Item 4. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT

On October 16, 2002 McGladrey and Pullen, LLP ("McGladrey") resigned as independent certified public accountants for Tiger Telematics, Inc. ("the Company").

McGladrey's report on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 and the period July 3, 2000, date of inception, through December 31, 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not modified as to audit scope or accounting principles; however, the report for the year ended December 2001 contained an explanatory paragraph relating to substantial doubt regarding the uncertainty of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Further, in connection with its audits of the company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 and the period July 3, 2000, date of inception, through December 31, 2000, and the subsequent interim periods immediately preceding the date of McGladrey's resignation, the Company had no disagreements with McGladrey on any matter of accounting principles or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of McGladrey, would have caused them to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with their reports on consolidated financial statements of the Company.

McGladrey has furnished to the Company a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not McGladrey agrees with the statements made by the Company herein. A copy of such letter, dated October 29, 2002, is
