoted to investor relations and to consider additional steps to provide enhanced information to its public investors. In addition, Northfield agreed to explore expanding its board of directors to include one or more additional independent directors with substantial FDA regulatory experience or a background in the pharmaceutical industry. Northfield also provided clarification that shareholders attending the Annual Meeting would be free to ask questions and make statements. Following that meeting, Mr. Coates withdrew his proposed slate of directors and elected not to solicit proxies in connection with the 2000 annual meeting.

On August 3, 2001, Northfield announced that it would host its Annual Meeting on August 31, 2002. For the years 2000, 1999, 1998 and 1997, the meeting dates had been October 12, October 28, September 28 and October 17 respectively.

On August 10, 2001, Mr. Coates filed an action against Northfield and its directors. The suit alleged that the defendants inequitably advanced the 2001 annual meeting from October 11, 2001, the date Northfield had publicly identified as the expected meeting date, to August 31, 2001 for the purposes of preventing Mr. Coates from waging an effective proxy contest.

On August 16, 2001, Northfield announced that it had completed preparation of all of the components of its Biologics License Application (BLA), including collection and analysis of its clinical trial data for PolyHeme. Neither Northfield's August 3, 2001 press release nor its August 3, 2001 Proxy Statement made mention of Northfield's plan to file the BLA.

On August 17, 2001, Mr. Coates withdrew his lawsuit, because he wished to be constructive, not disruptive, to the FDA filing process by Northfield Laboratories.

Mr. Williams is not a party to any material proceeding adverse to the Company, or any subsidiary or affiliations, nor does he have any interest, material or otherwise, adverse to the Company. Neither C. Robert Coates (nor his Affiliates) nor Bert R. Williams III is engaged in any transactions of any kind with the Company or its subsidiaries.

Item 8. Compensation of Directors and Executive Officers

Northfield Laboratories compensates outside directors for their participation at Board of Directors meetings and at committee meetings of the Board of Directors at a rate of $1,000 per meeting. Directors are also reimbursed for their expenses for attending meetings of the Board of Directors and committees. In addition, non-employee directors receive grants of stock options under the Northfield Laboratories Nonqualified Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors.

Item 21. Voting Procedures

According to the Company's Proxy Statement for its 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the following voting procedures apply:

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date (the "Record Date") for the Meeting, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting and any adjournments thereof. Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. Shares of Common Stock may not be voted cumulatively. Mr. Coates does not know if there are other classes of voting securities of the Company outstanding. A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy is required for a quorum.

Shares of Common Stock represented by Proxies, which are properly executed, duly returned and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If no specification is indicated on the Proxy, the shares of Common Stock represented thereby will be voted for the election as Directors of the persons who have been nominated by the Board of Directors. The execution of a Proxy will in no way affect a stockholder's right to attend the meeting and vote in person. Any Proxy executed and returned by a stockholder may be revoked at any time thereafter if written notice of revocation is given to the Secretary of the Company prior to the vote to be taken at the Meeting, or by execution of a subsequent proxy which is presented to the Meeting, or if the stockholder attends the Meeting and votes by ballot, except as to any matters upon which a vote shall have been cast pursuant to the authority conferred by such Proxy prior to such revocation. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum for transacting business at the Meeting, abstentions will be treated as shares that are present but which have not been voted.
