ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On July 27, 2005, Aaron Rents, Inc. (the Company) entered into a note purchase agreement with affiliates of Prudential Capital Group (Prudential), a private, fixed-income investment business of Prudential Financial, Inc. Pursuant to this agreement, the Company and its two subsidiaries as co-obligors issued $60 million in senior unsecured notes to the purchasers in a private placement. The notes bear interest at the rate of 5.03% per year and mature on July 27, 2012. Interest only payments are due quarterly for the first two years, followed by annual $12 million principal repayments plus interest for the five years thereafter, beginning on July 27, 2008. Affiliates of Prudential were also the purchasers of the Company's $50 million aggregate principal amount of 6.88% senior unsecured notes due 2009 that were previously issued by the Company and its co-obligor subsidiaries in a private placement pursuant to its note purchase agreement dated August 15, 2002. The new note purchase agreement contains financial maintenance covenants, negative covenants regarding the Company's other indebtedness, its guarantees and investments, and other customary covenants substantially similar to the covenants in the Company's existing note purchase agreement, revolving credit facility, loan facility agreement and guaranty and its construction and lease facility, as modified by the amendments described below. The new note purchase agreement and form of senior note is filed as Exhibit 10(ee) to this Report.

Contemporaneously with entering into the new note purchase agreement and issuing the notes, the Company also entered into amendments dated July 27, 2005 to:

its existing note purchase agreement;

its $87 million revolving credit agreement dated May 28, 2004;

its $140 million loan facility agreement and guaranty dated May 28, 2004, as amended, pursuant to which the Company guarantees the borrowings of certain of its independent franchisees; and its $25 million construction and lease facility dated October 31, 2001, as amended, pursuant to which the Company leases properties from a bank holding company that initially purchased and/or constructed such properties at the Company's direction, and for which Company provides a residual value guarantee.

The amendments were entered into for the purpose of permitting the new issuance of the 5.03% senior notes described above, and to generally amend the negative covenants in such agreements to make them less restrictive. As noted above, such covenants are substantially similar to the covenants in the new note purchase agreement. For further information on the Company's existing note purchase agreement, revolving credit agreement, loan facility agreement and guaranty and construction and lease facility, see Notes D and F to the Company's consolidated financial statements appearing in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, Note F to its unaudited consolidated financial statements appearing in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2005, and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Liquidity and Capital Resources and Commitments appearing in such Form 10-Q.

The amendments to these agreements are filed as exhibits to this Report (along with a prior amendment to the existing note purchase agreement).

The foregoing summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the agreements filed as exhibits to this Report. In the event of any conflict between the foregoing summaries and the full text of the agreements, the text of such agreements shall control.
