PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On November 5, 2001, the Company announced that it had entered into a settlement agreement that resolved all outstanding litigation with U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee for the holders of the Company's 7-1/2% Senior Convertible Notes due 2003. Under the settlement, Angeion paid the trustee $300,000 and was released from all claims asserted in the complaint. In turn, the trustee was released from all counterclaims asserted by Angeion and agreed to assist the Company and the Note holders in their good faith negotiations to restructure the debt represented by the Senior Notes. The lawsuit had been brought by the trustee in September 1999, and alleged that certain actions by Angeion violated the terms of the Indenture and required prepayment of amounts due under the Indenture. The Company is currently engaged in negotiations with the Note holders to restructure the debt represented by the Notes.

In March 2002, the Company completed a revision of its agreement with INTER_xVENT^{USA}, a Georgia corporation engaged in the business of developing and delivering risk assessment and lifestyle management materials and services to patients for improved cardio-vascular health. The Company modified the agreement so that the previous Company payments of $1,340,000 together with an additional $75,000 will constitute payment for a fully-paid perpetual license to use certain INTER_xVENT^{USA} intellectual property as part of a custom developed private label product that is a web enabled self help lifestyle management program. This product is planned to be an integral part of the New Leaf Personal Exercise System now being introduced to the market.

As a result of continuing discussions with the Note holders, which may result in the restructuring of the Notes and the revised agreement with INTERVENT^{USA}, the Company was unable to complete the Form 10-KSB prior to April 1, 2002 without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company expects to file the Form 10-KSB on or before April 15, 2002.
