Yes No

On May 31, 2016, the Registrant issued a press release with respect to the completion of the institutional tender of its long-term Series G Non-Convertible Unsecured Bonds which are being issued to fund the early repayment of all its outstanding Israeli bank loans, which press release was included as Exhibit 99.1 to its Form 6-K filed on May 31 2016. In connection with the offering of the bonds, the Registrant filed with the Israel Securities Authority and the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange a shelf offering report which describes the terms of the bonds and the offering and includes certain updated information regarding the Registrant. The principal terms of the bonds and certain additional information regarding the Registrant as included in the shelf offering report (excluding the Hebrew language portions) were attached as Exhibit 99.2 to the Registrant's Form 6-K filed on May 31, 2016.

As described in the Registrant's Form 6-K filed May 31, 2016, Tower was to complete the offering process of the Series G Non-Convertible Unsecured Bonds with a public tender, which was conducted on June 1, 2016. In the public tender, the Registrant received binding commitments for an additional approximately $15 million of its Series G Bonds, resulting in total aggregate binding commitments for the entire offering of $115 million (including the $100 million received on the institutional tender, as previously reported). The bonds carry same terms as has been reported in the Form 6-K dated May 31, 2016. With the completion of the public tender, the Registrant has completed the Series G offering process.

The offering described in this Report on Form 6-K is being made only to residents of Israel located in Israel and in accordance with Israel Securities Authority and Tel Aviv Stock Exchange rules. The securities offered have not been
