SECOND INTERIM DIVIDEND ANNOUNCEMENT

The Board of The Shell Transport and Trading Company, p.l.c. today announced a second interim dividend for the year 2004 of 10.70p per Ordinary share (64.2p per New York Share) making a total dividend for the year 2004 of 16.95p per Ordinary share (101.7p). This represents an increase of 7.6% over the 2003 total dividend of 15.75p (94.5p).

The total dividend is made up as follows:

Pence per New York Share	Interim	Second Interim	Total
2004	37.5	64.2	101.7
2003	36.6	57.9	94.5
	Interim		Total

US$ per New York Share		Second Interim
2004	0.67	*	*
2003	0.58	1.04	1.62

The Board does not intend to propose a final dividend in respect of 2004.

The amount to be paid to holders of New York Shares will be determined by the dollar/sterling exchange rate on March 15, 2005. At the current rate of £1 = $1.88 approximately, the second interim dividend is equivalent to $1.21 per New York Share.

The second interim dividend will be payable on March 21, 2005 to holders of record of New York Shares as at February 11, 2005. The shares become ex-dividend in New York on February 9, 2005.

Taxation

UK dividends bear a tax credit available to individual taxpayers in the UK. However, under the tax treaty between the US and the UK which came into force on March 31, 2003 there is no UK tax credit available to a US shareholder, and there is no offsetting withholding tax suffered, with the result that the cash amount of the dividend is the gross dividend for US tax purposes and there is no possibility of claiming a credit for UK tax against the US tax liability.
