Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 31, 2005, Inverness Medical Innovations, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), completed its previously announced acquisition of Binax, Inc. (Binax). The merger was consummated pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 8, 2005, by and among the Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary thereof, Binax, and two shareholders of Binax. Binax, located in Portland, Maine, is a leading developer, manufacturer and distributor of rapid diagnostic products for infectious disease testing, primarily related to the respiratory system.

The total amount of consideration paid to Binax shareholders by the Company in connection with the merger was approximately 1.42 million shares of the Company's common stock and approximately $8.8 million in cash. The merger agreement also provides that the Company will pay additional consideration of up to $11 million in cash to the Binax shareholders if Binax meets certain new product development performance objectives over five years.

In addition, in connection with the acquisition, the Company has entered into a 5 year agreement to employ Roger Piasio, former President of Binax, as Binax Chief Scientific Officer.
