RECOMMENDED CASH OFFER

by

SKY DIGITAL SUPPLIES LIMITED

a wholly-owned subsidiary of

BRITISH SKY BROADCASTING GROUP PLC

for

AMSTRAD PLC

Summary

- The Boards of Sky and Amstrad are pleased to announce that they have agreed the terms of a recommended cash offer to be made by Sky Digital Supplies, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sky, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Amstrad.

- The Offer is 150 pence in cash for each Amstrad Share, valuing the entire issued share capital of Amstrad at approximately GBP125.0 million.

- The Offer represents a premium of approximately 23.7 per cent. to the Closing Price of 121.25 pence for each Amstrad Share on 30 July 2007, the last business day prior to the date of this announcement.

- A Loan Note Alternative is being made available to Amstrad Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Persons) who validly accept the Offer on the basis of GBP1 in nominal value of Loan Notes for each GBP1 of cash consideration.

The Amstrad Directors, who have been so advised by Rothschild, consider the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable and unanimously recommend that Amstrad Shareholders accept the Offer, as the Amstrad Directors have irrevocably undertaken to do (or procure to be done) in respect of their own beneficial interests and holdings (including, in respect of Sir Alan Sugar, those Amstrad Shares held by Amshold Limited, a company controlled by Sir Alan) representing approximately 27.9 per cent. of the issued share capital of Amstrad. In providing advice to the Amstrad Directors, Rothschild has taken into account the commercial assessments of the Amstrad Directors.

Sky has received irrevocable undertakings to accept (or procure the acceptance of) the Offer from the Amstrad Directors, as well as irrevocable undertakings and a letter of intent from certain other Amstrad Shareholders, in respect of, in aggregate, 37,306,097 Amstrad Shares, representing approximately 44.8 per cent. of the issued share capital of Amstrad.

In its capacity as a major supplier to the Sky Group, Amstrad currently designs and develops set-top boxes to the Sky Group's specification and then contracts out the manufacturing to specialists in electronics manufacturing services (EMS). In the financial year ended 30 June 2007, Amstrad supplied approximately 30 per cent. of the set-top boxes purchased by the Sky Group and Sky believes that the Sky Group accounted for approximately 75 per cent. of Amstrad's revenues.

The acquisition of Amstrad will provide Sky with an in-house design and development capability, which Sky believes will deliver significant operational and financial benefits and enable the Sky Group to source some of its products directly from specialist electronics manufacturers. The acquisition of Amstrad will provide the Sky Group with:

- an in-house product design and development capability, creating significant potential cost savings and facilitating enhanced future technological innovation;
- an ability to accelerate the development of new and more innovative products for customers;
- greater control over product design and technical specification and enhanced flexibility to deliver continual improvement in product quality;
- a significant reduction in procurement costs within its supply chain as margin currently generated by Amstrad on the supply of equipment to the Sky Group will be retained within the Sky business; and
- an expected enhancement to the Sky Group's earnings within the current financial year.¹

¹ This statement does not constitute a profit forecast and should not be interpreted to mean that earnings per share for the financial year ending 30 June 2008 or any subsequent financial period will necessarily be greater than those for any preceding financial period.

The Offer Document and the Form of Acceptance will be posted to Amstrad Shareholders (and, for information only, to Amstrad Optionholders) today. Copies of the Offer Document and the Form of Acceptance will be available from Capita Registrars at Corporate Actions, The Registry, 34 Beckenham Road, Beckenham, Kent BR3 4TU and from Merrill Lynch at Merrill Lynch Financial Centre, 2 King Edward Street, London EC1A 1HQ.

Commenting on the Offer, Sky's Chief Executive Officer, James Murdoch, said:

"Sky and Amstrad have had a long and positive relationship. The acquisition accelerates supply chain improvement and will help us to drive innovation and efficiency for the benefit of our customers."

Commenting on the Offer, Amstrad's Chairman and Chief Executive, Sir Alan Sugar, said:

"Amstrad has worked closely with Sky for many years and I cannot imagine a better home for the Amstrad business and its talented people. Our companies share the entrepreneurial spirit of bringing innovation to the largest number of customers. Sky is a great British success story. I'm proud to have worked so closely with it, and I look forward to continuing to play a part in this exciting business."

by

a wholly-owned subsidiary of

for

AMSTRAD PLC

1. Introduction

The Boards of Sky and Amstrad are pleased to announce that they have agreed the terms of a recommended cash offer to be made by Sky Digital Supplies, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sky, for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Amstrad.

2. The Offer

The Offer, which is on the terms and conditions set out in Appendix 1 to this announcement and is subject to the further terms set out in the Offer Document and the Form of Acceptance, is being made on the following basis:

for each Amstrad Share 150 pence in cash

The Offer values the entire issued share capital of Amstrad at approximately GBP125.0 million and represents a premium of approximately 23.7 per cent. to the Closing Price of 121.25 pence for each Amstrad Share on 30 July 2007, the last business day prior to the date of this announcement.

The Offer includes a Loan Note Alternative which is being made available to Amstrad Shareholders (other than Restricted Overseas Persons) who validly accept the Offer on the basis of GBP1 in nominal value of Loan Notes for each GBP1 of cash consideration.

The Amstrad Shares to be acquired pursuant to the Offer will be acquired fully paid and free from all liens, equities, charges, encumbrances, rights of pre-emption and any other third party rights or interests whatsoever and together with all rights now or hereafter attaching thereto, including voting rights and, without limitation, the right to receive and retain in full all dividends and other distributions (if any) declared, made or paid on or after the date of this announcement.

3. The Loan Note Alternative

As an alternative to all or part of the cash consideration to which they would otherwise be entitled under the Offer, Amstrad Shareholders (other than

Edgar Filing: BRITISH SKY BROADCASTING GROUP PLC - Form 6-K

Restricted Overseas Persons) who validly accept the Offer will be entitled to elect to receive Loan Notes to be issued by Sky Digital Supplies on the following basis:

for each GBP1 of cash consideration GBP1 in nominal value of Loan Notes

The Loan Notes will be issued by Sky Digital Supplies, credited as fully paid, in amounts and multiples of GBP1 in nominal value. The Loan Notes will constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of Sky Digital Supplies and will be guaranteed as to the payment of principal (but not any interest payable on the principal) by The Royal Bank of Scotland plc until 30 September 2012 and, subsequently, by Sky. Entitlements to Loan Notes will be rounded down to the nearest pound and the balance of the consideration will be disregarded and not paid. The Loan Notes will not be transferable (other than by a noteholder to a spouse/civil partner, parent, child, certain family members or a family trust of any of them or by way of security to a bank or financial institution) and no application will be made for them to be listed on, or dealt on, any stock exchange or other trading facility.

Unless Sky Digital Supplies otherwise determines, no Loan Notes will be issued unless, by the time the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional in all respects, valid elections for the Loan Note Alternative have been received which will result in the issue of at least GBP5 million in nominal value of Loan Notes. If insufficient elections are received, Amstrad Shareholders who have validly accepted the Offer and who elect for the Loan Note Alternative will, instead, receive cash in accordance with the terms of the Offer.

Subject to this, the Loan Note Alternative will remain open for acceptance for so long as the Offer remains open for acceptance. The Loan Note Alternative is conditional on the Offer becoming or being declared unconditional in all respects.

The Loan Notes will bear interest from the date of issue, payable in arrears (less any applicable tax), in half-yearly instalments on 31 March and 30 September in each year. For the period from the date of issue of the Loan Notes until 29 September 2012, interest will be payable at a rate equal to one per cent. per annum below LIBOR and, subsequently, at a rate of 0.5 per cent. per annum below LIBOR, in each case to be determined on the first business day of each interest period. The first interest period will be in respect of the period commencing on the issue of a Loan Note up to (but excluding) 31 March 2008.

Holders of the Loan Notes will have the option to redeem all or any part (being GBP500 in nominal value or any integral multiple thereof or, to the extent that it is less than GBP500, any outstanding balance) of their Loan Notes on six months' notice, commencing on 31 March 2008 (provided that date is at least six months after issue of the Loan Notes) and thereafter at half-yearly intervals on 31 March and 30 September each year. If at any time the aggregate principal value of all outstanding Loan Notes that have not been repaid, purchased or cancelled is less than GBP5 million, the Loan Notes may be redeemed by Sky Digital Supplies on not less than 30 days' written notice provided that the Loan Notes which are to be so redeemed have been in issue for more than six months.

If not previously redeemed, all outstanding Loan Notes will be redeemed on 30 September 2017.

The Loan Notes will not be listed on any stock exchange and have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or under any relevant securities laws of any state of the United States and the relevant clearances have not been, and will not be, obtained from the regulatory authority of any province or territory of Canada. In addition, no prospectus in relation to the Loan Notes has been, or will be, lodged with or registered by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and no steps have been, nor will be, taken to enable the Loan Notes to be offered in compliance with the applicable securities laws of Japan, New Zealand or any other country or jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom. The Loan Notes will not be offered, sold, resold, delivered or distributed, directly or indirectly, in or into the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand or Japan or any other jurisdiction if to do so would constitute a violation of the relevant laws in such jurisdiction.

An application for clearance in respect of the Loan Notes will be made to HM Revenue & Customs by Amstrad under section 138 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992. Neither the Offer nor the Loan Note Alternative are conditional on such clearance being obtained.

Merrill Lynch has advised that, based on market conditions on 27 July 2007 (being the latest practicable date prior to this announcement), in its opinion the value of the Loan Notes (if the Loan Notes had then been in issue) would have been not less than 99 pence for each GBP1 of nominal value.

Further details of the terms of the Loan Notes are contained in the Offer Document.

4. Recommendation

The Amstrad Directors, who have been so advised by Rothschild, consider the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable and unanimously recommend that Amstrad Shareholders accept the Offer, as the Amstrad Directors have irrevocably undertaken to do (or procure to be done) in respect of their own beneficial interests and holdings (including, in respect of Sir Alan Sugar, those Amstrad Shares held by Amshold Limited, a company controlled by Sir Alan). In providing advice to the Amstrad Directors, Rothschild has taken into account the commercial assessments of the Amstrad Directors.

5. Irrevocable undertakings and letter of intent

Sky has received irrevocable undertakings to accept (or procure the acceptance of) the Offer from the Amstrad Directors in respect of their beneficial shareholdings (including, in respect of Sir Alan Sugar, those Amstrad Shares held by Amshold Limited, a company controlled by Sir Alan) amounting to, in aggregate, 23,228,887 Amstrad Shares, representing approximately 27.9 per cent. of the issued share capital of Amstrad.

Sky has also received an irrevocable undertaking and a letter of intent to accept (or procure the acceptance of) the Offer from certain other Amstrad Shareholders in respect of, in aggregate, 14,077,210 Amstrad Shares, representing approximately 16.9 per cent. of the issued share capital of Amstrad.

Accordingly, Sky has received irrevocable undertakings and a letter of intent to accept (or procure the acceptance of) the Offer in respect of, in aggregate, 37,306,097 Amstrad Shares, representing approximately 44.8 per cent. of the issued share capital of Amstrad.

Further details of the irrevocable undertakings and the letter of intent are set out in Appendix 2 to this announcement.

6. Background to and reasons for recommending the Offer

Amstrad's main activity is the design development, marketing and distribution of satellite, telecommunications and other consumer electronic products. Over the course of its history, Amstrad has sold a wide range of products including telephones, audio equipment, satellite receivers and televisions. Amstrad has continuously adapted its product range and expertise and sought out new products and services to maximise margins as these markets have come under pricing pressure from low-cost producers in the Far East. Amstrad's current activities comprise:

Satellite set-top receivers

In 1997, through Sir Alan Sugar's longstanding personal relationship with Sky, Amstrad entered the contract manufacturing business with its first Sky satellite receiver contract. This was the result of Amstrad's decision to move away from retail sales of mass market consumer electronic products, with their declining margins, and concentrate instead on products for non-retail trade customers. These customers require bespoke electronic products for their businesses, allowing Amstrad to concentrate on efficient design development and low-cost manufacturing for a small number of high volume contracts.

The development of bespoke digital set-top boxes is time-consuming and requires highly skilled personnel and therefore the potential order volume and margin has to be carefully considered before embarking on any new contract. While there are many potential markets and customers, Amstrad has been rigorous in applying these criteria in order to avoid taking on contracts which are, ultimately, unlikely to prove profitable.

As a result, Amstrad currently designs, develops and sells standard definition and/or high definition set-top boxes and PVR set-top boxes to only two major satellite broadcaster customers, Sky and Sky Italia. Despite enjoying good working relationships with both of these customers, the Amstrad Directors recognise the vulnerability of the reliance on just two customers.

E-mailer phone

Between 2000 and 2006, Amstrad developed and sold a number of different versions of the e-mailer phone, a fixed line telephone that provides customers with e-mail and internet access. Amstrad's business model for the product was to sell the phone below cost with a continuing revenue stream derived from usage of the phone by the installed base. In the year ended 30 June 2006, as a result of the threat from the increasing affordability of home computers, Amstrad made the strategic decision to cease development and production of the phones and all of the Amstrad Group's remaining e-mailer inventory was sold. The e-mailer business since then has comprised solely ongoing usage revenue from the installed user base which continues to generate significant, but gradually declining, profitable revenue from e-mail, internet access, SMS, downloading of ringtones and advertising.

Hong Kong business

The primary function of Amstrad's Hong Kong business is to act as a local support for the manufacture and administration of the delivery of other products for the Amstrad Group. It also designs, manufactures and sells audio products to the US and European markets, which generates a marginal profit.

Discussions with Sky

As a result of their close working relationship with Sky, the Amstrad Directors came to believe that it would be a logical business step for Sky to take full in-house control of its future hardware and software development and manufacturing. Whilst it would take Sky considerable time and expense to acquire the necessary skills in engineering, product development and manufacturing, if Sky decided to pursue such a strategy, it was clear that the long-term future of Amstrad could be under threat from the potential loss of its largest customer, which would be difficult to replace.

Edgar Filing: BRITISH SKY BROADCASTING GROUP PLC - Form 6-K

Consequently, the Amstrad Directors concluded that now is the right time for Amstrad to become a part of a larger organisation and therefore decided to engage in discussions with Sky regarding the significant operational and financial opportunity an offer for Amstrad would represent for Sky.

The Offer

Amstrad Shareholders have, to date, enjoyed increasing annual dividend payments over a number of years, as well as the special dividend of 32 pence for each Amstrad Share that was paid by Amstrad on 8 December 2006. This Offer gives Amstrad Shareholders the opportunity to achieve, in addition, a significant premium to the current share price of Amstrad. The Amstrad Directors believe this represents excellent value in view of the uncertainty of Amstrad's future as an independent company, as well as securing the futures of Amstrad's very loyal and highly skilled staff.

Accordingly, the Amstrad Directors have concluded that the terms of the Offer are fair and reasonable and unanimously recommend that Amstrad Shareholders accept the Offer, as the Amstrad Directors have irrevocably undertaken to do (or procure to be done) in respect of their own beneficial interests and holdings (including, in respect of Sir Alan Sugar, those Amstrad Shares held by Amshold Limited, a company controlled by Sir Alan).

7. Background to and reasons for the Offer

The Sky Group currently purchases all of the set-top boxes it supplies to its DTH customers from third party suppliers such as Amstrad. The suppliers from whom the Sky Group currently purchases set-top boxes undertake the design of the product to Sky's specification but the suppliers contract out the majority of the actual manufacture to companies specialising in electronics manufacturing services (EMS). The majority of products sourced by the Sky Group have now reached a level of maturity where Sky believes that sourcing directly from EMS will be able to deliver it significant financial and operational benefits. In order to be able to do this, Sky requires certain new skills to be brought in-house, and the acquisition of Amstrad will be a significant step in acquiring these capabilities.

Amstrad has been a major supplier to the Sky Group for a number of years and is currently supplying both standard Digiboxes and Sky+. In the financial year ended 30 June 2007, Amstrad supplied approximately 30 per cent. of the set-top boxes purchased by the Sky Group and Sky believes that the Sky Group accounted for approximately 75 per cent. of Amstrad's revenues. Sky believes that the skills and experience that Amstrad possesses provide the most efficient mechanism to implement an EMS strategy.

Sky expects that an EMS strategy will significantly reduce procurement costs within its supply chain, whilst offering the Sky Group the chance to capture the margin currently generated by Amstrad in the supply of set-top boxes to the Sky Group and from its other business activities. Furthermore, Sky believes that an EMS strategy will give it improved control over product design and specification and enhanced flexibility to deliver continual improvements in product quality.

Sky also believes that Amstrad's software and hardware design and development expertise will enhance the Sky Group's ability to rapidly develop new products incorporating an even wider range of innovative technologies, thus accelerating the delivery to its customers of the next generation of entertainment and communications services. It will also give Sky greater control over the development of products already in the pipeline.

Sky expects the acquisition will be earnings enhancing within the current financial year.(1)

8. Information on Sky

The Sky Group currently owns, operates, distributes and retails 25 Sky television channels including Sky One, Sky Sports, Sky News and Sky Movies (or 28 channels including multiplex versions of the Sky television channels, but excluding simulcast channels and the business channels, Sky Venue and the Pub Channel). In addition, the Sky Group currently retails 133 third party television channels to its DTH subscribers and holds equity interests in a number of joint venture channels.

At 30 June 2007, there were approximately 8,582,000 DTH subscribers to the Sky Group television service, 716,000 Sky Broadband customers and 526,000 Sky Talk customers.

In its audited accounts for the year ended 30 June 2007, the Sky Group reported revenue of GBP4,551 million (2006: GBP4,148 million) and profit before taxation of GBP724 million (2006: GBP798 million). As at 30 June 2007, the Sky Group had net assets of GBP47 million.

9. Information on Amstrad

Amstrad currently designs, develops and sells standard definition and/or high-definition set-top boxes and PVR set-top boxes to two major satellite broadcaster customers. In addition, Amstrad derives a revenue stream from the ongoing usage of its installed e-mailer phone customer base and owns a Hong Kong business which designs, manufactures and sells audio products to the US and Europe.

10. Management and employees

Sky attaches great importance to the skills and experience of the existing management and employees of Amstrad and believes that opportunities for them will be enhanced in the event that the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional in all respects.

Sky has given assurances to Amstrad that the existing employment rights of the management and employees of Amstrad will be fully safeguarded upon the Offer becoming or being declared unconditional in all respects.

The Amstrad Directors, other than Sir Alan Sugar, will resign as directors of Amstrad upon the Offer becoming or being declared unconditional in all respects, although it is intended that all the executive directors (being Sir Alan Sugar, Simon Sugar, Martin Bland, Ian Seward and John Beattie) will continue in their current management positions. Martin Bland will also step down as company secretary of Amstrad. James Murdoch and Jeremy Darroch will be appointed as directors of Amstrad upon the Offer becoming or being declared unconditional in all respects.

Sky does not currently anticipate that the Offer, if successful, will have any significant adverse impact on its own employees.

11. Amstrad Share Option Scheme

The Offer is being extended to any Amstrad Shares which are issued or unconditionally allotted and fully paid (or credited as fully paid) while the Offer remains open for acceptance (or, subject to the Code, by such earlier date as Sky or Sky Digital Supplies may decide), including Amstrad Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of options granted under the Amstrad Share Option Scheme or otherwise.

If the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional in all respects, to the extent options remain unexercised or have not lapsed, Sky Digital Supplies will make appropriate proposals to the participants in the Amstrad Share Option Scheme at that time.

12. Financing of the Offer

The Offer will be financed from the Sky Group's existing cash resources.

Merrill Lynch is satisfied that Sky Digital Supplies has the necessary financial resources available to satisfy full acceptance of the Offer. Full acceptance of the Offer, based on 83,315,826 Amstrad Shares in issue at the date of this announcement and a further 278,833 Amstrad Shares being issued, assuming the exercise of all outstanding options under the Amstrad Share Option Scheme which have an exercise price at or below the Offer price of 150 pence for each Amstrad Share, would involve a maximum cash payment of approximately GBP125.4 million.

13. Compulsory acquisition, de-listing and cancellation of trading

Upon the Offer becoming or being declared unconditional in all respects and sufficient acceptances having been received, Sky Digital Supplies intends to apply the provisions of sections 979 to 991 (inclusive) of the Companies Act 2006 to acquire compulsorily the remaining Amstrad Shares on the same terms as the Offer. If the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional in all respects, Sky Digital Supplies intends to procure that Amstrad applies to the UK Listing Authority for the cancellation of listing of Amstrad Shares on the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange for the cancellation of admission to trading of Amstrad Shares on its market for listed securities. Such cancellation of listing and admission to trading will take effect no earlier than 20 business days after (a) Sky Digital Supplies has by virtue of its shareholding (if any) and acceptances under the Offer, acquired or agreed to acquire 75 per cent. of the issued share capital of Amstrad or (b) the first date of issue of compulsory acquisition notices under section 979 of the Companies Act 2006.

The cancellation of listing and admission to trading of Amstrad Shares would significantly reduce the liquidity and marketability of any Amstrad Shares not assented to the Offer.

14. Offer Document and Form of Acceptance

The Offer Document and Form of Acceptance will be posted today to Amstrad Shareholders (and, for information purposes, to Amstrad Optionholders). Copies of the Offer Document and the Form of Acceptance will be available from Capita Registrars at Corporate Actions, The Registry, 34 Beckenham Road, Beckenham, Kent BR3 4TU and from Merrill Lynch at Merrill Lynch Financial Centre, 2 King Edward Street, London EC1A 1HQ.

If you are in any doubt as to the action you should take, you are recommended to seek your own personal financial advice immediately from your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other independent financial adviser duly authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 if you are resident in the United Kingdom or, if not, from another appropriately authorised independent financial adviser.

Rule 8 disclosures

Under the provisions of Rule 8.3 of the Code, if any person is or becomes "interested" (directly or indirectly) in one per cent. or more of any class of "relevant securities" of Amstrad, all "dealings" in any "relevant securities" of Amstrad by such person (including by means of an option in respect of, or a derivative referenced to, any such "relevant securities") must be publicly disclosed by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant transaction. This requirement will continue until the date on which the Offer becomes, or is declared, unconditional as to acceptances, lapses or is otherwise withdrawn or on which the "offer period" otherwise ends. If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire an "interest" in "relevant securities" of Amstrad, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Under the provisions of Rule 8.1 of the Code, all dealings in "relevant securities" of Amstrad, by Sky Digital Supplies or Amstrad or by any of their respective "associates" (within the meaning of the Code), must be disclosed by no later than 12.00 noon (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant transaction.

A disclosure table, giving details of the companies in whose "relevant securities" "dealings" should be disclosed, and the number of such securities in issue, can be found on the Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk.

"Interests in securities" arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether conditional or absolute, to changes in the price of securities. In particular, a person will be treated as having an "interest" by virtue of the ownership or control of securities, or by virtue of any option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

(ii) no litigation, arbitration proceedings, prosecution or other legal proceedings having been threatened, announced, instituted or remaining outstanding by, against or in respect of any member of the Wider Amstrad Group or to which any member of the Wider Amstrad Group is a party (whether as plaintiff or defendant or otherwise) and no investigation by any Relevant Authority or other investigative body against or in respect of any member of the Wider Amstrad Group having been threatened, announced, instituted or remaining outstanding by, against or in respect of any member of the Wider Amstrad Group to an extent that is material in the context of the Wider Amstrad Group taken as a whole; and

(iii) any past or present member of the Wider Amstrad Group has failed to comply with any applicable legislation or regulations of any jurisdiction or any notice or requirement of any Relevant Authority with regard to the storage, disposal, discharge, spillage, release, leak or emission of any waste or hazardous or harmful substance or any substance likely to impair the environment or harm human or animal health or otherwise relating to environmental matters or that there has otherwise been any such storage, disposal, discharge, spillage, release, leak or emission (whether or not the same constituted non-compliance by any person with any such legislation or regulation, and whenever the same may have taken place), any of which non compliance would be likely to give rise to any liability (whether actual or contingent) or cost on the part of any member of the Wider Amstrad Group and which is material in the context of the Wider Amstrad Group taken as a whole; or

(iv) there is or is likely to be any obligation or liability (whether actual or contingent) to make good, repair, re-instate or clean up any property now or previously owned, occupied, operated or made use of or controlled by any past or present member of the Wider Amstrad Group under any environmental legislation, regulation, notice, circular or order of any Relevant Authority in any jurisdiction and which is material in the context of the Wider Amstrad Group taken as a whole.

The Offeror reserves the right at its absolute discretion to waive, in whole or in part, all or any of the above conditions, except condition (a).

The Offer will lapse unless all the above conditions are fulfilled or (if capable of waiver) waived or, where appropriate, determined by the Offeror in its reasonable opinion to have been or remain satisfied by midnight on the day which is 21 days after the later of the first closing date of the Offer and the date on which the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances (or such later date as the Offeror may, with the consent of the Panel or in accordance with the Code, decide). The Offeror shall be under no obligation to waive or treat as satisfied any of conditions (b) to (h) inclusive by a date earlier than the date specified above for the satisfaction thereof, notwithstanding that the other conditions of the Offer may at such earlier date have been waived or fulfilled and that there are at such earlier date no circumstances indicating that any of such conditions may not be capable of fulfilment.

If Sky or the Offeror is required by the Panel to make an offer for any Amstrad Shares under Rule 9 of the Code, Sky or the Offeror (as the case may be) may make such alterations to the above conditions as are necessary to comply with that Rule.

The Offer will lapse (unless the Panel otherwise consents) if, before the first closing date of the Offer or the date when the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances (whichever is the later), the Offer, or any aspect of it, is referred to the Competition Commission.

If the Offer lapses, the Offer will cease to be capable of further acceptance and those Amstrad Shareholders who have, as at the time of such lapse, accepted the Offer shall then cease to be bound by their acceptances of the Offer submitted at or before the time when the Offer lapses.

The Offer will be governed by English law and be subject to the jurisdiction of the English Courts.
