Certain U.S. Tax Considerations:	As described in the preliminary prospectus supplement, the issuer believes that it is not a passive foreign investment company (PFIC), and the issuer will use reasonable best efforts to cause it and each of its non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries not to constitute a PFIC. If, contrary to the issuer's expectations, it determines that it is treated as a PFIC for any taxable year, the issuer will provide each U.S. Holder (as defined in the preliminary prospectus supplement) with all necessary information to make a qualified electing fund election. Each U.S. Holder who is considering an investment in the preferred shares should consult its tax advisor as to the effects of the rules regarding such election.

* An explanation of the significance of ratings may be obtained from the rating agencies. Generally, rating agencies base their ratings on such material and information, and such of their own investigations, studies and assumptions, as they deem appropriate. The anticipated ratings of the Series C Non-Cumulative Preferred Shares should be evaluated independently from similar ratings of other securities. A credit rating of a security is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to review, revision, suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.
