NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2003
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company

Genesis Technology Group, Inc. (the "Company" or "Genesis") is a business development firm that specializes in assisting small and mid-sized companies in entering the Chinese market. At the present time, the primary source of the Company's revenues is derived from its Chorry (Zhaoli) equipment and accessories subsidiary based in China. The Company believes that this segment will become a less significant phase of its operations as its business development services segment expands and new acquisitions are made. The Company's strategy includes marketing itself as a resource for these companies in marketing, distribution, manufacturing, forming joint ventures, or establishing a base in China. As a part of that strategy, the Company has become a member of the Shanghai United Assets and Equity Exchange, an organization that promotes the influx of technology into China. The Company also has acquired companies in China and previously in the U.S. for the purposes of further developing these companies, with operational, managerial and financial support. The strategy also envisions and promotes opportunities for synergistic business relationships among all of the companies that Genesis works with, both clients and subsidiaries. In addition, the company acquires and invests in innovative technology companies in China or forms joint ventures with both American and elite Chinese companies, focusing on emerging technology industries including, but not limited to, nanotechnology, biotech, wireless telecommunication, information systems, environmental protection and biomedicine technologies.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The accompanying consolidated financial statements for the interim periods are unaudited and reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and operating results for the periods presented. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly and partially owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2003 and notes thereto contained on Form 10-KSB of Genesis Technology Group, Inc. (the "Company") as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The results of operations for the three months ended December 31, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results for the full fiscal year ending September 30, 2004.

Net income (loss) per share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each period. Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock, common stock equivalents and potentially dilutive securities outstanding during each period.

Inventories

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

Inventories, consisting of computer equipment and accessories, are stated at the lower of cost or market utilizing the first-in, first-out method, and are located in China.

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Marketable equity securities

Marketable equity securities consist of investments in equity of publicly traded and non-public domestic and foreign companies and are stated at market value based on the most recently traded price of these securities at December 31, 2003. All marketable securities are classified as available for sale at December 31, 2003. Unrealized gains and losses, determined by the difference between historical purchase price and the market value at each balance sheet date, are recorded as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Stockholders' Equity. Realized gains and losses are determined by the difference between historical purchase price and gross proceeds received when the marketable securities are sold. Restricted marketable equity securities are shown as long-term assets.

Foreign currency translation

Transactions and balances originally denominated in U.S. dollars are presented at their original amounts. Transactions and balances in other currencies are converted into U.S. dollars in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation," and are included in determining net income or loss.

For foreign operations with the local currency as the functional currency, assets and liabilities are translated from the local currencies into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Revenues, expenses and cash flows are translated at the average exchange rate for the period to approximate translation at the exchange rate prevailing at the dates those elements are recognized in the financial statements. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating the local currency financial statements into U.S. dollars are included in determining comprehensive loss. As of December 31, 2003, the exchange rate for the Chinese Renminbi (RMB) was $1 US for 8.27 RMB.

The functional currency of the Company's Chinese subsidiaries is the local currency. The financial statements of the subsidiary are translated to United States dollars using period-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and the average rate of exchange for the period for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions are included in the consolidated statements of operations and were not material during the periods presented. The cumulative translation adjustment and effect of exchange rate changes on cash at December 31, 2003 was not material.

Stock-based compensation

The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Such compensation amounts, if any, are amortized over the respective vesting periods of the option grant. The Company adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and SFAS 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -Transition and Disclosure", which permits entities to provide pro forma net income (loss) and pro forma earnings (loss) per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair-valued based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied. The Company accounts for stock options and stock issued to non-employees for goods or services in accordance with the fair value method of SFAS 123.

Had compensation cost for the stock option plan been determined based on the fair value of the options at the grant dates consistent with the method of SFAS 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation", the Company's net loss and loss per share would have been changed to the pro forma amounts indicated below for three months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002:

Net earnings
As reported	$ (138,752)	$ (418,336)
Pro forma	$ (187,097)	$ (418,336)
Basic earnings per share
As reported	$ (.01)	$ (.02)
Pro forma	$ (.01)	$ (.02)

The above pro forma disclosures may not be representative of the effects on reported net earnings for future years as options vest over several years and the Company may continue to grant options to employees.

Reclassifications

Certain prior periods' balances have been reclassified to conform to the current period's financial statement presentation. These reclassifications had no impact on previously reported results of operations or stockholders' equity (deficit).

NOTE 2 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Due from related party

An officer of the Company advanced funds to the Company for working capital purposes. The advances are non-interest bearing and are payable on demand. At December 31, 2003, the Company did not owe this officer any funds. Additionally, a minority shareholder of the Company's Zhaoli subsidiary, advanced $363,309 to this subsidiary for working capital purposes. These advances are non-interest bearing and are payable on demand.

NOTE 3 - SEGMENT INFORMATION

The following information is presented in accordance with SFAS No. 131, Disclosure about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information. In the periods ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company operated in two reportable business segments - (1) sale of computer equipment and accessories and (2) business development services for small public and private companies regarding public relations, corporate financing, mergers and acquisitions, e-commerce, business operations support and marketing. The Company's reportable segments are strategic business units that offer different products. They are managed separately based on the fundamental differences in their operations.

NOTE 3 - SEGMENT INFORMATION (Continued)

For the three months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company derived approximately 96% and 99% of its revenue from its subsidiaries located in the People's Republic of China, respectively. Sales and identifiable assets by geographic areas for the three months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, and as of December 31, 2003, respectively, were as follows:

	Revenues		Identifiable Assets at December 31, 2003

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

Currently, the Company's revenues are primarily derived from sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the Peoples Republic of China (PRC). The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.

NOTE 4 - LOANS PAYABLE

On April 1, 2002, the Company borrowed $80,000 from an individual related to an officer of the Company. The loan bears interest at 10% per annum and is unsecured. All unpaid principal and accrued interest is payable on April 1, 2003. In the event of default of the loan agreement, the lender is to receive shares of the Company's common stock at a 25% discount to the average closing price of the previous 20 trading days of the Company's common stock equal to the total amount due to the lender. As of December 31, 2003, this loan remains unpaid. The lender has not provided the Company with a notice of default.

On July 31, 2002, the Company borrowed $20,000 from an individual related to an officer of the Company. The loan bears interest at 10% per annum and is unsecured. All unpaid principal and accrued interest was payable on January 1, 2003. At the option of the lender, the entire obligation may be repaid with common stock calculated by dividing the amount due by the average closing common stock price for ten days prior to the repayment discounted by 40%, with a maximum price of $0.13 per share. The beneficial conversion feature present in the issuance of this note payable as determined on the date funds were received under the loan agreement totaled $12,500 and was recorded as interest expense and additional paid-in capital. As of December 31, 2003, no conversion had occurred. As of December 31, 2003, the loan remains unpaid.

The Company's Chinese subsidiary, Zhaoli, entered into a loan agreement with a Chinese bank to borrow $120,773. The loan bears interest at a rate of 5.85% per annum and is payable prior to March 25, 2004.

NOTE 5 - STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Preferred stock

The Company is authorized to issue 20,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $.001, with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

In January 2004, the Board of Directors established a Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock") authorized to be issued by the Company, with the designations and amounts thereof, together with the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of the shares of each such series, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions as follows:

The number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be 218,000. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall have a stated value equal to $10.

The Holders of outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive preferential dividends in cash out of any funds of the Company legally available at the time for declaration of dividends before any dividend or other distribution will be paid or declared and set apart for payment on any shares of any Common Stock, or other class of stock presently authorized or to be authorized (the Common Stock, and such other stock being hereinafter collectively the "Junior Stock") at the rate of 6% simple interest per annum on the Stated Value per share payable quarterly commencing with the period ending March 31, 2004 when as and if declared. At the Holder's option, however, the dividend payments may be made in additional fully paid and non assessable shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a rate of one share of Series A Preferred Stock for each $10 of such dividend not paid in cash.

Shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the following conversion rights and obligations:

(a) Subject to the further provisions in the agreement, each Holder of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have the right at any time commencing after the issuance to the Holder of Series A Preferred Stock, to convert such shares into fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock of the Company determined in accordance with the Conversion Price as defined below (the "Conversion Price"). All issued or accrued but unpaid dividends may be converted at the election of the Holder simultaneously with the conversion of principal amount of Stated Value of Series A Preferred Stock being converted.

(b) The number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall equal (i) the sum of (A) the Stated Value per share and (B) at the Holder's election accrued and unpaid dividends on such share, divided by (ii) the Conversion Price. The Conversion Price shall be, at the election of the Holder, the lesser of: (x) $.36, or (y) 80% of the Closing Bid Price for the trading day immediately preceding the initial purchase of Series A Preferred Stock by the first Holder thereof. The Closing Bid Price shall mean the closing bid price of the Corporation's Common Stock as reported by the Bloomberg L.P. OTC Bulletin Board or the principal exchange or market where traded.

The Company will pay a broker's fee to Coastline Capital Partners, an institutional finance division of Western International Securities, Inc., of $90,000 and will issue warrants to purchase a total of 300,000 shares of its common stock exercisable at $0.3045. Genesis has agreed to file a registration statement covering the shares issued and issuable under the Subscription Agreement within 45 days following the above closing.

Stock options

In October 2003, 472,501 options were granted to officers and employees of the Company with an exercise price of $.13 for accrued salary. The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Since the current market price equaled the exercise price, no compensation expense was recognized in connection with these options under the intrinsic value method of APB 25.

On October 7, 2003, the Company entered into a six month agreement with a consultant. The consultant received 500,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.05 per share. The Company valued these shares at approximately $0.096 per share and recorded consulting expense relating to this issuance of options of $24,076 and deferred consulting expenses of $24,077. This consultant exercised 483,000 of these options in October 2003 (see Common stock).

On November 13, 2003, 150,000 options were granted to directors of the Company with an exercise price of $.125. The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. In connection with these options, the Company recorded non-cash compensation of $18,813 for the three months ended December 31, 2003 and deferred compensation of $13,437 under the intrinsic value method of APB 25. The deferred compensation will be amortized over the service period,

On November 13, 20,000 options were granted to directors of the Company with an exercise price of $.34 for services provided. The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Since the current market price equaled the exercise price, no compensation expense was recognized in connection with these options under the intrinsic value method of APB 25.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following analysis of the results of operations and financial condition of the Company should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of Genesis Technology Group, Inc. for the year ended September 30, 2003 and notes thereto contained in this Report on Form 10-QSB of Genesis Technology Group, Inc.

This report on Form 10-QSB contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements and from historical results of operations. Among the risks and uncertainties which could cause such a difference are those relating to our dependence upon certain key personnel, our ability to manage our growth, our success in implementing the business strategy, our success in arranging financing where required, and the risk of economic and market factors affecting us or our customers. Many of such risk factors are beyond the control of the Company and its management.

OVERVIEW

Genesis Technology Group Inc. ("Genesis", the "Company" or "we") is an international business development firm that specializes in leading and assisting companies in penetrating the Chinese market for business development and commerce, as well as assisting Chinese companies in penetrating the US market or listing in the US public market. We have a seat as a member of the Shanghai United Assets and Equity Exchange, an organization that promotes the influx of technology into China. In addition, the company acquires and invests in innovative technology companies in China or forms joint ventures with both American and elite Chinese companies, focusing on emerging technology industries including, but not limited to, nanotechnology, biotech, wireless telecommunication, information systems, environmental protection and biomedicine technologies.

A significant model for our future business development is the introduction of US companies in the Life and Health Science arena to China. Life and Health Science is comprised of different but related industries such as pharmaceuticals, environmental science, biotechnology, and healthcare development. These industries range from water, soil, and air testing and remediation to hospital facility development and management. These are new and robust areas in China that desperately need attention and expertise. Genesis' goal is to assist companies that are active in these areas in entering the Chinese market.

In addition to our business development services, we have also acquired companies in the U.S. and China for the purposes of further developing these companies, with managerial, operational, and financial support. Our model envisions and promotes opportunities for synergistic business relationships among all of the companies that we work with, both clients and subsidiaries.

As we continue to grow, acquisitions and mergers is a significant piece of our growth model. We are concentrating on mergers and acquisitions activity with firms in both the U.S. and China that mirror our strategy. These relationships will be built around consolidating key resources, financial and physical assets, brand names, and human resources.

We currently have three active subsidiary companies. We own 80% of one computer hardware and software manufacturer/distributor located in Shanghai China. We own 100% of two consulting companies, one in the U.S. and one in China. We own 85% of an inactive biotechnology-marketing firm that is located in the United States.

Our subsidiary Shanghai Chorry (Zhaoli) Technology Development Co., Ltd was established in 1998, noteworthy distributor of computer hardware and office automation facilities in Shanghai; at the same time it has accumulated a shared value of "Sincerity, Profession, Teamwork, Excellence" within the company.

Suppliers to Shanghai Chorry (Zhaoli) are all world known corporations: EPSON, CANON, HP, RICOH, BROTHER and START, etc. With the authorization of the above mentioned corporations Shanghai Chorry (Zhaoli) is involved in the IT related products, ranging from Color Laser Printer, Scanner, Copier, Facsimile Machine, MFP, Module Router, Switch, Video Telephone, Computer to Supplies, and focusing on providing the innovative technology solutions to enhance customers' business agility. Customers of Chorry (Zhaoli) include banks, telecom, hospitals, securities, supermarkets, airports, railway stations and other government departments. By the time of this report, Chorry (Zhaoli) has achieved 2,500 clients so far, which is an invaluable asset to the company.

Simultaneously, Chorry (Zhaoli) has developed a widely-spread sales channel. With headquarter and a customer center in Shanghai Chorry (Zhaoli) has 9 affiliated branches in Wukang, Pacific, Buy-now-mart, Daqian digital plaza, Cyber-mart, Xinzha, Furongjiang computer mart, PuDong Xinling and Wujiaochang Yigao Computer mart.

IT related products distributed by Chorry (Zhaoli) are mainly for commercial purposes, also for home use.

Moreover, with the increasing application of IT products the demands for pragmatic application software and solutions will increase too. Nowadays, network, advertising, media, service industry, etc, have become the potential customer, for instance, Chorry (Zhaoli)'s LED Demo solution is one of the favorite technology for indoor and outdoor information output.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

In addition to overseeing the operation of its subsidiaries, we have been growing our cross-pacific business development/consulting business. Management believes that China's entrance into the WTO offers a unique opportunity for Genesis to secure itself a position as a leader in the growing market for cross-pacific products, technology, capital, and property exchange. To that end, we market our self to other U.S. firms interested in Chinese partnerships for manufacturing and distribution of a variety of products in China, with a strong focus on the Life and Health Science arena.

We currently have 28 clients under contract. In the last 12 months, we have grown our client base from 2 to 28 clients. Company management has met with over 400 firms that have shown significant interest in introducing their product or service to China or the U.S. We are assisting these clients in penetrating the Chinese market for the purposes of product and solutions sales, distribution, manufacturing, and/or research and development.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

THREE MONTHS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 COMPARED TO THREE MONTHS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002

CONSOLIDATED RESULTS:

The following discussion relates to our consolidated results of operations. Further discussion and analysis of operating results follows and is discussed by segment.

Revenues

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, we had consolidated revenues of $6,565,377 as compared to $5,276,670 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. This increase resulted substantially from increased revenues from our computer hardware and accessories segment and is discussed below.

Cost of Sales

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, cost of sales was directly related to our computer equipment and accessories segment and amounted to $6,181,525 as compared to $5,151,953 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. This increase resulted substantially from increased revenue from our computer segment and is outlined below.

Operating Expenses

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, operating expenses which include consulting fees, rent, salaries and non-cash compensation, depreciation expense and other selling, general and administrative, were $717,718 as compared to $527,906 for the three months ended December 31, 2002.

Loss from sale/disposal of marketable securities

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, we recorded a gain from the sale of marketable securities of $1,924 as compared to a loss of $(2,497) for the three months ended December 31, 2002.

Settlement income

On December 31, 2003, we settled our litigation against Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. ("HYTT"). The Settlement Agreement resulted in us accepting 3,750,000 common shares of restricted Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. stock (OTCBB: HYTT). In a related matter, we conveyed 300,000 of those shares to Elite Financial Communications Group, which had initially introduced us to key principals among the HYTT parties. In connection with the settlement, we recorded settlement income of $196,650 based on the fair market value of 3,450,000 net shares that we received.

Interest expense

Interest expense was $2,497 for the three months ended December 31, 2003 as compared to $2,496 for the three months ended December 31, 2002.

OVERALL

We reported a net loss for the three months ended December 31, 2003 of $(138,752) compared to a net loss for the three months ended December 31, 2002 of $(418,336). This translates to an overall per-share loss of ($.00) for the three months ended December 31, 2003 compared to per-share loss of ($.02) for the three months ended December 31, 2002.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS BY SEGMENT:

Consulting Services Segment

Revenue for the three months ended December 31, 2003 was $255,009 as compared to $53,190 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. This revenue was generated from business development services. The increase in revenues was attributable to the fact that during fiscal 2003 and in the first quarter in fiscal 2004, we entered into business development contracts to assist companies in introducing their products into the Chinese marketplace. We have been aggressively marketing our business development services through round-table meetings and through our referral sources.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS (continued)

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, we incurred operating expenses of $593,688 as compared to $458,739 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. For the three months ended December 31, 2003, operating expenses consisted of rent of $24,859, consulting fees of $180,822, salaries and non-cash compensation of $294,831 and other selling, general and administrative expenses of $93,176. For the three months ended December 31, 2002, operating expenses consisted of rent of $20,352, consulting fees of $235,251, salaries and non-cash compensation of $115,678 and other selling, general and administrative expenses of $87,458. The increase in operating expenses was primarily attributable to the following:

- (1) During fiscal 2002, we relocated our administrative offices into larger leased space. Accordingly, our rent expense increased in fiscal 2003 compared to fiscal 2002.
- (2) Our consulting expense decreased to $180,822 for the three months ended December 31, 2003 from $235,251 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. The decrease was due to decreased non-cash consulting expenses recorded during the three months ended December 31, 2003 in connection with the grant of stock options to consultants for services rendered.
- (3) Salaries and non-cash compensation expense increased to $294,831 for the three months ended December 31, 2003 from $115,678 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. In fiscal 2003, we increased our marketing and administrative staff by two persons. The remaining increase in salaries and non-cash compensation expense was attributable to the recording of non-cash compensation in connection with the granting of stock options to officers, employees, and directors and the issuance of common shares in December 2003 for bonuses amounting to $71,610.
- (4) Other selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $93,176 for the three months ended December 31, 2003 from $87,458 for the three months ended December 31, 2002, an increase of $5,718.

For the three months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, we incurred interest expense of $2,500 and $2,500, respectively.

Computer Equipment and Accessories Segment

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

Revenues for the three months ended December 31, 2003 were $6,310,368 as compared to $5,223,480 for the three months ended December 31, 2002 from our subsidiary Zhaoli, a Chinese company. This revenue was generated from sales of printers, copiers, network equipment and software licensing fees. The increase in sales mainly resulted from increasing demand from the market, as the Chinese government required all companies by July 1, 2003 to issue all transaction receipts and invoices by using a printer and a computer in order to smooth its tax collections.

Cost of sales for Zhaoli for the three months ended December 31, 2003 amounted to $6,181,525 or 97.9% of net sales as compared to $5,151,953 or 97.6% of net sales for the three months ended December 31, 2002. We continue to experience low gross profit margins on our products sales.

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, operating expenses consisted of salaries of $36,370, rent expense of $39,049, and other selling, general and administrative expenses amounted to $48,611 as compared to salaries expense of $9,014, rent expense of $25,158, and other selling, general and administrative expenses of $34,995 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. In fiscal 2003, we incurred additional rent due our growing need for warehouse space. Additionally, due to increased net revenues, we increased our workforce.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At December 31, 2003, we had a cash balance of $661,694. As of December 31, 2003, our cash position by geographic area is as follows:

Cash

United States	$ 373,816
China	287,878

Total	$ 661,694

On January 16, 2004, we consummated a securities purchase agreement under which we agreed to issue $2,000,000 stated value of its newly created Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock") to several institutional investors. The stated value of the Series A Preferred Stock is $10.00 per share. Of this amount, the Company received gross proceeds of $1,000,000 from the sale of 100,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock. Upon filing of a registration statement we will sell an additional 100,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock in addition to the previous sale for an additional $1,000,000 of proceeds.

Management has invested substantial time evaluating and considering numerous proposals for possible acquisition or combination developed by management or presented by investment professionals, the Company's advisors and others. We continue to consider acquisitions, business combinations, or start up proposals, which could be advantageous to shareholders. No assurance can be given that any such project; acquisition or combination will be concluded.

We intend to continue our trading activities and as a consequence the future financial results of the Company may be subject to substantial fluctuations. As part of our investment activities, we may sell a variety of equity or debt securities obtained as revenues for business development services. Such investments often involve a high degree of risk and must be considered extremely speculative.

At December 31, 2003, our Company had stockholders' equity of $826,003. Our Company's future operations and growth will likely be dependent on our ability to raise capital for expansion and to implement our strategic plan.

Net cash used in operations was $(6,694) for the three months ended December 31, 2003 as compared to net cash used in operations of $(42,349) for the three months ended December 31, 2002. The difference is due to increased cash flow generated by our business development services which has given us additional cash flows from operations.

Net cash provided by investing activities for the three months ended December 31, 2003 was $169,960 as compared to net cash provided by investing activities for the three months ended December 31, 2002 of $8,479. For the three months ended December 31, 2003, we received $176,008 from the sale of marketable securities offset by cash used for capital expenditures of $(6,048). For the three months ended December 31, 2002, we received cash from the sale of marketable securities of $13,713 offset by cash used for capital expenditures of $(5,234).

Net cash provided by financing activities were $314,197 for the three months ended December 31, 2003 as compared to $67,708 for the three months ended December 31, 2002. For the three months ended December 31, 2003, net cash provided by financing activities related primarily to proceeds from the exercise of stock options and related party loans of $ 300,000 and $14,197, respectively. For the three months ended December 31, 2002, net cash provided by financing activities related to proceeds from related party loans of $7,808 and proceeds from the exercise of stock options of $59,900.

We currently have no material commitments for capital expenditures. Our future growth is dependent on our ability to raise capital for expansion, and to seek additional revenue sources. If we decide to pursue any acquisition opportunities or other expansion opportunities, we may need to raise additional capital, although there can be no assurance such capital-raising activities would be successful.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of significant accounting policies is included in Note 1 to the audited consolidated financial statements included our filing on Form 10-KSB as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended September 30, 2003. Management believes that the application of these policies on a consistent basis enables the Company to provide useful and reliable financial information about the company's operating results and financial condition.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

We account for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Such compensation amounts, if any, are amortized over the respective vesting periods of the option grant. We adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and SFAS 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -Transition and Disclosure", which permits entities to provide pro forma net income (loss) and pro forma earnings (loss) per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair-valued based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied. We account for stock options and stock issued to non-employees for goods or services in accordance with the fair value method of SFAS 123.

Our revenues from the sale of products are recorded when the goods are shipped. Consulting income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the period of the service agreement. Deferred revenues relates to consulting revenues that is being recognized over the period of the service agreement.

Marketable equity securities consist of investments in equity of publicly traded and non-public domestic companies and are stated at market value based on the most recently traded price of these securities at December 31, 2003. All marketable securities are classified as available for sale at December 31, 2003. Unrealized gains and losses, determined by the difference between historical purchase price and the market value at each balance sheet date, are recorded as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Stockholders' Equity. Realized gains and losses are determined by the difference between historical purchase price and gross proceeds received when the marketable securities are sold.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS (continued)

OPERATING RISK

(a) Country risk

Currently, the Company's revenues are primarily derived from sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the Peoples Republic of China (PRC). The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition. As experienced in Spring 2003, diseases such as SARS can significantly impact the PRC economy and affect the company productivity.

(b) Products risk

In addition to competing with other computer and electronics equipment companies, the Company could have to compete with larger US companies who have greater funds available for expansion, marketing, research and development and the ability to attract more qualified personnel if access is allowed into the PRC market. If US companies do gain access to the PRC markets, it may be able to offer products at a lower price. There can be no assurance that the Company will remain competitive should this occur.

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

(c) Exchange risk

The Company generates revenue and incurs expenses and liabilities in Chinese renminbi and U.S. dollars. As a result, the Company is subject to the effects of exchange rate fluctuations with respect to any of these currencies. For example, the value of the renminbi depends to a large extent on PRC's domestic and international economic and political developments, as well as supply and demand in the local market. Since 1994, the official exchange rate for the conversion of renminbi to U.S. dollars has generally been stable and the renminbi has appreciated slightly against the U.S. dollar. However, given recent economic instability and currency fluctuations, the Company can offer no assurance that the renminbi will continue to remain stable against the U.S. dollar or any other foreign currency. The Company's results of operations and financial condition may be affected by changes in the value of renminbi and other currencies in which its earnings and obligations are denominated. The Company has not entered into agreements or purchased instruments to hedge its exchange rate risks, although the Company may do so in the future.

Although Chinese governmental policies were introduced in 1996 to allow the convertibility of renminbi into foreign currency for current account items, conversion of renminbi into foreign exchange for capital items, such as foreign direct investment, loans or security, requires the approval of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange, or SAFE, which is under the authority of the People's Bank of China. These approvals, however, do not guarantee the availability of foreign currency. The Company cannot be sure that the Company will be able to obtain all required conversion approvals for its operations; or that Chinese regulatory authorities will not impose greater restrictions on the convertibility of the renminbi in the future. Because a significant amount of its revenues are in the form of renminbi, its inability to obtain the requisite approvals or any future restrictions on currency exchanges will limit its ability to utilize revenue generated in renminbi to fund its business activities outside PRC.

(d) Political risk

Currently, the PRC is in a period of growth and is openly promoting business development in order to bring more business into PRC. Additionally, the PRC allows a Chinese corporation to be owned by a United States corporation. If the laws or regulations are changed by the PRC government, the Company's ability to operate the PRC subsidiaries could be affected.

(e) Our future performance is dependent on its ability to retain key personnel

Our performance is substantially dependent on the performance of our senior management. In particular, the Company's success depends on the continued effort of our Senior Management to maintain all contact with our Chinese subsidiaries. The Company's inability to retain Senior Management could have a material adverse effect on our prospects, businesses, Chinese operations, financial conditions

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Quarterly Controls Evaluation and Related CEO and CFO Certifications

Edgar Filing: GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

We conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our "disclosure controls and procedures" (Disclosure Controls) as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report. The controls evaluation was done under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the "Certifying Officers") are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures for us. Based upon such officers' evaluation of these controls and procedures as of a date within 45 days of the filing of this Quarterly Report, and subject to the limitations noted hereinafter, the Certifying Officers have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in this Quarterly Report is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officers as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The Certifying Officers have also indicated that there were no significant changes in our internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect such controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, and there were no corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.

Attached as exhibits to this Quarterly Report are certifications of the CEO and the CFO, which are required in accord with Rule 13a-14 of the Exchange Act. This Controls and Procedures section includes the information concerning the controls evaluation referred to in the certifications and it should be read in conjunction with the certifications for a more complete understanding of the topics presented.

Definition of Disclosure Controls

Disclosure Controls are controls and procedures designed to reasonably assure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Exchange Act, such as this Quarterly Report, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure Controls are also designed to reasonably assure that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including the CEO and CFO, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Our Disclosure Controls include components of our internal control over financial reporting, which consists of control processes designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of our financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls

Our management, including the CEO and CFO, does not expect that our Disclosure Controls or our internal control over financial reporting will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the control system's objectives will be met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. The design of any system of controls is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Over time, controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or deterioration in the degree of compliance with policies or procedures. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Conclusions

Based upon the controls evaluation, our CEO and CFO have concluded that, subject to the limitations noted above, as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report, our Disclosure Controls were effective to provide reasonable assurance that material information relating to Genesis and its consolidated subsidiaries is made known to management, including the CEO and CFO.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) that occurred during the quarter ended December 31, 2003 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the "Certifying Officers") are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures for us. Based upon such officers' evaluation of these controls and procedures as of a date within 45 days of the filing of this Quarterly Report, and subject to the limitations noted hereinafter, the Certifying Officers have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in this Quarterly Report is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officers as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The Certifying Officers have also indicated that there were no significant changes in our internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect such controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, and there were no corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.

Part II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

On December 31, 2003, we settled our litigation against Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. ("HYTT"). The Settlement Agreement resulted in us accepting 3,750,000 common shares of restricted Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. stock (OTCBB: HYTT). In a related matter, we conveyed 300,000 of those shares to Elite Financial Communications Group, which had initially introduced us to key principals among the HYTT parties.

Item 2. Changes in Securities and Small Business Issuer Purchases of Equity

Preferred stock

In January 2004, the Board of Directors established a Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock")
