TowerJazz CEO Russell Ellwanger to Deliver Opening Keynote
at GSA Israel Executive Forum on November 13, 2012

TowerJazz, the only pure-play foundry in Israel, is the premier sponsor of the GSA event

MIGDAL HAEMEK, Israel, November 12, 2012 – TowerJazz, the global specialty foundry leader, is pleased to announce its CEO, Russell Ellwanger will deliver the opening keynote at the GSA Israel Executive Forum; an event to address the business factors that will enable Israel to sustain and further its dynamic global technology contributions. Mr. Ellwanger's speech will take place at 4:30pm on November 13, 2012 at the Dan Accadia Hotel in Herzliya, Israel.

TowerJazz is the premier sponsor of the GSA event, and as the only pure-play foundry in Israel, maintains a strong local presence. With its headquarters located in Migdal Haemek, Israel, TowerJazz's close proximity to Europe allows the company to facilitate strong customer support and onsite technical assistance where needed. Also, with manufacturing facilities on three continents; two fabs in Israel, one in the US and one in Japan, TowerJazz offers multi-sourcing for companies worldwide. As the market leader in specialty foundry process technologies, TowerJazz provides a broad range of process and IP offerings including: power management, CMOS image sensors, RF and high performance analog technologies as well as process transfer optimization services.

"I am excited to deliver the opening speech for the GSA Israel Executive Forum to share the message that Israel's technological capabilities and innovation are increasingly strong and will continue to fuel growth and competition for next-generation products not only in this region, but worldwide," said Russell Ellwanger, TowerJazz Chief Executive Officer. "I also look forward to sharing our company philosophy and roadmap for offering multi-sourcing manufacturing to leading companies such as those attending this conference."
