FOR FUND SHAREHOLDERS

While we encourage you to read the full text of the enclosed Proxy Statement, for your convenience, we have provided a brief overview of the matters to be voted on.

Questions and Answers

Q. What am I being asked to vote FOR in this proxy?

A. You are being asked to vote in favor of election of six directors to the Board of Directors. You are also being asked to approve the continuation of the current advisory agreement. Finally, you are being asked to approve a new advisory agreement with a new adviser who may succeed to the current adviser's business on or about October 1, 2006, upon termination of the Fund's current advisory agreement.

Q. Why am I being asked to vote in favor of election directors to the Board of Directors?

A. The provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or the 1940 Act, require that directors of closed-end funds, like your Fund, are required to be elected annually by the shareholders. The Board of Directors recommends that you vote for the six nominated directors.

Q. Why am I being asked to approve the continuation of the current advisory agreement?

A. The continuation of the current advisory agreement to April 30, 2006 was approved by shareholders of your Fund on May 2, 2005. The current advisory agreement provides that it may be renewed from year to year by (i) the Board of Directors of the Fund or by the vote of a majority (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the outstanding voting securities of your Fund, and (ii) by the vote of a majority of directors who are not interested persons (as defined in the 1940 Act) of your Fund or of the adviser. The continuance of the current advisory agreement through April 30, 2007, or its earlier termination, has been approved by the Board of Directors and by a majority of the independent board members. The Board of Directors recommends your approval of such continuance.

Q. Why am I being asked to approve a new advisory agreement?

Edgar Filing: SOURCE CAPITAL INC /DE/ - Form PRE 14A

A. The key investment professionals and principals of First Pacific Advisors, Inc. (FPA) have founded Resolute, LLC (Resolute), a new investment advisory firm, with the consent of your Fund's current investment adviser, FPA and FPA's parent company, Old Mutual (US) Holdings Inc. In 2004, Resolute entered into an option agreement with Old Mutual (US) Holdings Inc. and FPA pursuant to which Resolute may elect, between July 1, 2006 to August 1, 2006, to purchase various operating assets of FPA, assume the office space of FPA, solicit the employees of FPA to become employees of Resolute, and obtain the right to do business under the name First Pacific Advisors. As well, the agreement permits Resolute to solicit the current advisory clients of FPA, including the Fund, to become clients of Resolute. The key investment professionals and principals have indicated that Resolute intends to exercise the option if the shareholders of one or more of the funds currently managed by FPA, including the Fund, approve new advisory agreements with Resolute. Your Fund's Board of Directors, including a majority of the independent board members, has approved, and recommends that you approve, the new advisory agreement with Resolute. If shareholder approval is obtained and Resolute determines to exercise the option described above, the Board of Directors would intend to terminate the Fund's current advisory agreement with FPA and enter into the new advisory agreement with Resolute, with effect on October 1, 2006. If shareholder approval is not obtained and Resolute determines to exercise the option, the Board of Directors will take such action as it deems to be in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders. Your Fund's Board of Directors, including a majority of the independent board members, has approved, and recommends that you approve the new advisory agreement.

Q. How does the proposed new advisory agreement differ from my Fund's current advisory agreement?

A. The proposed new advisory agreement is identical to your Fund's current advisory agreement. The Proxy Statement more fully describes the proposed new advisory agreement.

Q. Will total fees for advisory and administrative services increase?

A. No. The total fees for advisory and administrative services will remain the same.

Q. Will there be any adviser changes?

A. Upon the approval of the shareholders of your Fund and the consummation of the transaction described in the foregoing, a new investment advisory agreement will be entered into between your Fund and Resolute on or about October 1, 2006. Resolute is owned by the current principals and key investment professionals of your Fund's current adviser, FPA.

Q. How does the Board of Directors suggest I vote in connection with the proposals?

A. After careful consideration, the Board of Directors, including a majority of the independent board members, recommends that you vote FOR the election of the 6 nominees to the Board of Directors; FOR the continuation of the current advisory agreement; and FOR the approval of the new advisory agreement, upon the potential termination of the current advisory agreement.

Q. Will my vote make a difference?

A. Your vote is needed to ensure that the proposals can be acted upon. We encourage all shareholders to participate in the governance of their Fund.

Q. What voting rights do I have?

A. The holders of the Preferred Stock, as a separate class, are entitled to elect two directors, and the holders of Common Stock, as a separate class, are entitled to elect the remaining four directors. The Preferred and Common shareholders will vote together on all other proposals.

Q. Is my Fund paying for preparation, printing and mailing of this proxy?

A. No, all costs borne by your Fund in connection with this proxy solicitation will be reimbursed by Resolute, whether or not the proposals are successful.

Q. Whom do I call if I have questions?

A. If you need any assistance, or have any questions regarding the proposals or how to vote your shares, please call [].

Q. How do I vote my shares?

A. You can vote your shares by attending the meeting, or if you do not expect to attend, by completing and signing the enclosed proxy card, and mailing it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Alternatively, you may vote by telephone by calling the toll-free number on the proxy card or by computer by going to the Internet address provided on the proxy card and following the instructions, using your proxy card as a guide.

It is important that you vote promptly.

1. ELECTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At the Meeting, six directors are to be elected to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The holders of the Preferred Stock, as a separate class, are entitled to elect two directors, and the holders of Common Stock, as a separate class, are entitled to elect the remaining directors. Shares of both classes have cumulative voting rights, which means that, with regard to the election of directors only, each shareholder has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of shares owned multiplied by the number of directors to be elected by that class of stock, and each shareholder may cast the whole number of votes for one candidate or distribute such votes among candidates as such shareholder chooses. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders intend to vote proxies received by them for the six nominees named below, reserving the right, however, to cumulate such votes in each class and distribute them among nominees at the discretion of the proxy holders. The affirmative votes of a majority of the shares of each class present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting are required to elect each director to be elected by that class. The following schedule sets forth certain information regarding each nominee for election as director.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Source Capital, Inc.:

[], 2006

Our Committee has reviewed and discussed with management of the Fund and Deloitte & Touche LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm of the Fund, the audited financial statements of the Fund as of December 31, 2005, and the financial highlights for the year then ended (the Audited Financial Statements). In addition, we have discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters required by Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61 regarding communications with audit committees.

The Committee also has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committee), and we have discussed with that firm its independence from the Fund. We also have discussed with management of the Fund and the independent registered public accounting firm such other matters and received such assurances from them as we deemed appropriate.

Management is responsible for the Fund's internal controls and the financial reporting process. Deloitte & Touche LLP is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Fund's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. The Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

Based on the foregoing review and discussions and a review of the report of Deloitte & Touche LLP with respect to the Audited Financial Statements, and relying thereon, we have recommended to the Fund's Board of Directors the inclusion of the Audited Financial Statements in the Fund's Annual Report to Shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Lawrence J. Sheehan

The Board of Directors has designated the five members identified by footnote (2) to the preceding table as the Nominating Committee. No member is considered an interested person of the Fund within the meaning of the 1940 Act. The Nominating Committee recommends to the full Board of Directors nominees for election as directors of the Fund to fill vacancies on the Board, when and as they occur. While the Nominating Committee expects to be able to identify from its own resources an ample number of qualified candidates, it will review recommendations from shareholders of persons to be considered as nominees to fill future vacancies. The determination of nominees recommended by the Nominating Committee is within the sole discretion of the Nominating Committee and the final selection of nominees is within the sole discretion of the Board. Therefore, no assurance can be given that persons recommended by shareholders will be nominated as directors. The Nominating Committee met [twice] during the last fiscal year.

During 2005, the Board of Directors held five meetings. Each director attended more than 75% of the aggregate of (1) the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and (2) the total number of meetings held by all Committees of the Board on which they served.

The Fund's directors and officers are required to file reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NYSE concerning their ownership and changes in ownership of the Fund's Common and Preferred Stock. Based on its review of such reports, the Fund believes that all filing requirements were met by its directors and officers during 2005.

During 2005, the Fund did not pay any salaries directly to officers but paid an investment advisory fee to FPA as described herein. The following information relates to director compensation. Each director who was not an interested person of FPA was compensated by the Fund at the rate of $20,000 per year plus a fee of $1,250 per day for Board of Directors or Committee meetings attended, and a fee of $500 per day for Special Board of Directors or Committee meetings held via telephone conference. Information Concerning Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors, including a majority of the Directors who are not considered interested persons of the Fund as defined in the 1940 Act (the Independent Board Members) has selected Deloitte & Touche LLP to serve as the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. The employment of such firm is conditioned upon the right of the Fund, by vote of a majority of its outstanding voting securities, to terminate such employment forthwith without any penalty. Deloitte & Touche LLP has served as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Fund since November 11, 2002. Representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP are expected to be present at the Meeting, with the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so, and such representatives are expected to be available to respond to any appropriate questions from shareholders.

Aggregate fees paid to Deloitte & Touche LLP for professional services for the audit of the Fund's 2005 annual financial statements during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Fund's filings on Form N-SAR for that fiscal year, were $30,000.

All Other Fees

Aggregate fees for all other services by Deloitte & Touche LLP to the Fund during the fiscal year were $6,050 in connection with preparation and review of 2005 federal and state tax returns for the Fund.

2. CONTINUATION OF THE CURRENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

Edgar Filing: SOURCE CAPITAL INC /DE/ - Form PRE 14A

FPA, a Massachusetts corporation, maintains its principal office at 11400 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 1200, Los Angeles, California 90064-1550. It provides investment management and advisory services to the Fund pursuant to an investment advisory agreement, dated October 23, 2000 (the "Current Advisory Agreement"), the continuation of which to April 30, 2006 was approved by shareholders of the Fund on May 2, 2005. The Current Advisory Agreement provides that it may be renewed from year to year by (i) the Board of Directors of the Fund or by the vote of a majority (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund, and (ii) by the vote of a majority of Independent Board Members cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval. The continuance of the Current Advisory Agreement through April 30, 2007, or its earlier termination due to the Transaction (as defined below), has been approved by the Board of Directors and by a majority of the Independent Board Members. The Board of Directors recommends approval by shareholders of such continuance.

Under the Current Advisory Agreement, the Fund retains FPA to manage the investment of the Fund's assets, including the placing of orders for the purchase and sale of portfolio securities. FPA agrees to obtain and evaluate economic, statistical, and financial information to formulate and implement the Fund's investment programs. In addition to providing management and investment advisory services, FPA furnishes office space, facilities, and equipment. It also compensates all officers and other personnel of the Fund, except directors who are not affiliated with FPA.

For providing these services, FPA receives a monthly fee equal to 1/12 of the annualized percentage indicated below of total net assets. The annualized percentage is determined by the total net assets of the Fund on the last business day of each month, in accordance with the following table:

0.725% for the first $100 million of total net assets;

0.700% for the next $100 million of total net assets; and

0.675% for the total net assets over $200 million.

This fee is higher than the fee paid by some other investment companies. For 2005, FPA received $[] in advisory fees from the Fund. The Fund's average net assets during the fiscal year were $[]. The total net assets of the Fund were $[] on December 31, 2005.

FPA provides, at its expense, personnel to serve as officers of the Fund and office space, facilities, and equipment for managing the affairs of the Fund. All other expenses incurred in the operation of the Fund are borne by the Fund. Expenses incurred by the Fund include brokerage commissions on portfolio transactions, fees and expenses of directors who are not affiliated with FPA, taxes, transfer agent fees, dividend disbursement and reinvestment and custodian fees, auditing and legal fees, the cost of printing and mailing reports and proxy materials to shareholders, expenses of printing and engraving stock certificates, expense of trade association memberships, and advertising and public relations expenses. No advertising or public relations expenses have been incurred by the Fund except in connection with shareholder relations and shareholder communications.

The Current Advisory Agreement includes a provision for a reduction in the advisory fees payable to FPA in the amount by which certain defined operating expenses of the Fund for any fiscal year exceed 1.5% of the first $30 million of average total net assets of the Fund, plus 1% of the remaining average total net assets. Operating expenses, as defined in the Current Advisory Agreement, exclude interest, taxes, any expenditures for supplemental statistical and research information, any uncapitalized legal expenses relating to specific portfolio securities or any proposed acquisition or disposition thereof, and extraordinary expenses such as those of litigation, merger, reorganization, or recapitalization. All expenditures, including costs incurred in connection with the purchase, holding, or sale of portfolio securities, which are capitalized in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to investment companies, are accounted for as capital items and not as expenses. This expense limitation provision does not require any payment by FPA beyond the return of the advisory fees for a fiscal year.

The Current Advisory Agreement provides that FPA shall have no liability to the Fund or any shareholders of the Fund for any error of judgment, mistake of law or any loss arising out of any investment, or for any other act or omission in the performance by FPA of its duties under the Current Advisory Agreement, except for liability resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith, or negligence on the part of FPA or the reckless disregard of its duties under the Current Advisory Agreement. The Current Advisory Agreement may be terminated without penalty by the Board of Directors or the vote of a majority (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund upon 60 days written notice to FPA or by FPA upon like notice to the Fund. The Current Advisory Agreement will automatically terminate in the event of its assignment, as that term is defined in the 1940 Act.

In determining whether to renew the Current Advisory Agreement, the Independent Board Members met separately to evaluate information provided by FPA in accordance with the 1940 Act and to determine their recommendation to the full Board of Directors. The Board considered a variety of factors, including the quality of advisory, management, and accounting services provided to the Fund, the fees and expenses borne by the Fund, the profitability of FPA, and the investment performance of the Fund, as well as the performance of a peer group of investment companies. The Fund's advisory fee and expense ratio was also considered in light of the advisory fees and expense ratios of a peer group of investment companies. The Board noted the Fund's superior investment results and the quality and depth of FPA and its investment and administrative personnel. The Board also took into consideration the benefits derived by FPA from arrangements under which it receives research services from brokers to whom the Fund's brokerage transactions are allocated, as described below under Portfolio Transactions and Brokerage. Based upon its consideration of these and other relevant factors, the Board concluded that the advisory fees and other expenses paid by the Fund are fair and shareholders have received reasonable value in return for such fees and expenses. Thus, the Board of Directors recommend that shareholders approve the continuance of the Current Advisory Agreement.

Portfolio Transactions and Brokerage

Under the Current Advisory Agreement, FPA makes decisions to buy and sell securities for the Fund, selects broker-dealers, and negotiates commission rates or net prices. In over-the-counter transactions, orders are placed directly with a principal market maker unless it is believed better prices and executions are available elsewhere. Portfolio transactions are effected with broker-dealers selected for their abilities to give prompt execution at prices which are favorable to the Fund. If these primary considerations are met, agency transactions for the Fund are typically placed with brokers which provide brokerage and research services to the Fund or FPA at commission rates considered to be reasonable, although higher than the lowest brokerage rates available. No formula for such allocation exists. The Fund thus bears the cost of such services. While research services may be useful to supplement other available investment information, the receipt thereof does not necessarily reduce the expenses of FPA. The Fund does not pay any mark-up over the market price of securities acquired in principal transactions with dealers. Any solicitation fees which are received by FPA in connection with a tender of portfolio securities of the Fund in acceptance of an exchange or tender offer are applied to reduce the advisory fees payable by the Fund.

The Current Advisory Agreement includes direct authorization for FPA to pay commissions on securities transactions to broker-dealers furnishing research services in an amount higher than the lowest available rate, if FPA determines in good faith that the amount is reasonable in relation to the brokerage and research services provided (as required by Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), viewed in terms of the particular transaction or FPA's overall responsibilities with respect to accounts as to which it exercises investment discretion. The term brokerage and research services is defined to include advice as to the value of securities, the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, the availability of securities or purchasers or sellers of securities, furnishing analyses and reports concerning issuers, industries, securities, economic factors, and trends, portfolio strategy and performance of accounts, and effecting securities transactions and performing functions incidental thereto, such as clearance, settlement, and custody.

FPA also places portfolio transactions for other advisory accounts, including other investment companies. Research services furnished by broker-dealers which effect securities transactions for the Fund may be used by FPA in servicing all of its advisory accounts and not all such research services may be used by FPA in the management of the Fund's portfolio. Conversely, research services furnished by broker-dealers which effect securities transactions for other advisory accounts may be used by FPA in the management of the Fund. In the opinion of FPA, it is not possible to measure separately the benefits from research services to each advisory account. Because the volume and nature of the trading activities of the advisory accounts are not uniform, the amount of commissions in excess of the lowest available rate paid by each advisory account for brokerage and research services will vary. In the opinion of FPA, however, total commissions paid by the Fund are not disproportionate to the benefits received by it on a continuing basis. During 2005, brokerage commissions paid by the Fund totaled $[] of which $[] was paid on transactions having a total value of $[] to broker-dealers selected because of research services provided to FPA.

FPA seeks to allocate portfolio transactions equitably whenever concurrent decisions are made to purchase or sell securities for the Fund and another advisory account. In some cases, this procedure could have an adverse effect on the price or the amount of securities purchased or sold by the Fund. In making such allocations, the main factors considered by FPA are the respective investment objectives, the relative size of portfolio holdings of the same or comparable securities, the availability of cash for investment, the size of investment commitments generally held, and the opinions of the persons responsible for recommending the investment.

Information Concerning FPA

The Current Advisory Agreement permits FPA to render advisory services to others, and FPA also serves as investment adviser to FPA Capital Fund, Inc., FPA New Income, Inc., FPA Paramount Fund, Inc., FPA Perennial Fund, Inc. and FPA Funds Trust s FPA Crescent Fund, open-end investment companies. See Other Information Concerning FPA and Resolute . FPA also advises institutional accounts. FPA had total assets under management of approximately $[] billion at December 31, 2005.

FPA is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Old Mutual (US) Holdings Inc. (formerly known as United Asset Management Corporation) (OMH). OMH is a holding company principally engaged, through affiliated firms, in providing institutional investment management. In September 2000, OMH was acquired by, and subsequently became a wholly owned subsidiary of Old Mutual plc, a United Kingdom-based financial services group with substantial asset management, insurance, and banking businesses. The common stock of Old Mutual plc is listed on the London Stock Exchange. No person is known by Old Mutual plc to own or hold with power to vote 25% or more of the outstanding shares of Old Mutual plc common stock.

The directors and principals of FPA are the following persons: J. Richard Atwood, Chief Operating Officer of FPA; and Robert L. Rodriguez, Chief Executive Officer of FPA. Mr. Rodriguez, 57, serves as director, President and Chief Investment Officer of FPA Capital Fund, Inc. and of FPA New Income, Inc., and as director of Fund Distributors. The principal occupation of Mr. Atwood is described in the preceding table. The business address of Messrs. Atwood and Rodriguez is 11400 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 1200, Los Angeles, California 90064-1550.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote FOR the continuation of the Current Advisory Agreement.

3. APPROVAL OF A NEW ADVISORY AGREEMENT UPON TERMINATION OF THE CURRENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

Edgar Filing: SOURCE CAPITAL INC /DE/ - Form PRE 14A

At the Meeting, you will be asked to approve a new investment advisory agreement (the New Advisory Agreement) between the Fund and a new investment adviser, Resolute, LLC (Resolute), that was founded and is owned by the current principals and key investment professionals of FPA (the Key Principals). Pursuant to the Transaction (described below), Resolute is expected to commence providing advisory services on or about October 1, 2006. The New Advisory Agreement would take effect if and when the Transaction is consummated. A general description of the proposed New Advisory Agreement and a general comparison of the proposed New Advisory Agreement and Current Advisory Agreement are included below. The form of the New Advisory Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

On July 17, 2004, Resolute entered into an option agreement (the Option Agreement) with Old Mutual (US) Holdings Inc. and FPA pursuant to which Resolute may elect, between July 1, 2006 to August 1, 2006, to purchase various operating assets of FPA, assume the office space of FPA, solicit the employees of FPA to become employees of Resolute, and obtain the right to do business under the name First Pacific Advisors (the Transaction). As well, the Option Agreement permits Resolute to solicit the current advisory clients of FPA, including the Fund, to become clients of Resolute. The Transaction contemplated under the Option Agreement would be consummated on or soon after October 1, 2006 (the Closing Date). For additional information regarding the Transaction, please see Other Information Regarding the Option Agreement and Related Transaction below.

If the Transaction is consummated, Resolute would offer advisory services to clients who choose to retain Resolute as their investment adviser with the same internal resources and key personnel as currently provided by FPA. In anticipation of the Transaction, members of the Board met in person on [], 2006 for the purpose of, among other things, considering whether it would be in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders to approve the New Advisory Agreement between the Fund and Resolute. The 1940 Act requires that the New Advisory Agreement be approved by both the Board and by the Fund's shareholders in order for it to become effective. At that Board meeting, and for the reasons described below (see Board Considerations and Recommendation below), the Board, including a majority of the Independent Board Members, approved the New Advisory Agreement for the Fund and recommended its approval by the Fund's shareholders. If shareholder approval is obtained and Resolute determines to exercise the option described above, the Board of Directors would intend to terminate the Current Advisory Agreement and enter into the New Advisory Agreement with Resolute, with effect on the Closing Date.

Simultaneously, the board of every other FPA Fund has considered the terms of the Option Agreement and discussed the Transaction. Following these deliberations, the board of each FPA Fund, including a majority of the Independent Board Members, approved a new advisory agreement with Resolute to be entered into on the Closing Date and recommended its approval by their shareholders.

It is currently expected that if the requisite number of shareholders of one or more FPA Fund vote(s) FOR a new advisory agreement with Resolute, Resolute will exercise its option in July 2006 and the Transaction will be consummated on the Closing Date. In the case that the requisite number of shareholders of every FPA Fund votes AGAINST a new advisory agreement with Resolute, it is expected that Resolute will not exercise its option under the Option Agreement, the Transaction will not be consummated, and FPA will continue to manage the Fund. Finally, in the event the Transaction is consummated without the approval of the New Advisory Agreement by the shareholders of this Fund, it is expected that FPA will no longer serve as the investment adviser to the Fund and the Fund's Board will take such action as it deems to be in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.

New Advisory Agreement

The following description of the New Advisory Agreement is only a summary. You should refer to Exhibit B for the form of New Advisory Agreement, and the description set forth in this Proxy Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit B.

The New Advisory Agreement for the Fund will be dated as of the date of the consummation of the Transaction. It will continue in effect for an initial term of two years and may continue thereafter from year to year if specifically approved at least annually by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund, as defined under the 1940 Act, or by a majority of the Board and the vote of a majority of the Independent Board Members, cast in person at a meeting called for such purpose. The other terms of the New Advisory Agreement are identical to the Current Advisory Agreement, including the services to be provided by Resolute, the allocation of charges and expenses, Resolute's compensation, cost reimbursement, and the expense limitation of Resolute, as described below.

Under the New Advisory Agreement, the Fund retains Resolute to manage the investment of the Fund's assets, including placing orders for the purchase and sale of portfolio securities. Resolute agrees to obtain and evaluate economic, statistical, and financial information to formulate and implement the Fund's investment programs. In addition to providing management and investment advisory services, Resolute furnishes office space, facilities, and equipment. It also compensates all officers and other personnel of the Fund, except directors who are not affiliated with it. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions.

Other than the expenses Resolute specifically assumes under the New Advisory Agreement, the Fund bears all costs of its operation. These costs include the charges and expenses of any custodian or depository appointed by the Fund for the safekeeping of its cash, portfolio securities, and other property; the charges and expenses of auditors; the charges and expenses of any stock transfer or dividend agent or agents appointed by the Fund; brokers' commissions chargeable to the Fund in connection with portfolio securities transactions to which the Fund is a party; all taxes, including issuance and transfer taxes, and corporate fees payable by the Fund to federal, state, or other governmental agencies; the cost of stock certificates representing Fund shares; fees involved in registering and maintaining registrations of the Fund and of Fund shares with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and various states and other jurisdictions; all expenses of shareholders' and Board meetings and of preparing, printing, and mailing proxy statements and semi-annual and annual reports to shareholders; fees and travel expenses of independent Board Members; the expense of furnishing, or causing to be furnished, to all shareholders a statement of account after every transaction affecting their account, including the expense of mailing; charges and expenses of legal counsel in connection with matters relating to the Fund, including, without limitation, legal services rendered in connection with the Fund's corporate and financial structure and relations with its shareholders, issuance of Fund shares, and registrations and qualifications of securities under federal, state, and other laws; association dues; interest payable on Fund borrowings; postage; and reimbursement of Resolute's expenses in providing financial services to the Fund as described below. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions.

For providing these services, Resolute will receive a monthly fee equal to 1/12 of the annualized percentage indicated below of total net assets. The annualized percentage is determined by the total net assets of the Fund on the last business day of each month, in accordance with the following table:

0.725% for the first $100 million of total net assets;

0.700% for the next $100 million of total net assets; and

0.675% for the total net assets over $200 million.

This fee is higher than the fee paid by some other investment companies. For 2005, FPA received $[] in advisory fees from the Fund. The Fund's average net assets during the fiscal year were $[]. The total net assets of the Fund were $[] on December 31, 2005. Had Resolute been the adviser during this period, the advisory fees and the costs incurred in providing financial services to the Fund would have been the same.

The advisory fee and cost of financial services in the New Advisory Agreement are reduced in the amount by which certain defined operating expenses of the Fund (including the advisory fee and cost of financial services) for any fiscal year exceed 1.50% of the first $30 million of average net assets, plus 1% of the remaining average net assets. Such values are calculated at the close of business on the last business day of each calendar month. Any required reduction or refund is computed and paid monthly. Operating expenses (as defined in the Agreement) exclude (a) interest, (b) taxes, (c) brokerage commissions, and (d) any extraordinary expenses, such as litigation, merger, reorganization, or recapitalization, to the extent such extraordinary expenses can be excluded under the rules or policies of the states in which Fund shares are registered for sale. All expenditures, including costs connected with the purchase, retention, or sale of portfolio securities, which are capitalized in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to investment companies, are accounted for as capital items and not as expenses. This expense limitation provision does not require any payment by Resolute beyond the return of the advisory fee and cost of financial services paid to it by the Fund for a fiscal year. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions.

The New Advisory Agreement provides that Resolute does not have any liability to the Fund or any of its shareholders for any error of judgment, any mistake of law or any loss the Fund suffers in connection with matters related to the New Advisory Agreement, except for liability resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith or negligence on the part of Resolute or the reckless disregard of its duties under the New Advisory Agreement. The New Advisory Agreement may be terminated without penalty upon 60 days' written notice at the option of either party or by the vote of the Fund's shareholders. The New Advisory Agreement automatically terminates in the event of an assignment. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions.

Portfolio Transactions and Brokerage

Under the New Advisory Agreement, Resolute will make decisions to buy and sell securities for the Fund, select broker-dealers and negotiate commission rates or net prices. In over-the-counter transactions, orders will be placed directly with a principal market maker, unless Resolute believes better prices and executions are available elsewhere. Portfolio transactions will be effected with broker-dealers selected for their abilities to give prompt execution at prices favorable to the Fund. In selecting broker-dealers and in negotiating commissions, Resolute will consider: the best net price available; each firm's reliability, integrity, and financial condition; the size of and difficulty in executing the order; and the value of the firm's expected contribution to the Fund's investment performance on a continuing basis. Accordingly, the net price to the Fund in any transaction may be less favorable than that available from another broker-dealer if the difference is reasonably justified by other aspects of its services. Subject to policies determined by the Fund's Board of Directors, Resolute shall not be deemed to have acted unlawfully or to have breached any duty created by the New Advisory Agreement or otherwise solely because the Fund paid a broker-dealer providing brokerage and research services commissions for effecting a transaction in excess of the commission another broker-dealer would have charged for the same transaction. Resolute will be required to determine in good faith that such commission was reasonable relative to the value of the brokerage and research services provided, considering either that particular transaction or Resolute's overall responsibilities to the Fund. Resolute will further be authorized to allocate orders it places for the Fund to broker-dealers providing products or services that assist in making investment decisions. Resolute will allocate the amounts and proportions of such costs and regularly reports on such allocations to the Fund's Board of Directors. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions.

The New Advisory Agreement will include direct authorization for Resolute to pay commissions on securities transactions to broker-dealers furnishing research services in an amount higher than the lowest available rate if Resolute determines in good faith that the amount is reasonable in relation to the brokerage and research services provided (as required by Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), viewed in terms of the particular transaction or Resolute's overall responsibilities with respect to accounts as to which it exercises investment discretion. The term brokerage and research services will be defined to include (a) providing advice as to the value of securities, the advisability of investing in, purchasing or selling securities, and the availability of securities or purchasers or sellers of securities; (b) furnishing analyses and reports concerning issuers, industries, securities, economic factors and trends, portfolio strategy, and performance of accounts; and (c) effecting securities transactions and performing functions incidental thereto, such as clearance, settlement, and custody. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions.

Research services furnished by broker-dealers effecting securities transactions for the Fund will be able to be used by Resolute for all advisory accounts pursuant to the New Advisory Agreement. The Current Advisory Agreement contains an identical provision. However, Resolute might not use all such research services in managing the Fund's portfolio. In Resolute's opinion, it will not be possible to measure separately the benefits from research services to the advisory account. Because the volume and nature of the trading activities of advisory accounts are not uniform, the amount of commissions in excess of the lowest available rate paid by the advisory account for brokerage and research services will vary. However, Resolute believes the total commissions the Fund pays will not be disproportionate to the benefits it receives on a continuing basis. The Current Advisory Agreement contains identical provisions and FPA has made identical conclusions.

Resolute will attempt to allocate portfolio transactions equitably whenever concurrent decisions are made to purchase or sell securities for the Fund and another advisory account. In some cases, this procedure could have an adverse effect on the price or amount of securities available to the Fund. The main factors considered in such allocations will be the respective investment objectives, the relative amount of portfolio holdings of the same or comparable securities, the availability of cash for investment, the size of investment commitments generally held, and the opinion of the persons responsible for recommending the investments. FPA makes similar attempts and takes into account similar considerations when operating under the Current Advisory Agreement.

Brokerage commissions paid by the Fund on portfolio transactions for the fiscal year ended [], 2005, totaled $[]. During the last fiscal year, $[] of commissions were paid on transactions having a total value of $[] to brokers selected because of research services provided to FPA. Had Resolute been the adviser during this period, the brokerage commissions paid by the Fund would have been the same.

Other Information Concerning FPA and Resolute

Resolute is a registered investment adviser and is a Delaware limited liability company. Since Resolute is a recently formed company and has no operating history, there can be no assurances that unforeseen events or transactions will not impair the financial ability of Resolute to fulfill its commitment to the Fund under the New Advisory Agreement. The management committee of Resolute is comprised of two Managing Members, J. Richard Atwood and Robert L. Rodriguez (Messrs. Atwood and Rodriguez are currently the sole principals of FPA). Mr. Rodriguez has served as a director, principal, and Chief Executive Officer of FPA for the last five years. Mr. Atwood has served as a director, principal, and Chief Operating Officer of FPA for the last five years. The address of Resolute is 11400 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 1200, Los Angeles, California 90064-1550. No member of Resolute owns more than 25% of its outstanding equity, except for Mr. Rodriguez who owns 30%. The members who own 10% or more of Resolute's outstanding equity are Mr. Atwood, Dennis M. Bryan, Rikard B. Ekstrand, and Steven T. Romick. The members who own less than 10% are Thomas H. Atteberry, Eric S. Ende, and Steven R. Geist.

The Fund paid no brokerage commissions to FPA, Resolute, or any of their affiliates during the Fund's most recently completed fiscal year. There were no other material payments by the Fund to Resolute or any of its affiliates during that period.

Resolute will provide investment advisory services to certain other funds that may have investment objectives and policies similar to those of the Fund. Exhibit C lists other funds to be advised by Resolute, the net assets of those funds and the management fees FPA received from those funds during the fiscal years ended on the dates noted.

Other Information Regarding the Option Agreement and Related Transaction

Under the Option Agreement, Resolute has an option, exercisable from July 1, 2006 to August 1, 2006, to acquire various operating assets of FPA (the Purchased Assets). The Option Agreement also permits Resolute to assume the current office space of FPA and to solicit current FPA employees to become employees of Resolute. Under the Option Agreement, if the option is exercised, the Key Principals are permitted to and would intend to terminate their employment with FPA and simultaneously begin employment with Resolute. Purchased Assets include: all of FPA's tangible assets, including FPA Fund Distributors, Inc. (the Distributor), books and records, telephone and facsimile listings, current and prospective client lists and vendor information, as well as the rights to the name First Pacific Advisors, FPA's website address, and content and other intellectual property of FPA. Beginning on January 1, 2006, the Option Agreement permits Resolute to solicit the current advisory clients of FPA, including your Fund and the other FPA Funds, to become clients of Resolute, although these advisory contracts are not assigned to Resolute. The Transaction contemplated under the Option Agreement would be consummated on the Closing Date. The Option Agreement provides that, if the option is exercised, Resolute will pay a purchase price for the Purchased Assets equal to their fair market value (to be determined by a third party investment banking firm) as of September 30, 2006. Prior to the Closing Date, the Option Agreement requires that the Key Principals manage and operate FPA in accordance with past and prudent business practices and continue to satisfy their fiduciary duties to FPA's clients, including your Fund.

Board Considerations and Recommendation

The New Advisory Agreement has been approved by the Fund's Board of Directors, including all of the Independent Board Members, at a meeting held on [], 2006. In so doing, the Directors acted in what they believe to be in the best interests of the shareholders of the Fund.

To assist the Board in its consideration of the New Advisory Agreement, Resolute and the Key Principals provided materials and information about Resolute, including its financial condition asset management capabilities, and organization, and Resolute and the Key Principals provided materials and information about the Transaction between the Key Principals and OMH. The Independent Board Members, through their independent legal counsel, also requested and received additional information from FPA, Resolute, and the Key Principals in connection with their consideration of the New Advisory Agreement. The additional information was provided in advance of and at the meeting. The Board has been informed that Messrs. Ende and Geist, who currently serve as the portfolio managers for the Fund with day-to-day responsibility for the investment of the Fund's assets, would continue to serve in that capacity. The Board reviewed certain pro forma financial information concerning Resolute, including Resolute's pro forma balance sheet at October [], 2006, which is attached as Exhibit D.

In approving the New Advisory Agreement and recommending that it be approved by the shareholders, the Board has considered:

- (i) The financial resources of Resolute;
- (ii) The potential ability of Resolute to better retain and attract capable personnel to serve the Fund;
- (iii) The nature, quality, and extent of the advisory, management, and accounting services to be performed by Resolute for the Fund;
- (iv) The terms and conditions of the New Advisory Agreement;
- (v) Resolute's express representation to the Board that it would assume any of FPA's liabilities under the Current Advisory Agreement from and after the Closing Date;
- (vi) That the Key Principals and Resolute have advised the Board that following the Transaction, there is not expected to be any diminution in the nature, quality, and extent of services provided to the Fund and its shareholders, including compliance services;
- (vii) The fees and expenses borne by the Fund and the fact that the Fund's total advisory and administrative fees will not increase by virtue of the New Advisory Agreement, but will remain the same;
- (viii) The profitability of FPA and the historic investment performance of the Fund both on an absolute basis and as compared with a peer group of mutual funds;
- (ix) The capabilities, resources, and personnel of Resolute and the costs of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by Resolute and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund and the other FPA Funds;
- (x) That Resolute and the Key Principals would derive benefits from the Transaction and that as a result, they have a financial interest in the matters that were being considered;
- (xi) Resolute's expressed intention to continue the investment operations of the Fund in Los Angeles as the Fund's and the other FPA Funds' adviser under the direction of current management personnel;
- (xii) Comparative data as to advisory fees and expenses with a peer group of mutual funds;
- (xiii) That the Fund would not bear the cost of obtaining shareholder approval of the New Advisory Agreement; and
- (xiv) Such other information and factors as the Directors believe to be relevant.

Certain of these considerations are discussed in more detail below.

The Board of Directors considered Resolute's specific responsibilities in all aspects of day-to-day investment management of the Fund. The Board considered the qualifications, experience and responsibilities of the portfolio managers, as well as the responsibilities of other key personnel at Resolute to be involved in the day-to-day activities of the Fund. The Board also considered the resources and compliance structure of Resolute, including information regarding its proposed compliance program and Resolute's business continuity plan. The Board noted the Key Principals' experience and past compliance with the investment policies and restrictions of the Fund. The Board also considered the prior relationship between the Key Principals and the Fund, as well as the Directors' knowledge of the Key Principals' past operations at FPA. The Board of Directors concluded that Resolute will have the quality and depth of personnel, resources, investment methods, and compliance policies and procedures essential to performing its duties under the New Advisory Agreement and that the nature, overall quality, cost and extent of such management services will be satisfactory and reliable. The Board also took into consideration the benefits to be derived by Resolute from arrangements under which it may receive research services from brokers to whom the Fund's brokerage transactions are allocated as described under Portfolio Transactions and Brokerage.

In evaluating the costs of the services to be provided by Resolute under the New Advisory Agreement and the profitability to Resolute of its relationship with the Fund, the Board considered, among other things, whether advisory and administrative or management fees or other expenses would change as a result of the Transaction. Based on their review of the materials provided and the assurances they had received from the Key Principals and Resolute, the Board determined that the Transaction would not increase the fees payable for advisory and administrative or management services and that overall Fund expenses were not expected to increase as a result of the Transaction. The Board noted that it was not possible to predict how the Transaction would affect Resolute's profitability from its relationship with the Fund and the other FPA Funds, but that they had been satisfied in their most recent review of the Current Advisory Agreement that the adviser's level of profitability from its relationship with the Fund was not excessive. The Board noted that they expect to receive adviser profitability information on an annual basis and thus be in a position to evaluate whether any adjustments in Fund fees would be appropriate.

The Board further considered the extent to which economies of scale may be realized as the Fund grows. Among other factors, the Board considered FPA's current, and Resolute's expected, business operations and expense structures, the level of complexity associated with managing the Fund's assets, FPA's historical allocated costs associated with managing the Fund, and the uncertainties associated with FPA's or Resolute's future costs in managing the Fund. The Board concluded that the New Advisory Agreement and the Current Advisory Agreement both adequately share any available economies of scale with the Fund. The Board also concluded that there would be no further economies of scale to be shared by Resolute from its anticipated business operations at current Fund asset levels and that the Board expects to continue receiving costs and similar information from Resolute to assess whether it may be appropriate in the future to introduce advisory fee or additional breakpoint discounts to enable the Fund's shareholders to benefit from future economies of scale that may be recognized by Resolute in its business operations.

In their deliberations, the Board did not identify any particular information that was all-important or controlling, and each Director attributed different weights to the various factors. The Directors evaluated all information available to them only with respect to this Fund. The Board, including a majority of the Independent Board Members, concluded that the terms of the New Advisory Agreement are fair and reasonable, that the fees stated therein are reasonable in light of the services to be provided to the Fund, and that the New Advisory Agreement should be approved and recommended to Fund shareholders.

Section 15(f) of the 1940 Act

In order to conform with the safe harbor provisions of Section 15(f) of the 1940 Act with respect to the Transaction, Resolute has agreed that it will use its reasonable best efforts (i) for a period of two years after the Transaction, to ensure that there would not be imposed on the Fund an unfair burden (as defined in the 1940 Act) as a result of the Transaction, and (ii) for three years after the Transaction, to ensure that at least 75% of the members of the Board of Directors are not interested persons of Resolute. At the request of the Board, FPA has undertaken to pay, or reimburse the Fund for, all incremental costs or expenses incurred by the Fund in connection with the Transaction. Thus, FPA will pay the costs of this Proxy Statement and of the proxy solicitation.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote FOR a New Advisory Agreement with a new adviser upon termination of the Current Advisory Agreement on or about October 1, 2006.

4. OTHER MATTERS

Edgar Filing: SOURCE CAPITAL INC /DE/ - Form PRE 14A

The proxy holders have no present intention of bringing before the Meeting for action any matters other than those specifically referred to in the foregoing, and in connection with or for the purpose of effecting the same, nor has the management of the Fund any such intention. Neither the proxy holders nor the management of the Fund are aware of any matters which may be presented by others. If any other business shall properly come before the Meeting, the proxy holders intend to vote thereon in accordance with their best judgment.

Voting Requirements

A quorum of shareholders is required to take action at this Annual Meeting of Shareholders. For purposes of this Meeting, a quorum is present to transact business on a proposal if the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund entitled to vote on the proposal are present in person or by proxy. The shares represented by a proxy that is properly executed and returned will be considered to be present at the Meeting even if the proxy is accompanied by instructions from a broker or nominee to withhold authority or is marked with an abstention.

Based on the Fund's interpretation of Delaware law, abstentions on a proposal set forth herein will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Under the rules of the NYSE, brokers who hold shares in street name for customers do not have the authority to vote on Proposal 3 if they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers who hold shares in street name for customers do have the authority to vote on Proposals 1 and 2 if they have not received instructions from beneficial owners.

Approval of Proposals 2 and 3 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund. Under applicable law, the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities means the affirmative vote of the lesser of (a) 67% or more of the voting securities of the Fund that are present at the Meeting or represented by proxy if holders of shares representing more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund are present or represented by proxy or (b) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund.

Approval of the proposals will occur only if a sufficient number of votes at the Meeting are cast FOR that proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered votes cast and, therefore, do not constitute a vote FOR. Abstentions and broker non-votes effectively result in a vote AGAINST and are disregarded in determining whether a proposal has received enough votes.

Shareholder Proposals

Any shareholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in the Fund's proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders should be received by the Secretary of the Fund no later than [], 2006. SOURCE CAPITAL, INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Organization

This Charter governs the operations of the Audit Committee. The Committee shall review and reassess the Charter at least annually and obtain the approval of the Board of Directors. The Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and shall comprise at least three Directors, each of whom is independent of the Adviser and its affiliates and the Company.

Members of the Committee shall be considered independent if they have no relationship that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from the Adviser and the Company. No member shall be an interested person of the Company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (Act). To be considered independent, a member may not, other than in his or her capacity as a member of the Board, the Committee or any other committee of the Board, accept any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Company or the Adviser or any of its affiliates.

All Committee members shall be financially literate, or shall become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment to the Committee. It is expected that, under normal circumstances, the Board will designate at least one qualified member of the Committee as an audit committee financial expert under regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). This designation will not reduce the responsibility of the other Committee members, nor will it increase the designee s duties, obligations or liability as compared to his or her duties, obligations and liability as a member of the Committee and of the Board.

If the Board has not designated a Chair of the Committee, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Committee will hold regular meetings at least twice annually. Special meetings may be called at any time by any member of the Committee or at the request of the Company s independent auditors. The Chair will cause notice of each meeting, together with the agenda and any related materials, to be sent to each member. The presence of a majority of the members will constitute a quorum. The Chair will report the actions taken by the Committee to the Board of Directors and such report shall be included in the minutes of the Board meeting.

Statement of Policy

The Audit Committee shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, the investment community, and others relating to the Company s financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the annual independent audit of the Company s financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs as established by the Adviser and the Board. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Committee to maintain free and open communication between the Committee, the independent auditors and the Adviser of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company. The Committee may retain special counsel and other experts or consultants at the expense of the Company.

Responsibilities and Processes

The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of its activities to the Board. The Adviser is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements on an annual basis. The Committee, in carrying out its responsibilities, believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee should take the appropriate actions to set the overall corporate tone for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior.

The following shall be the principal recurring process of the Audit Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may supplement them as appropriate.

The Committee shall have a clear understanding with the Adviser and the independent auditors that the independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the Audit Committee and the Board as representatives of the Company's shareholders. The Committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to evaluate and, where appropriate, replace the independent auditors. The Committee shall discuss with the auditors their independence from the Adviser and the Company and the matters included in the written disclosures required by the applicable laws, rules and positions, including those of the Securities and Exchange Commission and accounting oversight boards. Annually, the Committee shall review and recommend to the Board the selection of the Company's independent auditors, subject to shareholders' approval, if required.

The Committee shall pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services that the Committee considers compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence. The pre-approval requirement will extend to all non-audit services provided to the Company, the Adviser, and any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the Adviser that provides ongoing services to the Company, if the engagement relates directly to the operations and financial reporting of the Company; provided, however, that an engagement of the Company's independent auditors to perform attest services for the Company, the Adviser or its affiliates required by generally accepted auditing standards to complete the examination of the Company's financial statements (such as an examination conducted in accordance with Statement on Auditing Standards Number 70 issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants), will be deemed pre-approved if: (i) the Company's independent auditors inform the Audit Committee of the engagement, (ii) the Company's independent auditors advise the Audit Committee at least annually that the performance of this engagement will not impair the independent auditor's independence with respect to the Company, and (iii) the Audit Committee receives a copy of the independent auditor's report prepared in connection with such services. The Committee may delegate to one or more Committee members the authority to review and pre-approve audit and permissible non-audit services. Actions taken under any such delegation will be reported to the full Committee at its next meeting.

The Committee shall discuss with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits, including fees and the adequacy of staffing. Also, the Committee shall discuss with the Adviser and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk and legal and ethical compliance programs. Further, the Committee shall meet separately with the independent auditors, without the Adviser present, to discuss the results of their examinations.

The Committee shall review with the Adviser the semiannual financial statements prior to the issuance of the Company's Semiannual Report to Shareholders. The Chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for the purposes of this review.

The Committee shall review with the Adviser and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders, including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the Committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.

The Committee shall review and take any measures it deems appropriate to address any complaints or reports provided to the Company or the Committee related to any Company accounting or auditing matter or any potential violation of law. Also, the Committee shall review and take any measures it deems appropriate to address any complaints or reports provided by employees of the Company's investment adviser or its affiliates concerning any such matters.

AGREEMENT, dated _____, between SOURCE CAPITAL, INC., a Delaware company hereinafter called Source), and RESOLUTE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (hereinafter called the Adviser).

- (a) Office space, furniture, equipment and supplies, which may be the same as occupied or used by the Adviser.

- (f) General purpose accounting forms, supplies, stationery and postage and telephones and utilities relating to the obligations of the Adviser hereunder.

4. EXPENSES OF SOURCE

Except to the extent expressly assumed by the Adviser herein, Source will pay all costs and expenses in connection with its operations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Source shall pay the following costs and expenses:

- (m) Advertising and public relations expenses.

The advisory fee payable hereunder has been negotiated on the understanding, and the parties hereto agree, that the Adviser has received, and shall continue to receive, supplementary research and other information from broker-dealers which execute portfolio transactions for Source.

5. COMPENSATION OF ADVISER

For the services to be rendered and the charges and expenses assumed by the Adviser herein, Source shall pay to the Adviser, in monthly installments, payable as soon as practicable and within five (5) days following the end of each month, a percentage of the total net assets of Source on the last business day of such month, computed as follows:

- (a) The monthly fee shall be 1/12th of the annualized percentage indicated below. The annualized percentage shall be determined by the total net assets of Source determined on the last business day of such month in accordance with the following table.

FEE SCHEDULE - ANNUALIZED PERCENTAGE

0.725% for the first $100 million of total net assets of Source;

0.700% for the next $100 million of total net assets of Source; and

0.675% for total net assets of Source over $200 million.

(b) For the purpose of this Section 5, total net assets shall be determined at the close of business of the New York Stock Exchange on the last business day of each month.

(c) The advisory fee shall be payable for the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the date of termination hereof. If the Agreement is terminated, the fee shall be prorated for any fraction of a month at termination.

The advisory fee payable hereunder shall be reduced by an amount which is equivalent to any solicitation fees received by the Adviser, or any affiliated person of the Adviser, in connection with a tender of portfolio securities of Source in acceptance of an exchange or tender offer. The Adviser shall use its best efforts to recapture any available solicitation fees.

The Adviser also agrees to reduce the fee payable hereunder by the amount by which certain operating expenses of Source (after the exclusions described below and after reflecting any advisory fee reduction provided for in the preceding paragraph) for any fiscal year shall exceed 1 1/2% of the first $30,000,000 of average total net assets, and 1% of the remaining average total net assets, of Source as determined monthly on the last business day of each month. For purposes of this expense limitation provision, the following expenses shall be excluded from total operating expenses in computing certain operating expenses : (i) interest, (ii) taxes, (iii) any expenditures pursuant to Section 6 hereof for brokerage and research services, and (iv) any uncanceled legal expenses of Source relating to specific portfolio securities or to any proposed acquisition or disposition thereof, and (v) any extraordinary expenses, such as those of litigation, merger, reorganization, or recapitalization. All expenditures, including costs incurred in connection with the purchase, holding, or sale of portfolio securities, which are capitalized in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to investment companies, shall be accounted for as capital items and not as expenses. Any accrued advisory fee reduction under this expense limitation provision shall be withheld by Source from the fees paid hereunder. Any additional reduction computed at the end of the fiscal year shall be paid to Source within five days of the computation as a reduction of advisory fees paid during the fiscal year.

6. BROKERAGE AND RESEARCH SERVICES

The advisory fee payable hereunder has been negotiated on the understanding, and the parties hereto agree, that the Adviser has received, and shall continue to receive, supplementary research and other information from brokers and dealers which execute portfolio transactions for Source. The Adviser may employ, retain, or otherwise avail itself of the services or facilities of other persons or organizations for the purpose of providing the Adviser or Source with such statistical and other factual information, such advice regarding economic factors and trends, such advice as to occasional transactions in specific securities or such other information, advice or assistance as the Adviser may deem necessary, appropriate or convenient for the discharge of its obligations hereunder or otherwise helpful to Source, or in the discharge of Adviser's overall responsibilities with respect to any other accounts which it might serve as investment adviser. The Adviser and any person performing executive, administrative or trading functions for Source, whose services were made available to Source by the Adviser, are specifically authorized to allocate brokerage and principal business to firms that provide such services or facilities and to cause Source to pay a member of a securities exchange, or any other securities broker or dealer, an amount of commission for effecting a securities transaction in excess of the amount of commission another member of an exchange, broker or dealer would have charged for effecting that transaction, if the Adviser or such person determines in good faith that such amount of commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services (as such services are defined in Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) provided by such member, broker or dealer, viewed in terms of either that particular transaction or the overall responsibilities of the Adviser with respect to the accounts as to which Adviser exercises investment discretion (as that term is defined in Section 3(a)(35) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934).

7. OTHER ACTIVITIES

The Adviser may perform investment advisory, management or distribution services for other investment companies and other persons or companies, and affiliates of the Adviser may engage in other related or unrelated businesses. Except as otherwise required by the Investment Company Act of 1940, any of the shareholders, directors, officers and employees of Source may be a shareholder, director, officer or employee of, or be otherwise interested in, the Adviser, and in any person controlled by or under common control with the Adviser, and the Adviser, and any person controlled by or under common control with the Adviser, may have an interest in Source.

8. LIABILITY OF ADVISER

Neither the Adviser nor any of its officers, directors or employees, nor any person performing executive, administrative or trading functions for Source whose services were made available to Source by the Adviser, shall be liable for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any loss suffered by Source in connection with the matters to which this Agreement relates, except for loss resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith or negligence in the performance of its or his duties, on behalf of Source or from reckless disregard by the Adviser or any such person of the duties of the Adviser under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither the Adviser nor any such person shall be deemed to have acted unlawfully or to have breached any duty to Source under State or Federal law in effect at the date of the enactment of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 solely by reason of having caused Source to pay a member of any securities exchange or any other securities broker or dealer, an amount of commission for effecting a securities transaction in excess of the commission another member of a securities exchange or another securities broker or dealer would have charged for effecting that transaction if the Adviser or such person determined in good faith that such amount of commission was reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided by such member, broker or dealer, viewed in terms of either that particular transaction or the overall responsibilities of the Adviser with respect to the account as to which the Adviser exercises investment discretion.

9. TERM OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall continue in effect to . It may be continued in effect thereafter by mutual consent, provided that such continuance shall be specifically approved at least annually by (i) the Board of Directors of Source, or by the vote of a majority (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the outstanding voting securities of Source, and (ii) by a majority of directors who are not parties to this Agreement or interested persons (as defined in the 1940 Act) of any such party, cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval.

10. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement may be terminated at any time, without payment of any penalty, by the Board of Directors of Source or by the vote of a majority (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the outstanding voting securities of Source, on sixty (60) days written notice to the Adviser, or by the Adviser on like notice to Source. This Agreement shall automatically terminate in the event of its assignment (as defined in the 1940 Act).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their officers thereunto duly authorized as of the day of year first above written.
