Item 8.01. Other Events

Sunset Management LLC Litigation

. On October 5, 2004, Sunset Management LLC (A Sunset@) filed a complaint as a purported stockholders= derivative action on behalf of Transcontinental Realty Investors, Inc. (A TCI@ or the A Company@) in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, against American Realty Investors, Inc., and others, including the Company= s current directors and officers and other individuals. Sunset= s complaint filed as Case No. 304CV02162-B raised a number of allegations previously raised by Sunset in four other cases which, as rulings have occurred, have resulted in a denial of Sunset= s requested relief. The collective Defendants, on November 8, 2004, filed a Motion to Dismiss the case pursuant to Rules 12 and 23.1 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on the basis that Sunset= s allegations were insufficient to evade the stringent demand requirements under the futility exceptions for stockholder derivative actions, and that Sunset could not fairly and adequately represent the interest of other stockholders.

On May 16, 2005, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, entered its Memorandum Opinion and Order and Judgment dismissing the purported stockholders= derivative action. The Court= s Judgment granted the Defendants= Motion to Dismiss and ordered that Plaintiff Sunset take nothing by its suit against American Realty Investors, Inc. and other entities and the officers and directors of TCI. The Court= s Order was entered granting the Motion to Dismiss filed by American Realty Investors, Inc. and others and advised that Sunset had not met the fair and adequate representation test as a proper shareholder representative because Sunset is pursuing separate litigation claims against TCI and the various other defendants in different lawsuits, certain of which are still pending. The Court= s Order advises that A Sunset is clearly trying to use this lawsuit to obtain leverage in its other pending lawsuits against the Defendants.@
