NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

May 31, 2008

(Unaudited)

Note 1

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. They may not include all information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. However, except as disclosed herein, there has been no material changes in the information disclosed in the notes to the financial statements for the year ended November 30, 2007, included in the Company's Form 10-KSB filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The unaudited interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with those financial statements included in the Form 10-KSB. In the opinion of Management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation, consisting solely of normal recurring adjustments, have been made. Operating results for the three months ended May 31, 2008 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending November 30, 2008.

Note 2

Advances

During the year ending November 30, 2006, $150,000 was withdrawn from the Company's bank account by a former director of the Company. The former director was not an authorized signatory on the Company's bank account and had not been granted any such authority to withdraw the funds by the Company's Board of Directors. Upon completion of an investigation, the Company determined that the former director had not used the funds for corporate purposes. The Company took legal action against the former director in an effort to recover the $150,000. As a result, the Supreme Court of British Columbia ordered the former director to pay the Company a sum of USD $173,700 plus accrued interest of USD $5,341. The sum of $200,000 was received by the Company in May 2008 and included in general and administrative expenses.

Note 3

Mineral Properties

Mercedes Property, Junin, Peru

Pursuant to a property acquisition agreement dated July 3, 2003, and amended on January 24, 2005, the Company acquired a 100% interest in 2,611 hectares located in Central Peru from a director of the Company (the Vendor) for consideration of $22,500 (paid) and the issuance of 5,000,000 common shares valued at $0.40 per share (issued). The property is held in trust by the Vendor for the Company. Upon request from the Company the title will be recorded in the name of the Company. At May 31, 2008, the title of this property has not been recorded in the name of the Company.

b) Rock Creek Claims, British Columbia, Canada

On May 25, 2006, the Company entered into an option agreement (the Agreement) to acquire an option to purchase 100% of the issued share capital of 722161 B.C. Ltd (BC Ltd) on the following terms:

The Company must issue 100,000 common shares upon execution of the Agreement (issued);

2. Although the Company has not made its cash payments in accordance with the Agreement, BC Ltd has agreed to uphold the Agreement to date. In accordance with the Agreement, the Company is obliged make cash payments totaling CAD$250,000 as follows:

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This quarterly report contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. We use words such as anticipate, believe, plan, expect, future, intend and similar expressions to identify such forward-looking statements. You should not place too much reliance on these forward-looking statements. Our actual results are likely to differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements for many reasons, including the risks faced by us described in the Risk Factors section of our annual report on Form 10KSB and 10KSB/A and elsewhere in this quarterly report.

Plan of Operations

Our plan of operations for the twelve months following the date of this quarterly report is to complete a secondary exploration program on the Mercedes property. We anticipate that this program will cost approximately $250,000.

In addition, we anticipate spending $60,000 on professional fees, $240,000 on salaries and wages, $40,000 on travel costs, $40,000 on promotional expenses and $40,000 on other administrative expenses in the next 12 months.

Total expenditures over the next 12 months are therefore expected to be $670,000. We will not be able to proceed with either exploration program, or meet our administrative expense requirements, without additional financing.

On May 25, 2006, the Company entered into an option agreement (the Agreement) to acquire an option to purchase 100% of the issued share capital of 722161 B.C. Ltd (BC Ltd) on the following terms:

- 1.

The Company must issue 100,000 common shares upon execution of the Agreement (issued);

November 15, 2006 - $12,500; (unpaid)

$12,500 (unpaid) on or before January 15, 2007 , and installment payments of $12,500 quarterly thereafter on or before the 15th days of April, July October and January of each year until the total of $250,000 (unpaid) has been paid or satisfied;

3.

The Company must issue 500,000 common shares in four equal tranches of 125,000 each on or before the 15th of October in each of 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009. As at February 29, 2008, he Company had issued 125,000 shares;

4.

The Company must incur exploration expenses of $1,000,000 over a period of five years from the date of the Agreement. BC Ltd has a 56% interest in mineral claims located in the Rock Creek area of British Columbia, Canada.

At February 29, 2008, the Company was in default of the Agreement. On March 31, 2008, a formal notice of default was issued to the Company by BC Ltd. The Company has 30 days to cure the default at which time the agreement will be terminated except as to the Company's obligations prior to the default of approximately $80,000 which has been recorded as a liability by the Company.

Results of Operations for Three Month Period Ended May 31, 2008

We incurred operating expenses in the amount of $154,687 for the three month period ended May 31, 2008, as compared to $169,016 for the comparative period in 2007. During the three month ended May 31, 2008, we received $200,000 as proceeds from the settlement of a lawsuit. As a result, the net income for the three month ended May 31, 2008 was $45,313.

As of May 31, 2008, we had cash on hand of $4,510 and total assets of $4,510. Our liabilities at the same date totaled $425,814 and consisted of accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $191,363 and $234,451 due to related parties.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

The Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report. There were no significant changes in internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the second quarter of 2008 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

On June 29, 2006, a former director of the Company commenced legal action against the Company and its directors. The former director is claiming damages in excess of $5,000,000 for alleged breach of contract, libel, fraud, intentional deceit, wrongful conduct and emotional distress. On February 12, 2007, the United States District Court issued a notice of dismissal with respect to this legal action in its entirety.

During the year ending November 30, 2006, $150,000 was withdrawn from the Company's bank account by a former director of the Company. The former director was not an authorized signatory on the Company's bank account and had not been granted any such authority to withdraw the funds by the Company's Board of Directors. Upon completion of an investigation, the Company determined that the former director had not used the funds for corporate purposes. The Company took legal action against the former director in an effort to recover the $150,000. As a result, the Supreme Court of British Columbia ordered the former director to pay the Company a sum of USD $173,700 plus accrued interest of USD $5,341. The sum of $200,000 was received by the Company in May 2008 and included in general and administrative expenses.
