Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 7, 2011, Iron Mountain Incorporated (the Company) confirmed that it has received a Notice of Nomination of Candidates for Election to the Board of Directors and Stockholder Proposal from Elliott Associates, L.P. and Elliott International, L.P. (together, Elliott) pursuant to which Elliott has proposed to nominate four directors to the Company's Board (the Board) at its 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Notice also included a proposal to repeal any amendment to the Company's bylaws adopted by the Company's Board subsequent to March 5, 2010 without the approval of the Company's stockholders (which bylaws have not been amended since March 5, 2010). The Board will evaluate the proposals and will make a recommendation in due course.

While it is the Company's policy not to comment on discussions with stockholders, the Company is disappointed that Elliott has taken this action. Since July 2010, members of Iron Mountain's senior management team and the Company's advisors have held numerous discussions with Elliott and its advisors primarily to review and consider a suggestion by Elliott regarding converting the Company to a real estate investment trust, or REIT.

Following a comprehensive review, the Board, in consultation with its independent financial, legal and tax advisors, unanimously determined that converting to a REIT is not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. In its evaluation, the Board weighed a number of factors, including that the Company owns only 35% of the real estate it uses in its business, that conversion to a REIT would bring with it significant operational complexities and that there are multiple tax hurdles associated with becoming a REIT with uncertain outcomes. The Company communicated the Board's conclusion to Elliott earlier this year.
