Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 12, 2005, SI International, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("SI International"), entered into a definitive Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") by and among SI International, Shenandoah Electronic Intelligence, Inc., a Virginia corporation ("SEI"), The Walter M. Curt Trust, a Virginia trust, The Martha F. Curt Trust, a Virginia trust, Walter M. Curt and Martha F. Curt. The terms of the Agreement provide that SI International will acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of SEI for $75 million in cash. The purchase price is subject to adjustment as a result of certain tax elections. A portion of the purchase price will be held back by SI International in order to secure the post-closing indemnity obligations of the SEI shareholders. The Agreement also provides that the SEI stockholders will retain certain non-operating assets and contingent accounts receivable. The Agreement also contemplates consulting relationships and non-competition arrangements between SI International and the current chief executive officer and indirect majority stockholder of SEI, Walter M. Curt.

The consummation of the acquisition is subject to a number of conditions, including the satisfactory completion of SI International's due diligence investigation, SI International obtaining the approval of its Board of Directors and SI International having obtained the necessary financing for the transaction. There can be no assurances that the acquisition will be consummated.

The January 12, 2005 press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Exhibit No.	Description
99.1	Press Release dated January 12, 2005*

This press release contains various remarks about the future expectations, plans and prospects of SI International, Inc. that constitute forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The actual results of SI International, Inc. may differ materially from those indicated by these forward-looking statements as a result of various risks and uncertainties, including the following risks and uncertainties that relate specifically to the acquisition: (i) the risk that the transaction will not be consummated, including as a result of any of the conditions precedent; (ii) the ability to obtain government approvals required for closing the acquisition; (iii) the risk that the SEI businesses will not be integrated successfully into SI International; (iv) the risk that the expected benefits of the acquisition may not be realized, including the realization of accretive effects from the acquisition; and (v) SI International's increased indebtedness after the acquisition. Other non-acquisition related risks and uncertainties include: differences between authorized amounts and amounts received by SI International under government contracts; government customers' or prime contractor's failure to exercise options under contracts; changes in Federal government (or other applicable) procurement laws, regulations, policies and budgets; SI International's ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; and the important factors discussed in the Risk Factors section of the annual report on Form 10-K/A filed by SI International, Inc. with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available directly from the Commission at www.sec.gov.
