Item 8.01

Other Events.

As previously reported, EACO Corporation (the “Company”) has been involved in litigation with Florida Growth Realty, Inc. (“FGR”). The litigation involves a claim by FGR for a commission resulting from the Company’s sale of all its operating restaurants to Banner Buffets in 2005. The Company has claimed in the litigation that there was no agreement with FGR for a commission and that, at most, FGR should receive a commission based on the value it supplied to the transaction and based on the consideration actually received by the Company: $26 million in cash.

FGR has argued that it was entitled to a 5% commission on the total consideration received by the Company, which includes not only the cash but also a $4 million Banner Buffets promissory note and Banner’s agreement to assume certain liabilities and capitalized leases even though the promissory note was not paid nor were the liabilities and capital leases effectively assumed, as Banner Buffets abandoned the properties and those liabilities and the capital leases remain the Company’s obligations. FGR further argued that it should be entitled to 50% of all consideration in excess of approximately $32 million.

On December 20, 2007, the court entered a final judgment that there was an implied-in-fact agreement under which FGR was entitled to receive 5% of the total consideration including the promissory note, assumed liabilities and capital leases, finding a total purchase price of $37,625,300. The court rejected FGR’s argument that it was entitled to 50% of total consideration in excess of $32 million. With pre-judgment interest, the final judgment is $2,317,667. It will accrue interest at 11% per annum pursuant to Florida law.

The Company disagrees with the final judgment and plans to appeal it.
