ITEM 8.01 Other Events.

Newtek Business Services Inc. today announced that the agreement between its subsidiary, AMS Payment Services Inc. and Citicorp Payment Services Inc., a subsidiary of Citibank N.A., to market merchant payment processing services to Citibank Financial Center customers in three metropolitan areas has been terminated due to the sale by Citibank of its merchant card processing platform to a third party. The effect of this change on the company's business has already been reflected in the earning guidance for the fourth quarter of 2005 and for 2006 provided to investors and financial analysts.

In addition, Newtek Business Services, Inc. also announced that it had entered into an alliance agreement with three major small and medium-sized business trade organizations in the New York Metropolitan area, the United Restaurants of New York, The Retail Group of New York and The Wholesale Group of New York, with a combined total of about 2,300 member businesses.
