CHINA FINANCE ONLINE INVESTS IN MOLOON INTERNATIONAL

BEIJING, December 28/Xinhua-PRNewswire/ -- China Finance Online Co., Limited (Nasdaq: JRJC) ("CFO"), a leading Chinese online financial information and listed company data provider, today announced that it has purchased a minority interest in, and entered into a Strategic Cooperation Agreement with, Moloon International, Inc. ("Moloon"), a provider of mobile stream media technology and services located in Beijing, China.

The two companies will work together to leverage their respective skills and expertise: CFO is a leader in providing online financial and listed company data and information in China; Moloon is a leader in mobile stream media technology in China, including technology permitting mobile phone users to receive live video broadcasts. Under the Strategic Cooperation Agreement, CFO and Moloon will work together to develop financial services products to be available to mobile phone users in China.

"CFO is focused on providing China's leading online financial information and listed company data services," said Zhiwei Zhao, Chief Executive Officer of CFO. "We believe that Moloon's technology and capabilities, and their position as a leading mobile stream media technology services company in China, will enable both companies to develop and deliver expanded services to existing customers and to expand their respective customer bases."

CFO also announced today that it has entered into a strategic cooperation agreement with China Asset Management Co, Ltd., a mutual fund management company in China ("CAM"). This agreement relates to the expansion of the customer base for CFO's "Tao of Wealth" service package, which to date has been downloaded over 230,000 times. Under this agreement with CAM, CFO will provide two million customized copies of Tao of Wealth to CAM, to be distributed by CAM to its
