TABLE TRAC, INC.

NOTES TO CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies –

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements of Table Trac, Inc. (the “Company,” or “Table Trac”) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions for Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. The balance sheet as of June 30, 2017 and the statements of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, and the statement of cash flows for the six months ending June 30, 2017 and 2016 are unaudited but include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position at such date and the operating results and cash flows for those periods. Certain information normally included in financial statements and related footnotes prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles has been condensed or omitted pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The accompanying financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes included in the Table Trac Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Nature of Business

Table Trac was formed under the laws of the State of Nevada in June 1995. The Company has its offices in Minnetonka, Minnesota. The Company has developed and sells an information and management system that automates and monitors various aspects of the operations of casinos.

Table Trac provides system sales and technical support to casinos. System sales include installation, custom casino system configuration, and training. In addition, license and technical support are provided under separate license and service contracts.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company uses estimates and assumptions in accounting for the following significant matters, among others: revenue recognition, realizability of accounts receivable, the valuation of deferred tax assets and liabilities, deferred revenue and costs, and the valuation of inventory. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives revenues from the sales of systems, licenses and maintenance fees, and services, and rental agreements.

System Sales

Revenue from systems that have been demonstrated to meet customer specifications during installation is recognized when evidence of an arrangement exists, the product has been delivered, title and risk of loss have transferred to the customer and collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. System sales, which are accounted for as multiple-element arrangements, include multiple products and/or services. For multiple-element arrangements, the Company allocates the revenue to each element based on the hierarchy of estimated selling price for the deliverables. The selling price for each deliverable will be based on vendor specific objective evidence (VSOE), Third Party Evidence (“TPE”) if VSOE is not available, or estimated selling price if neither VSOE nor TPE is available. The Company recognizes the associated revenue when all revenue recognition criteria have been met for each element. If there are contracts for which the Company does not have VSOE or TPE of all elements, the Company would follow the selling price hierarchy to allocate arrangement consideration.

The Company does offer its customers contracts with extended payment terms. The Company must evaluate if any extended payment terms in the contract is an indicator of the revenue not being fixed or determinable. Provided all other revenue recognition criteria have been satisfied, the Company recognizes the revenue if payment of a significant portion of the systems sales is due within 12 months of the delivery of the product. The Company also analyzes its standard business practice of using long-term contracts and the history of collecting on extended payment term contracts without making concessions for determining if revenue should be recognized. Revenue and associated costs of sales are deferred if contract terms exceed historical collection results or if a substantial portion of the contract is not due within 12 months after delivery of the product. The Company analyzes each contract for proper revenue recognition based on that contract's facts and circumstances. Interest is recorded upon receipt to "interest income" on the statements of operations.

Maintenance revenue

Maintenance revenue is recognized ratably over the contract period. The VSOE for maintenance is based upon the renewal rate for contracted services.

Service revenue

Service revenue is recognized after the services are performed and collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. The VSOE for service revenue is established based upon actual selling prices for the services or prior similar arrangements.

Rental revenue

The Company may offer customers a rental contract. Revenues are billed monthly on a per-game per-day basis. There is an option to purchase the system after the rental contract expires at a pre-determined residual value.

Deferred System Sales Costs

Deferred system sales costs consist of installed system costs incurred on participation-based contracts. These costs are recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract which is generally 18-48 months beginning when revenues are generated. At the end of the contract period, the customer will usually receive title to the system. These costs are the most significant component of other long-term assets on the balance sheet, and are $980,516 and $1,291,519 as of June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively.

Accounts Receivable / Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable are initially recorded at the invoiced amount and carried on the balance sheet at net realizable value, which includes foreign currency translation as of each balance sheet date. Accounts receivable include unsecured regular customer receivables and unsecured amounts from financed contracts coming due within 12 months. Amounts from financed contracts due beyond 12 months are recorded as "Long-term accounts receivable – financed contracts." Interest is recorded upon receipt to other income on the statements of operations. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded when the Company believes the amounts may not be collected. Management believes that receivables, net of the allowance for doubtful accounts, are fully collectible. Accounts receivable are written off when management determines collection is no longer likely. While the ultimate result may differ, management believes that any write-off not allowed for will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position.

Major Customers

The following tables summarize major customer information for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016:

| | For the Six Months Ended June 30 | | | |
|------------|---|-------------|-----------------|-------------|

| Total | 100.0 % | 100.0 % | 100.0 % | 100.0 % |

The Company does derive a portion of its revenue from foreign customers. For the six month periods ending June 30, 2017 and 2016, sales to customers in South America represent 6.5% and 8.0% of total revenues, respectively.

The following tables summarize major customer information for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016:

| | For the Three Months Ended June 30 | | | |
|------------|---|---|-------------------|---|
| | 2017 | | 2016 | |
| | % Revenues | | % Revenues | |

| B | 7.5 | % | 7.6 | % |
| All Others | 60.6 | % | 51.7 | % |
| Total | 100.0 | % | 100.0 | % |

For the three month periods ending June 30, 2017 and 2016, sales to customers in South America represent 4.6% and 5.2% of total revenues, respectively.

Inventory

Inventory, consisting of finished goods, is stated at the lower of cost or market. The average cost method, which approximates the first in, first out method, is used to value inventory. Inventory is reviewed annually for the lower of cost or net realizable value and obsolescence. Any material cost found to be above net realizable value or considered obsolete is written down accordingly. The inventory value as of June 30, 2017 was $664,523, which included work-in-process of $134,635. The Company had no obsolescence reserve at June 30, 2017 or December 31, 2016.

Research and Development

The Company expenses all costs related to research and development as incurred. Research and development expense was $23,972 and $18,274 for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, and $31,705 and $22,139 for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Research and development expenses are included in selling, general and administrative expenses on the statements of operations.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2015, FASB issued ASU No. 2015-11, which amended Inventory (Topic 330) Related to Simplifying the Measurement of Inventory of the Accounting Standards Codification. The amended guidance applies to all inventory except that which is measured using last-in, first-out (LIFO) or the retail inventory method. Inventory measured using first-in, first-out (FIFO) or average cost is included in the new amendments. Inventory within the scope of the new guidance should be measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Net realizable value is the estimated selling prices in the ordinary course of business, less reasonably predictable costs of completion, disposal, and transportation. Subsequent measurement is unchanged for inventory measured using LIFO or the retail inventory method. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2017 and it did not have a material impact on its financial statements.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-17, Income Taxes: Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes, which simplifies the presentation of deferred taxes by requiring deferred tax assets and liabilities be classified as noncurrent on the balance sheet. As a result of our prospective adoption of this guidance on January 1, 2017, all deferred tax assets and liabilities have been classified as noncurrent on our condensed balance sheet at June 30, 2017, while our balance sheet at December 31, 2016 reflects classifications of deferred tax assets and liabilities in accordance with previous GAAP. The adoption of this guidance had no impact on our results of operations or cash flows.

2. Accounts Receivable –

Accounts receivable consisted of the following at:

| | June 30, 2017 | December 31, 2016 |
|--|---------------|-------------------|
| Accounts receivable under normal 30 day terms | $ 1,757,619 | $ 979,564 |
| Financed contracts: | | |
| Current portion of long-term | 1,898,230 | 2,028,025 |
| Long-term, net of current portion | 1,212,619 | 1,421,330 |
| Total accounts receivable | 4,868,468 | 4,428,919 |
| Less allowance for doubtful accounts | (155,101) | (200,266) |
| Accounts receivable, net | $ 4,713,367 | $ 4,228,653 |
| Presented on the balance sheet as: | | |
| Accounts receivable, net | $ 3,500,748 | $ 2,807,323 |
| Long-term accounts receivable - financed contracts | 1,212,619 | 1,421,330 |

The allowance for financed and trade receivable represents management's estimate of probable losses in our trade and financed receivables as of the date of the financial statements. The allowance provides for probable losses that have been identified with specific customer relationships and for probable losses believed to be inherent of the trade and financed receivables, but that have not been specifically identified.

Accounts receivable includes financed contracts at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 which are $3,110,849 and $3,449,355, respectively, offset by deferred revenues on the balance sheets of $2,661,837 and $2,745,081, respectively.

A roll-forward of the Company's allowance for doubtful accounts is as follows:

| | June 30, 2017 | December 31, 2016 |
|--|---------------|-------------------|
| Accounts receivable allowance, beginning of year | $ 200,266 | $ 185,397 |
| Provision adjustment | (45,165) | 14,869 |
| Write-off | 0 | 0 |
| Accounts receivable allowance, end of period | $ 155,101 | $ 200,266 |

The allowance for doubtful accounts is $155,101 and $200,266 for the trade receivables at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, and $0 for the financed contracts at both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016.

In addition, the Company incurred bad debt expense related to a direct write-off for a customer that notified the Company of their inability to pay of approximately $150,000. This customer was not previously included in the allowance. The Company has determined this customer's amount to be fully uncollectable.

3. Income Tax –

The Company accounts for income taxes by following the asset and liability approach to accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax consequences of the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities versus the tax basis of assets and liabilities. Under this method, deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The impact of the tax rate changes on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized in the year that the change is enacted. Management believes that any write-off not allowed for will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state jurisdictions. Based on its evaluation, the Company believes that it has no significant unrecognized tax positions. The Company's evaluation was performed for the tax years ended December 31, 2013 through 2016, which are the tax years that remain subject to examination by major tax jurisdictions as of June 30, 2017. The Company does not believe there will be any material changes in its unrecognized tax positions over the next 12 months.

The Company may from time to time be assessed interest or penalties by major tax jurisdictions, although any such assessments historically have been minimal and immaterial to its financial results. In accordance with current guidance, the Company classifies interest and penalties as income tax expense is incurred.

4. Earnings Per Share –

The Company computes earnings per share under two different methods, basic and diluted, and presents per-share data for all periods in which statements of operations are presented. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding. The Company had no common stock equivalents outstanding for the periods ending June 30, 2017 or 2016.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the numerators and denominators used in calculating basic and diluted earnings per share for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016:

| | For the Six Months Ended | |
|--|---------------------------------|-----------|
| | June 30, | |
| | 2017 | 2016 |
| Basic and diluted earnings per share calculation: | | |
| Net income | $ 40,617 | $ 78,298 |
| Weighted average number of common shares outstanding | 4,511,965 | 4,525,584 |
| Basic and diluted net income per share | $ 0.01 | $ 0.02 |

The following table provides a reconciliation of the numerators and denominators used in calculating basic and diluted earnings per share for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016:

| | For the Three Months Ended | |
|--|-----------------------------------|------------|
| | June 30, | |
| | 2017 | 2016 |
| Basic and diluted earnings per share calculation: | | |
| Net income | $ 164,988 | $ 215,204 |
| Weighted average number of common shares outstanding | 4,511,965 | 4,525,457 |
| Basic and diluted net income per share | $ 0.04 | $ 0.05 |

5. Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

The Company is exposed to foreign currency risks that arise from some of its foreign customers in Colombia, transacted in Colombia pesos. In addition, exchange rate fluctuations may cause our international results to fluctuate when translated into U.S. dollars. These risks may change over time as business practices evolve and could have an impact on the Company's financial results in the future due to the long term nature of the Company's accounts receivable in Colombia, which totaled approximately $223,805 and $384,000 at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively. The Company monitors its risk associated with the volatility of certain foreign currencies against the U.S. dollar.

6. Commitment and Contingencies

The Company has an agreement with a contractor to design and execute on a sales and marketing strategy for the Company in key Latin American and Caribbean gaming jurisdictions. The agreement currently expires December 31, 2017, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The remaining commitment as of June 30, 2017 is approximately $38,000.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

General Overview

Table Trac, Inc. is a Nevada corporation, formed on June 27, 1995, with principal offices in Minnetonka, Minnesota.

The Company has developed and patented (U.S. patent # 5,957,776) a proprietary information and management system (called our “Table Trac” system) that automates and monitors the operations of casino table game operations. In addition to its table games management system, Table Trac has been adding functionality to related casino system modules for guest rewards and loyalty club, marketing analysis, guest service, promotions, administration / management, vault / cage management and audit / accounting tasks. Aggregated together, all of these modules have become the “Casino Trac” product, a full-featured Casino Management System (CMS) offering what we believe to be a powerful combination of value, efficiency and reliability for casinos seeking to add or upgrade their casino systems.

The Company sells systems and technical support to casinos. The open architecture of the Table Trac system is designed to provide operators with a scalable and flexible system that can interconnect and operate with most third-party software or hardware. Key products and services include modules designed to drive player tracking programs and kiosk promotions, as well as vault and cage controls. The Company’s systems are designed to meet strict auditing, accounting and regulatory requirements applicable to the gaming industry. The Company has developed a patented, real-time system that automates and monitors the operations of casino gaming tables. The Company continues to increase its market share by expanding its product offerings to include new system features, and ancillary products.

At the end of the quarter, the Company had casino management systems, table games management systems and ancillary products installed with on-going support and maintenance contracts with 78 operators representing 122 sites worldwide.
