On December 18, 2007, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger became effective and Marco was merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. Generally, at the effective time of the Merger, (i) each share of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (other than shares of Common Stock held by stockholders who may properly exercise appraisal rights under Delaware law) was automatically converted into the right to receive $81.00 in cash, without interest, (ii) the separate existence of Marco ceased and (iii) the Company became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Textron.

As a result of the Merger, the registration of the Common Stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, will be terminated upon application to the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Common Stock is no longer listed on any quotation system or exchange, including the NYSE.
