Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 23, 2011, Bally Technologies, Inc. (the Company) entered into a new employment agreement (the Agreement) with Mr. Ramesh Srinivasan, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, in connection with his previously disclosed promotion from Executive Vice President, Systems effective March 30, 2011. Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Srinivasan's duties include those contemplated by his titles and such other duties, consistent with his experience and abilities, as the Chief Executive Officer and Board of Directors may assign.

Pursuant to the Agreement, Mr. Srinivasan will receive a salary of $600,000 and will be entitled to participate in the Company's Management Incentive Program (the MIP). Mr. Srinivasan's bonus under the MIP will be earned based upon (i) objectives established by the Board of Directors each year based on earnings per share performance or such other objective measure determined by the Compensation Committee and (ii) personal objectives established by the Compensation Committee. Effective July 1, 2011, the financial metrics part of the MIP will entitle Mr. Srinivasan to receive up to 200% of his base salary for maximum performance, 100% of base salary at target performance and 60% of his base salary at the threshold performance. Mr. Srinivasan is also entitled to other benefits, including life insurance, medical and hospitalization, disability, and retirement benefits, consistent with the benefits provided to the Company's other senior executives. As previously disclosed, Mr. Srinivasan received equity grants on April 6, 2011 pursuant to the Agreement of 36,000 stock options (the Options) and 18,000 shares of restricted stock (the Restricted Stock), each vesting in four equal installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date. The awards are subject to the terms of the Company's 2010 Long Term Incentive Plan. The Company may not materially reduce the foregoing benefits unless Mr. Srinivasan consents, an equitable substitute or alternative benefit is provided or the reduction is part of an across-the-board benefit reduction similarly affecting the Company's other senior executives.

If Mr. Srinivasan is terminated without Cause, as defined in the Agreement, or if Mr. Srinivasan terminates his employment within 60 days of a material diminution of his duties (as determined pursuant to the Agreement), Mr. Srinivasan would continue to receive his then current salary for a period of 18 months following termination. Mr. Srinivasan would also receive, on the date that is 12 months following the date of termination, a lump sum payment equal to 1.5 times the annual bonus under the MIP that Mr. Srinivasan would have earned for the year of termination had he remained employed for the full year based on the Company's actual results for the full fiscal year. Finally, the vesting of a portion of the Restricted Stock would be accelerated such that, taking into account the portion of the Restricted Stock that vested prior to the date of termination, Mr. Srinivasan would be vested in a fraction of the number of shares subject to the award equal to number of full months completed between March 30, 2011 and the date of termination plus 18 (but in no event greater than 48) divided by 48. If the termination without Cause or diminution of duties leading to termination by Mr. Srinivasan occurs within one year following a Change of Control, as defined in the Agreement, in addition to the benefits described above, all of Mr. Srinivasan's equity awards granted prior to the date of the Change of Control would accelerate and vest in full, including the Options and the Restricted Stock. For the avoidance of doubt, if Mr. Srinivasan terminates his employment with 60 days of a material diminution of his duties but remains employed by the Company through the end of a fiscal year (or provides up to 90 days written notice of termination, which 90-day period would run through the end of a fiscal year), Mr. Srinivasan shall be entitled to receive, at the time annual bonuses are paid to other executive officers of the Company, an annual bonus under the MIP for the year of termination based on the Company's actual results for such fiscal year. The Company's obligation to pay any of the foregoing amounts is conditioned in each case upon Mr. Srinivasan's execution of a release of claims and continued compliance with the restrictive covenants set forth in the Agreement.
