PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held
June 3, 2015

INFORMATION ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

General Background

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of ANI Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company” or “ANI”) is providing these proxy materials to the holders of record of the Company’s common stock and class C special stock (together the Company’s “Stockholders”) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Company on behalf of the Board for the Company’s 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”), which will take place at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time on Wednesday, June 3, 2015 and at any adjournment thereof, at the Company’s finance office at 1007 N. Orange Street, Suite 235, Wilmington, Delaware, 19801.

Instead of mailing a printed copy of the Company’s proxy materials, including the Company’s Annual Report, to each Stockholder of record, the Company is providing access to these materials via the Internet. Accordingly, on April 24, 2015, the Company began mailing a Notice Regarding Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (the “Notice”) to all Stockholders of record as of April 6, 2015, and posted its proxy materials on the website referenced in the Notice (www.proxyvote.com). As more fully described in the Notice, all Stockholders may access the proxy materials on the website or may request a printed set of the proxy materials, and also specify how they wish their proxy materials to be delivered in the future, either by mail or e-mail.

Unless otherwise required by the context, references in this proxy statement to the “Company” or “ANI” refer to ANI Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation formed in April 2001, formerly known as BioSante Pharmaceuticals, Inc. The Company’s principal executive offices are located at 210 Main Street West, Baudette, Minnesota 56623, its telephone number is (218) 634-3500, and its website address is www.anipharmaceuticals.com.

Questions and Answers About the Annual Meeting and Voting Rights

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

The Board has made these materials available to you over the Internet or delivered paper copies of these materials to you by mail in connection with the Company's annual meeting of Stockholders, which will take place on Wednesday, June 3, 2015. As a Stockholder, you are invited to attend the Annual Meeting and to vote on the items of business described in this proxy statement. This proxy statement includes information that the Company is required to provide to you under the rules of the SEC and that is designed to assist you in voting your shares.

Q: Why did I receive a notice in the mail regarding the Internet availability of the proxy materials instead of a paper copy of the proxy materials?

The Company is using the SEC rule that allows companies to furnish their proxy materials over the Internet. As a result, the Company is mailing to all Stockholders of record as of April 6, 2015 the Notice about the Internet availability of the proxy materials instead of a paper copy of the proxy materials. All Stockholders receiving the A: Notice will have the ability to access the proxy materials over the Internet and request to receive a paper copy of the proxy materials by mail. Instructions on how to access the proxy materials over the Internet or to request a paper copy may be found in the Notice. In addition, the Notice contains instructions on how you may request to access proxy materials in printed form by mail or electronically on an ongoing basis.

Q: Why didn't I receive a notice in the mail about the Internet availability of the proxy materials?

The Company is providing those Stockholders who have previously requested to receive paper copies of the proxy A: materials with paper copies of the proxy materials instead of the Notice about the Internet availability of the proxy materials.

In addition, the Company is providing the Notice of the Internet availability of the proxy materials by e-mail to those Stockholders who have previously elected delivery of the proxy materials electronically. Those Stockholders should have received an e-mail containing a link to the website where those materials are available and a link to the proxy voting website.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting?

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock and class C special stock at the close of business on April 6, 2015 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of April 6, 2015, 11,386,817 shares of the A: Company's common stock were issued and outstanding and entitled to vote and 10,864 shares of the Company's class C special stock were issued and outstanding and entitled to vote. There is no cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors. Holders of the Company's common stock and class C special stock are entitled to one vote per share on each matter presented at the Annual Meeting.

Q: What is the difference between holding shares as a Stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Company's transfer agent, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust, you are considered, with respect to those shares, the "Stockholder of record." If your shares are held in a stock A: brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee holder of record, you are considered the "beneficial owner" of shares held in "street name." As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee holder of record on how to vote your shares held in your account.

Q: If I am a holder of record of the Company's common stock or class C special stock, how do I vote?

You may vote by proxy over the Internet by visiting the website established for that purpose at www.proxyvote.com or via a toll-free telephone number. Once you access that website, in order to vote your shares, you will be required to provide the login control number contained on your proxy card. After providing this information, you will be prompted to complete an electronic proxy card. Your votes will be indicated on your computer screen and you will be prompted to submit or revise your electronic proxy card as desired. If you received A: a paper copy of a proxy or voting instruction card by mail, you may also submit your proxy or voting instruction card by completing, signing, dating and returning your proxy or voting instruction card in the pre-addressed envelope provided. Alternatively, if you are a Stockholder of record, you may vote in person at the Annual Meeting. You will receive a ballot when you arrive. If you plan to vote in person, please send an e-mail to IR@anipharmaceuticals.com stating your name and your intention to attend ANI's annual meeting, so that entrance to the building can be provided.

Q: If I am a beneficial owner of shares held in street name, how do I vote?

You should receive from your broker, bank or other nominee a voting instruction form that outlines the methods by which you can vote your shares. A number of brokers and banks have arranged for beneficial owners to vote their shares via the Internet or telephone and will provide voting instructions on the voting instruction form. If your A: broker or bank uses Broadridge Financial Solutions, you may vote your shares via the Internet at www.proxyvote.com or by phone by calling the telephone number shown on the voting instruction form received from your broker or bank.

Q: What can I do if I change my mind after I vote my shares?

The Delaware General Corporation Law generally provides that, unless otherwise provided, a stockholder may revoke a proxy previously given at any time prior to its exercise at the Annual Meeting. A Stockholder of the Company who has voted shares by returning a proxy card or by delivering a proxy via the Internet or by phone may revoke it at any time before it is exercised at the Annual Meeting by:

Delivering to any of the persons named as proxies on the proxy card, or addressed to and received by the Company's Investor Relations Department, an instrument revoking the proxy;

Appearing at the Annual Meeting and voting in person and executing a later dated proxy which is exercised at the Annual Meeting; or Casting a later vote via the Internet or telephone.

Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

Q: What are the voting requirements to approve each of the proposals that will be voted on at the Annual Meeting?

A. Proposal

Vote Required

Election of directors (Proposal 1).

The election of each of the directors will be determined by a plurality of the shares of the Company's common stock and class C special stock, voting together as a single class, present at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

Ratification of the appointment of EisnerAmper LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2015 (Proposal 2).

Stockholder ratification of the appointment of EisnerAmper, per Proposal 2, is not required by the Company's bylaws or otherwise. If Stockholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Company's Audit and Finance Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm.

Q: What constitutes a quorum at the Annual Meeting?

A: The presence at the Annual Meeting, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of one-third of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock and class C special stock entitled to vote will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum.

Q: What is a broker non-vote?

A “broker non-vote” occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because that nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

If you do not give voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee within ten days of the Annual Meeting, your broker, bank or other nominee may vote on matters that the New York Stock Exchange determines to be “routine”, but will not be permitted to vote your shares with respect to “non-routine” items. Under NYSE rules (which banks and brokers may be subject to even though the Company’s common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Market), the ratification of the appointment of the Company’s independent auditors is the only routine matter to be addressed at the Annual Meeting. When a broker, bank or other nominee has not received instructions from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote and the nominee cannot vote on a particular matter because it is not routine, then there is a “broker non-vote” on that matter. Broker non-votes do not count as votes “FOR”, “WITHHELD” or “AGAINST” any proposal, as applicable, but will be counted in determining whether there is a quorum for the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, if Stockholders do not direct their brokers or other nominees how to vote in Proposal 1, their brokers or other nominees may not exercise discretion and may not vote their shares on Proposal 1.

Q: What is the effect of a “WITHHOLD ALL” vote in the election of directors, Proposal 1?

Common stock or class C special stock that is represented by valid proxy cards or properly voted via the Internet and that are marked “WITHHOLD ALL” with regard to the election of the nominees for director will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect on the outcome. If no vote is specified on the proxy with respect to Proposal 1, and in the absence of directions to the contrary, the shares will be voted “FOR” the election of the nominees for director named in this proxy statement.

Q: What is the effect of an “ABSTAIN” vote in Proposal 2?

Proxies marked “ABSTAIN” will be counted in determining the total number of shares “entitled to vote” and “votes cast” on each of the proposals being submitted to a vote of Stockholders and will have the effect of a vote “AGAINST” a proposal.

Q: Could other matters be decided at the Annual Meeting?

As of the date of this proxy statement, the Company does not know of any matters to be raised at the Annual Meeting other than those referred to in this proxy statement. If other matters are properly presented at the Annual Meeting for consideration, the proxies designated by the Company will have the discretion to vote on those matters for you.

Q: Who will count the vote?

An officer of the Company or a designee will tabulate the votes of the Company’s common stock and class C special stock and act as inspector of the election.

Q: Who is paying for this proxy solicitation?

The expense of soliciting proxy cards, including the costs of preparing, assembling and mailing the Notice
A: Regarding Internet Availability of Proxy Materials and the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, proxy statement and proxy card, will be borne by the Company.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: If you have additional questions, you should contact:

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Selection of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Audit and Finance Committee of the Company's Board has selected EisnerAmper LLP ("EisnerAmper") to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2015. EisnerAmper has acted as ANIP's independent registered public accounting firm since January 2013 and as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm since June 2013. Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte") acted as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm January 1999 until June 19, 2013. On June 19, 2013, the Audit and Finance Committee of the Company's Board dismissed Deloitte and appointed EisnerAmper as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2013, both with immediate effect.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 and the subsequent interim period, there were no (i) disagreements with Deloitte on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope of procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Deloitte, would have caused Deloitte to make reference to the matter in their report, or (ii) reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. Deloitte's report on the Company's financial statements and the Company's internal control over financial reporting for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 and the subsequent interim period, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted EisnerAmper regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and either a written report was provided to the Company or oral advice was provided that EisnerAmper concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue, or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) or a reportable event (as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K). The Company provided the disclosure required by Item 304 of Regulation S-K to Deloitte. The letter received from Deloitte in response was filed as Exhibit 16.1 to current report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 21, 2013.

Although it is not required to do so, the Audit and Finance Committee of the Company's Board wishes to submit the selection of EisnerAmper to the Company's Stockholders for ratification. If the Company's Stockholders do not ratify the selection of EisnerAmper, another independent registered public accounting firm will be considered by the Audit and Finance Committee. Even if the selection is ratified by the Company's Stockholders, the Audit and Finance Committee in its discretion may change the selection at any time during the year, if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its Stockholders.

The Company expects that a representative or representatives of EisnerAmper will be present at the Annual Meeting to respond to appropriate questions. They also will have an opportunity to make a statement if they wish to do so.

Audit and Finance Committee Report

The Audit and Finance Committee of the ANI Board oversees ANI's accounting and financial reporting processes and the audit of ANI's annual financial statements. ANI's management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements, the reporting process and maintaining ANI's system of internal control over financial reporting. EisnerAmper was engaged to perform an independent audit of ANI's financial statements and express an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

In this context, the Audit and Finance Committee of the ANI Board has reviewed and discussed ANI's audited financial statements prepared for inclusion in ANI's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 with ANI's management. The Audit and Finance Committee of the ANI Board has also discussed with EisnerAmper the matters required to be discussed under applicable rules of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB"). The Audit and Finance Committee has received from EisnerAmper the written disclosures and letter required by applicable rules of the PCAOB regarding EisnerAmper's communications with ANI's Audit and Finance Committee concerning independence and has discussed with EisnerAmper its independence from the Company and management. Relying on these reviews and discussions described above, the Audit and Finance Committee recommended to the ANI Board, and the ANI Board has approved the inclusion of ANI's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014 in ANI's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Company's Board has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Guidelines, together with the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and charters of the Board's committees, provide the framework for the governance of the Company. A copy of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and charters of the Audit and Finance Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, and Compensation Committee can be found on the "Investors — Corporate Governance" section of the Company's corporate website at www.anipharmaceuticals.com. Among the topics addressed in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines are:

- Board size, composition and qualifications;
- Selection of directors;
- Board leadership;
- Board committees;
- Board and committee meetings;
- Conflicts of interest;
- CEO evaluation;
- Board evaluation;
- Director continuing education; and
- Succession planning.

Director Independence

The Company's Board of Directors has determined that three of the six current directors — Fred Holubow, Tracy L. Marshbanks, Ph.D. and Daniel Raynor are "independent directors" under the Listing Rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market. The Listing Rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market provide a non-exclusive list of persons who are not considered independent. For example, under these rules, a director who is, or during the past three years was, employed by the Company or by any parent or subsidiary of the Company, other than prior employment as an interim chairman or chief executive officer, would not be considered independent. No director qualifies as independent unless the Board of Directors of the Company affirmatively determines that the director does not have a material relationship with the listed company that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment. In making an affirmative determination that a director is an "independent director," the Company's Board reviewed and discussed information provided by these individuals and by the Company with regard to each of their business and personal activities as they may relate to the Company and its management.

As the Company previously disclosed in its Current Report on Form 8-K dated April 16, 2015, following the passing of Ross Mangano, who was an independent member of the Board, only three of the six members of the Board meet the independence requirements of the Marketplace Rules (the "NASDAQ Rules") of the NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ"). As a result, a majority of the Board is not currently comprised of directors who meet the independence requirements as set forth in NASDAQ Rule 5605(b)(1), which requires that a NASDAQ-listed company's board of directors consist of a majority of "independent directors" (as defined in NASDAQ Rule 5605(a)(2)).

On April 14, 2015, in accordance with the NASDAQ Rules, the Company contacted NASDAQ to notify NASDAQ of Mr. Mangano's passing and the resulting non-compliance with NASDAQ Rule 5605(b)(1). On April 15, 2015, the Company received a notice from NASDAQ acknowledging the fact that the Company does not meet the requirements of NASDAQ Rule 5605(b)(1) and confirming that, in accordance with NASDAQ Rule 5605(b)(1)(A), NASDAQ is providing the Company a cure period in order to regain compliance as follows:

- until the earlier of the Company's next annual shareholders' meeting or April 13, 2016; or
- if the next annual shareholders' meeting is held before October 12, 2015, then the Company must evidence compliance with NASDAQ Rule 5605(b)(1) no later than October 12, 2015.

Prior to the end of the cure period described above, the Board intends to regain compliance by appointing an additional director who is an "independent director" in accordance with the criteria set forth in NASDAQ Rule 5605(a)(2).

Board Leadership Structure

The Company's Board believes that its Stockholders are best served if the Board retains the flexibility to adapt its leadership structure to applicable facts and circumstances, which necessarily change over time. Accordingly, under the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the office of Chair of the Board and Chief Executive Officer may or may not be held by the same person. Currently, the Chair of the Board is Robert E. Brown, Jr., and the Company's Chief Executive Officer is Arthur S. Przybyl.

The Company currently does not have a lead independent director. The Board may in the future determine to appoint a member to act as lead independent director.

Meetings

During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Board held 10 meetings, the Audit and Finance Committee held five meetings, the Compensation Committee held three meetings and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held one meeting. During the year, all of the directors of the Board attended all Board meetings and each of the members of the committees attended all meetings of all committees of which such director is a member. The Company encourages its directors to attend the Company's annual meeting of Stockholders, if their schedules permit.

Committees of the Board

The Board has three standing committees: the Audit and Finance Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. All of the members of each of these committees are independent. The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that the Board may establish and maintain other committees from time to time, as it deems necessary and appropriate. The following table provides a summary of the membership of the Board and each of its standing committees as of April 1, 2015:

Employment Agreements and Termination of Employment

Certain of the Company's executive officers have employment agreements with the Company, as summarized below. The cash and equity incentive compensation that is paid to the Company's executive officers is subject to the discretion of the Board of Directors, however, and generally is determined on an annual basis. See "2015 Executive Compensation Determinations" below.

Arthur S. Przybyl

Mr. Przybyl serves as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and prior to the Merger served as ANIP's Chief Executive Officer. In February 2009, ANIP entered into an employment letter agreement with Mr. Przybyl commencing on March 9, 2009. The employment agreement continued in effect following the Merger. The term of the agreement is open-ended; therefore, Mr. Przybyl is free to resign for any reason or for no reason and the Company is free to conclude the at-will employment relationship with Mr. Przybyl at any time, with or without cause, subject to certain severance provisions described below.

Under the agreement, Mr. Przybyl's original annual base salary was $325,000, subject to a 10 percent increase on the first anniversary of the letter agreement if ANI achieved positive EBITDA during the first year of the letter agreement or other changes as the Compensation Committee and the Board determined in their discretion. In addition to his salary, Mr. Przybyl's agreement provides him with an automobile allowance of $10,000 per year, payable in equal monthly installments. Mr. Przybyl is also eligible for an annual cash bonus, the target of which is up to 60 percent of his base salary, based on the achievement of certain individual and corporate objectives, as determined by the Board. On February 17, 2015, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board awarded Mr. Przybyl a 2014 cash bonus of 90 percent of his 2014 base salary.

The employment agreement also specified that Mr. Przybyl was entitled to a one-time bonus upon a sale of ANIP; however, Mr. Przybyl forfeited this one-time bonus in connection with the execution of the transaction bonus agreement described above and reflected in the Summary Compensation Table.

Under the terms of the employment agreement, if Mr. Przybyl is terminated by the Company other than for cause, upon the receipt from him of a release in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, he is entitled to receive, in addition to unpaid salary and expenses and payment of accrued incentive compensation amounts, (i) an amount equal to his base salary for a period of 12 months, which amount may be paid, at the Company's election, either in a lump sum or by salary continuation, and a prorated portion of his targeted annual bonus to the extent that the corresponding objectives are achieved prior to the termination of employment and (ii) amounts or reimbursements for the premiums to continue health insurance coverage as in effect at the time of the termination of employment for a period of 12 months under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA").

The Board, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, set Mr. Przybyl's 2015 base salary at $572,000. On April 16, 2015, Mr. Przybyl was granted options to purchase 30,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $68.71 per share, the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. The options vest in equal annual installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date and are scheduled to expire on April 15, 2025. On the same day, Mr. Przybyl was also granted 15,000 shares of restricted common stock, which vest in equal annual installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant.

Charlotte C. Arnold

Ms. Arnold serves as the Company's Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer and prior to the Merger served as ANIP's Chief Financial Officer. In May 2009, ANIP entered into an employment letter agreement with Ms. Arnold commencing on May 14, 2009. The employment agreement continued in effect following the Merger. The term of the agreement is open-ended; therefore, Ms. Arnold is free to resign for any reason or for no reason and the Company is free to conclude the at-will employment relationship with Mr. Arnold at any time, with or without cause, subject to certain severance provisions described below.

Under the agreement, Ms. Arnold's original annual base salary was $210,000. Ms. Arnold is eligible for an annual cash bonus, the target of which is up to 40 percent of her base salary, based on the achievement of certain individual and corporate objectives, as determined by the Board. On February 17, 2015, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board awarded Ms. Arnold a 2014 cash bonus of 60 percent of her 2014 base salary.

The employment agreement also specified that Ms. Arnold was entitled to a one-time bonus upon a sale of ANIP; however, Ms. Arnold forfeited this one-time bonus in connection with the execution of the transaction bonus agreement described below.

Under the terms of the employment agreement, if Ms. Arnold is terminated by the Company, other than for cause, upon the receipt from her of a release in form and substance satisfactory to the Company, she is entitled to receive, in addition to unpaid salary and expenses and payment of accrued incentive compensation amounts, (i) an amount equal to her base salary for a period of 12 months, which amount may be paid, at the Company's election, either in a lump sum or by salary continuation, and a prorated portion of her targeted annual bonus to the extent that the corresponding objectives are achieved prior to the termination of employment and (ii) amounts or reimbursements for the premiums to continue health insurance coverage as in effect at the time of the termination of employment for a period of 12 months under COBRA.

The Board, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the Company's Chief Executive Officer, set Ms. Arnold's 2015 base salary at $370,000. On April 16, 2015, Ms. Arnold was granted options to purchase 8,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $68.71 per share, the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. The options vest in equal annual installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date and are scheduled to expire on April 15, 2025. On the same day, Ms. Arnold was also granted 4,200 shares of restricted common stock, which vest in equal annual installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant.

Robert Schrepfer

The Company has not executed an employment letter or other employment agreement with Robert Schrepfer. On February 17, 2015, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board awarded Mr. Schrepfer a 2014 cash bonus of 60 percent of his 2014 base salary.

The Board, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the Company's Chief Executive Officer, set Mr. Schrepfer's 2015 base salary at $301,000. On April 16, 2015, Mr. Schrepfer was granted options to purchase 6,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $68.71 per share, the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. The options vest in equal annual installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date and are scheduled to expire on April 15, 2025. On the same day, Mr. Schrepfer was also granted 3,000 shares of restricted common stock, which vest in equal annual installments on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant.

The Company has entered into agreements with all of its directors and officers under which the Company is required to indemnify them against expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred, including expenses of a derivative action, in connection with an actual or threatened proceeding

if any of them may be made a party because he or she is or was one of the Company's directors or officers. The Company will be obligated to pay these amounts only if the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. With respect to any criminal proceeding, the Company will be obligated to pay these amounts only if the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company's Board of Directors has delegated to the Audit and Finance Committee, pursuant to the terms of a written policy, the authority to review, approve and ratify related party transactions. If it is not feasible for the Audit and Finance Committee to take an action with respect to a proposed related party transaction, the Company's Board or another committee of the Company's Board, may approve or ratify it. No member of the Company's Board or any committee may participate in any review, consideration or approval of any related party transaction with respect to which such member or any of his or her immediate family members is the related party.

The Company's policy defines a "related party transaction" as a transaction, arrangement or relationship (or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships) in which the Company (including any of its subsidiaries) were, are or will be a participant and in which any related party had, has or will have a direct or indirect interest.

Prior to entering into or amending any related party transaction, the party involved must provide notice to the Company's finance department of the facts and circumstances of the proposed transaction, including:

- The related party's relationship to the Company and his or her interest in the transaction;

The material facts of the proposed related party transaction, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction or, in the case of indebtedness, the amount of principal that would be involved;

- The purpose and benefits of the proposed related party transaction with respect to the Company;

If applicable, the availability of other sources of comparable products or services; and

An assessment of whether the proposed related party transaction is on terms that are comparable to the terms available to an unrelated third party or to employees generally.

If the Company's finance department determines the proposed transaction is a related party transaction and the amount involved will or may be expected to exceed $10,000 in any calendar year, the proposed transaction is submitted to the Audit and Finance Committee for its prior review and approval or ratification. In determining whether to approve or ratify a proposed related party transaction, the Audit and Finance Committee will consider, among other things, the following:

The purpose of the transaction;

The benefits of the transaction to the Company;

The impact on a director's independence in the event the related party is a non-employee director, an immediate family member of a non-employee director or an entity in which a non-employee director is a partner, stockholder or executive officer;

The availability of other sources for comparable products or services;

The terms of the transaction; and

The terms available to unrelated third parties or to employees generally.

Related party transactions that involve $10,000 or less must be disclosed to the Audit and Finance Committee but are not required to be approved or ratified by the Audit and Finance Committee.

The Company also produces quarterly reports to the Audit and Finance Committee of any amounts paid or payable to, or received or receivable from, any related party. These reports allow the Company to identify any related party transactions that were not previously approved or ratified. In that event, the transaction will be promptly submitted to the Audit and Finance Committee for consideration of all the relevant facts and circumstances, including those considered when a transaction is submitted for pre-approval. Under the Company's policy, certain related party transactions as defined under the policy, such as certain transactions not requiring disclosure under the rules of the SEC, will be deemed to be pre-approved by the Audit and Finance Committee and will not be subject to these procedures.

There were no related party transactions for the Company during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and as of the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement, there were no related party transactions in 2015.

OTHER MATTERS

Householding

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries, including brokers, banks and other nominee record holders, to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more Stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single Notice or set of proxy materials addressed to those Stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," is designed to reduce duplicative mailings and save significant printing and processing costs as well as natural resources.

The Company will deliver promptly to any Stockholder upon written or oral request, a separate copy of the proxy statement and annual report to a Stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the documents was delivered. A Stockholder who wishes to receive a separate copy of the proxy statement and annual report, now or in the future, may obtain one, without charge, by addressing a written request to ANI Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Attn: Charlotte C. Arnold, 210 Main Street West, Baudette, Minnesota 56623. Stockholders can also obtain copies of the proxy statement and annual report on the Company's website or on the SEC's website. Beneficial owners sharing an address who are receiving multiple copies of proxy materials and annual reports and who wish to receive a single copy of such materials in the future should contact their broker, bank or other nominee to request that only a single copy of each document be mailed to all Stockholders at the shared address in the future.
