Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 1, 2009, athenahealth, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a master agreement for U.S. availability services (the “Master Agreement”) with SunGard Availability Services LP (“SunGard”). The Master Agreement provides for managed information technology services, including hosting, network and security services, and business continuity consulting services. The term of the Master Agreement commenced as of December 1, 2009, and will continue for 26 months for the managed information technology services and 36 months for the consulting services. There is no automatic renewal of the Master Agreement. With the exception of the fact that James L. Mann, a member of the Company’s Board of Directors, is also a director of SunGard Data Systems Inc., the parent corporation of SunGard, there are no material relationships between the Company and SunGard, or between any of their respective affiliates, other than in respect of the Master Agreement and related agreements.

The Company will be requesting confidential treatment for certain portions of the Master Agreement, and intends to file a redacted copy of the Master Agreement as an exhibit to its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2009.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Effective as of December 1, 2009, the Master Agreement replaced and superseded the terms of the master agreement for U.S. availability services between the Company and SunGard, dated March 31, 2007 (the “Prior Agreement”), with the exception of the managed information technology services under the Prior Agreement, which will continue until January 31, 2010. The Prior Agreement was terminated in contemplation of the Master Agreement that provides a different site for managed information technology services and for additional consulting services related to business continuity. There are no material relationships between the Company and SunGard other than as described above.
