NEW 5/19/09: Glass Lewis Recommends Shareholders Vote For All Four of Target's Director Nominees on White Proxy Card

Target Corporation welcomed the recommendation from leading independent proxy advisory firm, Glass Lewis & Co., that shareholders vote for all four of Target's nominees - Mary N. Dillon, Richard M. Kovacevich, George W. Tamke, and Solomon D. Trujillo - and for the proposal to set the size of the Board at 12 on the WHITE proxy card. Target is very disappointed with RiskMetrics' flawed recommendation, which Target believes does not adhere to RiskMetrics' own previously articulated framework for analyzing proxy fights.

NEW 5/19/09: Open Letter to Shareholders

In an open letter to shareholders, Gregg Steinhafel, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Target Corporation, states, "Target's Board includes a diverse group of leaders, including six new members since 2002, who have been selected in a careful process designed to support the long-term growth of the company. Any attempt to try to separate the Target Board from the continuing success of Target is simply not credible."

NEW 5/19/09: Corporate Governance Expert Supports Target

Pershing Square's agenda at Target is a classic instance of misdirected activism. In Target, Pershing has not targeted an underperforming company. Instead, it's targeted one of the best companies in America," states former Harvard professor and corporate governance expert John Pound in a letter to Gregg Steinhafel, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Target Corporation.

NEW 5/18/09: Largest REIT in North America Supports Target

"We have been following the ongoing discussions between Target and Pershing Square. We believe your approach to your real estate portfolio is the correct one," states Richard S. Sokolov, president and chief operating officer, Simon Property Group, Inc., in a letter to Gregg Steinhafel, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Target Corporation.
