If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As a result of Voyager Learning Company's ongoing review related to its earnings restatement, Voyager Learning Company (the "Company") will not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007 within the prescribed time period. The Company believes that this delay cannot be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. As previously announced, the Company intends to restate certain of its previously issued financial statements due to its discovery of material irregularities in its accounting in numerous accounts. The Company anticipates that as a result it will be required to recognize additional expenses as well as reduce a portion of revenues previously reported for its Information and Learning business, the effect of which will materially reduce earnings from continuing operations for many of the affected periods. Until the review is complete, the Company's previously issued financial statements for fiscal years 2001 through 2004, quarterly periods in 2005, and the Company's guidance for fiscal 2005, should no longer be relied upon. In addition, the Company's review is ongoing and there can be no assurance additional material irregularities or errors will not be identified. As a result of the restatement, the Company has not been able to complete its financial statements for fiscal year 2006 and the first and second fiscal quarters of 2007. The Company is continuing to work with KPMG LLP, its independent registered public accounting firm, to complete the review and restatement as soon as possible.
