U.S. DISTRICT COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF WARNER BROS.

NETANYA, Israel, October 1, 2004. Matav-Cable Systems Media Ltd. (Nasdaq: MATV) today announced that the district court in Los Angeles, California, ruled in favor of Warner Bros. International Television Distribution in its breach of contract lawsuit against Golden Channels & Co., one of the Israeli cable television operators.

As previously reported, Warner, which was a provider of movies, series and other content to the Israeli cable television operators, filed the lawsuit in December 2002, seeking monetary compensation in the amount of approximately $25 million, on the grounds of breach of contract with Golden Channels, pursuant to which Warner provided contents and other broadcasting rights to Golden Channels. On September 28, 2004, the district court awarded Warner damages in the amount of approximately $19.3 million (excluding attorney fees) and rejected Golden Channels' counterclaims in the matter. Matav received the verdict yesterday.

Pursuant to an agreement among the Israeli cable television operators (including Golden Channels, and Matav) and HOT Vision, a company established by the cable operators for the purpose of jointly purchasing and producing content for local cable channels, Matav is required to indemnify Golden Channels (through HOT Vision) for approximately 26.5% of the damages awarded to Warner, amounting to approximately $5.1 million.

The Israeli cable television operators (including Golden Channels and Matav) are reviewing the district court's verdict and its implications and will consider whether to appeal the court's ruling.

Matav is one of Israel's three cable television providers, serving roughly 25 percent of the population. Matav's investments include approximately 5.3 percent of Partner Communications Ltd., a GSM mobile phone company, and 10 percent of Barak I.T.C. (1995), one of the three international telephony-service providers in Israel.
