RYANAIR LAUNCHES
STERLING
RESCUE FARE

Ryanair, Europe's leading low fares airline, today (Wednesday, 29th October 2008), launched a €100 rescue fare for Sterling passengers who may have been left stranded by the bankruptcy of the Nordic airline yesterday. This fare applies to flights returning to Aarhus, Billund, Gothenburg, Oslo (Torp) and Stockholm (Skavsta).

Ryanair also pledged to assist with the repatriation of passengers who may be caught up in any future airline collapse as it advised passengers that the best way to ensure travel plans are protected is to travel only with financially secure airlines.

Ryanair's

rescue fare
can be booked via the Ryanair website at ( www.ryanair.com/member/sterlingrescuefare.html

)
until Wednesday, 5 th

November,

and applies to
stranded Sterling
passengers only

Speaking
today,
Ryanair's
Stephen McNamara
said

*Sterling
today failed it passengers by leaving them
stranded thousands of miles from home
. This underlines the risk
of flying with an airline that is not financially stable and is unable to guarantee its survival in tough economic times.*

*Ryanair will help
these stranded passengers
return
home
as we launched
our
Sterling Rescue
Fare. This fare can be booked
from today
until 5
th November
for travel
on our Scandinavian*

*routes
up to the 7
th
November*

*Ryanair has the biggest route network in Europe making it easier
for stranded
Sterling
passengers
to find a local
airport and
return home.*

Sterling passengers can book their trip back home for only €100 including taxes and charges

This rescue fare can be booked via www.ryanair.com

until Wednesday night, 5th November

" Ryanair

strongly advises all passengers to book airfares only with financially stable airlines. By booking with Ryanair you will secure the guaranteed lowest fares and no fuel surcharges and can be sure that Ryanair will still be flying when your flight date arrives. With over €2billion in cash reserves Ryanair is one of the most financially robust airlines in Europe

"

.

\ This fare must be booked via www.ryanair.com/member/sterlingrescuefare.html*

and passengers must quote their Sterling booking reference and bring the same for verification at the airport check-in point. Passengers who arrive to check-in without their Sterling booking reference can not be accepted for travel.
