1) Sign-up fees

The Year-over-Year (YoY) increase was due to increase in subscriber addition.

2) Monthly fees

The YoY increase was due to increase in the number of average subscribers.

The Quarter-over-Quarter (QoQ) decrease was due to the cut in monthly fee implemented from September 1st, 2004.

3) Call charges

The YoY reduction was caused by slight decrease in MOU and the contract based discount plan.

The QoQ increase was due to increase in MOU.

4) VAS & others

The YoY decrease was mainly due to the reduction in Caller ID fee implemented in October 2003.

5) Wireless Internet sales

The YoY revenue growth from Wireless Internet sales was driven by the higher Wireless Internet usage primarily due to the continued adoption of high-end handsets and offering of a variety of new services such as Mobile Cyworld and MMS. The increase in Wireless internet sales was also driven by increase in monthly flat fees from the introduction of unlimited data usage tariff plan.

Accordingly, Wireless Internet sales accounted for 20.6% of cellular revenue in 2004, exceeding the guidance of 20%.

Table of Contents6) Interconnection revenue

LM: The YoY decrease was due to the interconnection rate adjustment in July 2004 and the decrease in call traffic. Interconnection revenue decreased QoQ because some of the international interconnection rates were finalized in October 2004, resulting in retroactive adjustment of the figures from January to September in the 4th quarter.

MM: The YoY and QoQ revenue increased due to increase in call traffic.

2) Commissions paid

Marketing commissions: Initial commissions increased YoY due to increase in subscriber addition and higher subscriber acquisition cost under Mobile Number Portability (MNP) environment.

Retention commissions increased YoY due to increased cost related to Membership program and more active handset upgrade program to lock-in good quality subscribers.

As the market continued its stabilization in the 4th quarter, marketing commissions decreased QoQ due to fall in such thing as subscriber acquisition cost, membership-related expenses and handset upgrade activities.

Other commissions: The increase was due to increase in the payment of Information Usage Fee to Content Providers as the wireless internet usage increased and the increase in the international roaming commissions.

3) Advertising cost

Advertising cost decreased YoY because SKT placed its resources more on marketing activities directly related to subscriber acquisition under MNP environment.

Table of Contents

Advertising cost increased QoQ due to promotion of a new service called MelOn which was launched in November 2004 and increase in corporate brand advertising.

4) Depreciation

The YoY increase was due to the amortization of WCDMA frequency usage right from December, 2003.

The QoQ increase resulted from the increase in depreciable assets.

5) Network interconnection cost

The YoY increase was due to the MM traffic increase and the interconnection rate adjustment in July 2004.

The QoQ increase was because SKT's portion of Universal Service Fund(USF) for 2003 was finalized in December 2004.

6) Leased line
