PROXY STATEMENT

Our board of directors is soliciting your proxy with the enclosed proxy card for use at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Tuesday, March 20, 2007 and at any adjournments of the meeting. This proxy statement and accompanying proxy are first being sent or given to shareholders on or about January 25, 2007.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT VOTING

Who can vote. You will be entitled to vote your shares of MAXIMUS common stock at the annual meeting if you were a shareholder of record at the close of business on January 19, 2007. As of that date, 21,663,915 shares of common stock were outstanding and entitled to one vote each at the meeting. You are entitled to one vote on each item voted on at the meeting for each share of common stock that you held on January 19, 2007.

How to vote your shares. You can vote your shares either by attending the annual meeting and voting in person or by voting by proxy. If you choose to vote by proxy, please complete, date, sign and return the enclosed proxy card. The proxies named in the enclosed proxy card (David N. Walker, David R. Hayes and David R. Francis) will vote your shares as you have instructed. You may authorize the proxies to vote your shares in favor of each of the proposals contained in this proxy statement by simply signing and returning the enclosed proxy card without indicating how your votes should be cast.

Even if you expect to attend the meeting, please complete and mail your proxy card in any case in order to assure representation of your shares. If you attend the meeting, you can always revoke your proxy by voting in person. No postage is necessary if the proxy card is mailed in the United States.

Quorum. A quorum of shareholders is required in order to transact business at the annual meeting. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote must be present at the meeting, either in person or by proxy, to constitute a quorum.

Number of votes required. The number of votes required to approve each of the proposals that are scheduled to be presented at the meeting is as follows:

Proposal	Required Vote
• Election of directors	For each nominee, a plurality of the votes cast are for such nominee.
• Ratification of the board's selection of independent public accountants	A majority of the votes cast are for ratification.

Abstentions and broker non-votes. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker cannot vote a customer's shares registered in the broker's name because the customer did not send the broker instructions on how to vote on the matter. If the broker does not have instructions and is barred by law or applicable rules from exercising its discretionary voting authority in the particular matter, then the shares will not be voted on the matter, resulting in a broker non-vote. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not count as votes cast in the election of directors or in the vote on ratifying the board's selection of independent public accountants. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the voting on these matters at the meeting.

Discretionary voting by proxies on other matters. Aside from the election of directors and the ratification of the board's selection of independent public accountants, we do not know of any other proposal that may be presented at the 2007 Annual Meeting. However, if another matter is properly presented at the meeting, the persons named in the accompanying proxy card will exercise their discretion in voting on the matter.

How you may revoke your proxy. You may revoke the authority granted by your executed proxy card at any time before we exercise it by notifying our Corporate Secretary in writing, by executing a new proxy card bearing a later date and delivering the new executed proxy card to our Corporate Secretary, or by voting in person at the annual meeting.

Expenses of solicitation. We will bear all costs of soliciting proxies. We will request that brokers, custodians and fiduciaries forward proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of stock held in their names, for which we will reimburse their out-of-pocket expenses. In addition to solicitations by mail, our directors, officers and regular employees, without additional remuneration, may solicit proxies by telephone and/or personal interviews.

Shareholders sharing the same surname and address. In some cases, shareholders holding their shares in a brokerage or bank account who share the same surname and address and have not given contrary instructions are receiving only one copy of our annual report and proxy statement. This practice is designed to reduce duplicate mailings and save significant printing and postage costs as well as natural resources. If you would like to have additional copies of our annual report and/or proxy statement mailed to you, please call or write us at our principal executive offices, 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190, Attn: Director of Investor Relations, telephone: (800) 368-2152. If you want to receive separate copies of the proxy statement or annual report to shareholders in the future, or if you are receiving multiple copies and would like to receive only one copy per household, you should contact your bank, broker or other nominee record holder.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT AND FIVE PERCENT OWNERS

The following table shows the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned as of January 1, 2007 (unless otherwise indicated), by (i) the only persons known by us to own more than five percent of our outstanding shares of common stock, (ii) our directors and the nominees for director, (iii) the current and former executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table contained in this proxy statement and (iv) all of our current directors and executive officers as a group.

The number of shares beneficially owned by each holder is based upon the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Under SEC rules, beneficial ownership includes any shares over which a person has sole or shared voting or investment power, as well as shares which the person has the right to acquire within 60 days by exercising any stock option or other right and shares of restricted stock that will vest with 60 days. Accordingly, this table includes shares that each person has the right to acquire on or before March 2, 2007. Unless otherwise indicated, to the best of our knowledge, each person has sole investment and voting power (or shares that power with his or her spouse) over the shares in the table. By including in the table shares that he or she might be deemed beneficially to own under SEC rules, a holder does not admit beneficial ownership of those shares for any other purpose.

To compute the percentage ownership of any shareholder or group of shareholders in the following table, the total number of shares deemed outstanding includes 21,652,230 shares that were outstanding on January 1, 2007, plus any shares that holder or group of holders could acquire upon exercising any options held by that holder or group of holders that are exercisable on or before March 2, 2007.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Our directors, our executive officers and anyone owning beneficially more than ten percent of our equity securities are required under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to file with the SEC reports of their ownership and changes of their ownership of our securities. They must also furnish copies of the reports to us. PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

General

The board of directors currently consists of nine directors. Under our charter, the board is divided into three classes, with each class having as nearly equal a number of directors as possible. The term of one class expires, with their successors being subsequently elected to a three-year term, at each annual meeting of shareholders. At the 2007 Annual Meeting, three Class I Directors will be elected to hold office for three years and until their successors are elected and qualified, and one Class III Director will be elected to hold office for two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The board has nominated Paul R. Lederer, Peter B. Pond and James R. Thompson, Jr. for election as Class I Directors and Richard A. Montoni for election as a Class III Director at the upcoming annual meeting. Mr. Lederer, Mr. Pond, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Montoni presently serve as our directors. If you return your proxy card in the enclosed envelope, the persons named in the enclosed proxy card will vote to elect these four nominees unless you mark your proxy card otherwise. The proxy may not be voted for a greater number of nominees than four. Each nominee has consented to being named in this proxy statement and to serve if elected. If for any reason a nominee should become unavailable for election prior to the annual meeting, the proxy may vote for the election of a substitute. We do not presently expect that any of the nominees will be unavailable.

Richard A. Montoni, who was appointed to the board in April 2006, is being presented to shareholders for election for the first time.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the total number of votes cast for or withheld from each of Mr. Lederer, Mr. Pond, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Montoni is required to re-elect each nominee to our board. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered as present for quorum purposes, but will not be counted as votes cast. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the voting of this matter.

Biographical Information

The following table contains biographical information about the nominees and current directors whose terms of office will continue after the 2007 Annual Meeting. Information about the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by each nominee and director, directly or indirectly, as of January 1, 2007, appears above under Security Ownership of Management and Five Percent Owners.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our business and affairs are managed under the direction of the board of directors in accordance with the Virginia Stock Corporation Act and our articles of incorporation and bylaws. Members of the board are kept informed of our business through discussions with the President and Chief Executive Officer and other officers, by reviewing materials provided to them and by participating in meetings of the board and its committees. Our corporate governance practices are summarized below.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The board of directors has adopted Guidelines for Corporate Governance that set forth the practices of the board with respect to management review and responsibility, board composition, selection of directors, operation of the board and meetings, committees of the board, director responsibilities and tenure and evaluation of the board and committees. The Guidelines are available on our Corporate Governance web page at www.maximus.com/corporate/pages/corpgovernance.asp. A printed copy is available, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the company, whose address is MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190.

From time to time, MAXIMUS and its subsidiary agencies may provide services to, and otherwise conduct business with, companies of which certain members of the board or members of their immediate families are or were directors or officers. Consistent with the New York Stock Exchange listing standards, the Guidelines for Corporate Governance establish categorical standards under which the board views the following relationships as impairing a director's independence:

- a director who is currently, or in the past three years has been, employed by the company or by any subsidiary of the company;
- a director who has accepted, or has any family member who has accepted, payments from the company or its affiliates in excess of $100,000 within the current fiscal year or any of the past three fiscal years (except for board services, retirement plan benefits, or non-discretionary compensation);
- a director who has an immediate family member who is, or has been in the past three years, employed by the company or any subsidiary of the company as an executive officer;
- a director who is a partner, controlling shareholder or an executive officer of any for-profit business to which the company made, or from which it received, payments (other than those which arise solely from investments in the company's securities) in the current fiscal year or in any of the last three fiscal years that exceed 2% of consolidated gross revenue for the business, or the company, for that year, or that exceed $1,000,000, whichever is greater;
- a director who is employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the company's executive officers serves on that other company's compensation committee, or such a relationship has existed within the past three years; and
- a director who has been a partner or employee of the company's outside auditor within the past three years.

The board of directors in its business judgment has determined that the following eight members of its Board of Directors are independent as defined by New York Stock Exchange listing standards: Russell A. Beliveau, John J. Haley, Paul R. Lederer, Peter B. Pond, Raymond B. Ruddy, Marilyn R. Seymann, James R. Thompson, Jr. and Wellington E. Webb. None of our independent directors, their immediate family members, or employers, is engaged in relationships with us that the categorical standards cover and, as a result, each independent director meets our categorical standards. In addition, with the exception of Governor Thompson, none of the independent directors has any relationship with us, other than being one of our directors.

Governor Thompson is Senior Chairman of the law firm of Winston & Strawn in Chicago. Winston & Strawn has provided certain specialized legal services to MAXIMUS from May 2000 to the present. In 2006, 2005 and 2004, MAXIMUS paid Winston & Strawn $279,017, $35,191 and $138,050, respectively, for legal and business consulting services. Outside of the scope of the categorical standards, the board of directors examined this relationship from a general facts and circumstances point of view. That is, the board considered the amounts paid to Winston & Strawn in light of all facts and circumstances involving the relationship, both from the company's standpoint and from the standpoint of Winston & Strawn. The board concluded that the company's relationship to Winston & Strawn was not material to any party.

Code of Ethics

We have adopted a code of ethics that applies to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions. That code, our Standards of Business Conduct and Ethics, can be found posted on our Corporate Governance web page at www.maximus.com/corporate/pages/corpgovernance.asp. A printed copy is available, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the company, whose address is MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190.

Board and Committee Meeting Attendance

Our board expects that its members will prepare for, attend and participate in all board and applicable committee meetings. Our board of directors held ten meetings during fiscal 2006. During our 2006 fiscal year, each of our directors attended greater than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of our board of directors and meetings of the committees of the board upon which each served.

Executive Sessions

Edgar Filing: MAXIMUS INC - Form DEF 14A

Executive sessions where non-management directors meet on an informal basis are scheduled either at the beginning or at the end of each regularly scheduled Board meeting. Peter B. Pond, the Chairman of the Board, serves as chairman for executive sessions.

Communications with Directors

Any director may be contacted by writing to him or her c/o MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190. Communications to the non-management directors as a group may be sent to the same address, c/o the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee. We promptly forward such correspondence to the indicated directors.

Committees of the Board

The standing committees of the board of directors are the Audit Committee, the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee assists the board of directors in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee management's conduct of our financial reporting processes and audits of our financial statements. The Audit Committee specifically reviews the financial reports and other financial information provided by the company, our disclosure controls and procedures and internal accounting and financial controls, the internal audit function, the legal compliance and ethics programs, and the annual independent audit process. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter originally adopted by the board on May 16, 2000, as subsequently amended. The Audit Committee's charter, as amended and currently in effect, is available on our Corporate Governance web page at www.maximus.com/corporate/pages/corpgovernance.asp. A printed copy is available, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the company, whose address is MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190.

The members of the Audit Committee are Peter B. Pond (Chair), Paul R. Lederer, Raymond B. Ruddy, Marilyn R. Seymann, and Wellington E. Webb, each of whom is independent as defined by applicable New York Stock Exchange listing standards governing the qualifications of audit committee members in effect on the date of this proxy statement. The board of directors has determined that all of the committee members are financially literate as defined by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards and that Mr. Pond qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by regulations of the SEC.

The Audit Committee held seven meetings during fiscal 2006. For additional information regarding the committee, see Audit Information Report of the Audit Committee below.

Nominating and Governance Committee

The Nominating and Governance Committee is comprised of James R. Thompson, Jr. (Chair), John J. Haley, Paul R. Lederer, Peter B. Pond, Marilyn R. Seymann, and Wellington E. Webb, each of whom is independent as defined by applicable New York Stock Exchange listing standards governing the qualifications of nominating and governance committee members in effect on the date of this proxy statement. The Nominating and Governance Committee operates under a written charter originally adopted by the board on September 23, 2003, as subsequently amended. The Nominating and Governance Committee's charter, as amended and currently in effect, is available on our Corporate Governance web page at www.maximus.com/corporate/pages/corpgovernance.asp. A printed copy is available, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the company, whose address is MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190. The Nominating and Governance Committee did not meet separately from the full board during fiscal 2006. The full board of directors addressed all nominating and governance issues during fiscal 2006.

The purpose of the Nominating and Governance Committee is to identify, evaluate and recommend candidates for membership on the board of directors, to ensure an appropriate structure and process for management succession and to establish and assure the effectiveness of the governance principles of the board and the company. The committee considers, at a minimum, the following qualifications in recommending to the board potential new directors, or the continued service of existing directors:

- personal characteristics, such as highest personal and professional ethics, integrity and values, an inquiring and independent mind, with a respect for the views of others, ability to work well with others and practical wisdom and mature judgment;
- broad, policy-making level training and experience in business, government, academia or science to understand business problems and evaluate and formulate solutions;
- expertise that is useful to the company and complementary to the background and experience of other directors;
- willingness to devote the time necessary to carry out duties and responsibilities of directors and to be an active, objective and constructive participant at meetings of the board and its committees;
- commitment to serve on the board over a period of several years to develop knowledge about the company's principal operations; and
- willingness to represent the best interests of all shareholders and objectively appraise management performance.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider shareholder recommendations for candidates to serve on the board of directors. Shareholders entitled to vote for the election of directors may submit candidates for consideration by the committee if it receives timely written notice, in proper form, for each such recommended director nominee. If the notice is not timely and in proper form, the nominee will not be considered by the committee. To be timely for the 2008 annual meeting, the notice must be received within the time frame set forth in Shareholder Proposals for Our 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders below. To be in proper form, the notice must include each nominee's written consent to be named as a nominee and to serve, if elected, and information about the shareholder making the nomination and the person nominated for election. These requirements are more fully described in Article I, Section 6, of our bylaws, a copy of which will be provided, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the company, whose address is MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190.

Under the process used by us for selecting new board candidates, the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Nominating and Governance Committee or other board members identify the need to add a new board member with specific qualifications or to fill a vacancy on the board. The Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee will initiate a search, working with staff support and seeking input from board members and senior management, hiring a search firm, if necessary, and considering any candidates recommended by shareholders. An initial slate of candidates that will satisfy criteria and otherwise qualify for membership on the board may be presented to the Nominating and Governance Committee. A determination is made as to whether Nominating and Governance Committee members or board members have relationships with preferred candidates and can initiate contacts. The President and Chief Executive Officer and at least one member of the Nominating and Governance Committee interviews prospective candidates. The Nominating and Governance Committee meets to conduct further interviews of prospective candidates, if necessary or appropriate, and to consider and recommend final candidates for approval by the full board of directors.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing, approving, and overseeing the administration of our compensation and benefit programs, and evaluating their effectiveness in supporting our overall business objectives. Specifically, the committee evaluates the performance and sets the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, establishes compensation policies for our directors and consults with the Chief Executive Officer on compensation policies for senior management, and reviews our executive development programs, performance evaluation process and incentive compensation programs. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter originally adopted by the board on September 23, 2003, as subsequently amended. The Compensation Committee's charter, as amended and currently in effect, is available on our Corporate Governance web page at www.maximus.com/corporate/pages/corpgovernance.asp. A printed copy is available, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of the company, whose address is MAXIMUS, Inc., 11419 Sunset Hills Road, Reston, Virginia 20190.

The members of the Compensation Committee are Marilyn R. Seymann (Chair), Russell A. Beliveau, John J. Haley, Paul R. Lederer, Peter B. Pond, Raymond B. Ruddy and James R. Thompson, Jr., each of whom is independent as defined by applicable New York Stock Exchange listing standards governing the qualifications of compensation committee members in effect on the date of this proxy statement.

The Compensation Committee held six meetings during fiscal 2006. For additional information regarding the committee, see Report of the Compensation Committee below.

Annual Meeting Attendance

We encourage members of the board of directors to attend the annual meeting of shareholders. All of our directors attended the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders.

Director Compensation

Directors who are also MAXIMUS employees do not receive additional compensation for their services as directors. Outside directors are paid a $45,000 annual retainer (at least 50% of which must be received in restricted stock units (RSUs)), and a fee of $2,500 for each board and committee meeting in which they participate. Mr. Pond receives an additional $100,000 retainer for his services as Chairman of the Board and an additional $15,000 retainer for his services as Chairman of the Audit Committee. Mr. Ruddy receives an additional $25,000 retainer for his services as Vice Chairman of the Board. Dr. Seymann receives an additional $7,500 retainer for her services as Chair of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Thompson receives an additional $7,500 retainer for his services as the Chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee. Directors who are entitled to directors fees may elect to receive all or a portion of their cash fees in RSUs granted under our 1997 Equity Incentive Plan.

Any director who is not a MAXIMUS employee is also eligible to receive RSUs upon election and re-election to the board. Under the plan, each award consists of 2,000 RSUs for each year of the term of office to which the director is elected or re-elected, with any period of term of office less than a year deemed a full year. All RSUs awarded to directors have a minimum vesting period of three years, although directors may elect longer vesting periods. During fiscal year 2006, the eligible directors were Mr. Beliveau, Mr. Haley, Mr. Lederer, Mr. Pond, Mr. Ruddy, Dr. Seymann, Governor Thompson and Mr. Webb.

Prior to March 21, 2006, we used stock options instead of RSUs as the form of equity-based compensation for the directors' annual retainers and awards. Each RSU represents one share of common stock that is restricted due to a vesting period.

We also permit our directors to participate in the health plan that we offer to our employees, although each director that elects to participate must pay the full cost of his or her own premiums in the plan.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee of our board of directors establishes the cash compensation policies and approves equity awards under the MAXIMUS 1997 Equity Incentive Plan for the company's executive officers. The Committee consists of Mr. Beliveau, Mr. Haley, Mr. Lederer, Mr. Pond, Mr. Ruddy, Dr. Seymann and Governor Thompson. Dr. Seymann serves as Chair of the Committee. The Committee submits this report on compensation policies and actions during fiscal year 2006 with respect to our executive officers, including Mr. Davenport in his capacity as our Chief Executive Officer until April 2006, Mr. Montoni and our four most highly compensated other employees who served as our executive officers during some or all of our 2006 fiscal year. Mr. Montoni served as our Chief Financial Officer until March 2006 and as our Chief Executive Officer since April 2006.

Compensation Philosophy

MAXIMUS is committed to a total compensation program that pays for performance and is competitive with the compensation programs of the companies with which MAXIMUS competes for business and executive talent. As such, our primary goals are to:

- Attract, retain, motivate and reward those executives responsible for delivering financial and strategic results.
- Compensate executives fairly for financial and strategic successes and the enhancement of stockholder value.
- Encourage ownership of MAXIMUS stock so that management's long-term financial interests are closely linked with the long-term interest of MAXIMUS stockholders.

Our market for executive talent is broader than the consulting or government outsourcing sector. As such, we review data from two sources. The first represents several companies that consist of private and public companies representing the information technology, outsourcing, and management consulting industries without regard to company size or market capitalization. The Committee periodically reviews these companies to determine whether they are a representative cross section of the companies with which MAXIMUS competes for executive talent. The second comparator group reflects a cross section of general industry companies adjusted for size of company.

Compensation At Risk

MAXIMUS maintains a compensation program with significant pay at risk. Correspondingly, MAXIMUS also provides its executives a significant upside earnings potential, based on meeting annual financial and non-financial goals and increasing our stock price. As an example, approximately 75% of the current Chief Executive Officer's total target compensation for 2007 is at risk.

Compensation Components

Compensation for MAXIMUS executives consists of three principal elements: base salary, annual cash bonus and long term equity incentives.

Base Salaries. Base salaries are set to attract and retain qualified executives and are targeted around the market median for comparable positions. Changes in base salaries are made after considering relative competitive positions, individual performance, and general salary levels within and outside MAXIMUS.

While he served as Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Montoni received a monthly base salary under the terms of his employment agreement, which was approved by MAXIMUS in 2002, subject to annual review for adjustment. Effective with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer, we entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Montoni, and he receives monthly base salary under the terms of that agreement, which is summarized elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Mr. Caswell received a monthly base salary under the terms of his employment agreement, subject to annual review for adjustment. Mr. Caswell's agreement was approved by MAXIMUS in 2004 and expired on October 1, 2006. None of our other executive officers have employment agreements, and their base salaries were adjusted based on recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer.

Annual Cash Bonuses. Annual cash bonuses provide an opportunity to earn additional cash rewards for business and individual success and are set as a percentage of base pay. The bonus pool is determined by the Company meeting earnings goals. These levels are set at the beginning of each fiscal year and approved by the Board of Directors. The Committee evaluates the Company's performance against those goals and, in its discretion, approves the final amount of the bonus pool. Distributions from the bonus pool are awarded to the individuals based on a combination of business and individual contributions. The Committee retains discretion to approve special payments to individuals or groups of individuals at the business unit or corporate levels who make exceptional contributions to the Company.

Each of our executive officers may receive an annual cash bonus as a significant part of their annual compensation. We awarded Mr. Montoni a bonus of $300,000 effective with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Sullivan received a guaranteed bonus of $100,000 pursuant to the terms of his employment offer letter. A target cash bonus was established for Mr. Montoni and Mr. Caswell by the terms of their employment agreements. Mr. Montoni received a guaranteed bonus of $600,000 pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement. Apart from the guaranteed bonuses, the Committee did not award any bonuses to executive officers for 2006 due to the failure of the Company to meet its earnings goals.

Long-Term Equity Incentives. Long-term equity incentives are provided to MAXIMUS executives in the form of options to purchase common stock and Restricted Stock Units (RSUs). The MAXIMUS long-term equity program is designed to (i) highlight and reinforce the mutual long-term interests between employees and the shareholders, (ii) attract and retain important key executives, managers and individual contributors and (iii) encourage teamwork.

Our stock option grants have relatively long vesting periods. We believe that the retention value of these options and RSUs are maximized, and that our executive officers are provided with an incentive for longer-term success, through long vesting periods. Most of our stock options vest in equal annual installments over four years beginning on the first anniversary of the date of the option grant and must be exercised within six years. If employees leave MAXIMUS before their options are exercisable, the unexercisable portions are forfeited, unless the committee determines other treatment. Beginning in 2005, we reduced the option term from ten to six years for new awards, which results in fewer options outstanding at any given time. The RSUs typically vest in equal installments over six years beginning on the first anniversary of the RSU grant. However, if the company exceeds targeted levels of EPS growth during any fiscal year, then the vesting of an additional installment will occur.

In general, the number of RSUs and shares of common stock underlying the stock options granted to each executive officer reflects the significance of that executive officer's current and anticipated contributions to MAXIMUS, the internal peer group, and the competitive peer group of companies. The target number of shares for each executive will determine the pool of shares available for distribution based on contribution to MAXIMUS and potential for future contributions. The Committee establishes the incentive awards for the chief executive officer. The chief executive officer recommends individual awards for the other executive officers to the Committee, which approves the awards. MAXIMUS expects to continue to apply this philosophy to future grants of its stock options and RSUs. The value that may be realized upon exercise of options depends upon the price of our common stock at the time of exercise and the exercise price of the option.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

Effective April 1, 2005, the Committee fixed Mr. Davenport's base annual salary at $550,000. The Committee set Mr. Davenport's base salary at a level that it believed was consistent with his salary history at MAXIMUS and the criteria for base salaries described above. In addition, using the criteria described above for long-term equity incentives, the Committee awarded Mr. Davenport 19,404 RSUs and options to acquire 53,537 shares of common stock. Because Mr. Davenport's employment terminated in April 2006, there was no annual bonus for fiscal 2006.

On April 21, 2006, we recruited Mr. Montoni to serve as our President and Chief Executive Officer and entered into an employment agreement with him consistent with the terms negotiated. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Montoni receives an annual salary of $600,000. As a term of his employment agreement he also received a cash payment of $300,000 and 112,500 restricted stock units (RSUs), which RSUs vest in three annual installments. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Montoni is eligible to receive an annual cash bonus under our annual bonus program based on his performance and our performance. His targeted bonus is set generally at 70% of his base salary, but, as set forth in his agreement, he received a guaranteed bonus for fiscal year 2006 of $600,000. The Committee is responsible for determining Mr. Montoni's annual bonus after the end of the fiscal year by evaluating MAXIMUS' overall financial performance and his contribution to MAXIMUS performance. In accordance with his employment agreement, Mr. Montoni was awarded a bonus of $600,000.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, enacted in 1993, generally disallows a tax deduction to a public company for compensation over $1 million paid to its chief executive officer and its four other most highly compensated executive officers. If the Committee believes that it is in the best interest of the company, it would exercise discretion in setting compensation above this amount, and it did so in employing Mr. Montoni as President and Chief Executive Officer. None of the other executive officers has received compensation in excess of this threshold amount.

If certain performance-based requirements are met, qualifying compensation will not be subject to this deduction limit. MAXIMUS currently intends to structure its stock options grants to executive officers in a manner that meets these performance-based requirements.

(1) The values in this column are given for illustrative purposes; they do not reflect our estimate or projection of future stock prices. The values are based on an assumption that our common stock's market price will appreciate at the stated rate, compounded annually, from the date of the option grant until the end of the option's term. We based the values on the common stock's last sale price on the business day immediately preceding the date of grant, as reported on the New York Stock Exchange. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises will depend upon the future performance of our common stock's price, which will affect all shareholders proportionately.

(2) The original expiration date of Mr. Davenport's options was January 3, 2012. The termination of Mr. Davenport's employment with the company accelerated the expiration date to July 21, 2006 under the terms of the options.

The following table provides information regarding stock options exercised during our 2006 fiscal year and the value of unexercised stock options held on September 30, 2006 by the two individuals who served as our chief executive officer and our most highly compensated other employees who served as our executive officers during some or all of our 2006 fiscal year.

(1) The values in this column represent the fair market value of the shares acquired upon exercise of options as of the date of exercise, less the exercise price paid to exercise those options.

(2) The values in this column represent the difference between the last reported sales price of the common stock as reported by the New York Stock Exchange on September 30, 2006 ($26.10) and the exercise price of the option, multiplied by the number of shares subject to the option. None of the unexercised stock options held on September 30, 2006 by the two individuals who served as our chief executive officer and our most highly compensated other employees who served as our executive officers were in-the-money at that date.

Executive Employment Agreement

On April 21, 2006, we entered into an Executive Employment, Non-Compete and Confidentiality Agreement with Richard A. Montoni in connection with his recruitment and appointment as our Chief Executive Officer and President, effective April 24, 2006. The employment agreement has a four-year term, provided that it may be terminated (i) upon the mutual written consent of the parties, (ii) in the event of Mr. Montoni's death or inability to perform his duties for a continuous period of 120 days or more or (iii) by us for cause, as defined in the MAXIMUS, Inc. Income Continuity Plan.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Montoni receives an annual salary of $600,000, 112,500 restricted stock units (RSUs) pursuant to the terms of our 1997 Equity Incentive Plan and health, disability and life insurance and other benefits and expense reimbursements consistent with our past practices for similarly situated executives. The RSUs vest in three annual installments on March 31, 2007, March 31, 2008 and March 31, 2009 and provide for accelerated vesting in the event of a change of control (as defined in the Income Continuity Plan). Mr. Montoni also received a cash payment of $300,000 upon signing the employment agreement, but he agreed to repay the signing bonus if his employment is terminated before the earliest of (i) the one-year anniversary of the effective date of the employment agreement, (ii) a change of control or (iii) his death or disability.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Montoni is eligible to receive an annual cash bonus under our annual bonus program based on his performance and our performance. Mr. Montoni's targeted bonus is set at 70% of his base salary, provided that Mr. Montoni's bonus for fiscal year 2006 was $600,000. The employment agreement permitted Mr. Montoni to draw against his 2006 bonus, but he did not do so.

Mr. Montoni became a participant in the Income Continuity Plan and is entitled to participate in stock option or similar plans that currently exist, or that may be established, by us from time to time, provided that we agree to adjust any vested or unvested equity awards in the event that we declare an extraordinary dividend, as defined in the employment agreement.

If Mr. Montoni's employment is terminated in connection with a change of control, he will be entitled to receive payments and benefits under the Income Continuity Plan only. If Mr. Montoni's employment is terminated without cause, or Mr. Montoni terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in the Income Continuity Plan), prior to the expiration of the term of the employment agreement, Mr. Montoni will be entitled to receive the greater of (i) base salary and all benefits described above for the remainder of the term, including the vesting of units and stock options or (ii) the severance benefits specified in the severance guidelines adopted by our compensation committee on March 21, 2006.

The employment agreement subjects Mr. Montoni to confidentiality obligations, and contains certain customary non-compete restrictions on his present and future employment for a period of one year after his termination. We have also agreed to treat Mr. Montoni as remaining in our employment continuously during the period beginning March 18, 2002 through the effective date of the employment agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Income Continuity Plan

On March 21, 2006, we adopted an Income Continuity Program for our employees that the Board of Directors has designated as officers under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The program provides each participant with compensation, benefits and rights if the following events occur:

- We terminate the participant's employment without cause, or a participant resigns for good reason, within 36 months following a change of control (as each of those terms is defined in the program); or
- The participant's employment is terminated one year prior to a change of control at the request of a party involved in such change of control, or otherwise in connection with or in anticipation of a change of control.

The compensation, benefits and rights to which a participant would be entitled in such an event include the following items:

- a lump sum cash payment equal to the sum of (i) any unpaid salary through the date of termination, (ii) any bonus earned but unpaid as of the date of termination for any previously completed year, (iii) reimbursement for any unreimbursed expenses incurred prior to the date of termination, and (iv) an amount equal to 200% (or 300% in the case of the chief executive officer) of his or her salary and bonus (as defined by the program);
- the vesting of any unvested stock options, restricted stock units or similar equity incentives that are outstanding on the date of termination;

- continued eligibility for employee benefits for a period of 24 months (or 36 months in the case of the chief executive officer) following the date of termination;
- a choice of (i) 24 months of executive level outplacement and financial planning services or (ii) a payment of $50,000 in lieu of receiving such services; and
- payments by us to cover certain excise taxes imposed on any severance payments received by the participant, including but not limited to the payments under the program, in connection with a change of control.

The program also provides for the continuation of indemnification and director's and officer's liability insurance coverage as permitted by law and the potential reimbursement of the participant's costs and expenses in connection with any legal proceedings relating to the program.

The term of the program will continue through December 31, 2009, with automatic one-year renewals commencing on December 31, 2009 and each December 31 thereafter, unless we notify participants no later than October 31 of a particular year that we will not extend the program.

The program nevertheless will remain in effect for not less than three years following a change of control.

The lump sum cash payment for each of the named executive officers if his employment was terminated in 2007 following a change in control, would be approximately as follows: Richard A. Montoni, $3,150,000; Robert B. Sullivan, $1,292,500; John F. Boyer, $1,205,500; Bruce L. Caswell, $1,205,000; and Michael Plymack, $1,147,500. Each amount reflects current salary and target bonus and includes an estimated amount for continued employee benefits and outplacement and financial planning services, as described above. The amounts do not include any amounts related to the vesting of stock awards or payments by us to cover certain excise taxes imposed on severance payments.
