Vale informs about public civil action

Rio de Janeiro, February 23, 2016 Vale S.A. (Vale) informs that it was summoned in the public civil action in course before the 3rd Vara Cível da Comarca de Colatina, of the Tribunal de Justiça do Estado do Espírito Santo filed by the Public Ministry of Espírito Santo against Samarco Mineração S.A. (Samarco) and its shareholders, BHP Billiton Brasil Ltda. and Vale, claiming, among others, the injunction for the attachment of assets of the respondents and, in the end, the payment of indemnification for collective moral damages, due to alleged losses arising from the Fundão dam break, owned by Samarco. It was attributed to the cause a value of R$ 2 billion.

Vale will adopt all the necessary measures to defend its rights.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
