Information to be included in the report

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On June 25, 2007, Karen Jordan resigned as Controller/Chief Accounting Officer of American Technology Corporation (the "Company"). Ms. Jordan's resignation is effective June 29, 2007. Ms. Jordan had no disagreements with the Company, its Board of Directors or its management in any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

On June 28, 2007, the Company announced the appointment of Katherine H. McDermott as the Company's new Controller/Chief Accounting Officer effective June 25, 2007. Prior to her appointment, Ms. McDermott was the chief financial officer for National Pen from 2005 to 2006 and the vice president of finance for Lantronix from 2000 to 2005. Ms. McDermott served in a variety of senior financial positions with Bausch & Lomb from 1988 to 1999 and began her career holding a series of financial positions with a $1.2 billion component division of General Motors from 1982 to 1988. Ms. McDermott holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from St. Bonaventure University and an MBA from the William E. Simon School of Business Administration at the University of Rochester.

Ms. McDermott's annual salary will be $140,000. She is also entitled to participate in the Company's incentive bonus plan and to receive all rights and benefits for which she is eligible under the Company's standard benefits and compensation plans. Ms. McDermott is also eligible, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, to receive an option to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. Her employment with the Company is at-will.

There are no family relationships between Ms. McDermott and any director or executive officer of the Company which would require disclosure under Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K. Other than with respect to her employment with the Company, there are no transactions between Ms. McDermott or any of her immediate family members and the Company or any of its subsidiaries which would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

On June 28, 2007, the Company issued a press release announcing, among other things, the appointment of Ms. McDermott as Controller/Chief Accounting Officer, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by this reference.
